

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 1.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

"THE BEATRICE."

A BEAUTY IN BRASS AND WHITE
WITH CURVED FOOT.

We are exhibiting at our Warerooms the finest line of Metallic Bedsteads of both Imported and American Manufacture.

SPECIAL DESIGNS IN BRASS BEDSTEADS.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,
546 WASHINGTON ST., Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

AKRON DRAIN PIPE
STANDARD
AND CONNECTIONS, AT
CAMPBELL'S
Dealer in HARDWARE and CUTLERY
271 Washington Street, Newton, Mass.

STOVES
A FULL LINE AT
Bent's Furniture Rooms,
WATERTOWN.

CREAM.
THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

CAKE.
Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made. Try them.

Also
OYSTERS AND SALADS.
CROQUETTES AND PEAS.
ICES AND CREAMS.
JAMES PAXTON,
Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

J. H. NICKERSON,
Merchant Tailor
and Clothier,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish the styles Fall & Winter of '92-3, Dress or Business Suits, Overcoats or Trousers to measure at low prices. Also a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing for men and boys. Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Traveling Bags.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr. James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

DR. GEO. A. BATES,
DENTIST,
THORPE HOUSE, MAPLE STREET,
Auburndale, Mass.
OFFICE HOURS: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. 30 tf

DR. S. F. CHASE,
DENTIST.
Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF
PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Eliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Shirts Made to Order!
By E. B. BLACKWELL,
4 THORNTON STREET, NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Cuffs, 50c.; Collars 25c; Centre Plaits 25c.
Badly fitting shirts made to fit well.

HOWARD B. COFFIN
DEALER IN
FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

THE ENTERTAINMENT BUREAU
OF THE
New England Conservatory of Music
Is prepared to supply at very short notice Singers, Readers, Violinists, Pianists, Organists, etc., for churches, concerts and entertainments. The prices are moderate and the talent excellent.
Address Conservatory Bureau,
52 1st St.
Franklin Square, Boston.

Chandler & Co.
CLOAK DEP'T.

Our usual exclusive
line of FALL and WINTER CLOAKS in Staple and High-Class Novelties, containing the latest productions of PARIS, LONDON and NEW YORK designers is now ready for inspection.

Chandler & Co.
Winter St.,
BOSTON.

REPORT of the Condition of the First National Bank of West Newton, at the close of business, Sept 30th, 1892.

RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts	$258,226 78
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	1,790 77
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation	25,000 00
Stocks, securities, claims, etc.	4,251 33
Due from approved reserve agents	31,313 85
Banking-house, furniture, and fixtures	850 00
Premiums on U. S. Bonds	3,750 00
Checks and other cash items	1,212 63
Bills of other banks	1,775 00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents	20 78
Specie	7,588 26
Legal tender notes	1,147 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (7 per cent. of circulation)	1,125 00
Total	$363,111 90

LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in	$100,000 00
Surplus fund	6,500 00
Undivided profits	1,731 22
National Bank notes outstanding	22,500 00
Dividends unpaid	2,500 00
Individual deposits subject to check	228,120 48
Demand certificates of deposit	900 00
Provided towards taxes	1,460 00
Total	$363,111 90

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX, ss:
I, Edward P. Hatch, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
EDWARD P. HATCH, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of October, 1892.
ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Notary Public.
CORROBORATE—Attest:
JAMES H. NICKERSON, B. F. HOUGHTON, FRED E. CROCKETT, Directors.

NEWTON.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton, will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following have been appointed a committee for organization in Wards One and Seven: Bruce R. Ware, John Hahn, John E. Bristol, H. W. Wellington, F. W. Webster, W. F. Hammett, A. C. Mudge, G. W. Crosby, G. B. Jones.

—A boys orchestra is being formed. See adv.

—Mr. Fred Converse returned from Europe this week.

—The population of the city is estimated by the latest figures at 29,000.

—Miss Blanche Stanley, Franklin street, is studying at the Art Museum.

—The Newton National Bank declared a dividend of 21.2 per cent this month.

—A nice, sunny room to rent, without board, at Mrs. Monroe's, 455 Centre street.

—Mrs. Reuben Ford of Waverly avenue, is visiting Mrs. Edward Kent in Syracuse, N. Y.

—Mr. Arthur Benyon of Galen street has resigned his position in the Newtonville postoffice.

—Mr. F. A. Brooks and family have closed their summer home on Centre street and returned to Boston.

—Burnham has changed the location of his restaurant, having taken possession of a store in French's block.

—Hon. Gorham D. Gilman will preside at the Republican rally to be held in Eliot Hall next Tuesday evening.

—The ladies of the Methodist Church gave a supper and entertainment in the church parlors last evening.

—The annual meeting of the Waban Racquet Club will be held at the residence of J. C. Brimblecom next Tuesday evening.

—Miss Alice Emery has been appointed an assistant in the library to fill a vacancy by the retirement of Mrs. Louise Smallwood-Keith.

—William Winston, formerly Newton correspondent of the City Press, has accepted a position as advertising agent of the Waterbury Gazette.

—A meeting for the re-organization of the Banquet Whist Club will be held at the residence of J. C. Brimblecom, Boyd street, Saturday evening.

—Mrs. W. E. Field has taken possession of her house on Waverly avenue and Mr. Carlisle Petersen and family have gone to the Hotel Oxford in Boston.

—Mr. Geo. F. Gay, of the firm of T. Gay & Sons of Boston, has leased Mr. Baldwin's house on Walnut Park for the winter, and takes possession tomorrow.

—A very large congregation in Grace church listened with deep interest last Sunday to Bishop Thompson's sermon on "The Sin against the Holy Ghost."

—The Newton & Waltham Street Railway Company will commence work at once on the construction of the connecting line of tracks between Waltham and Watertown.

—Dr. E. W. Hill of Roxbury and his family have taken the Haley estate on Kenrick street. The Misses Franks, who occupied it for the summer, have removed to West Newton.

—Mr. Arthur Burnett was engaged as soloist at the Sandwich, N. H. musical festival last week. Martha Dana Shepard, pianist, and Fay Davis, reader, were among the other artists.

—Miss Carrie Davis has been transferred from the local telephone exchange to the Waban office, and her place has been filled by Miss Harris of Lowell, an experienced operator.

—Miss Cora E. Davis of Newtonville, a graduate from Miss Symonds's Normal kindergarten, will open a kindergarten class in house, corner of Washington and Park streets, Newton, Monday, Oct. 16.

—The improvements at the electric light station of the Newton & Watertown Gas and Electric Light company are nearly completed. The capacity of the plant has been doubled in order to provide for additional service required.

—Mr. Henry E. Cobb will entertain Gen. Draper and Hon. Roger Wolcott, at his residence, prior to the rally Tuesday evening. After the rally the distinguished gentlemen will be tendered an informal reception at the Newton clubhouse.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Briggs of Auburn, Maine, have been the guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stanley at their home on Franklin street. Mrs. Briggs is the daughter of Hon. William P. Frye, United States Senator from Maine.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening: Processional, "The Son of God goes forth to war."

Magnificat.
Nunc Dimittis.
Antiphon, "O God who hast prepared."

Recessional, "To thee O dear, dear country."

—Mr. Isaac Bemis, one of Watertown's old and wealthy citizens dropped dead in front of his house on Main street, in that town, Monday afternoon, from apoplexy. He belonged to one of Watertown's old families and his father, the late Charles Bemis, was a well-known lawyer.

—The Helping Hand Chapter of Grace church elected the following officers at the annual meeting, Oct. 4: Pres., Miss Grace Montgomery; Vice-Pres., Miss B. F. Upton; Sec'y., Miss Blanche Bean; Treas., Miss M. Upton. Meetings will be held every Monday at 8:30 p. m. in the parish house, to work for good.

—The Unity Dramatic Club will give their first performance of the season in the Unitarian church parlors at West Newton, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 10th and 11th. They will present the two act comedy, "Jack's Chum," with "A Picked-up dinner" as a curtain-raiser. Tickets fifty cents, may be obtained of the members of the club.

—On the Waban courts, Saturday, the Somerville and Newton Bow Club players will meet in the final matches in singles and doubles in the Inter-club Tennis League competition. On the Riverside bridge, the Waban and Waltham Racquet Clubs. The annual dinner of the league will be given in Young's Hotel, Oct. 15.

—Mr. W. J. Follett of this city made a stirring address at the 2nd Middlesex Democratic senatorial convention held in Watertown yesterday afternoon. He predicted the success of the Democratic party in this state and in the national contest, and said that the chances were excellent for the election of, at least, one Democratic representative to the legislature from Newton.

—There will be a full choral service at Eliot church next Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The choir, with the assistance of Mr. Leo Schulz, violinist, will render the following music:

Organ Prelude.
Chorus, "As the Hart Pans," Mendelssohn.
Solo, "But the Lord is Mindful," Mendelssohn.
Hymn, "The Lord is God," Mendelssohn.
Tenor Solo, "The Lord is God," Mendelssohn.
Cello Solo, Ave Verum, Mozart.
Festival De Deum, Buck.
Organ Postlude, "March to Calvary," Gounod.

SPRINGER BROS.

CLOAKS and FURS.

We announce the Opening of our New Styles of Fall and Winter Garments, to which the Ladies of Newton and vicinity are cordially invited.

SPRINGER BROTHERS,

Manufacturers, Wholesale and Retail Dealers.

500 Washington St., BOSTON.

(Cor. Bedford St.)

Headquarters for Fashionable Cloaks For Ladies, Misses and Children.

—The Newton High school football team will meet the Waltham High school eleven in the interscholastic series this afternoon on the Magnolia grounds. A good game is expected. The local team will comprise Cobb and Wiggins, ends; Pettit and Gendel, tackles; Cobb and Paul, guards; Kimball, center; Knox and Ryan, quarter-backs; Page and Redpath, half-backs; Brown, full-back.

—The first monthly meeting of the Newton Historical Society for the season, was held last Monday evening at the residence of Dr. J. F. Frisbie, Centre street. The president, Prof. C. J. Maynard, gave a very interesting paper on the advance made in science during the past two centuries, and illustrated it with specimens brought for the purpose, covering a wide field of observation. Dr. J. F. Frisbie exhibited a large variety of minerals and other specimens of interest gathered from New England to California. These specimens, with many others, will be presented to the society. A series of valuable papers will be given before the society the coming winter.

—An alarm was rung in from box 17 early Wednesday morning, for a fire in a wooden dwelling, corner of Pearl and Jewett streets, owned by J. K. Winkie of Boston. The tenant, George S. Robbins, left the house Tuesday evening with his family, and attended a party in Boston. A lighted lamp was left on the front stairs, which it is thought, exploded and set the place on fire. The building was badly gutted and its contents destroyed, including a valuable piano and furniture valued at about $200. There was beside the house, Mr. Robbins says, diamonds worth $1000, the property of his wife. On the household goods there was an insurance of $4000. The dwelling is assessed for about $4000, and the loss on the building is partially covered by insurance.

—The committee from the school board having in charge the arrangements for Dis-covey Day, Oct. 21, have arranged that exercises commemorative of the event shall be held at the morning session of the schools on that day. In accordance with the recommendations in the Youth's Companion, as to the co-operation of the various city and town societies, the schools on that day, as is being generally done all over the land, several of the schools have already signified a desire that a detachment from Chas. Ward Post should be present at the morning session and assist in raising the flag, while in some cases comrades have been invited to give "war talks" to the children. The exercises at the schools will consist of patriotic declamations, essays, readings, singing, etc. In the afternoon the city government, school committees and comrades of Chas. Ward Post have been invited to join a procession which will be formed at Newtonville High school at 2:30 o'clock, and escorted by the High school band, under charge of Mr. A. F. Sylvester as marshal, will march to the drill shed, where an address will be delivered by Rev. F. B. Hornbrooke. The invocation will be by Rev. Dr. S. F. Smith of Newton Centre. A general invitation is not extended for lack of accommodations, but the committee will do the best they can to accommodate all who attend.

—Miss Mary Josephine Osgood of Allston and Mr. Henry W. Kendal of the Boston dry goods house of Chatman, Kendal & Bates were married Wednesday evening at Mr. Kendal's residence, 91 Park street. Only the immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, which occurred at 8 o'clock. Rev. George C. Lorimer of Boston officiating, assisted by Rev. Francis B. Hornbrooke. Miss Ella M. Cox of Allston was maid of honor, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. E. C. Graves of Boston. The ushers were Messrs. William H. Emerson, J. C. Lonsdale, Edwin T. Fearing and R. Frank Cummings. The bride was gowned in pearl, gray, bengaline silk, on train trimmed with duchesse lace. She wore diamond ornaments and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses. The maid of honor was attired in blue silk and white tulle, and wore a corsage bouquet of Catherine Mermet roses. Following the ceremony, a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Kendal received in the parlors, with the bride's sister, Mrs. Hattie Cox of Allston, standing in a recess banked with tall palms. The newly wedded couple received the customary congratulations, and were the recipients of many valuable presents which were displayed in an upper apartment. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal departed on their wedding tour. Returning, they will reside at 91 Park street, where they will be at home Wednesday evenings, Nov. 9 and 16.

—The wedding of Miss Louise Jackson Smallwood, grand-daughter of the late Hon. Wm. Jackson, and Mr. Harry Herbert Keith, son of the late Alderman Wm. W. Keith of Newtonville, took place at the Jackson homestead Tuesday evening at six o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wolcott Calkins, assisted by Rev. Thos. Samson of Buffalo in the presence of about 100 relatives of the contracting parties, followed by a large reception to friends from Newton and vicinity. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Edwin A. Smallwood. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret R. Pope, daughter of Col. Albert A. Pope of Boston. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary B. Samson and Miss Marion E. Samson of Buffalo. Mr. Wm. W. Keith was best man. The ushers were Mr. Edwin F. Smallwood, Mr. Howard Jackson, Mr. Wm. Higgins and Mr. Chas. A. Vinton of Boston. Mr. Herbert M. Bacon and Mr. Frank Sumner of Lexington, Mass. The bride was gowned in satin de regent, trimmed with chiffon, cut in empire style with wattleau plait. The maid of honor was dressed in white crepe and the bridesmaids were gowned in white China silk. The bride belongs to one of Newton's oldest families, her circle of friends and relatives is very extensive and the reception was one of the pleasant society events of the season. The old Jackson homestead never looked so gay and hospitable with its fine grounds of old-fashioned flowers, beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns, gay with pretty girls and thronged with Newton society people. Cheney's orchestra of Brookline furnished the music. Mr. and Mrs. Keith left on their wedding tour at the close of

of the reception and on their return will reside on Crafts street, Newtonville. They will be at home on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd and 9th, 1892.

WABAN.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Five: F. F. Bird, Phillip L. Carbone, Wm. H. Burr, David Bates, Frank W. Barney.

—Miss Maude R. Kendrick spent Sunday with her aunt in Waltham.

—Mrs. L. K. Harlow is visiting her mother in Middleboro, Mass.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Saville returned from their trip last Saturday.

—Miss Murtle Heaton has just returned from a short stay at Hyde Park.

—Mrs. J. H. Robinson is suffering from a severe attack of facial neuralgia.

—The Benevolent Society will meet Wednesday with Mrs. Gould, Beacon street.

—Ground has been broken for Mr. Cloutman's new residence on Waban avenue.

—Rev. Mr. Helm of Boston University conducted the services in the hall last Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

—Rev. Mr. Holmes of Newton Centre will conduct the services in the hall next Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

—Woodward street sidewalk is badly in need of repairs again. When left for some time it gradually caves in and leaves large holes, which greatly endanger the pedestrians.

—The Tennis Club will hold a meeting Friday evening, Oct. 7, at 7:45, at the residence of its president, Mr. Robert Seaver. Business for the year will be settled, and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. All members are desired to be present and vote.

ELIOT.

—The grounds about the Eliot station on the south side are being graded and improved.

—Mr. Charles Noyes and daughter, Miss Marion Noyes, spent a few days in New York this week.

—Mr. Benjamin Dieckerman is having his new house on Dieckerman road painted. Charles Masters has the contract.

—Mr. W. H. Jones, who has been in Denver, Col. for several months on account of his health, returned home this week somewhat improved.

—The blame attached by a writer to the innocent little ponds near Woodward street as responsible for the malaria in Upper Falls nearly a mile away has occasioned some mirth in the "little city."

NONANTUM.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton, will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Wards One and Seven: Bruce R. Ware, John Hahn, John E. Bristol, H. W. Wellington, F. W. Webster, W. F. Hammett, A. C. Mudge, G. W. Crosby, G. B. Jones.

—Rev. Daniel Green of Maine has accepted the unassuming call of the church and society, of North church, to become their pastor, and will at once enter upon the duties of the pastorate. His family have moved this week, and arrangements are already making for his installation, which will take place soon.

—The class of Armenians in the North Sunday school is well attended, and they show great interest in learning the English language.

Waban Nurseries Sold.
Mr. W. C. Strong has sold his entire nursery stock in Waban to the Shady Hill Nursery corporation, which is extensively engaged in the nursery business. The retirement of Mr. Strong from active business will be learned with regret by many friends throughout the city, who have dealt with him for many years, and have come to depend on his always wise advice in regard to the shrubs and trees best suited to this climate, and for the ornamentation of their lawns and the usefulness of their gardens. Mr. Strong has long occupied a very high place in his profession and has made it a very successful business.

Ladies' Kid Gloves.
Roland W. Macurdy in the Parmenter block, 29 Moody street, Waltham, would advise the lady readers of this paper that he has taken the agency for the celebrated Jovian and Cie kid gloves. His famous glove is acknowledged by all connoisseurs to be the finest glove now manufactured, receiving the gold medal at the last exposition in Paris over all competitors.

To all our patrons who delight in being well gloved the above fact will give intense satisfaction. We cordially invite an inspection of our glove stock. Mail orders promptly attended to. 4t

Stoves
A full line of stoves of all kinds can be found at Bent's Furniture Warerooms, Watertown, together with a full line of furniture.

Controlling A Fire
perfectly, saving coal and preventing the intense heat from escaping to chimney from range or furnace is done by Cornwell's Draught Regulator. Will be placed on trial to show results. Order at once.

C. F. ATHERTON & Co.,
54 Lincoln St. Boston.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

ELECTION OFFICERS CONFIRMED; TELEPHONE HEARINGS.

The mayor presided at the meeting of the board of aldermen Monday evening and all the members were present.

Communications were received from E. M. Fowle, Ward Six, remonstrating against the location of telephone poles on Centre street; from twelve or more citizens complaining against the Mague piggery as a nuisance and asking immediate attention. The latter communication was filed as a crematory for the disposal of house offal is under consideration by the board of health.

The quarterly report of the chief of fire department showed a total of fifteen alarms, loss on buildings $3,600, insurance $8000, loss on contents $1,828.75; assessed value, $35,000.

A communication was received from secretary W. M. Olin relative to the incorporation of the Highland Club at Newton Highlands; also from the city engineer showing plans of sewerage assessment on various streets.

A petition for concrete sidewalk with edges on Prospect street was received from Chas. J. Whall and referred.

WANT MORE PAY.

The engineers of the fire department sent in a petition asking for an increase of pay to $3.25 daily. It was only a slight increase over what was paid before they were cut down a few years ago, and they felt justified in asking for it.

PETITIONS.

V. E. Carpenter gave notice of intention to build seven houses 30x35 feet on Hunter, Marden and Putnam streets; Mrs. Currier petitioned for two street lights on Hunnewell Terrace; C. H. Hale to move a building from Winchester to Needham; Westley H. Hinkley for a billiard table in Mrs. Edes house, Upper Falls.

AUBURNDALE PARK.

At 7.30 o'clock a hearing was granted the Auburndale Village Improvement Society, relative to a park and playground bordering on the Charles river.

Ex-Alderman George M. Fiske was present and produced a map outlining the proposed park land and its surroundings. The land runs from Ash street to the Waltham line a distance of about one-half mile, and the whole tract comprises 27 acres. It is owned by four different persons. Eight acres near the Waltham line belong to Bartlett brothers, W. C. Ware owns 12 acres, Nathan Mosman and Senator Don Cameron being the other owners. The prices asked for the land are Bartlett brothers, $2000; W. C. Ware, $3400; Nathan Mosman, $1000; but the price asked by Senator Don Cameron has not yet been ascertained. The speaker had seen the senator in Washington, D. C., and asked him if he would contribute the land for a playground, but he could not do that as it was held in trust. When asked what he would sell for he could give no price as he had no idea what it was worth, but he gave Mr. Fiske to understand that he would not object to its being taken under the park act. Reckoning Don Cameron's land at $1500 and with $500 for growing wood on the land purchased of Bartlett brothers by Col. Walter H. Wadsworth, the total price necessary to secure the land was $8,450, and the society had asked the city to appropriate not to exceed $4000, providing the citizens contribute a like amount. More than one-half of the amount required was already subscribed. He thought the price asked was fair.

Mr. Chandler said the land was all high and dry and the drainage was excellent the land sloping toward the water.

DAMAGES WANTED.

A communication was received from A. W. Tarbox whose land borders on both banks of Cheesecake brook, saying no notice of the straightening and widening of the brook had been received by him, claiming damages to his property by the work now being conducted and asking for a hearing. The communication was referred to the claims committee.

ELECTION OFFICERS CONFIRMED.

The following election officers nominated at the Friday evening meeting were confirmed:

Ward One—Precinct One—Warden, J. E. Butler; clerk, H. B. Poole; deputy clerk, J. A. Grace; inspectors, W. M. Russell, L. T. Fletcher, J. W. Keefe, F. H. Murray; deputy inspectors, John Boyce, Thomas Kybert, Miles J. M. Drury. Precinct Two—Warden, C. Stevens; clerk, W. S. Ring; inspectors, J. W. Hahn, J. F. Griffin, M. L. Blanchard, C. A. Farley; deputy inspectors, John Flood, E. E. Dearborn.

Ward Two—Precinct One—Warden, H. P. Dearborn; deputy warden, Jeremiah Cashman; clerk, S. K. Billings; deputy clerk, C. D. Cabot; inspectors, L. H. Cravitch, Louis Watson, E. M. Hamery, T. B. Billings; deputy inspectors, A. J. McFadden, W. J. Dunn, A. C. Watkins, T. G. Cutler. Precinct Two—Warden, W. S. Higgins; deputy warden, A. H. Sisson; clerk, J. W. Page; deputy clerk, J. H. Page; inspectors, W. W. Palmer, A. A. Savage, G. M. Bridges, J. W. Cotton; deputy inspectors, C. H. Johnson, U. H. Dyer, C. W. Richardson, W. S. Cunningham.

Ward Three—Precinct One—Warden, F. H. Humphrey; clerk, C. E. Hatfield; inspectors, J. W. Gaw, F. C. Sheridan, A. R. Coe; deputy inspectors, E. F. Conroy, George Bailey, B. L. White. Precinct Two—Warden, H. C. Wood; deputy warden, Chandler Sever; clerk, Severance Burrage; deputy clerk, Fisher Ames; inspectors, W. L. Plimpton, F. E. Hunter, F. Newhall; deputy inspectors, C. A. Wymann, C. F. West.

Ward Four—Precinct One—Warden, F. Plummer; deputy warden, A. F. Tucker; clerk, G. S. Snow; deputy clerk, C. S. Ober; inspectors, Henry Washburn, T. B. Cunningham, W. C. Brown, C. B. Ashenden, deputy inspectors, T. C. Donavan, P. A. McVicker, C. H. Bunker, Jacob Pratt. Precinct Two—Warden, W. R. Dimond; clerk, E. H. Kenney; deputy clerk, J. A. Early; inspectors, W. B. Asherton, A. B. Hayden, John Dolan, T. B. Raymond; deputy inspectors, H. T. Wiswall, P. C. Baker, F. C. Lyon, O. S. McCourt.

Ward Five—Precinct One—Warden, A. J. Grover; deputy warden, J. W. Howe; clerk, T. W. Barney; deputy clerk, C. B. Bancroft; inspectors, Erasmus Gutt, O. S. Pette, Frank Fanning, Daniel Kelleher; deputy inspectors, J. F. Brown, Eben Thompson, J. E. Connors, B. S. Ford. Precinct Two—Warden, S. L. Eaton; deputy warden, T. T. Locke; clerk, E. H. Corey; deputy clerk, E. H. Greenwood; inspectors, H. W. Holbrook, C. H. Burr, F. A. O'Connor, G. F. Leonard;

deputy inspectors, E. F. Clifford, E. E. Bird, George May, Alexander Tyler.

Ward Six—Precinct One—Warden, H. G. Ruhe; clerk, H. A. Tomlinson; deputy clerk, A. E. Hyde; inspectors, Walter Thorpe, G. E. Warren, D. H. McWain, W. H. Thorpe; deputy inspectors, H. H. Day, D. J. Linnehan. Precinct Two—Warden, S. M. Jackson; deputy warden, John Dobbie; clerk, Zedec Long; deputy clerk, A. F. Fowle; inspectors, F. M. Strong, F. J. Morse, E. S. May, Arthur Muldoon; deputy inspectors, T. G. Woodman, A. J. Roach, F. P. Dunbar, G. A. Holmes.

Ward Seven—Precinct One—Warden, A. W. B. Huff; deputy warden, E. L. Lemon; clerk, Moses Clark, Jr.; deputy clerk, H. C. Daniels; inspectors, J. W. Howard, R. B. Edes, G. W. Lamson, F. A. Barrows; deputy inspectors, R. A. Brackett, M. L. Clark, Thomas Dalton.

TELEPHONE HEARING.

The New England Telephone & Telephone Co. were granted a continued hearing at 8 o'clock, for the location of poles on Chestnut and Highland streets. S. L. Powers for the petitioners, said this question had come up in various forms before and the telephone company had experienced a great deal of difficulty in reaching subscribers on West Newton hill, but they had now thought out what appeared to be an ingenious plan, and through negotiations with the gas light company, at much pains and expense, they had been successful in securing a location for their wires on the gas company's poles.

Ex-Alderman A. F. Luke said he was not familiar with the petition, and was not personally interested in the matter.

J. N. Kellar of the telephone company said the intention was to substitute a larger pole painted which would be about 8 or 10 inches at the base, and 30 feet in height. The number of poles would be the same as at present, and they would furnish square or round poles as desired by citizens, though the round ones were much safer. There were not enough subscribers to require a cable, and if so the streets would be more disfigured. The question of going over back lots had been all gone over. The company were willing to accept any feasible way suggested which would be mutually satisfactory.

Several remonstrants were present who claimed the streets would be disfigured greatly by larger poles, and they objected to the poles already there. They advocated placing all wires underground and abolishing the poles.

Mr. Powers said placing the poles underground was impossible in a country place. In Boston $700,000 had been spent in this manner, and it was impossible to expect the company to do it in so thinly settled a place of such area as Newton.

Alderman Wilson said three of the nine residents were present and had no objection to running the wires on the rear of their lots, and he thought the rest might assent.

The mayor suggested that the interested parties retire to his office and see if some settlement could be arrived at, and his advice was accepted.

The hearing was suspended.

Another continued hearing was granted the N. E. Telephone & Telegraph Co. for location of poles on Centre street and Lake avenue.

Dr. S. L. Eaton was a subscriber but thought it better to run the wires over the rear of estates. The street was narrow and poles would be dangerous, especially with shying horses.

Dr. Burns lived corner of Walnut and Lake, and he had poles near his house on Walnut street, but should consider it a hardship if poles were placed on Lake avenue. He favored running on the back of the lots.

Alderman Hyde said there was only one subscriber for a mile on Lake avenue and thought they could be reached as others were from Walnut street.

HEARING CONTINUED.

The suspended hearing on Highland, Chester and Temple streets was resumed, and on motion of Alderman Wilson the hearing was continued to Monday evening, Oct. 17, at 7.30 o'clock.

Alderman Hyde's order giving the petitioners leave to withdraw petition for location on Lake avenue was adopted. The water board were authorized to lay 85 feet of eight inch pipe at a cost of $120.

$90,000 LOAN.—Alderman Wilson presented an order authorizing the city treasurer to borrow $90,000 in anticipation of the taxes of 1892, payable in one year with interest. Also an order authorizing the treasurer to levy and collect assessments for common sewers.

The board then went into executive session.

FRIDAY EVENING MEETING.

A special meeting of the aldermen was held Friday evening and orders were passed levying sewer assessments on various streets.

A list of election officers was presented and nominated.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Our best plays usually come from a dramatization of novels and "Mr. Potter of Texas," a book which had an extensive sale and became as soon as issued from the press immensely popular, is a strong illustration of the fact. When the dramatic effort of "Mr. Potter of Texas" was given in Boston last April, it attracted the attention of all theatre-goers and was pronounced a valuable acquisition to the stage. The play, like the book, contains the strong melodramatic touches which lovers of fiction and the drama love so much. Next week at the Grand Opera House this melodramatic success will be presented by a strong company.

The plot introduces a Texas millionaire, a jealous and unforgiving woman, a stern parent, a double pair of lovers, a clever detective and other essentials necessary to the production of a first-class drama. There will be besides the meritorious production of the drama an excellent and high-class specialty entertainment, and the two attractions will furnish amusement from 7.30 to 11 o'clock each evening and from 1.30 to 6 o'clock at the matinees on Thursday and Saturday.

THEATRE.—To appreciate the hold that "1492" has taken on the amusement-loving people of Boston and to know for a fact that two, three and even more hearings of the piece are the correct thing with its admirers, one has only to attend one of the charming performances now being given by Rice's Surprise Party at the Park Theatre and hear one of those who has "been there" before say to a party of friends, who for the first time are enjoying the fun and music on the stage, "This is a good thing coming now," or "It is great in this act," or "now you will hear a fine song." And the friends unanimously concur in the verdict and applaud heartily, though not less than the giver of the information.

Ward Five—Precinct One—Warden, A. J. Grover; deputy warden, J. W. Howe; clerk, T. W. Barney; deputy clerk, C. B. Bancroft; inspectors, Erasmus Gutt, O. S. Pette, Frank Fanning, Daniel Kelleher; deputy inspectors, J. F. Brown, Eben Thompson, J. E. Connors, B. S. Ford. Precinct Two—Warden, S. L. Eaton; deputy warden, T. T. Locke; clerk, E. H. Corey; deputy clerk, E. H. Greenwood; inspectors, H. W. Holbrook, C. H. Burr, F. A. O'Connor, G. F. Leonard;

deputy inspectors, E. F. Clifford, E. E. Bird, George May, Alexander Tyler.

Ward Six—Precinct One—Warden, H. G. Ruhe; clerk, H. A. Tomlinson; deputy clerk, A. E. Hyde; inspectors, Walter Thorpe, G. E. Warren, D. H. McWain, W. H. Thorpe; deputy inspectors, H. H. Day, D. J. Linnehan. Precinct Two—Warden, S. M. Jackson; deputy warden, John Dobbie; clerk, Zedec Long; deputy clerk, A. F. Fowle; inspectors, F. M. Strong, F. J. Morse, E. S. May, Arthur Muldoon; deputy inspectors, T. G. Woodman, A. J. Roach, F. P. Dunbar, G. A. Holmes.

Ward Seven—Precinct One—Warden, A. W. B. Huff; deputy warden, E. L. Lemon; clerk, Moses Clark, Jr.; deputy clerk, H. C. Daniels; inspectors, J. W. Howard, R. B. Edes, G. W. Lamson, F. A. Barrows; deputy inspectors, R. A. Brackett, M. L. Clark, Thomas Dalton.

Ward Eight—Precinct One—Warden, A. W. B. Huff; deputy warden, E. L. Lemon; clerk, Moses Clark, Jr.; deputy clerk, H. C. Daniels; inspectors, J. W. Howard, R. B. Edes, G. W. Lamson, F. A. Barrows; deputy inspectors, R. A. Brackett, M. L. Clark, Thomas Dalton.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Pianos for rent. Farley, Newton.

—Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Shay. A girl.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sheridan are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

—The congratulations of numerous friends are being received by Mr. and Mrs. George Tamba. It is a girl.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Billings and Miss Bertha Billings returned from Lima, Ohio, this week, after a very pleasant sojourn.

—Rev. Mr. Kompton of the Newton Theological Institution, Newton Centre, will preach Sunday at the Baptist church.

—Mr. E. J. Hickey is having a storage house 70x18 feet, built upon the Hickey Paper Mill property. Preparations are rapidly being made to commence the fall work.

—Mr. James McGovern, formerly a well known resident of this vicinity, and now proprietor of the largest jewelry store in the city of Haverhill, was in town Sunday visiting old friends and acquaintances.

—John Harrington of Newtonville, in descending the bank from the top of Echo Bridge to Ellis street, Sunday, lost his balance in vaulting the last fence and fell to the street below, striking on his hand and sustaining a compound fracture of the forearm. He was taken to Dr. Hunt's house in Newtonville by Dr. Hildreth and the fracture set.

—The Quinobquin Association open their new alleys this Friday evening. The alleys have been altered to conform to regulation rules and new regulation pins have been procured. The pride of some of our best bowling talent goes way down to zero when they roll on the new alleys, and instead of piling up 200 or 250 pins as formerly, fail to get 130 or 140 pins.

—The Gamewell Tel. Co. played last Saturday a game of crib with the South Natick Club at Highlandville. The score:

GAMEWELLS.
Crisp, L. b. w. Hiller.....	23
Beech, b. Brady.....	23
Stanwood, b. Hiller.....	0
Dawson, c. b. Hiller.....	0
Stead, b. Hiller.....	1
Rae, b. Hiller.....	8
Lyons, b. Brady.....	8
Burrows, b. Hiller.....	7
Lyons, b. Brady.....	0
Kempston, caught by Hiller.....	0
Harleton, not out.....	0
Bye.....	5
Leg Byers.....	5
Wide balls.....	1
Total.....	48

SOUTH NATICK.
Kelley, b. Crisp.....	0
Lloyd, b. Crisp.....	0
Norwich, b. Beach.....	1
Foster, b. Beach.....	1
Coler, b. Crisp.....	0
Hiller, b. Crisp.....	6
McBride, caught by Beach.....	2
Brady, b. Beach.....	3
Lloyd, b. Beach.....	5
Fleming, b. Beach.....	2
Harlop, b. Beach.....	0
Byer.....	2
Wide balls.....	3
Total.....	30

The batting of Beach and Burrows and the bowling of Crisp of the Gamewells was very fine.

ASSAULTED AND ROBBED.

ITALIAN LABORER NEARLY LOSES HIS LIFE AND HAS $240 STOLEN FROM HIM.

An unfrequented spot on North street, near the Waltham line, was the scene of a cutting affray and highway robbery last Friday evening.

The police received the first intimation of the affair about 9 o'clock, and the patrol wagon and a squad of officers were at once dispatched to the scene by Sergt. Ryan.

It seems that Vinson Pancessta, an Italian employed on the Newton sewers, was returning from Waltham, accompanied by his brother and three companions. When the party had reached a place just beyond the residence of Mr. H. N. Hyde, the three men who accompanied the two Pancesstas came to a halt, and one of the men confronted the unsuspecting pair with a knife and ordered Vinson to deliver up his money.

At this Vinson's brother, badly frightened, ran away, and two of the assaulting party then held Pancessta's hands, and the third man slashed him several times with a knife, making an attempt to sever the jugular vein. The first knife thrust entered just under the ear, the blade passing by his throat, and at the corner of the mouth, inflicting a gaping wound, from which the blood spouted in a stream. Two other knife thrusts were then made by the assailant in rapid succession, one circling the head just across the nose, the end of that organ being cut off.

Pancessta, according to his statement of the affair, then fell to the ground, and partially lost consciousness. While lying there he says there were $240, was cut from his pantaloons.

Mrs. Hyde discovered the wounded man a few moments later, her attention having been attracted by his groans, and at once telephoned to police headquarters. When the patrol wagon arrived Pancessta had regained consciousness, but was very weak from loss of blood. He was taken to the central station and gave substantially the above account of the affair.

Some of his statements, however, were rather contradictory, especially one bearing on his knowledge of the three men whom he claims made the assault. He first said that he knew their names, and that they were Italians who worked on the Newton sewers, and who boarded with him in the Italian shanty off California street. Later he said that the men were strangers met by himself and brother in Waltham, where they had two or three drinks together. To this he added the statement that the strangers followed him when he departed for home.

At the Central station Pancessta bled terribly, his clothing being literally saturated. After receiving medical attention he was removed to the Cottage Hospital. Three Italians thought to be concerned in the assault and robbery were arrested Saturday morning at the Italian camp at Newton Centre. They were Dominick Laoni, Josef Alzano and Louis Abrarillo. Abrarillo had an ugly knife cut in the left shoulder about three inches long. It is thought that the wound was the result of an accidental knife thrust delivered by Pancessta's assailant.

Dr. Thayer ordered the man's removal to the Cottage Hospital, whether he was taken in the ambulance.

Another suspect, Joseph Aceta, was arrested Saturday morning in Waltham; and Pancessta's brother, Guaitano, was also locked up. The latter was held for a witness.

One of the men arrested at the Newton Centre camp, Josef Alzano, had $179 in bills in his possession, together with two checks drawn on the Italian bank in New York.

Vinton Pancessta, the wounded man, is recovering from the effects of the knife wounds, and has been discharged from the hospital.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY LIKE SHERIDAN'S CONDITION POWDER

If You Can't Get it Near Home, Send to Us. Ask first. It is absolutely pure, highly concentrated. Most economical because small doses. No other one fourth as strong. Strictly a medicine, not a food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as we can. Prevents and cures diseases of poultry. Worth its weight in gold when hens are moulting. "One large can saved me $60, and six more to prevent moulting" says a customer. Sold by druggists, grocers, general store and feed dealers. We send post-paid a "Voultry" Roping Guide (containing poultry accounts worth the price, and two packs of powder for 10c; or five packs of 10c; or one 1 lb. can and 400 eggs, 25c. Six lbs. extra express paid $1.00. In quantity costs less than one tenth cent a day per hen. Testimonials free. T. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

Street Manners.

It is a question whether our public schools are doing all they can for the young people of this city if they are not giving them some training in proper deportment upon the public streets.

While it may not be possible to revive the old time usages which required the young to pay deference to older persons whom they met, it is certainly proper to expect young people to behave so as not to prove an annoyance to others.

Unhappily a considerable number of our young people seem to think the streets are made for them, and that other people have no rights which they are bound to respect. They are noisy and rude and sometimes destructive.

In a city like ours it is not too much to expect its young people to go back and forth from their homes to their school houses in a fairly orderly manner. No one wants to restrain their joyousness, but there is a great difference between having a good time and becoming nuisances to others.

Edna. "Do you believe that the throwing of old shoes after a newly married couple brings them luck?" Mrs. Richwidow. "Indeed, I do; my husband was struck by a flying shoe and died just a month after we were married."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

DELIGHTFUL ATTENTION, pleasant compliments, are always the reward of wearing our corsets, and makes your shape more fashionable, your appearance more distinguished, no matter how much you may be so by nature. An improvement is always welcome to a woman, especially when it costs no more than ordinary corsets. This is true of the Royal Worcester W.C. Corsets Leading Merchants Sell Them.

City of Newton.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS, 1892. STATE ELECTION NOV. 8th.

Notice is hereby given to all male persons to present themselves for registration and that the Registrars of Voters will hold sessions for the registration of voters and to correct and revise the Ward Lists, from 7.30 to 9 o'clock in the evening upon the following dates and at the places herein named:

Newton Lower Falls—Boydell Hall, Saturday, October 8.

Nonantum Athenaeum, Tuesday, October 11.

Newton Upper Falls—Old Prospect Schoolhouse, Wednesday, October 12.

Newton—Armory Hall, Saturday, October 15.

At the City Hall on Monday, October 17.

Auburndale—Auburn Hall, Wednesday, October 19.

Newtonville—Room 8, Central Block, Saturday, October 22.

Newton Highlands—Stevens Hall, Tuesday, October 25.

Newton Centre—Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Wednesday, October 26 from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Also at City Hall from 5.30 A. M. to 12 o'clock, M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M., daily, October 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28, and on Saturday, October 29, from 12 o'clock, M. to 10 o'clock, P. M. No names can be registered after 10 o'clock P. M., October 29.

All persons whose names are not on the Voting List must appear personally before the Registrars of Voters on either of the days above mentioned, presenting a tax bill of 1892 or evidence satisfactory to the Registrars entitling him to be registered.

All naturalized citizens must present their final papers when they register. If the father of an applicant was naturalized before he (the son) became 21 years of age, the son is naturalized thereby, and must present the father's naturalization papers. The names of all persons not assessed in 1892 are taken from the voting list, but such persons can be re-registered by applying in person to the Registrars at any session held for registering voters, and presenting satisfactory evidence to the Registrars of Voters.

Every male citizen of 21 years of age and upwards, who has resided in the State one year, and in the city of Newton since May 1st, 1892, and who shall be able to read and write, shall have the right to vote at the State election to be held November eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety two.

GEORGE E. BRIDGES, REGISTRAR OF VOTERS. AMOS L. HALE, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Hall, Newton, September, 15, 1892. 61 64

The H. W. Downs Company, Carry the Largest Assortment of Silk and Cotton Dress Linings and Findings in Boston, and at the Lowest Prices.

Wholesale and Retail, 143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON. One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE. NEWTON BRANCH. HENRY W. SAVAGE.

J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr. BOSTON OFFICE: 37 Court Street. NEWTON OFFICE: 1261 Washington St. WEST NEWTON. Telephone 73-2.

Several very fine Estates at Newton and on West Newton Hill, which must be sold at once. Call for particulars. Houses in all the Newtons from $3,000 to $25,000.

Choice building lots on West Newton Hill for sale low on easy terms. Wanted for immediate tenants and purchase, houses in Newton and Newtonville.

If You Want To BUY RENT SELL MORTGAGE INSURE Any Real Estate in the City of Newton, call on ALVORD & WARD, REAL ESTATE AGENTS, 113 Devonshire Street, Boston, and Newton Center.

F. G. BARNES & SON. Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers. AUCTIONEERS for REAL and PERSONAL PROPERTY.

FOR SALE and FOR RENT a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity. Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

BOOM IN HOUSE LOTS. ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO., Can show you plans and prices of Splendid Lots in first class location where great improvements are being made and property is steadily advancing. Buy Now and Save Money. Make the Advance Yourself.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO., No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston, ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON. 26

CHARLES F. ROGERS, (Successor to Chas. F. Rand.) Real Estate Agency

For selling and leasing Real Estate and Nego tiating Mortgages, Care of Real Estate and Collection of Rents. A satisfaction for sale Real Estate and Personal Property. A list of desirable estates for sale and lease always to be found at office. Correspondence free solicited.

OFFICE, BRACKETT'S NEW BLOCK, 417 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON. Telephone, Newton, Nov.

WM. B. YOUNG REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT. NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES. Land furnished and houses built to suit on easy terms.

Office, 25 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK. INSURANCE AGENT, Gas Office, Brackett's

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB.

The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respected consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

The Tin and Tin Plates Fraud.

(From the Boston Herald.)
Mr. Henry W. Lamb, the president of the Tin Plates Consumers' Association, has prepared a card for general circulation, headed "What About Tin Plates?" This monograph gives in a brief space a very considerable amount of valuable information concerning the effect that the McKinley tariff has had upon the price in this country of this commodity. The data given by Mr. Lamb on the card are taken from official sources, either government or well authenticated market reports, so that there is no question as to the accuracy of the assertions. According to Congressman Dalzell of Pennsylvania, who was and is the chief champion of the tariff, the tin plates imported yearly consumption of tin plates in the United States is 678,000,000 pounds. Now, according to the sworn returns of American tin plate makers, given in the report of Special Agent Ayers to the treasury department in August of this year, the amount which these producers claim to have made during the year ending June 30, 1892, was 13,046,719 pounds, two-thirds of this being tin plates, intended for roofing purposes, while a large part of all manufactured was made from imported steel plates which were coated with tin on this side of the Atlantic.

Now the extra duty which the American consumers—and every one in this country is a consumer, directly or indirectly, of tin plates—have to pay yearly in consequence of the McKinley law, is, on the basis of Congressman Dalzell's figures, over $6,000,000, making allowance for drawbacks on exported goods; that is, in order to give to these tin plate men the official patronage they secured through the McKinley law, the people of the United States have to pay in increased prices, all along the line the equivalent of nearly fifty cents a pound for every pound of tin plates that they manufactured. The price of tin plates in England in May, 1890, was thirteen shillings a box, in August, 1892, twelve shillings a box, and as there are 108 pounds of tin in each box, the price was increased by 10 per cent. On this article, may be said to be about three cents a pound. But the American manufacturers of tin plates, through the instrumentality of the McKinley law, have forced the American consumers to pay on the American output the equivalent of at least fifteen times the price for the purpose of permitting them to manufacture this miserable little quantity amounting to no more than 2 per cent. of our total consumption.

In the mean time what has been the effect upon the American price of imported tin plates? On May 20, 1890 the price of standard cokes, that is, tin plates used for making cans, was in New York $4.45 a box. On Aug. 20, 1892, the price had risen to $5.37 1/2 a box, a rise of 92 1/2 cents, while, as we have just pointed out, the price of the Liverpool market had fallen a shilling a box, or about 24 1/2 cents. It is evident, therefore, that there has been an increase in the price of this commodity to the American people in the last two years of more than 25 per cent. an increase which has no justification except the influence which a small clique of interested capitalists have had to make a business experiment, and the ability they have shown to induce the Republican leaders to tax the American people for their benefit.

Two years ago, Oct. 7, 1890, Senator Aldrich predicted that within three years from that time the manufacturers in this country of tin plates would fully justify, both in price and quantity of production, the increased tax, and he added: "I am quite willing that the future of the protective policy should depend upon the success or failure of the duty imposed by this paragraph." When asked if he thought that in three years it would be possible to produce the tin plates in this country that would be adequate to its consumption, he said: "A very considerable portion of it." What will happen next year, under the stimulus of the enormous bounty now given, we have no means of absolutely knowing; but it is fair presumption to say that, although between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000 will be paid in unnecessary additional taxes by the consumers of tin plates, the progress of production will bring our product no nearer the volume of consumption than the sugar produced in Louisiana comes to the volume of sugar used by the American people.

Coming upon the heels of this gigantic fraud upon the American people brought about by this tax imposition, is the official statement that the alleged tin mines at Temescal, Cal., have closed down and that the miners have been discharged. This is one of those new industries which, according to Maj. McKinley, were to be created by the tax on the people. The promoters of this mining scheme, like the tin plate manufacturers, had a "pull" at Washington—it would be needless to specify in what way—and, as a result, they were able to incorporate into Maj. McKinley's law the provision that the duty of four cents a pound should be placed upon tin for the purpose of giving them the margin needed to develop their mine. That is, the people of the United States were to pay this tax on one of the articles in necessary and every day use in order that certain mining speculators in California should have the chance to place the stock of an alleged tin mine. But the imposition was so attenuated that it could not be held together for the three years needed for its culmination. There was practically no tin at Temescal. The so-called Cajaleo Hill mine was largely a humbug, for, though there may have been traces of the mineral there, the expenses of mining it were enormous—out of proportion to any possible price that could be obtained for it. But now the bubble has burst, although the prospective tax still remains upon our statute book as an illustration of the subservience of the American people in granting bounties and favors to shrewd speculators and selfish monopolists.

Gamewell Secures Contract.

The Gamewell Fire Alarm & Telegraph Co. has been awarded the contract by Cambridge to extend police signal system, notwithstanding the fact that they were the highest bidders, the Municipal company putting in bids at the same time. The report of the city solicitor said there would be no risk to the city by adopting the Gamewell system. The chief of police said the Gamewell was the better system and had more points in its favor, which was the reason he had always favored this system. He thought they got more for their money than from the other system.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORMERS.

THEY ARE STILL IN THE FIELD AND READY FOR WORK.

The fourth annual meeting of the Newton Tariff Reform Club was held last Monday evening in Allen's Hall, West Newton.

President E. B. Haskell presided and delivered his customary annual address upon the outlook for tariff reform and the duty of the club in the campaign.

It was voted unanimously that the president's address be printed in the Newton Graphic and the Newton Journal.

The old board of officers was re-elected, as follows: President, Edwin B. Haskell; vice-president, Stephen Thacher; secretary-treasurer, R. L. Bridgman; executive committee, F. A. Dewson, W. S. Hutchinson, J. R. Smith and H. C. Soule.

The executive committee will meet later to arrange the work of the club in the campaign.

PRESIDENT HASKELL'S ADDRESS.
The address of President Haskell was as follows:

This club exists but for one purpose; has, as a club, but one object in view. Whatever may be the predilections or party affiliations of its members, they are here simply because they believe that our tariff taxation could be and ought to be more wisely adjusted.

There are some issues more important than that of the tariff, and many less important. If I could cast my vote for tariff reform only by casting it at the same time for unsuccess in the currency, I am free to say that I should consider the currency question of the most vital importance and should willingly postpone action on the tariff to a more convenient season.

The burden of tariff taxation as it exists today is not an exhausting one to the people of this favored land. Three things make it endurable.

First, absolute free trade throughout the whole of our own domain, which furnishes an excellent field for the illustrations of its benefits.

Secondly, a large free list of imported goods, more than one-half of all our importation coming in without tariff taxation.

Thirdly, free entrance for our products at the ports of our largest customer, Great Britain.

To these three modifying conditions, which make tariff taxation endurable, was added a fourth, even as a part of the McKinley bill—reciprocity, or free trade by special contract with other countries.

With these modifications of the so-called "protective" policy, this country can get on and continue to increase in prosperity and wealth. Besides, an unwise tariff is sure to develop enemies, sowing the seeds of its own destruction as it continues to operate.

An unwise tariff has evil effects which penetrate deeper. It endangers the whole industrial and financial system. It frightens capital and robs labor. Protection bleeds a country, but an unwise tariff weakens a people, while an unwise tariff paralyzes it.

Happily we are not called upon to decide between these two issues. In the practical campaign before us we can vote at the same time for TARIFF REFORM AND HONEST MONEY. No more intelligent and persistent advocates of honest money are in the present Congress than the Massachusetts members whom we helped to elect, because they were tariff reformers, not because they belonged to this party or that.

We all know where the great standard bearer of tariff reform, Mr. Cleveland, stands on the currency question. He never even temporized with it. Four years ago he was denounced by the Republican platform builders as an enemy of silver. If his successor in the office of President had been equally firm for honest money, the country might have been saved the danger and great expense of that unwise act under which the government buys the whole silver product of the country, not because it wants it or needs it, but because the producers want a better market than the natural demand for the commodity gives them.

In short, the silver producers demanded protection for their product, and it was not easy to discriminate between them and the producers of wool or pig iron.

There is a natural bond of union between these wards of the government in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nevada and Colorado. They are all believers in the economic theory that it is the business of the government to make up the deficiencies of unprofitable industries, robbing, for the purpose, those least able to resist.

Our opponents on this question of the tariff, those who believe that the McKinley tariff is a monument of wisdom, have entirely shifted their ground since we met them in the campaign of two years ago. We heard nothing then of the argument that higher tariff taxation would cheapen the price of products. The most possible was made of the saving that would be secured for the consumers in the article of sugar, from which the tax was removed.

Nobody intimated that an increased tax on foreign wool would decrease the price of woolen goods. On the contrary, we were treated to panegyrics on the beauty and nobility of high prices. We were told that "a cheap coat implied a cheap man," and that it was necessary to guard against that evil in this republic of workingmen. Our people were to be protected against the "pauper labor" of other lands, and they could afford to pay better prices. It was the wages of labor that was to be increased by the McKinley bill. The protected manufacturers could afford to pay their employees more liberally. We were all to live on a higher scale.

Now the argument is changed. We are told that increased tariff taxation has not only increased wages, but it has decreased the cost of goods to the consumer. We are not allowed to forget that we make a great saving on sugar by the removal of the tax, but the increased tax on wool does not produce the opposite effect.

The benefits of reciprocity, which was reluctantly adopted as an afterthought, and made a part of the McKinley bill, are dwelt upon with special emphasis.

Here is a kind of free trade which yields unadulterated blessings. Free trade by reciprocity and free sugar are undoubted sweets. We can heartily join in this praise of free trade, as far as it goes, not forgetting the absurdity of that reciprocity provision, which said, in substance to the other countries: "We have taken off certain taxes for the benefit of the American people. If you do not take off taxes for the benefit of your people we will punish you by taxing our own people again."

Under this threat some valuable treaties have been made, and, though the method makes us blush, the result of a free interchange of products is good.

We should like to see this wholesome principle carried further. We are not particular as to methods, so long as they are honorable, but we believe that the interchange of products between different countries is not only profitable, but the right of the people of those countries, and that no unnecessary obstructions should be allowed.

Human enterprise and sagacity have performed wonders in overcoming the difficulties of communication and cheapening the cost of transportation. They have connected seas by canals, tunneled mountains, and improved machinery for use by sea and land—with the practical effect of shortening the distances between points of commerce.

Is this all wrong? Have human sagacity and enterprise been working in the wrong direction? Is it, on the contrary, the part of wisdom to obstruct trade and increase the difficulties of communication?

This is the work undertaken by means of protective tariffs. Their purpose is to undo what human enterprise and sagacity have done in the interest of easier communication between the different parts of the earth. They undertake this under an erroneous belief, as we maintain, that unrestricted commerce is an evil; that nations do not profit by each other's prosperity; that the only, or the surest, way for one nation to grow rich is to keep other nations poor.

Here is the fundamental difference between the two schools of political economy. If there were only a certain fixed amount of work to be done in the world, the country which got the largest share of it would secure the largest share of its fruits.

But the fact is that the more work there is done the greater is the demand for all sorts of the products of work. A nation that may not be able to do one kind of work as cheaply as other nations has advantages for other kinds of work, the products of which it can exchange and gain by getting some kinds of merchandise cheaper than it can produce them itself. The more prosperous our foreign (or domestic) customers are, the more prosperous shall we be. The law does not stop at state lines. It is universal, like gravitation.

We are tariff reformers, and our purpose is to secure such modification of the tariff as will yield the fair results of free interchange of products. We are not called upon here to deal with particular schedules. We are not frightened by the term "free trade," or "tariff for revenue only." We believe with Senator Sherman, who is a statesman when he is not too much of a politician, that "no revenue raising system lays taxes on imports can be devised sufficient to meet the needs of government, economically administered, without giving enough of the so-called protection to make good any alleged difference in the cost of labor in American and foreign articles of manufacture."

We believe that the first thing which should be done in the interest of both manufacturers and consumers, is take the duties from raw and crude materials. No other civilized country commits the folly of taxing the raw materials to which it adds value by labor. Its only foundation in this country is the necessity of strengthening the protection "ring" by enlisting the unreasoning selfishness of producers of crude products, such as the ores, wool, lumber, coal, etc. Manufacturers would be glad to yield a large part of their so-called protection if they could get their raw materials without tax.

A woollen manufacturer who makes as high priced cloth as is made in this country told me this summer that a rate of duty of 20 to 25 per cent. would give him ample protection, even from a protectionist's point of view, if he could get untaxed wool.

The improvements in labor-saving machinery are constantly increasing the value of every workingman to himself and his family. The inevitable tendency is to increase the rewards of labor. The wages of labor tend upward; the cost of the necessities of life downward.

No tariff, even ours, which is one of the most unwise in the world, can wholly destroy the advantages of civilization.

Our purpose, which is based on no selfish considerations, is simply to remove the obstructions, as far as is possible, which prevent mankind, in our own country and in all countries, from securing all the benefits to which the progress of the race entitles them.

And to this end let us continue to work with full courage that the truth will prevail, perhaps much sooner than we dare to expect.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

The Next Legislature.

(Boston Herald.)
The nomination of members to the state Senate, as far as they have been made, have justified the belief that the people are paying more than usual attention to the quality of candidates for the Legislature the present year. The more difficult test comes in the districts that choose to the House of Representatives; however, nearly all the candidates for which have yet to be nominated. The House is a body six times as large as the Senate, and the opportunities to get objectionable men in there are six times as numerous and perhaps several times as dangerous in other respects. It is not at all too early to begin to prepare for an improvement upon the present Legislature in the more popular branch of that body.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT
UNLIKE ANY OTHER.
As much
For INTERNAL as EXTERNAL use.
In 1810
Originated by an Old Family Physician.
Think Of It
In use for more than Eighty Years, and still leads.
Every Traveler should have a bottle in his satchel.
From Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Headache, Diphtheria, Cough, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Lameness, Soreness in Body or Limbs, Stiff Joints or Strains, will find in this old Anodyne Liniment relief and speedy cure. Should have Johnson's Anodyne Liniment in the house for Croup, Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Calf Cuts, Bruises, Cramps and Pains liable to occur in any family without notice. Delays may cost a life. Relieves all Summer Complaints like Scurvy. Price, 30 cts. per bottle. 6 bottles, $1.50. Express paid. L. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers,

AT FACTORY STORE OF

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,

GALEN STREET, - WATERTOWN, MASS.

TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.
FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, clippers, Shears and Lawn Mowers,

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we will sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING and PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the

varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS,
STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold

and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY
MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville, Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Union Carpet Cleaning Works

Glen Avenue, near R. R. - Newton Centre.

We solicit your orders in the full belief that we shall give satisfaction.

PRICE LIST.

1 cent per running yard for Taking Up. 3 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wool Carpets. 3 cts. per running yard for Cleaning Brussels or Tapestry. 4 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters. 8 cents per square yard for Cleaning Turkish Rugs or Carpets. 4 cents per running yard for laying in the same room. 4 cents per running yard for Redding. Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight.

All orders sent by mail to Newton Centre P. O. will receive prompt attention. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge.

For Envelopes, Billheads, Cards, Programmes,

Circulars, Posters, try the

GRAPHIC PRINTING OFFICE.

Estimates given.

J. HENRY BACON.

Successor to Francis Murdoch & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK.

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St., NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock. Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty. All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass

No better time than

Now

To use Hudson's

Disinfectant

A 50c. bottle makes 10 qts.

It will destroy

Cholera Germs

Arrest and prevent

Putrefaction and

Contagion

We have in stock all other popular disinfectants including Chloride of Lime, Platts Chlorides, Super Carbolic Acid, Carbolic Acid, etc., etc.

ARTHUR HUDSON.

ANALYTICAL & CHEMIST,

OPPOSITE DEPOT, NEWTON.

Telephone 44-4.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages at work business or pleasure

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

M. C. HIGGINS

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Summer's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES. Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

ESTABLISHED IN 1866

T. J. HARTNETT,

PLUMBER & SANITARY

ENGINEER.

Iron Drainage and Ventilation

a Specialty.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

375 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

S. A. MERRITT.

Designer, Draper and Maker of latest fashionable modes in Evening and Street

Costumes. Reasonable Prices.

32 PARSONS STREET, NEWTONVILLE

Electric Cars pass 11 1/2 Street. 10

CHURCHILL & BEAN

Tailors.

IMPORTERS

—OF—

FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 235-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC.

THE MAYORALTY.

There has been an almost unanimous movement in favor of forcing Mayor Hibbard to accept another term, and the past few weeks petitions have been quietly circulated in all the wards, and they have been signed by over a thousand representative men of Newton, asking him to consent to the use of his name, and Newton will do the rest. This can not but have been gratifying to Mr. Hibbard, showing that his faithful and disinterested labors for the city have been appreciated, but it is stated that he has refused to consider the matter, owing partly to the fact that his own private business and the labors connected with the mayoralty have been too much for even his vigorous health, and he needs time for rest; also partly to the fact that it has been the custom in Newton to give a mayor two terms, and Mayor Hibbard does not think there are any exigencies in city affairs that call for the violation of the custom in his case.

He accepted the office as a matter of duty, believing that every citizen should do his part for the community in which he dwells, and he thinks that he has done all that could be expected of him.

Whether his resolution can be shaken remains to be seen. Very few men would have the resolution to stand up against the unanimous call of their fellow citizens to accept such an office, the honor being the greater from the way in which it is offered. But Mayor Hibbard is a very determined man and his friends know that it is not an easy task to make him follow a course when he has decided against it. It would certainly be a very fortunate thing for the city if he could be prevailed upon to serve another year, until the sewers and the changes in grade crossings are out of the way. This seems to be also the general feeling, and whether one man can hold out against the whole city of Newton is a question in which everyone is interested.

In the event of Mayor Hibbard persisting in his refusal the candidates will probably be ex-Alderman Fenno and Alderman Hargach, and a very vigorous campaign would follow.

FORESTS AND PARK SPACES.

While the Metropolitan Park Commissioners are looking over the ground in pursuance of their duties in the selection of suitable spots for reservation for parks, it is pertinent to direct general attention to the subject of forest reservation and open spaces. It is not necessary to assume that the withdrawal of timber growth from indiscriminate cutting is equivalent to depriving the community of the use of the timber, or that the setting apart for free public use of tracts of territory as playgrounds, or parks involves a loss to town, city or state. What intelligent arboriculturists seek is the establishing of such a systematic and practical method of dealing with woods and forests as will produce the greatest value in timber growth, now and in the future. By cutting only ripe timber, the removal of waste, and the destruction of insect pests, leaving the forest floor undisturbed; in other words by a skillful and common sense system of management, the forests of this continent will contribute a maximum return in the shape of merchantable timber, and will become a perennial and lasting source of revenue to its owners, besides contributing in no small measure to healthful conditions of life to an entire population. Every citizen who has an opportunity of impressing these views upon our representatives in Congress, should urge the need of laws which tend to secure an end so desirable and so conducive to the material and esthetic well being of the ever increasing masses settling upon the nation's domain.

Ex-Governor CLAFIN has been interviewed on the Senatorial question by the Boston Globe, at considerable length, and he was very outspoken about men pressing their claims and making an undignified personal canvas for the place. Such words as these can hardly be pleasant reading for Mr. Lodge, who is leaving no stone unturned to secure the election of representatives and senators favorable to him. Gov. Clafin says:

The successor of Senator Dawes should be a man who will decline to enter a race and personally conduct a campaign. Those who repeat stories of trades and pledges to secure the senatorship belittle the gentlemen named and forget the sense of duty which animates the people of Massachusetts and their high purpose in choosing a member of the United States senate, who, in part, sways its matchless power and sustains the lofty position held by Webster, Winthrop, Rantoul, Sumner, Wilson and Hoar.

"I believe they will ignore all attempts to force a selection in the general election, and will insist that the senators and representatives meeting next January shall be unpledged and uncommitted, and that their minds shall be unbiased by charges of duties neglected, of unworthy combinations, and stories of self-seeking."

"The services of the candidates will be carefully considered and the value of their future efforts to the State and the nation impartially estimated."

"The history of senatorial elections in Massachusetts shows that they are deemed by the people to be of the highest importance, and to be bestowed as an honor, and not a prize to be won by personal efforts. As it has been in the past, so let it be in the future; and let all the people say 'Amen.'"

Reading this over one would infer that Gov. Clafin has in mind some such man as either Messrs. Long or Cap.

The Western Union is a great monopoly and supposed to exist for the service of the public, but people who have tried to get a message to friends in Boston by this means say it is a good deal safer to depend on a letter, with a special delivery stamp. A case in point was furnished last Saturday. A Newton gentleman sent a telegram at 4 o'clock p. m. to a friend on the Back Bay in Boston, making an appointment for that evening. He heard nothing from it until Tuesday, when the friend wrote that the message was delivered late Sunday evening, although it was dated as received at the branch office at Hotel Berkeley at 4.50 p. m., Oct. 1st. In speaking of the matter to some more experienced Newton friends, they only laughed at the gentleman for his "freshness" in supposing that he could reach any person in Boston the same day by a telegram. The Waltham and Brookline papers have recently been filled with complaints against the telegraph company, for its unreliability and carelessness in delivering messages, and evidently the same trouble exists in Newton. The moral seems to be that if you are in a hurry about sending a message from Newton to Boston and can't use the telephone, you had better either go in person or write a letter, and inquiry at the postoffice shows that special delivery stamps are used in great numbers by people who have had any experience with telegrams.

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company have asked for and received permission from the Brookline selectmen to bury its wires on Washington, Kent, Howard, St. Paul, Beacon, Park, Cypress, Boylston, High, and Davis and Aspinwall avenues in that town. This action is certainly full of significance, and will be remarked by Newton people who have been objecting to having their streets disfigured by telephone poles. If the company can bury its wires in Brookline why can they not do the same thing in Newton?

The Watertown Republicans have nominated John E. Abbott for representative after a very exciting contest, and the famous Lodge resolutions were adopted.

The Voting Lists.

The following table shows the condition of the voting lists which will be posted tomorrow, and the changes which have occurred since the city election last December. There appears to be a net loss of 317, occasioned by deaths, removals from city, etc. The gains by transfer indicate the change of residence within the city. With an assessed poll list of 7290, there should be largely increased registration.

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

On List Dec. 1, 1891. 297
Losses by death, transfer and removals from city. 22
Gains by transfer. 215
On List Poll. 297

Carpets.
The only fully equipped Carpet Store in this vicinity outside of Boston is found at 68 Main street, Waltham, where will be found a large and handsome assortment of Carpets, Rugs, Mattings, and all the requirements of a large Carpet Store. The electric cars pass the door. See adv.

Dancing.
Mr. H. E. Munroe's select children's dancing schools in Newton and Newtonville will begin in a few days, the dates being given in his announcement in another column. Mrs. W. G. Monk, Hunnewell Terrace, will receive applications.

MARRIED.
TEULON-LEAVITT—At Newton, Oct. 5th, in Grace Church Chapel, by the Rev. G. W. Shinn, D. D., Mr. Arthur Mitchell Teulon of Boston and Miss Ruth Gove Leavitt of Newton.

BEDARD-FRAZIER—In Newton, Oct. 2, by Rev. J. F. Giffether, John Bedard and Mary Jane Frazier.

DALTON-MOKLER—In Newton Centre, Oct. 4, by Rev. D. J. Wholey, Thomas Dalton and Anastasia Mokler.

CONNELLY-DONNAHOE—In West Newton, Oct. 5, by Rev. L. J. O'Toole, Michael Connelly and Margaret Donnahoe.

FOWLER-SWART—In Framingham, by Rev. Jas. Yeames, William Hammond Fowler and Anna Swart.

CALLAHAN-DOYLE—In Newton, October 4, by Rev. M. Dolan, John Patrick Callahan and Mary Ann Doyle.

DWYER-HARRIGAN—In East Cambridge, Oct. 1, by Rev. M. P. Mahon, Michael Dwyer and Catherine Harrigan.

SMITH-WARNER—In Boston, Oct. 4, by Rev. M. J. Savage, Louis Edwin Parker Smith and Corinne May Warner.

WILMOT-GUILFORD—In Cambridge, Oct. 3, by Rev. Chas. Olmstead, Charles L. Wilmot of Cambridge and Miss Annie G. Guilford of Auburndale.

GIBBONS-FAINE—In Waltham, Oct. 5, by Rev. T. Brownhan, Alexander James Gibbons and Mary Ivelia Faine.

DIED.
HYDE—In Newton, Sept. 29, Enoch Hyde, aged 76 years, 4 mos.

BOUCHOT—In Newton, Oct. 1, Albert Bouchot, aged 22 yrs.

SWINEHAMMER—In Auburndale, Oct. 1, Harry Wilfred, son of James and Julia Swinehammer, aged 3 yrs, 9 mos, 2 days.

ADAMS—In Newton, Oct. 2, Mrs. Joanna P. Adams, aged 86 years, 4 months, 3 days.

O'BRIEN—In Newton, Oct. 2, John O'Brien, aged 57 yrs.

BENT—In Auburndale, Oct. 2, Mrs. Dolly Temple Bent, aged 79 years, 11 months.

BASSETT—In Newton Centre, Oct. 4, Elisha Bassett, aged 74 years, 3 months, 24 days.

WIGGILL—At Newtonville, October 5, Abbie F. wife of Wm. R. Wiggill. Funeral services at Universalist church, Washington Park, Saturday, October 8, at 1 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend with further notice.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength—Latest United States Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Mrs. Caroline Field Welch,
Massage Treatments,
Refers to leading physicians of Boston and Newton.

RESIDENCE, 38 ELM ST.,
P. O. Box 370. 14 West Newton

DRESSMAKING
By the Day. Terms, $2.00
APPLY TO
MISS E. L. SHAW,
23 PEARL STREET, NEWTON.

We are now ready to show new Goods and the Latest Novelties for Fall and Winter

MILLINERY
Mourning Work a Specialty.
E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton.

Store open Friday and Saturday Evenings.

BRACKETT'S MARKET CO.
Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 16-3.

The Best Meats
Poultry
Game
Cream
Butter
Eggs
Fruits and Vegetables
AT THE LOWEST PRICES.
This Market intends to fill all orders as if the purchaser was present. Goods which are found not to be as represented may be returned.

7 & 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
Washington near Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DEPOSITORS
—IN THE—
Newton Savings Bank
will please take notice that by a change in the By-Laws of the bank, interest begins on deposits on the TENTH Day of January, April, July and October in each year instead of on the first day of said months as heretofore. And that the time for declaring dividends is the TENTH day of January and July in each year instead of first day of said months as heretofore. Dividends will be payable after the Tuesday following said 10th day of January and July.
A. J. BLANCHARD, Treas.
Newton, Sept. 8, 1892.

The Horticultural Society.
The Annual Meeting will be held at the office of J. F. C. Hyde, 31 Milk St., Boston, Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 10 A. M., for the election of officers for the coming year, and any other business which may come before the meeting.
L. H. FARLOW, Secretary.

Can You Keep Warm
with your present furnace. (If not it will pay you to apply to Smith & Athony Store Co., 48 to 51 Union street, Boston. Their Hub Hot Water Heater works where others fail, and is endorsed by all who have tried it as an unequalled success. It will pay you to at least send for the Company's pamphlet. See adv.

BUSINESS NOTICES
WANTED—Capable housework girl with references. Wages $4. to $4.50. Apply to Mrs. C. A. Cunningham, cor. Walnut and Lowell Sts., Newtonville. 1 ft

FOR SALE—A nice family cow, just calved, with good milkers. Hagb Kelly, Chestnut St., Newton Upper Falls. 1 ft

TO RENT—Furnished house of 12 rooms, south side of the track, three minutes walk from the Newton station, with modern improvements. Rent moderate. Address H. M. Graphic Office. 1 ft

TO LET—The new block corner of Pearl and Thornton Streets, two stories with a 1 modern conveniences; corner store has three large show windows, and would make very desirable store for druggist. Also nice to rent in same block. Address J. J. D., 25 Cabot Street, Newton. 1 ft

WANTED—Protestant boys wishing to join a boys orchestra. Apply in person or by letter to W. A. Shipton, 121 Boyd Street, or to Rev. Chas. Olmstead, Charles L. Wilmot of Cambridge and Miss Annie G. Guilford of Auburndale. 1 ft

WANTED—By the Associated Charities, as gift, loan or at a very low price, a small safe. Address Mrs. M. R. Martin, Newtonville, Mass. Office hours of Secretary of the N. A. C., Monday 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. 9 to 10 every week-day, Fridays and Saturdays 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. 1 ft

WANTED AT ONCE—Experienced crocheters on worsteds at 25 Park St. 1 ft

FOR SALE—First Class Sewing Machine but used at one-half cost, owner having no use for it. Also Rattan Baby Carriage and Boy's Violin at $5 each, all can be seen at No. 26 State St., any time in the week. 1 ft

WANTED—A cook, one who is willing to wash and iron, and can furnish references. Please apply, 19 Fairmount Avenue. 1 ft

TO LET—In Newton Highlands a pleasantly situated, unfurnished front room, with an adjoining side room if desired. Address P. O. Box 132, Newton Highlands. 1 ft

WANTED—By an experienced reliable girl, a situation to do general housework in a small family. Can furnish best of references. Apply at Graphic Office. 1 ft

FOR RENT—$23. a month, 5 minutes from Newton depot, house of 9 rooms, bath and furnace, also at $24 a month, 8 rooms and furnace. Both houses in good order and can be had this month. Apply to E. F. Barnes, 27 State Street, Boston. 1 ft

FOR SALE—At a great bargain, a single harness, top buggy, and two seated open beach wagon. The harness is new and the carriages in good condition. Apply at Graphic Office. 1 ft

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms in new double house on Prospect St., West Newton, also a 4th new house ready Oct. 15th, 4, 5, and 6 rooms, with separate entrances and c. lars. Key at 108 Washington St., West Newton. Mrs. Woodward's. 1 ft

WANTED—Protestant girl for housework, 2 in family, must be a good plain cook and ironer, no washing, good home and reasonable wages. Mrs. F. D. Wellington, 2 Summer Ave., Waltham. 1 ft

WANTED—By an experienced Protestant English woman as nurse or companion for an invalid. Good references. Address, M. J., Newton Centre. 1 ft

TO LET—Two charming rooms, en suite or by the hour, in a small family. Good location quiet and retired. Home comforts, and modern conveniences. Only ten minutes walk from depot. Churches and schools. Address Box 462, Newton Centre. 51 ft

TO LET—At Newtonville on Walnut Street, and Clafin Place fronted by Park, a fine apartment house with all modern conveniences. Address Curtis Abbott, 5 Tremont St., Boston or 23 Bowers St. 1 ft

FOR SALE—The locksmith and general jobbing business now carried on by John Beaulier at Newton Centre. A good opportunity for an industrious man to make money. An increasing business in a growing town. Apply to John Beaulier, Newton Centre, or to H. K. Richards, 12 Pearl Street, Boston. 51 ft

WANTED—Intelligent boy, 15 to 20 years of age, to learn the retail boot and shoe business. Must come well recommended. Address or call upon C. C. Clapp, shoe dealer, Associates' block, Newtonville. 1 ft

TO LET—One-half double house, 3 minutes from depot, 10 rooms and bath, furnace, etc. Good garden. Apply to J. B. Turner, Newtonville, Mass. 49 ft

WANTED—A situation by a young lady as copyist or to make out bills. Good references. Apply to "D", Newtonville, Mass. 49 ft

FOR SALE—Coupe Rockaway, property of widow used only short time. Apply to Robert B. Hill, Office of Lunt & Colburn's stables, Newtonville. 49 ft

TO LET—Double house, 7 rooms in each tenement; baths, ranges, hot and cold water, on Beach street, three minutes walk from Newtonville depot. Apply to W. H. Purdie, Beach Street, Newtonville. 46 ft

GENTS' ENGLISH RIDING SADDLE—$7. Address B. B. Graphic Office. 49 ft

TO LET—A house on Newtonville Avenue, Newton, containing seven rooms. Apply at 114 Newtonville Ave., Newton. 36 ft

FURNISHED HOUSES—To rent for the Winter. Address Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 25 ft

TO LET—Auburndale, house 9 rooms, bath, furnace, etc. 5 minutes from the R. R. Station. Apply to C. A. Miner, City Hall, West Newton. 25 ft

PERNOLIA'S LAUNDRY AND INTELLIGENCE OFFICE. I have in my laundry a mangle, arrived from England. All plaid clothes without buttons can be mangled as easily as if hot irons were used. Tablecloths and napkins look as though they were new. Mangle, 15 cents per dozen. I have in the Intelligence Office a girl who gets up and serves dinner, church and supper parties. Ladies who wish such help will please call at Pernolia's Office, Adams street, Newton.

Hatch's Superfine Derby
For Autumn Wear.

Our extremely large sales of Hatch's Perfected $3.00 Derby have brought to our store a class of trade that have been paying $5.00 and $6.00 for their hats.

We have, therefore, manufactured for these special customers a hat into whose makeup only careful winnowed stock is put, and which is hand-made in every part. For actual wear it is no better than our regular hat, but has possibly a little more exclusive look from its finer finish and selected materials. It is in actual value a $6.00 Derby and will rank with any American or Imported Derby, but we shall sell it in any shape or color for just

$4.00

We invite critical customers to give it the benefit of a demonstrating test of its superior merits and be governed in their purchases by the results of the trial.

HATCH'S HAT HOUSE,
Methodist Building, 5 Moody St., Waltham.
Boston Store: 311 Washington St.

FALL and WINTER
1892 Millinery Opening 1892

Mrs. E. A. Smith wishes to announce that her regular Fall and Winter Opening of

Hats, Bonnets and French Millinery Novelties
WILL TAKE PLACE ON
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5, 6 and 7.

To which the Ladies of the Newtons are cordially invited.

MRS. E. A. SMITH, 202 Moody St., opp. Walnut St., WALTHAM, MASS. 52 ft

Real Estate.
Mortgages.
Insurance.
Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE!
A FULL LINE OF
Dry Goods and Trimmings,
CAN BE OBTAINED AT
FRANK MAYNARD'S
Formerly of CLARK, MAYNARD & CO.,
"MAYNARD BUILDING" Main St., Waltham.
Waltham and Newton Electric Cars pass the door.

EMERSON'S
Is The Only Fully Equipped
CARPET STORE
In WALTHAM or for miles around.
Nothing but the best is to be found at 698 MAIN STREET.
Take the Electric Cars and while in them read our Ad.

For Envelopes, Billheads, Cards, Programmes, Circulars, Posters, try the
GRAPHIC PRINTING OFFICE.
Estimates given.

REPORT TO THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CONDITION OF
BROADWAY NATIONAL BANK.
At Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, at the Close of Business, Sept. 30, 1892.

RESOURCES.		LIABILITIES.
Discounts.....	$1,301,033.29	Capital Stock paid in.....	$ 200,000.00
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured.....	3,371.26	Surplus.....	150,000.00
U. S. Bonds.....	50,000.00	Undivided Profits.....	85,000.00
Other Stocks and Bonds.....	9,941.73	National Bank Notes Outstanding.....	45,000.00
Current Expenses and Taxes paid.....	7,230.00	Deposits.....	2,195,912.51
Premium on U. S. Bonds.....	7,230.00	Total.....	$2,629,555.53
Due from U. S. Treasurer.....	8,750.00	State of Massachusetts, County of Suffolk, ss.:
Due from other National Banks.....	$391,857.38	I, J. B. Kellock, Cashier of the above-named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Demand Loans.....	354,102.01	J. B. KELLOCK, Cashier.
Cash.....	504,152.01	Subscribed and sworn to before me, the sixth day of October, 1892.
Total.....	$2,629,555.53	L. Vernon Briggs, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
FRANK O. SQUIRE,
JOHN R. GRAHAM,
FRANK W. DOWSER, { Directors.

Open for Business from 9.00 A. M. to 3.00 P. M. Location Especially Desirable. Discounts Daily. Issues Travellers' Checks. Maintains a system and department for the accommodation of small as well as large depositors.

COR. MILK AND ARCH STREETS, BOSTON.
ROSSELL C. BOWNER, President.
FRANK O. SQUIRE, Vice President.
JAMES B. KELLOCK, Cashier.
FREDERIC H. CURTISS, Ass't Cashier.

NEWTONVILLE.

The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Two: F. C. Bridgman, E. W. Redpath, Chas. Keene, Wm. Paul, H. P. Dearborn.

Pianos, Farley, 430 Wash. St., Newton.

Thomas Deery of Appleton street is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joyall are in New York this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pierce are in New York for a short stay.

Miss Linda Curtis has returned from Wolf Hill, Gloucester.

Mr. J. L. Richards has returned from a hunting trip in Maine.

Miss Benson returns next week from a business trip to New York.

Dr. Talbot is building an addition to his house on Walnut street.

Capt. Day, U. S. N., has taken possession of his house on Austin street.

Mrs. Thomas Holt of Chesley place has been entertaining guests from Iowa.

Mr. Shaler of Chesley place is soon to remove to his new residence in Needham.

Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in the Universalist church, Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock.

Mrs. Small of Provincetown is the guest of Mrs. Charles Beals, Washington street.

Mr. A. A. Savage returned this week from his hunting trip through the woods of Maine.

Mrs. Fred Butler of Calais, Me., is the guest this week of Mrs. O. C. Lyon, Linwood avenue.

Prof. Walters of Waltham will open his dancing class Saturday evening next in Tremont Hall.

Mr. Sawtell of Boston moved this week into Capt. Frank Elliott's new house on Brooks avenue.

Mrs. Edward Sands of Court street departs Saturday for a two weeks' visit in New York City.

Mr. W. S. Higgins has a handsome new turnout. The horse is an iron gray, with a good road record.

Mrs. Geo. H. Shapley of Nevada street is visiting friends at Lenox, and will go from there to New York.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Alfred Vose and Miss Josephine Woodworth of Washington park.

Miss Hattie Abbott returned this week from Rockland, Me., where she has been enjoying a two weeks' outing.

Councilman Lunt and a party of friends returned this week from a hunting trip in the vicinity of Moosehead Lake.

Norumbega tribe, I. O. R. M., enjoyed a spread in Purdy's dining hall, Tuesday evening 6. Covers were laid for 40.

Captain William H. Brown of Boston has leased Mr. Chaloner's handsome cottage on Brooks avenue for three years.

Miss Gertrude Jones is making arrangements for the formation of a dancing class. She had a very successful class last winter.

Messrs. A. T. Sylvester and H. B. Parker were delegates to the Massachusetts Universalist convention in Cambridge this week.

Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W., has commenced another boom. Six applications for membership were received Monday evening.

Mr. J. Cheever Fuller has been ill this week except for a short time. He was unable to be present at the bank meeting Tuesday evening.

Mr. E. T. Trotter, Jr., and family of Watertown street, have returned from Wolf Hill, Gloucester, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. W. E. Higgins and Harry Savage were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Guilford, at their new house on Nevada street, Monday evening.

At the meeting of the Newton Co-operative bank, Tuesday evening, the sum of $850 was sold, $800 at 10 cents premium, and the balance at 5 cents.

Edw. Page, Jr., has accepted a responsible position in the employ of R. W. Hildreth, civil engineer, New York, and is at present located in Philadelphia.

John Harrington, residing on Court street, fell from the railing at Echo Bridge, Sunday, a distance of 30 feet, fracturing his arm. He was taken to his home.

The first regular meeting of the Goddard Literary Union was held Tuesday evening in the Universalist church parlors. A series of interesting meetings will be held this winter.

An interesting and largely attended praise service was held at the central church, Sunday evening, the singing being led by an orchestra of five pieces, consisting of Messrs. Wiggins, Hollings, Vose, Butler and Atwood.

Elaborate preparations are being made for an oyster supper and entertainment. The Lent a ladies' affair, which is to make this a success, and it is hoped friends will aid by buying tickets. Without doubt all who attend will enjoy it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boyden of Edinboro street left this week for an extended Western trip, stopping at Chicago, where they will be entertained by Rev. B. A. White, and at Denver, Col., where they will be the guests of Mr. Herbert Wellington.

The N. E. Woman's Press Association will hold a "high tea" in honor of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett at the Parker House next Thursday, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Newtonville members and their guests anticipate the pleasure of meeting the fair authoress.

The city of Newton has under consideration the purchase of a strip of land of about an acre in area, lying between the street running through the estate of ex-Gov. Claflin and the High school grounds. Such an addition, the latter would be a desirable acquisition.

Among the signers of the petition in remonstrance to the change of the B. & A. tracks to a new location are ex-Gov. Claflin, Rev. John Worcester, W. C. Richardson, ex-Alderman Chadwick, E. W. Redpath, John Carter, E. W. Gregg, J. W. Gregg, W. F. Chapman and J. J. Coxeter.

The Unity Dramatic Club will give their first performance of the season in the Unitarian church parlors at West Newton, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 19th and 20th. They will present the two act comedy, "Jack's Chum," with "A Picked-up Dinner" as a curtain-raiser. Tickets fifty cents, may be obtained of the members of the club.

The opening reception of the Newtonville Woman's Guild will be held at the residence of Mrs. T. G. Wood, on Walnut street, next Tuesday, Oct. 11, from 2 to 5 o'clock. It is hoped that a large number of the members will be present, since it will without doubt be a happy occasion, and is especially desirable for new members that their acquaintance may be enlarged, and the work of the Guild be more thoroughly understood.

It was a happy choice, that of Mr. J. L. Wood for president of the Goddard Literary Union, and under his wide awake, earnest lead, pleasant things are anticipated this winter. The other officers elected Tuesday evening were vice-president, Mrs. W. L. Chaloner; secretary, Mr. E. W. Fisher; treasurer, Mr. H. P. Dearborn.

Mr. M. N. Boyden is chairman of the entertainment committee for the opening evening of the season. The retiring officers were given a hearty vote of thanks for their efficient service the past year.

A meeting of the Newton Club will be held Saturday evening, Oct. 15, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers for the ensuing year and action will be taken upon several proposed amendments to the constitution, one relating to entrance fee and annual dues. It is expected that the new clubhouse will be taken possession of Oct. 15, the idea being to form the members in a body and march over there following the meeting. There will be no formal exercises, the date of the grand opening and succeeding festivities not having been yet decided upon.

Mrs. William Wiggins passed away on Wednesday at 2 p. m., at her late residence on Washington park. She had been ill for a long time, but has borne her suffering with a degree of patience that was heroic, and though the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended to the family in their bereavement, it can be truly said of her that "to die is gain." Mrs. Wiggins was a very active worker in the Universalist church, always ready and willing to do fully her share. In her own home she was a devoted wife and mother, faithful to all home interests. The funeral will take place from the church where she was so well known and loved.

A preliminary meeting in the interests of the formation of a Cleveland and Russell club was held in the lower hall in Claflin's block, Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance of Newton Democrats and tariff reformers, every ward in the city being well represented. Col. Jasper N. Keller was elected chairman, and Mr. Frank H. Howe secretary. The details of organization were discussed and a membership list opened, which over 200 signatures were appended. A committee of five from each ward was appointed to solicit additional names, securing, if possible, all residents favoring the election of the Democratic national and state candidates. A meeting for organization will be held in Eliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 10, at 8 o'clock, at which time a committee will report on headquarters for meetings of the club, and dates of several rallies to be held during the campaign.

WEST NEWTON.

The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Three: F. H. Humphrey, H. H. Hunt, James Gaw, C. P. Hall, Lawrence Bond.

Charles Rudolph, formerly of this place, has removed to Natick.

Many West Newtonites attended the County-Club races last Saturday.

Miss Pauline Howard has resumed her studies at the Southampton Academy.

Miss Annie Sumner was the guest last week of Miss Lizzie Damon, Putnam street.

Miss Ruth Ayers of this place has been passing the present week with friends in Boston.

Miss Annie, daughter of Mr. J. T. Allen, has entered the Southampton Academy.

Mr. Alexander Martin has removed to his winter quarters in the Hotel Thorndike, Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Perkins of Grand Rapids, Mich., were recent guests at the Woodland Park Hotel.

Mr. William Bond has been entertaining Mr. George Abbott and Mr. Fred Stanton of Brooklyn this week.

The Allen school and Hopkinton foot ball "eleven" will meet in a lively contest next Wednesday afternoon.

Josiah A. Chase is taking the preparatory course at Allen's and will enter the Institution of Technology next fall.

Residents of Putnam street are anxious for telephone service and several have made applications to the company.

Admiral Kimberly, U. S. N., has an article entitled, "A Reminiscence of Madeira," in the last issue of the Youth's Companion.

Mr. G. F. Barnes has purchased the new house recently erected on Berkeley street, just opposite the grounds of the Neighborhood Club.

The Ward Three Independents have unfurled a Cleveland and Stevenson campaign flag. It is suspended over the grounds of the B. & A. station, off Davis street.

Mr. N. T. Lane was pleasantly surprised by a company of friends who dropped in upon him quite unexpectedly last Friday evening, upon the occasion of a birthday anniversary.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Knights of Honor Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. F. C. Carrington will speak to mothers, especially on the subject of "Social Purity."

Mr. H. L. Whittlesey has dissolved his co-partnership with Mr. A. D. Bosson, who has retired from general law practice. Mr. Whittlesey will continue the business at the old office, 50 and 51 Ames building, Boston.

A meeting of the Veteran Firemen was held in K. of H. Hall Wednesday evening. It was voted to enter the now famous "Nouantrum" in the Natchua tournament, and on Thursday she went accompanied by a large delegation of the boys who made their competitors huddle.

Mrs. Rebecca Robinson, Mr. Miner Robinson, Mr. Sumner Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Travell, attended Tuesday at Chicopee the wedding of Miss Annie Florence Robinson, only daughter of ex-Gov. and Mrs. George D. Robinson, and Mr. Herbert Walter Wright of Springfield.

A good story is told of a resident of the hill who went to an employment agency in search of a domestic. One of the queens of the kitchen came out to see him and gave him a piece of her mind, because of his impudence in expecting her to come out so far into the suburbs. She suggested his removal to Boston if he really desired to employ good help.

The Unity Dramatic Club will give their first performance of the season in the Unitarian church parlors at West Newton, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 19th and 20th. They will present the two act comedy, "Jack's Chum," with "A Picked-up Dinner" as a curtain-raiser. Tickets fifty cents, may be obtained of the members of the club.

The Harvest Sunday School Concert will be held in the Congregational Church, next Sunday evening, Oct. 9th, at 6 o'clock. The new exercise, "Thankful Time," music by organist of the church, will be given. Recitations, scripture selections, etc., by scholars of the school. Free Farm Band, and the Violin String Quartette will assist in the music. Come and enjoy this interesting and attractive service.

The committees of Newton Lodge, I. O. O. F., for the present term are as follows: Finance, F. H. Humphrey, Austin S. Kilburn, Fred J. Edes; entertainment, E. A. Wood, W. B. Colligan, H. W. Nichol; visiting, H. C. Wood, (N. G.), Tyler C. Holmes, W. E. Brown, C. T. Cudgill, E. H. Hall, Francis Mills, Harry Green, F. F. Patterson, C. T. Bartlett. The third degree will be conferred in Newton lodge room Thursday evening, Oct. 20, Nov. 17 and Dec. 29.

Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars initiated a new member and received three propositions Wednesday evening.

The Wiggins side furnished entertainment for the evening, consisting of dialogue including eight characters. The Apple Girl by Miss Minnie Otterson; reading by Mrs. Wiggins. The dialogue was very pleasing, the parts being particularly adapted to the parts assigned them. Miss Otterson's rendition was the gem of the evening. Her sympathetic soprano voice combined with her graceful manner brought forth great applause. Mrs. Wiggins read her selection in her usual energetic manner.

A meeting of the livery stable keepers of the city was held in the City Hall, Monday evening, in the interest of drawing up an ordinance regulating rates of fares and license provisions of carriages and men. The city was represented by Aldermen Sheppard and Hyde. The 25 cent fare limit was established, within what is termed the 3.4 mile circuit and allows for one passenger and trunk not to exceed 100 lbs. weight. After nine at night and before seven in the morning the fare will be 50 cents within the same circuit. The ordinance will be immediately drawn up and will include a provision for licensing drivers.

The Newton Republican representatives met in convention in the City Hall last evening, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for the Legislature from the 17th Middlesex district. Mr. A. K. Tolman was elected chairman and L. A. Hall secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed and reported 24 delegates present entitled to vote. A vacancy in ward 5 delegation was filled, making the full quota of the delegation 33. There was a contest and the final ballot resulted as follows: S. E. Howard, 16; Dwight Chester, 18; E. J. H. Estabrook, 19; George Pettie, 17. On the fourth ballot the delegates voted for the following: Albert Little, captain; Harry Priest, first lieutenant; George Young, second lieutenant; Willis Bancroft, corporal.

Lasell Notes.

Other Lasell notes on page 7.

The excursion to Concord on Monday was voted a success by those who went, who were 94 in number. An early start gave them ample time to visit all the points of interest in and about that historic old place, battle-ground, places otherwise connected with the beginning of the war, homes and haunts of famous writers, all found place in the day's sight-seeing.

Ladies' Wraps

and furs are shown in great variety at the Central Dry Goods Co.'s Store, 107 and 109 Moody street, Waltham. Newton Ladies are invited to inspect them.

The statement of the Broadway National Bank in another column will interest those dealing with Boston banks. It has a surplus of $150,000, is in convenient location and patrons are sure of the most courteous treatment, even if they are not large depositors.

Blasts From The "Ram's Horn."

The man who is willing to have only a little religion will never have any. Sin would never hurt anybody if it couldn't look little and harmless at first. One sinner in heaven would be as much of a start there as the devil would want. It is not according to God's plan that any Christian should carry an ounce of weight.

The love that men have for little sins is the same kind that devils have for big ones.

Mrs. Meadow—I hate to tell you, Mrs. Subur, but really, you ought to know it. Every time I've run into the city lately I've met your husband on the return train; and every time he was paying marked attention to some woman by his side, and every time it was a different woman. I've seen him with a dozen of 'em. Mrs. Subur (quietly)—We have been trying to get a servant girl who would stay.—New York Weekly.

A lady who owns to belonging to seventeen clubs, societies and charitable organizations of one kind and another is authority for the announcement that belonging to clubs is slightly going out.

AUBURNDALE.

The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Four: Bernard Early, F. M. Crehore, E. L. Bridgman, Edward Anderson, P. A. McVicar.

Conductor Jack Adams has moved into his new house on Auburn street.

Mr. Fred C. Smith and family have moved into Mr. Allen's house on Melrose street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter T. Mills have left the Woodland Park Hotel and are at their home, 281 Dartmouth street, Boston.

Mr. Herbert S. Ware has removed from Mr. Allen's house on Melrose street and has taken the Salmon house on Lexington street.

Mr. Arthur C. Farley and family have removed from Allistair and taken Mrs. N. W. Farley's house on Central street. Mrs. Farley will continue to reside there with her son's family.

The first meeting of Riverside Lodge, N. E. O. P., after the summer vacation was held in Auburn Hall Monday evening. There was a large attendance and at the lodge meeting an excellent supper was served by Caterer Marshall of West Newton, followed by the usual social features.

The Unity Dramatic Club will give their first performance of the season in the Unitarian church parlors at West Newton, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 19th and 20th. They will present the two act comedy, "Jack's Chum," with "A Picked-up Dinner" as a curtain-raiser. Tickets fifty cents, may be obtained of the members of the club.

There are letters in the postoffice for Miss M. Agnes Barnard, Mr. Oliver Bond, Miss H. M. Coe, Miss Mary Connelley, Miss Alice D. Colburn, A. S. Colby, Mr. Wm. Conner, Mrs. Amelia Dunbar, Miss Mary Fritz, Miss Mary Heald, Mr. Rufus O. Jenness, Mrs. Wm. Leeden, John O. Martin, Mr. Wilfred M. Peck, Lellie Phillips, Mrs. P. M. Osborn & C. C. Mr. A. Soderberg, Mrs. Magie E. Vaughn, Mrs. Frank Wallace, Miss Mary Warren, Mrs. G. E. Webster.

The Woman's Christian Union met on Saturday afternoon, at the house of Rev. Dr. Steele. The meeting was opened by the president, Miss E. P. Gorn, and after the devotional exercises, delegates were chosen to the annual convention, to be held at Brockton in October. The president then introduced the former president of the State union of Wisconsin, who had been engaged in the early crusade work, and gave the ladies of the union an exceedingly interesting account of her experience.

Next Sunday is to be observed as "Foreign Mission Sunday" at the Methodist church. In the morning the Rev. Dr. E. W. Parker, for thirty-two years a missionary to India, and still at work there, and one of the most prominent missionaries of the Methodists, will preach on "Work in India." In the evening at 7.30 the service will be in the interest of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, with addresses by Mrs. Dr. G. M. Steele of Auburndale, Mrs. Rev. C. H. Hanford of Alliston and others. A day of unusual interest is anticipated.

Mrs. Bent, widow of the late John Bent, died Monday after an illness of several weeks, aged 79 years. The deceased had been a resident of Auburndale for twenty years and for over two years has been a member of the Methodist church. In previous years she had been very active in church work, and during her residence here she won many friends who deeply mourn her departure. The funeral took place Wednesday from Mr. Dillingham's residence, Woodland avenue, Revs. T. W. Bishop and F. E. Clark officiating. The services were largely attended. The interment was at Newton cemetery.

It would be an excellent thing for the members of the grammar schools to join the parade on Discovery Day. The route is short and no harm can come to them from the exercise. Any schools who wish to attend, will be assigned positions in line by the marshal. See notice of arrangements in another column.

A Harrison and Reid Club was organized in Auburn Hall last Tuesday evening and judging from the interest shown the campaign in this portion of the ward will be a very lively one. Nearly sixty members are already secured and new names are fast being added, and the new organization has members from West Newton and Weston as well as Auburndale. A uniform, consisting of white cap with gold cord, white sash and leggings, red trousers and red jacket was decided upon and they will be ready for distribution at the next meeting of the club, Monday evening. A drum corp with a dozen or more members will be organized and a drum major procured. About $50 has already been raised and the club wish to raise about $150 in all to defray expenses. The club is offered as follows: Albert Little, captain; Harry Priest, first lieutenant; George Young, second lieutenant; Willis Bancroft, corporal.

Comer's Commercial College

666 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON.

OLDEST AND MOST SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS TRAINING SCHOOL IN AMERICA.

Young Men and Women

Trade competent and put in the way of earning their own living. Book-keeping, Shorthand, and a GENERAL FITTING FOR BUSINESS.

We have the best teachers, the best course of study, the best rooms, in fact, the best everything. All worthy graduates aided to employment.

Fifty-Second School Year begins September 6, 1892.

Each student receives Individual Instruction, and progresses according to ability and application. Special Three Months' Course (quarter of thirteen weeks) for advanced students; also special Two Hours per day Course in either Book-keeping, Penmanship, or Shorthand. Upon trial this will be found a thoroughly satisfactory school. Fifty-second Annual Catalogue, finely illustrated, sent free.

Comer's Commercial College,

666 WASHINGTON ST., Corner of Beach Street, BOSTON, MASS.

MINER ROBINSON,

ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton.

Private Residences fitted for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Electric Light and Power Installations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates Furnished.

TELEPHONE.

Boston 3311

West Newton, 234-2.

BARGAINS.

BRASS AND IRON BEDSTEADS

Larger variety than found elsewhere in N. E.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,

70 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON.

H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

NEWTONVILLE

Hack Boarding & Livery Stables.

Contain every style of vehicle, single or double.

BERLINS, LANDAUS, COUPES, WITH CAREFUL DRIVERS.

We have constantly on hand Fine Family Horses For Sale.

SPECIAL CARE TO BOARDERS.

Your business is solicited.

LUNT & COLBURN, Proprietors.

ROBERT HILL, Foreman. Office Telephone, 201-2. Stable Telephone 201-3.

A Winter's Experience

SHOWS THE DEFECTS OF THE HEATING APPARATUS.

If your hot-water heater failed you in any way the past winter, or made your coal bill too large, we want to correspond with you. Or if you are thinking of putting in a heater for the first time we can be of service to you.

Our Hot Water Heater works where others fail, and is sold by agents in every part of the country. Write us for further particulars. We can put you in the way of getting one of these Heaters, no matter where you live. If you have made up your mind to purchase some other kind, you may modify your opinion after reading our pamphlet.

THE SMITH & ANTHONY STOVE CO.,
Manufacturers, 48 to 54 Union St., Boston, Mass.

CENTRAL DRY GOODS

An invitation
To the Ladies
To examine the Newest Styles
Of Garments and Furs
Is extended by the

J. W. MACURDY,
133 Moody Street,
SOUTH SIDE,
WALTHAM,
Dealer in

Fine Millinery Goods.

We are daily receiving New Goods in every department, direct from New York and Boston Importers. Our assortment of

Millinery Novelties

were never better than at present. We keep constantly a large assortment of which we sell at very low prices, quality considered. We employ none but experienced saleslady makers and trimmers, and we guarantee our work to give satisfaction. We especially invite the ladies of the Newtons to visit our store and select their millinery.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets

133 MOODY STREET, SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.

House Lots For Sale

On Linwood Avenue, Newtonville, Desirable in every way. Purchasers can secure any number of feet desired. Inquire of

HIGGINS & NICKERSON
NEWTONVILLE.

By ELLIOTT J. HYDE, Auctioneer
31 HILK ST., BOSTON

Executor's Sale

OF
Valuable Real Estate

ON Washington St., Ward 1, Newton.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION
on the premises on
Wednesday the Twelfth Day of October, inst,
AT FOUR O'CLOCK in the AFTERNOON,

The two story double dwelling house and lot of land of about 600 feet, situated on the corner of Washington Street, and the Channing Tunnel, the house contains 11 rooms, and is in first rate order and repair, the land is well situated for another house on the passageway and has more or less fruit, the proposed improvements both as to the widening of Washington Street and the changing of the tracks, gives this property a value that any Newton buyer should appreciate. This is a positive sale, as the Executors desire to close up the Estate. Terms $200, at sale, further terms at the time and place of sale.

DENTISTRY.
H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
OVER INGRAHAM'S DRUG STORE.
Refers to many patients of this city.
OFFICE HOURS: 8.30 to 11.45 a.m., & 1.30 to 5 p.m.
WEST NEWTON.

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING & UNDERTAKER,
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, Mass. Telephone 5119.

HIGHLAND VILLAS.
TO LET. At 25, 27, 29 and 31 Highland Avenue. Every modern convenience, heated by hot water, electric lights, speaking tubes, etc., here you can find the most comfortable and economical place to live. Apply at address Joseph Walling, Newtonville.

CHURCH OF THE MESSIAH.

CORNER STONE LAID MONDAY BY BISHOP BROOKS.

Newton is to have another addition to its numerous houses of worship, and the corner-stone of the Church of the Messiah, the most recent acquisition in a long list of costly and beautiful church buildings, was laid Monday afternoon by Bishop Brooks.

Work on the new church, located on Auburn street in the Auburnville district, was commenced July last, and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy by Christmas.

The architecture is of the Gothic school from plans of Mr. J. Foster Ober. The material used in the construction is brown-red sandstone from the Portland (Connecticut) quarries. The inside dimensions are 70x44, providing for an audience room seating comfortably about 400 persons, and a chancel 20 feet in depth.

The principal entrance will be through a gothic tower, 70 feet in height, located at the southeast corner of the building. The tower will be arranged for a chime of bells—a feature that is to be added at some future time. Another entrance is located in the southwest corner, opening from a low gothic porch.

The interior finish will be in hard wood and the roof will be supported by heavy hard pine trusses resting on fluted columns about 12 feet in height, set nine feet from the side walls.

Simplicity and stability may be termed the special features of both the interior and exterior construction, and the result is an attractive and substantial building. Its cost will be in the vicinity of $15,000. Ex-Councilman Henry H. Hunt is the contractor and the building committee comprises Rev. John Matteson and Wardens N. F. Nye and John W. Bird.

The territorial area of the parish of the Church of the Messiah includes the Auburnville and West Newton districts. The present rector, Rev. John Matteson, is a young man with progressive ideas, who has secured the nucleus of what eventually is to be a large and flourishing parish. This fact has been in the minds of the building committee of the new church, and in its construction, provision has been made for an enlargement, and it is expected that when the building is in reality completed with chapel and enlarged audience room, that the church property will represent a value of about $25,000.

There was a large attendance at the exercises in connection with the laying of the corner stone, the ceremonies being inaugurated at 3 o'clock. The clergy were well represented, and among those present were Dean Lawrence and Prof. Nash and Allen of the Cambridge theological school; Rev. Dr. Converse, secretary; and Rev. Dr. Lindsay, president of the standing committee of the Episcopal diocese; Rev. E. H. Smith, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Fall River; Rev. D. T. F. Pales and Rev. Mr. Cunningham of Waltham; Rev. E. A. Rand, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Watertown; Rev. E. E. Sullivan of Newton Centre, and Rev. H. Usher Monroe of Newton Lower Falls.

The order of exercises was as follows: Processional, choir; singing, choir and congregation. The Church's One Foundation, description of the contents of box placed beneath the corner-stone, Rev. John Matteson; laying of the corner stone, Bishop Brooks; recitation of the Apostles' Creed; address, Rev. George W. Shinn, D. D., rector of Grace Church, Newton; singing, choir and congregation. "The Church Our Foundation Stone," benediction, Bishop Brooks.

The corner stone was put in position under the tower buttress. It is red sandstone, and bears the date 1892, and a simple Maltese cross.

The articles placed in the box under the corner stone comprised copies of the Newton papers and Churchman, names of the President of the United States, Governor of Massachusetts and the Mayor of Newton; list of the officers and members of the building committee of the church; report of the last Episcopal diocesan convention; names of rector, architect and builder.

A GROWL ABOUT THE STREETS.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—

I think it is about time the public made a vigorous complaint as to the condition of our streets. Why is the material left a foot or more higher than the road bed for weeks after the sewer has been laid, or the road bed left in bad shape? Have we a superintendent of streets, whose duty it is to see that the highways are kept at all times in a safe condition?

I understand that it is the custom of the highway committee, not to make repairs unless a petition has been presented; if this is so, the city council will have legions of them to act upon hereafter. While we are having petition of money expended upon the gutters of our streets, the road beds of the same are neglected. OBSERVE.

Newton, Sept. 28, '92.

ECHO BRIDGE PARK.

Echo Bridge, by which Boston's water-pipes cross the Charles at Newton Upper Falls, is singularly unknown, says the Boston Transcript, its merits being considered. It certainly fulfills the American idea that a thing must be big to be great. There is but a single arch in this country to surpass its largest span, 130 feet. It is only nine miles as the bee flies from the State House, but comparatively few have stood to try its echo, which answers, as one of its engineers has aptly put it, like a woodful of wild Indians. As the neighborhood has all the natural beauties of a deep, dark pool and wooded bluffs, it would only be necessary to buy and clean up a small tract to turn it into a fine park. When the Metropolitan Commissioners pass that way we hope it may not escape their notice. The rest can be trusted to their judgment.

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

A faded and discolored beard is untidy and a misfortune. It can be prevented by using Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers, a never failing remedy.

The formula of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is well known to the medical profession, and universally approved. The reputation of the firm guarantees excellence and uniformity in the medicine, and the world's experience for nearly half a century has fully demonstrated its value.

Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures all diseases by impure blood and it builds up the whole system.

FAMED SANTA MARIA.

COLUMBUS' FLAGSHIP COMPARED WITH MODERN SAILING VESSELS.

The Wonder to the Mariner of Today Is How the Navigator Crossed the Ocean in His Little Caravel—A Facsimile for the World's Fair.

Spain is now in the midst of a series of fetes in commemoration of the discovery of America which will last till late in October. On the 3d of August, date of the sailing of Columbus from Palos, the jubilation began, and of all the sights the exact reproduction of the flagship of Columbus, the Santa Maria, excited most amazement. Among the sailors in the vast gathering there was a loud chorus of astonishment and unbelief. Almost unanimously they declared that such a ship had not done the thing—it was impossible.

THE NEW SANTA MARIA.

It is indeed hard to believe that the little caravel of 240 tons at the outside could have made such a voyage, and when one compares it with the large sailing vessels of today he may well be incredulous. With the achievements of steam and practical science we are tolerably familiar, but the fact that (though sailing vessels antedate written history, the progress therein since 1492 is as great as in anything else) comes to one as a great surprise. Compare the little Santa Maria with, for instance, the magnificent Shenandoah, the American four-masted bark and queen of all sailing vessels, which a few months ago went from San Francisco to Liverpool with 5,000 tons of wheat on board.

Consider first the big sailer, The Shenandoah, commanded by Captain Murphy, was one of the five which left the Bay of San Francisco last year on the famous race around the Horn. They sailed at high tide, of necessity, as they drew twenty-seven feet of water. The weight of wheat aboard, 5,000 tons, was the greatest cargo of the kind ever placed in a vessel and equivalent to 166,733 bushels, or the crop of an average agricultural county. An adequate description of the Shenandoah would fill a column. Sailer as she is, she "makes sail by steam," as sailors say—that is, the sails are pulled into place by a little donkey engine, and of all glorious sights to the seaman's eye there is none more glorious than to see her swell from bare poles to full rig of snowy sails in less than five minutes.

The Santa Maria might have been placed on the deck of the Shenandoah without adding perceptibly to her weight of cargo. She was a decked vessel, and while the Spanish historians do not deal in exact measurements they are so minute in details of her capacity that her size is known. Captain Gustavus W. Fox, after a very careful calculation, declares that her length was "63 feet over all and 57 feet along her keel," with 20 feet beam and 10½ feet in depth. Her crew consisted of fifty seamen, and in the list are found the names of one Englishman and one Irishman. It is really a pity that this list is not certainly authentic; it would be interesting to know the name of the first Irish emigrant to America. This historic vessel was wrecked on Christmas eve, 1492, on the coast of Hispaniola, a calamity due to the gross carelessness of the sailing master.

Small as she was, her consort, the Pinta and the Nina, were considerably smaller, being mere barks, called caravels, without decks, unless the high prow and stern may be so called. In the center such a vessel was absolutely open and in no respect superior to the fishing craft and other light coasting vessels of today. That men should have been willing to dare the passage of the stormy Atlantic in such craft gives us a high idea of their courage, and as a matter of fact only Columbus, Las Casas, the Pinzons and two or three other mad enthusiasts were willing. The crew consisted chiefly of desperate characters compelled to take the trip. Many were released from prison to go, and some had been condemned to death and volunteered as a bare chance for life.

THE SHENANDOAH.

Our astonishment is but slightly mitigated when we read that Columbus did not ask for large vessels, for there were many in the Spanish ports larger than these. He firmly believed that the voyage would be comparatively short and the sea where he was going always smooth, and he particularly requested such vessels as would enable him to run close in along the shores and sail up the rivers. On his third voyage, when he actually reached South America, he complained of the size of his vessel, which rendered coast exploration difficult.

The Spanish authorities declare that the Santa Maria of 1492 is an exact reproduction in every detail of that of 1493. It has the same old fashioned shape, the same primitive masts, rigging and sails, and even the same armament of falconets and mortars, halberds and arquebuses. The cabin of the commander is furnished in the style of the fifteenth century, and its table is littered with maps, documents and musical instruments of the period. Finally, its mastsheads are decorated with the royal standards of Castille and Leon, in exact imitation of the flags which Columbus planted in the New World on Oct. 12, 1492. The vessel is manned by an excellent crew, obtained from among the fishermen and sailors of Cadiz and San Fernando, and placed under the orders of a detachment of officers of the royal navy.

At the opening of the Spanish fetes, on Aug. 3, the war vessels of all nations were at Huelva to salute the new Santa Maria on her first voyage down the river, and her entrance into the Bay of Cadiz was greeted by deafening salvos. As there was almost a dead calm, however, she had to be taken in tow by a gunboat, which marred the representation somewhat. Later, however, she sailed out beautifully on the route taken by Columbus, and returned to receive renewed salutes. At this naval congress of nations the fact was humorously commented on that Columbus took with him for interpreter a scholar who knew Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Arabic, Coptic and Armenian, in addition to Spanish; that this learned gentleman was a failure in the New World, and that the first to master any of the Indian tongues were the most illiterate sailors. But this is an oft repeated experience.

J. H. BEADLE.

EDNA DEAN PROCTOR.

She Wrote the Ode for the Columbus Day Celebration.

Miss Edna Dean Proctor, the descendant of a highly honored New England family, was born at Henniker, N. H. In early life she became a contributor to the best literary publications and published a volume of poems, mostly patriotic, which gave her a leading place among American poets. After traveling extensively in the east she wrote "A Russian Journey" in a vivid, picturesque Latin style, which has become a classic.

EDNA DEAN PROCTOR.

Her later poems have been slowly produced, but are everywhere held to be masterpieces of art and among the strongest voices of patriotism in our literature. She lives much of the time in Boston and at Framingham, Mass.

Miss Proctor was honored by the committee of the popular Columbus Day celebration soliciting her to write the ode which is to be rendered in every locality of America on Oct. 21. The lyric is the result of months of labor, and will take permanent rank as one of the foremost poems ever written on America.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

He Recommends the General Observance of Columbus Day on Oct. 21.

Whereas, by a joint resolution, approved June 28, 1892, it was resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, "That the president of the United States be authorized and directed to issue a proclamation recommending to the people the observance of all their localities of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America, on the 21st of October, 1892, by public demonstrations and by suitable exercises in their schools and other places of assembly;"

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, in pursuance of the aforesaid joint resolution, do hereby appoint Friday, Oct. 21, 1892, the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, as a general holiday for the people of the United States. On that day let the people so far as possible cease from toil and devote themselves to such exercises as may best express honor to the discoverer and their appreciation of the great achievements of the four completed centuries of American life.

Columbus stood in his age as the pioneer of progress and enlightenment. The system of universal education is in our age the most prominent and salutary feature of the spirit of enlightenment, and it is peculiarly appropriate that the schools be made by the people the center of the day's demonstration. Let the national flag float over every school house in the country, and the exercises be such as shall impress upon our youth the patriotic duties of American citizenship.

In the churches and in the other places of assembly of the people let there be expressions of gratitude to divine Providence for the devout faith of the discoverer, and for the divine care and guidance which have directed our history and so abundantly blessed our people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 21st day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and seventeenth.

By the President: JOHN W. FOSTER, Secretary of State.

Against Moving the Tracks.

Newtonville, Oct. 1st, 1892.

To the editor of the GRAPHIC:—The report of the meeting at the City Hall last Wednesday evening is incorrect in one particular. It states that the resolutions offered were unanimously adopted. Several gentlemen present voted in the negative, and many others were deterred from so doing only by a mistaken notion of propriety. They assumed that as the call for the meeting was addressed to "those favorably disposed," it would be discourteous to raise a dissenting voice. The inconsistency of taking a vote in a meeting of "those favorably disposed" puzzled them for the moment, and while they were trying to solve the mystery the chairman declared the resolutions adopted.

When the question of removing the tracks is presented to the citizens at large, instead of to a few hundred gentlemen brought together by a call addressed to "those favorably disposed," it will be found that "the people" are by no means "satisfied that it would be an excellent thing." On the contrary a large number will declare that the proposition involves a gross injustice to private rights such as no majority, however well meaning and powerful, can be permitted to commit with safety.

Shifting the railway would mean taking money out of the pockets of a large number of those owning south side property and putting it into the pockets of their northern neighbors. This is regarded as a necessary incident in making a change which is said to be for the general welfare of the city. But if so can such a change be made with a clear conscience? Shall we "do a little wrong" to a minority of our fellow citizens in order that the majority may be benefited? This principle if accepted would justify the health officer in promptly casting into the crematory every individual who showed the first symptom of Asiatic cholera, for it could be easily shown that such action although unfair to the sufferer, was for the benefit and protection of the overwhelming majority.

There is a question of abstract right and wrong involved in this matter, and the people of Newton will probably see it, after a little, and hesitate to resort to such high-minded methods.

If a majority of the citizens of any town have the right to change the location of a railway within their borders to suit their own good pleasure, then a majority of the citizens of a state can exercise a similar right for the same purpose. Should this right be once established we may expect to see some big operations in real estate such as have been effected in Mexico where whole towns have been abandoned by the railways in order to compel the unfortunate inhabitants to remove and occupy the adjoining land for the benefit of the conspirators.

There is not much danger that the Massachusetts Legislature will consent to setting such a dangerous precedent even at the unanimous request of the citizens of Newton. That there will be a determined resistance to the scheme by a large majority, if it ever gets as far as the legislature, there can be no doubt.

A. J. M.

Young People as Christian Workers.

The great gathering of the Christian Endeavor organization held a short time ago in New York city attracted much attention. It was a superb spectacle, those many thousands of earnest young people banded together under a pledge of active service for the welfare of others. The possibilities of usefulness before them are incalculable. There was in session in Boston last week a gathering which in some respects was even more unique than the New York convention. It was the 7th annual conference of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, composed of young men of the Episcopal church. Some 700 educated active young men, from all parts of the country, met to consider how they can use their talents for the common good.

It would seem as if new waves of beneficent influence must be set in motion all over our land when so many of the choicest and most active spirits come together, not to discuss theological dogmas, but the one simple question of how to do good to the bodies and souls of others.

"According to His Folly," Hostess: "I've got such a cold today. I feel quite stupid." Prize Idiot (calling): "I've got a bad cold, too; but I don't feel particularly stupid."

Hostess: "Ah! I see you're not quite yourself!"—Puck.

For Constipation
Ayer's Pills
For Dyspepsia
Ayer's Pills
For Biliousness
Ayer's Pills
For Sick Headache
Ayer's Pills
For Liver Complaint
Ayer's Pills
For Jaundice
Ayer's Pills
For Loss of Appetite
Ayer's Pills
For Rheumatism
Ayer's Pills
For Colds
Ayer's Pills
For Fevers
Ayer's Pills

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

Every Dose Effective

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

Mrs. William Lohr

Of Freeport, Ill., began to fail rapidly, lost all appetite and got into a serious condition from Dyspepsia. She could not eat vegetables or meat, and even toast distressed her. Had to give up housework. In a week after taking

Hood's Sarsaparilla

She felt a little better. Could keep more food on her stomach and grew stronger. She took 3 bottles, has a good appetite, gained 22 lbs., does her work easily, is now in perfect health.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills. They assist digestion and cure headache.

Newton City Market.
ALL KINDS OF
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME.
Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,
Canned Goods, Fruit,
and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

Ripans Tabules prolong life.

G. W. RIGBY,
Carpenter and Builder

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN NEWTON MASS.

Ripans Tabules relieve nausea.

GEO. W. BUSH,
Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes.

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

W. M. H. PHILLIPS
Would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

Newton National Bank,
NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

On Saturdays, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.

Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Muldock, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, Charles E. B. Jones, William C. Bacon, Charles A. Minor, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward and Chas. T. Pulsifer.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT:

James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Muldock.

CHAR. A. MINER, Clerk and Auditor.

H. W. MASON, Attorney

Interest begins on deposit on the 10th day of January, April, July and October.

—THE—

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1887.

West Newton, Mass.

AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Brigham, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Gate, Adams R. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Don't Drink Impure water longer when for 50c. you can buy a good filter. They will fit a faucet without it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

"Improvement of the Order of the Age."

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER

LEADS THEM ALL.

In Improvements of the Highest Order.

Send for Catalogue.

SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER CO.,

25 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON, MASS.

A BLIND

CAN SEE THE VIRTUES

of OLD

HONESTY

CHEWING TOBACCO

OLD HONESTY is acknowledged to be the purest and most lasting piece of Standard Chewing Tobacco on the market. Trying it is a better test than any talk about it. Give it a fair trial.

Your dealer has it.

JNO. FINZER & BROS., Louisville, Ky.

PHILADELPHIA

LAWN MOWER

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES THIS YEAR.

The Only Perfect Lawn Mower.

Lightest Draft. Most Durable.

OVER 500,000 SOLD.

The genuine have the maker's name cast on one wheel, and the words "Philadelphia Lawn Mower" on the other.

All that have not been inferior imitations that won't last; don't buy them; you can get the genuine for the same money.

On large lawns the Philadelphia Horse Lawn Mower is economical, and gives splendid satisfaction.

FOR SALE BY

BARBER BRO'S

415 Center Street.

(Opposite Public Library.)

Manufacturers Agents for Newton.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

BOSTON OFFICES: 91 Kilby st., 105 Arch st., 33 Court sq. Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market.

NEWTON OFFICE: At H. B. Coffin's, Order Boxes at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins.

Leave Newton at 9.30 a. m.

Leave Boston at 3 p. m.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, NEWTON & BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 a. m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p. m.

NEWTON OFFICE: 384 Centre Street. Order Box: Newton City Market.

NEWTON OFFICE: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave. Extension. Post Office address Box 420, Newton.

Personal Attention Given All Orders.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or at G. F. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Procter's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

YOU CAN EAT PIE If it is made with Cottolene instead of LARD, and the Pie will be BETTER.

Manufactured only by
N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.,
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREATEST BLOOD PURIFIER KNOWN.

This Great German Medicine is the CHEAPEST and best. 128 doses of Sulphur Bitters for $1.00, less than one cent a dose. It will cure the worst kind of skin disease, from a common pimple on the face to that awful disease, SCROFULA. In all cases of such stubborn, deep-seated diseases, Sulphur Bitters is the best medicine to use. Don't wait until tomorrow, get a bottle TO-DAY.

Use Sulphur Bitters immediately. If you are sick, no matter what ails you, use Sulphur Bitters. Don't wait until you are unable to walk, or are flat on your back, but get some AT ONCE, it will cure you. Sulphur Bitters is THE INVALID'S FRIEND.

Send 2-cent stamps to J. P. O'Leary & Co. Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

TEETH.

$10 a SET. Guaranteed. Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates.

DR. W. R. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park Square, up one flight. ROOM 7. N. HEAR.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT Cured by DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY All Grocers sell and warrant it.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

CURES
Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness,
Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat,
Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains,
Colic, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia,
Sour Stomach, &c.
Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

DO YOU COUGH DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief to advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers every where. Large bottles, 50 cents and $1.00.

A BALLAD OF "OLD GLORY."

It flutters from ocean to ocean
High over the elements' roar,
The flag of our love and devotion—
The star-spangled flag we adore!
Far famed, both in song and in story,
Today and for days still in store—
Hurrah for the folds of Old Glory!

If a foe or false friend have a notion
His prowess and strength to explore,
He shall set all his nerves in a motion
They never experienced before.
Oh, 'tis stronger by far than of yore
When it crushed the vile plot of each Tory!
Hol' fighting 'till will shudder and roar—
Hurrah for the folds of Old Glory!

ENVOI.

Their light may its stars never pour
For wrong on a battlefield gory!
May its eagle bird live but to score—
Hurrah for the folds of Old Glory!
—Eugene Davis.

A PATRIOTIC PROGRAMME.

Plans for the Public School Observance of Columbus Day.

When the American superintendents of education at their Brooklyn meeting last winter appointed their executive committee to take charge of the national public school celebration of Columbus Day, they instructed them especially to prepare a uniform programme of exercises for all localities.

This official programme is now published. It provides specifically for a morning celebration in the school houses, and suggestions are made for afternoon demonstrations in which schools and citizens may unite. The morning ceremonies are to be as follows:

The schools are to assemble in their school houses at the usual hour on the morning of Oct. 21. All the rooms under the same principal, so far as possible, are to unite in the same exercises. Although it is a gala day, the discipline is to be precise, and the session is supposed to exhibit the results of careful, painstaking preparations.

The principal sees that everything is in readiness, gives his last injunctions and with his special guests waits the arrival of the detail of veterans who are to assist in raising and saluting the flag. The veterans are awaited at the gate by a color guard of pupils and are escorted with dignity to the main room and presented to the principal. Then the signal is given, and each room in turn, to drumbeat or other music, marches to the school yard, where the exercises are to take place and where seats have been arranged. The pupils are drawn up in a large hollow square around the flag, and the veterans and color guard take their places at the halcyons.

The exercises are opened by the master of ceremonies, who may be the principal or an appointed person, reading the president's proclamation for the school celebration of the day, in which he urges that every school in the land shall fly the national flag. He orders the flag unfurled, and the veterans run it up the staff and lead the assemblage in three cheers for the stars and stripes. Then, led by the principal, the pupils give an impressive salute to the colors, pledging allegiance to the flag and to the republic for which it stands. This salute properly terminates in the singing of "My country, 'tis of thee" by the whole audience.

Following this unique ceremony and an acknowledgment of Divine Providence come the specially contributed features of the official programme. The first of these is the song of Columbus Day by Theron Brown, the distinguished writer of sweet songs. This is to be sung to the old and majestic tune of "Lyons." Then follows the address of Columbus Day, which is a thoughtful and brilliant declamation prepared by The Youth's Companion as its special gift to the celebration. The final feature is the reading of the ode of Columbus Day. This new poem, by Edna Dean Proctor, is a masterpiece. It will take high and permanent rank as an American classic. The privilege of declaiming this noble address, and of rendering the superb ode, will be a coveted distinction among the pupils of our schools, and the assignment should be very carefully made.

This concludes the uniform features of the official programme. Following these are expected to come the local additions, such as historic representations, patriotic recitations and chorals, with which the schools may elaborate the exercises. It will also be the usual thing for addresses to be made by the eminent guests of the occasion, and for the familiar national hymns to be sung.

Preparations for the creditable rendering of this programme cannot begin too soon. The most careful arrangements should be made. Persistent rehearsing is imperative.

The families of all the pupils should be invited. Citizens generally should be expected at the school houses on the evening of Oct. 21. Seats for the assemblage should be provided out of doors, and a suitable room should also be held in readiness for retreat in case of storm.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- |   |         |
|---|---------|
| Bigelow, P. Paddles and Politics down the Danube.   | 31.402  |
| Description of a canoe voyage made during the summer of 1891, with an account of the people of the countries which border on this great highway and casual discussions of the political situation.  |         |
| Brown, B. P. The Principles of Ethics.  | 95.474  |
| An introduction to fundamental moral ideas and principles. The author, Professor of Philosophy in Boston Univ., thinks that the aim of conduct is not abstract virtue, but fulness and richness of life.  |         |
| Brewster, H. P. and Humphrey, G. H. England and its Rulers; a Concise Compendium of the History of England and its People.  | 71.369  |
| A collection of facts which relate to the permanent forces of the nation.   |         |
| Church, A. J. Pictures from Roman Life and Story.   | 92.661  |
| Historical pictures from the lives and times of the Caesars, presented in a popular manner for general reading.   |         |
| Cohn, M. M. Introduction to the Study of the Constitution; a Study showing the Play of Physical and Social Factors in the Creation of Institutional Law.  | 86.126  |
| One of the extra volumes of the Johns Hopkins Univ. Studies in the Hist. and Polir. Science.  |         |
| Ellis, E. S. From the Throat to the Presidential Chair; a Story of American Railway Life.   | 64.1216 |
| Fouche, J. Memoirs of Joseph Fouche, Duke of Otranto, Minister of the General Police of France.   | 92.659  |
| Garland, H. A Spoil of Office; a Story of the Modern West.  | 64.1223 |
| Giffen, R. The Case against Bimetallism.  | 81.213  |
| "An attempt to exhibit the extravagance and intemperance of money among bimetallists regarding money and currency and to explain and support the main propositions of the adherents of a monometallic standard as the only sound foundation of a monetary system."  |         |
| Johnston, R. M. Dukesborough Tales; the Chronicles of Mr. Bill Williams.  | 64.1227 |
| Kolokolov, T. The Klept and the Warrior; Sixty Years of Peril and Daring; an Autobiography; trans. fr. the Greek with introd. and Notes by Mrs. Edmunds; with Preface by J. Genoudis.   | 95.473  |
| Leland, C. G. Leather Work; a Practical Manual for Learners.  | 104.460 |
| Another contribution to the series of practical manuals of the Minor Arts projected by Mr. Leland.  |         |
| Lowell, J. R. American Ideas for English Readers; with introd. by H. Stone.   | 62.500  |
| Unstudied letters and speeches of Mr. Lowell in England, between 1880 and 1888.   |         |
| Marbury, M. O. Favorite Fables and their Histories; with many Replies from Practical Anglers to Inquiries concerning how, when and where to fish.   | 107.199 |
| Mrs. Marbury begins with an essay on "Insects, Natural and Artificial," then follows the history of the various fables accompanied by letters relating to their use.  |         |
| Niblett, J. T. Secondary Batteries; a Description of the Modern Apparatus and the Storage of Electrical Energy.   | 103.562 |
| Paget, V. (Vernon Lee.) Vanitas; Poetic Stories.  | 64.1222 |
| Payne, E. J. History of the New World called America. Vol. 1. In this volume the writer seeks to analyze the social structure and economy of the advanced communities and to trace the origins of the New World, to measure the degree of progress they had attained, and to trace their history so far as it can be recovered. | 73.258  |
| Smith, E. T. (L. T. Meade.) Four on an Island; a Book for the Little Folks.   | 64.1217 |
| E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.  |         |
| Oct. 6, 1892.   |         |

There can be no health for either mind or body so long as the blood is vitiated. Cleanse the vital current from all impurities by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine recruits the wasted energies, strengthens the nerves, and restores health to the debilitated system.

What Stronger Proof

Is needed of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla than the hundreds of letters continually coming in telling of marvellous cures it has effected after all other remedies had failed? Truly, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses a peculiar curative power unknown to other medicines.

Mr. Eben D. Jordan, of Jordan, Marsh & Company has engaged the Posse gymnasium on Irvington street, Boston, every Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the female employees in his establishment. They will be instructed in all the latest health giving manoeuvres by an efficient corps of teachers belonging to the gymnasium.

Allow me to add my tribute to the efficacy of Ely's Cream Balm. I was suffering from a severe attack of influenza and catarrh and was induced to try your remedy. The result was marvellous, I could hardly articulate, and in less than twenty-four hours the catarrhal symptoms and my hoarseness disappeared and I was able to sing a heavy role in Grand Opera with voice unimpaired. I strongly recommend it to all singers.—Wm. H. Hamilton, Leading Bass of the C. D. Hess Grand Opera Co.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

There are a few "school teachers" who make good salaries. Besides a residence in the royal household four thousand dollars a year apiece are the salaries of the Countess de Nurasol, Miss Etta Hughes and Fraulein Paula, who are respectively the Spanish, English and Austrian governesses of the Infantas of Spain.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Coughing Leads to Consumption, Kemp's Balm stops the cough at once.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Coughing Leads to Consumption, Kemp's Balm stops the cough at once.

Lasell Notes.

Rev. H. G. Spaulding began last Friday evening the course of lectures which he is to deliver at Lasell during the coming weeks, by a most entertaining and instructive one in which Posilippo, Puteoli, Paestum, Baiae and Vesuvius were visited. A fine map of Campania enabled the audience to locate with exactness the various places to be described. Then followed a series of fine views of the Bay of Naples, the lecturer reciting meanwhile Read's beautiful poem, "Drifting." Then Posilippo, where is Virgil's tomb, and where he sometimes resided. The greater Doric temple architecture was shown and commented on, and was compared with the Doric architecture of the Temple of Theseus at Athens, views of the latter being also given. The greater harmony and grace of the Doric as seen in this building contrasted strongly with the heavy and dumpy look of the Paestum columns, and the comparative effect of lightness and gracefulness of effect in the whole. Puteoli was especially interesting as the landing place of St. Paul after his perilous voyage to Italy, and for its ruined Serapeum, whose tall columns, broken and defaced, bear evidence on their surfaces of the alternate rise and fall of the land where they are erected. Thence to Baiae, the "Napoleon of Rome," whose beautiful villas and lovely scenery when in its prime, as Turner's imagination restored them, were shown in a view of one of his pictures. Capri, its wave worn rocks, curving beaches and wonderful Blue grotto, next delighted the audience. Last of all Vesuvius, as it appeared both before and after the eruptions of '79 and 1872 respectively, concluded the series. The lecturer gave an interesting and lucid account of the various changes that had taken place from time to time in the venerable old volcano, and gave a fine view of Vesuvius in eruption at night, a striking spectacle, even the representation of which is to be remembered. The lecture from beginning to end was full of interest for the traveler as well as the untraveled portion of the audience.

Death of Elisha Bassett.

Mr. Elisha Bassett, for fifty-one years clerk and deputy clerk of the United States Court in Boston, died at his home in Newton Centre at 3 a. m. Tuesday, the result of a shock received a week ago Monday. He was seventy-four years old. He was born in Ashfield, Mass., June 6, 1818, and at twenty-two years of age went into the office of Clerk Francis Bassett as an assistant. Francis Bassett was succeeded in 1845 by Seth Sprague, who remained in office twenty-five years and was followed by Edward Dexter; later by Clement Hugh Hill, who resigned in 1887, and Mr. Bassett was promoted from deputy to clerk in January following, March 10, 1890, completed fifty years of service in the office of clerk of the United States District Court by Mr. Bassett, and the occasion was made memorable by the gathering of lawyers, members of the United States Court bar, who presented Mr. Bassett with a silver water pitcher. Soberly and with this event Mr. Bassett, who had been failing in health for some time, was obliged to resign, and has since lived in retirement at Newton Centre.

A recent wedding in England was a "yellow" wedding, and with the addition of lots of golden rod, which our British cousins have not, would be a very pretty idea for adaptation to some autumn ceremonies of this country. The bridesmaids were charmingly dressed in short-waisted Empire costumes of pale yellow bengaline, with Watteau-trains, and sleeves in one large puff to the elbow. The dresses were cut rather open at the throat and made full to the bottom of the arm-hole, at which point a twisted fold of silk was arranged, terminating between the shoulders at the back in a rosette, from which fell the train. A fichu of soft white lace was worn round the shoulders, a cascade falling in front and deep lace ruffles edged the long sleeves at the wrist. They wore large black velvet hats, with two or three rows of satin ribbon round the crown and a bunch of pale yellow feathers in front and fastened with black velvet strings. The bridegroom presented each with a gold cable bangle and padlock and a bouquet of yellow marguerites tied with ribbons of the same color.

"When I began housekeeping, over twenty-five years ago," I began also a guest book. Every visitor who broke bread in my house became a guest and inscribed his name in my book. I always insisted on date and place of residence at the time and often the writer or a dead original line or quoted some apt sentence commemorative of his visit. I find it in these twenty-five years I have accumulated 1,764 names. This includes people who have taken a meal in my house and people who have spent six weeks with me; it makes an average of about seventy persons a year, not many, but the sum aggregates a goodly number. Of these 1700 and upward I find that more than a third I have wholly forgotten; have not the faintest recollection of them or why they should have visited me."

Her Legal Right, Little Sadie: "Oh, Uncle Harry, Miss Brown and Mr. Swift are in the parlor, and she has her head on his shoulder."

Uncle Harry: "That's all right. She has a lien on him."—Kate Field's Washington Record.

"I got a dreadful shock at that 'phone yesterday."

"What was it—lightning?"

"No, no—the telephone girl. She thought it was the office boy!"—Chicago News Record.

Ladies who Bleed.

What a great number there are, how uncomfortable it makes them; it is almost impossible for those afflicted to enjoy life. In my private practice I have always found Sulphur Bitters to be the best remedy. All who are thus troubled should use it. Mrs. Dr. Childs, Boston.

It is Not Best

to always believe everything that a person tells you, but when you hear that the best blood purifier is Sulphur Bitters, you can believe it, for they cured me of a severe case of blood poisoning. Rev. A. Fairchild, New York City.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Erysipelas, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 153th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Water Bugs and Roaches CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price

BARNARD & CO.,

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Dumley. "Miss Ethel paid me such a ridiculous compliment, don't you know?"

Miss Sweet. "Indeed! What did she say?"

Dumley. "That Homer could not have seen a more heroic figure than myself."

Miss Sweet. "That's so. Homer was blind."—Judge.

Amy. "Has he ever loved any other girl before?"

Mabel. "No; that doesn't worry me. What I want to know is if he will love any other girl in the future."—Harper's Bazar.

Pitchburg Railroad. Reduced Rates of Fare For Round Trip Tickets on account of SUMMER VACATION EXCURSIONS

Tickets on sale June 1 to Sept. 30, and good until Oct. 31, 1892.

SUMMER EXCURSION BOOK FREE

On receipt of 2c. stamp for postage. Gives information in regard to routes, rates of fare and list of hotels and boarding houses. Can be obtained at 250 Washington St., Boston, or on application to

J. R. WATSON, Gen. Pass. Agent.

39 St.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

A NATURAL REMEDY FOR

Epileptic Fits, Falling Sickness, Hysterics, St. Vitus Dance, Nervousness, Hypochondria, Melancholia, Insobriety, Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Brain and Spinal Weakness.

This medicine has direct action upon the nerve centers, allaying all irritabilities, and increasing the flow and power of nerve fluid. It is perfectly harmless and leaves no unpleasant effects.

FREE—A valuable book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876 and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5.
Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Ripans Tabules: best liver tonic.

LADIES AND GENTS' BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feel trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. Full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom price.

A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

Ripans Tabules relieve headache put in a

Why not WALKER FURNACE?

Best in the world. We can prove it. Ask us what it costs.

Our 48-page book and all other information free. Send your address to

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,
34th STREET WATERTOWN

HOWARD ICE CO., SUCCESSORS TO HOWARD BROS.

Orders can be left at

342 Centre Street, - Newton.
Office Hours: 7.45 to 11 A. M.; 3 to 5.45 P. M.

ABRAHAM L. HOWARD, Proprietor
OFFICE, 46 GALEN ST., WATERTOWN.

NEWTON COAL CO.

SUCCESSORS TO
HILLS, BULLENS & CO.,
DEALERS IN—

COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty.
OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.

Branch Office, Tainter's
News Stand, Newtonville.
E. BRADSHAW. Agent for Newtonville

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM

One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON, WALTHAM, MASS.

P. O. Box, 592.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin Square 7.00 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME

First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin Square 8.30 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.00 P. M.

First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.15 A. M. C. S. SERGEANT, 5 ly Second Vice President

Boston Revere Beach and Lynn R. R.

Fall and Winter Time-Table, Sept. 11, 92.

Leave Boston for Lynn at 6.50, 7.30, 8.30, 10.11 A. M., 12 M., 1.23, 3.30, 4.45 (Express), 4.55 (Express), 5.30, 6.45 (Express), 6.50, 7.30, 8.30, 10.20 and 11.25 P. M.

Leave Lynn for Boston at 6.10, 6.50, 7.50 (Express), 7.50 (Express), 8.50 (Express), 9.30 (Express), 10.11 A. M., 12 M., 1.23, 2.45, 3.15, 3.45, 4.15, 4.45, 5.15, 5.50, 6.45, 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 and 10.15 P. M.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Leave Boston for Lynn every hour from 10 A. M. to 9 P. M., inclusive, and at 10.15 P. M.

Leave Lynn for Boston every hour from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., inclusive, and at 9.30 P. M.

All trains stop at West Lynn.

JOHN A. FENNO, C. A. HAMMOND, G. F. A. Supr. Boston, Sept. 11, 1892.

Daily . . . 50c a Month. THE BEST YACHTING NEWS IN THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent of the GRAPHIC and free press subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Six: Wm. F. Woodman, W. H. Dupee, Herbert Waters, D. F. Flannagan, F. F. Stuart.

—Mr. C. M. Newton is absent in the west on a business trip.

—Sunday school of the Unitarian society at 2.30 p. m. Service at 3.45.

—Carpets and window shades at McWain's. Cash or instalments.

—Gyong Rabbai, a tailor, is occupying a position at Clarke's real estate office.

—Mr. C. T. Jolly has moved into Mr. C. S. Davis' house on Pleasant street.

—Mr. and Mrs. George N. B. Sherman have returned from visiting friends in Barre.

—Mr. Harris of the Institution has leased Mr. Farnham H. Wood's house on Bowen street.

—Mr. E. White of the Hill will occupy Mr. D. S. Farnham's house on Beacon street.

—Mr. William Macomber and family have taken the Hawthorne house on Pelham street.

—McWain has gotten some good rubber hose that he will dispose of at cost, rather than keep it over.

—McWain keeps mattresses and pillows of all kinds. Also comforters, bed spreads and blankets.

—Mrs. E. G. Kirtland has purchased Mr. B. E. Taylor's new house on Parker street, and is occupying it.

—Rev. W. H. Cobb preached Sunday at the First Congregational church, in the absence of the pastor.

—Mr. J. E. Eaton and his mother, Mrs. Johnson of Truro, Nova Scotia, are visiting at Mr. C. A. Eaton's, Parker street.

—It is reported that three Newton Centre boys were arrested in Brighton on Wednesday evening for breaking street lamps.

—Mr. Henry Bevin and family of Somerville have purchased and are occupying Mr. Benjamin Hammond's house on Ridge avenue. Mr. Hammond has taken a house on Parker street.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Joe Chappel, Mrs. C. O. Davis, Ed. George, Margaret Howard, Mrs. Harlan Holbrook, M. S. Howard, Mrs. Eliza King, Mrs. J. B. Phipps, Dr. Frank G. Templeton.

—Dr. and Mrs. Parker of India, laborers in that field for more than 30 years, will speak in the Methodist church on Sunday night. Dr. Parker is widely known as one of the most successful street preachers in the missionary field now living.

—Mr. Golding, of the firm of Golding & Co., Fort Hill square, Boston, has purchased Mrs. Blaisdell's estate on Home street. It is understood the present owner intends improving the building on the estate, and occupying the same in the near future.

—Mr. Thomas Dalton and Miss Anastasia Mokier were united in marriage Tuesday morning by Rev. D. J. Wholly, at the home of Mr. Dalton, on Parker street. A large number of friends attending. Chinese lanterns were displayed about the windows and the evening was evidently one of unalloyed pleasure.

—Mr. Charles E. Copeland and family have returned from a season's sojourn at Thomaston, Me., and Judge Robert B. Bishop and family, who have been occupying their house on Grey Cliff road, have removed to Boston, to await the completion of the extensive alterations being made in their house on Beacon street.

—One of the biggest Republican rallies held in Newton in preparation for the election will be held in Associates' Hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 23. The speakers are some of the best in the old Bay state, and will include Gen. William Draper, candidate for Congress, Hon. Roger Wolcott, candidate for Senator and last but not least, Henry Cabot Lodge of Nahant.

—The Unity Dramatic Club will give their first performance of the season in the Unitarian church parlors at West Newton, Wednesday and Thursday evening, Oct. 19th and 20th. They will present the two act comedy, "Jack's Chum," with "A Picked-up Dinner as a curtain-raiser. Tickets fifty cents, may be obtained of the members of the club.

—Following is the music to be rendered by the choir of the Unitarian society next Sunday at 3.45:

Antiphons, "O Come, let us sing," "Come unto me,"

Hymn, Anthem, No 643, "Return my soul unto thy rest,"

Miss Clement, Soprano

Mr. Harding, Alto

Mr. Crane, Tenor

Mr. F. H. Wood, Organist and Director

—Mr. George F. Richardson of Marshall street has purchased a pair of blooded mares from Dr. Sylvester. Walki was sired by Shels, Walki, by Walli, and Shels Walki being the sire of Nellie G. record of 2.24 1-2 and Frank record 2.26 at five years old. Dorretta was sired by Win cost, by Walki Chief, dan Young America, better known as the "M. M. horse". The mares are very handsome and with training would make some excellent records.

—The funeral of Mr. Elisha Bassett took place from his late residence, Parker street, yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance at the service, the Boston bar being well represented. Among those present were Judge John Lowell of the superior court, Mr. Stetson, clerk of the United States circuit court, Col. Fisher, deputy clerk of the United States district court, Mr. Frederick Dodge, Clerk Mason of the United States district court, Hon. Alden Spear and Judge Robert B. Bishop. The services were of a simple character, consisting of prayer, brief remarks and singing by the quartet choir of the First Unitarian church, Cambridge, of which Mr. Bassett's daughter is a member. The interment was in the family lot at Mt. Auburn.

—Mr. Marshal O. Rice has recently presented an American flag to the Rice school. The building was named for Mr. Rice's father, Mr. Marshall S. Rice, who for many years was closely identified with the schools of this town, and was prominent in town affairs. For nearly 30 years he held the office of town clerk. Mr. M. O. Rice's brother, William H. Rice was a soldier in our late war. He was eighteen, he enlisted in Company K, of the Massachusetts 32d. He was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg and died soon after. Mr. Rice's generous gift is a graceful tribute to the memory of his father and brother. Teacher and pupils are very much pleased with this flag which is 12x21 feet, and they will be enabled to honor Columbus Day in a proper manner. The pupils have collected $56 toward the flag-staff.

—The Springfield Republican pays this tribute to Mr. Elisha Bassett: "There will be many lawyers throughout the state to regret the death of Elisha Bassett, who was for half a century clerk of the United States court in Boston. He passed away at his home in Newton Tuesday morning, where he had been living in retirement since he resigned his office in May, 1891. Mr. Bassett was a native of Ashfield, where he was born in 1818. He became assistant clerk of the court when 22 years of age, and continued in that position under three superiors until 1887, when he succeeded Clement Hugh Hill as clerk. His half-century of service was completed March 19, 1890, when the occasion was made memorable by a gathering of the lawyers practicing in the federal court, who presented Mr. Bassett with a silver water pitcher and salver. The veteran clerk made a most interesting address, telling of the changes of men and court procedure that he had seen in 50 years."

—Captain George F. Whall, of Needham, but until within a few years a resident of this place, died Saturday evening, aged seventy-four. He was a brother of Mrs. Geo. F. Richardson of Marshall street. Captain Whall, at the beginning of the Rebellion, was employed at the Watertown Arsenal and discovered that some of the officers in charge and a number of the men employed did not sympathize with the Northern cause and tampered with the cartridges made for the service, so that when they were received at the front they were useless. Captain Whall reported the facts to Washington and the guilty ones were removed. In regard to this matter there are among the captain's effects letters from Abraham Lincoln, Secretary of War Stanton, Senators Charles Sumner and Henry Wilson, Governor Andrew, and other prominent men. Captain Whall joined a Massachusetts regiment and served three years in the civil war, returning home a captain. After the war he was given a position in the Custom House until President Cleveland's administration, when he was removed. Four years later he was reinstated by Collector Beard. The funeral took place at 1.15 Tuesday, and the interment was at Mt. Auburn.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Five: F. F. Bird, Philip L. Carbone, Wm. H. Burr, David Bates, Frank W. Barney.

—Pianos tuned, Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. G. S. Bryant has been ill for the past few days.

—Mrs. E. Montilton is visiting with friends at Philadelphia.

—Mr. Robinson has returned from her trip to Washington.

—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday at Miss Isaac's.

—Mr. I. H. Davis, the barber, has removed to Patterson block.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. S. C. Cobb.

—Mr. O. J. Kimball has been confined to his house for the past week by illness.

—Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice: J. S. Ellis, Arthur Scott.

—Charlie Brigham has arrived home, after an absence of nearly two and one-half years in Idaho.

—Mrs. Pennell and daughter are at home again from an absence of several months at Colorado Springs.

—Mrs. Fisher, mother of Mr. G. R. Fisher, now occupies her fine new house on Rock Knoll, Hyde street.

—We hear that Mr. L. A. Ross has sold his house on Floral avenue to Mr. John P. Horner, who will occupy the same.

—Rev. C. F. Dole, from Jamaica Plain, will have charge of the Unitarian services next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Mr. W. A. Dunbar and family have taken a tenement with Mr. W. S. Fewkes on Erie avenue. Mr. Dunbar is employed at the Gascoigne company's works.

—Mr. S. D. Whittemore has sold the handsome and attractive house built and owned by Mr. L. A. Ross, on Lake avenue, to Mrs. Marcus Morton, who with her daughter will occupy in November.

—The M. E. society holds its annual harvest service next Sunday evening, to be followed by the harvest supper, on Monday evening, in the new hall. The fruit used in the decoration for Sunday, will be sold at auction after the supper Monday evening.

—Sunday's music at the Congregational church will include:

Antiem, "In Heavenly love Abiding,"

Offertory, Invocation for Basso, "Jehovah guide us,"

Hymn, "O God the darkness roll away," Wallace Male Choir. Mr. Hunting, tenor; Mr. Estabrook, tenor; Mr. Ayer, baritone; Mr. Ryder basso; Miss Stone, organist.

—The concert given on Thursday evening last at the Congregational church was in every respect first class, and much credit is due to the musical director, Mr. H. P. Ayer, and the other members of the quartet, for their efforts to make it a grand success. The liberality of the gentleman who kindly paid the expense attending the same, so that the entire proceeds, amounting to one hundred and thirty-two dollars, will be added to the music fund.

—The Sewing Circle connected with the Congregational church held a social on Wednesday for business and work, after which the members and their families and invited guests, were invited to the dining room, where a bountiful supper was served. An entertainment followed, in which all were invited, and was much enjoyed. The next meeting will be at Waban, at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Strong.

—A pleasant reunion of his children and grandchildren was held at the home of Mr. Frank Monro, str. Dedham street, last evening this week. There were about 30 relatives gathered there, coming from Springfield, Boston, Dedham, Wellesley, Brookline, Hyde Park and Newton. The feature of the evening was the presentation to the host of a handsome silver tea service and a silver cake basket. Ice cream, cake and coffee were enjoyed, the evening being very enjoyable to those present.

—The first fall meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society was held in the chapel of the Congregational church on Friday last. A paper was read by Mrs. Logan from Mrs. Gulich, the subject of which was an account of her school in Spain, also a short address by Rev. Manuel C. Marin, who has been laboring as a missionary for the past six years in Barcelona, Spain, giving an account of his work, which was of much interest. He returns next week, accompanied by his bride, a Newton lady, to his field of labor. Mr. Marin has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Greenwood for the past two months.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Five: F. F. Bird, Philip L. Carbone, Wm. H. Burr, David Bates, Frank W. Barney.

—Other Upper Falls news on page 2.

—The population of the Falls has increased remarkably in the past week.

—Mr. Charles H. Clark of Centre street, Needham, was visited by a few intimate friends last Thursday evening, and was the recipient of a very handsome watch, the gift of his wife, and a handsome dining chair. The gifts were in the nature of a surprise to Mr. Clark. Among those present was Miss Winton of Boston, formerly of Upper Falls.

—An excellent concert was given at the Methodist church Tuesday evening under the auspices of the young people of the society. The church auditorium was filled with a quiet and appreciative audience, and hearty applause greeted the various numbers brought forth several on their own. Mrs. Fellows and Mr. Buffum in vocal solos were worthy especial attention calling out encores, and the flute playing of Mr. Rand was excellent. Miss Sturtevant acting as accompanist with her usual pleasing touch. The quartet, as always, was well received and Mr. Morgan's bass solo was listened to with pleasure. Mr. Otis Pettie in his address was very interesting, his trip across the continent and to Alaska always finding eager listeners. After the concert ice cream and cake were served in the vestry and the result of the evening entertainment was a financial success, the purpose being to finish paying for the piano. The program was as follows:

Organ selection, Miss H. E. Sturtevant

Short address, subject, "A trip across the Continent," Mr. Otis Pettie

Quartet, Miss Newell, Mrs. Gould, Mr. Cooper, Mr. Wilson, Song, Tenor, Mr. C. J. Buffum

Member of the Mendelssohn Quartet, Song, Soprano, Mrs. Addie R. Fellows

Flute Solo, Mr. E. H. Rand

Song, Bass, Mr. S. Morgan

Song, with Flute Obligato, Mrs. Fellows and Mr. Rand

Song, Quartet, Mr. Buffum

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club of the city of Newton, will hold a meeting for permanent organization at Eliot Lower Hall, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Monday, the 10th inst. The following gentlemen have been appointed a committee for organization in Ward Four: Bernard Early, F. M. Crehore, R. L. Bridgman, Edward Anderson, P. A. McVicar.

—Pianos, Farley, 334 Wash. St., Newton

—Officer Seaver sent a bicycle rider to West Newton in the patrol wagon Tuesday noon for riding on the sidewalk.

—Mr. Phillip Kerr has leased one of the Hickey paper mills at Upper Falls and has commenced the manufacture of paper.

—A Democratic rally will be held in Freeman hall, Saturday evening. Previous to the meeting a Cleveland and Stevenson flag will be raised. Eloquent speakers have been secured.

—Officer Carman summoned four boys to appear before Judge Washburn at Wellesley, Tuesday afternoon, for annoying a Chinaman who conducts a laundry business in Rice's block. They were released on probation.

—St. John's parish will be represented by one hundred and fifty members at the parade in Boston, Columbus day. A drum corps has been organized and receiving instructions by a competent master nightly in church basement.

—A public meeting will be held in Town hall, Wellesley, next Tuesday evening, in answer to a petition from the Natick & Cochituate street railway to lay tracks through Wellesley and connect at the Upper Falls with the Newton Street Railway. The citizens of Wellesley proper are it is stated, generally opposed to an electric road through the town. The meeting promises to be interesting and exciting.

—Inquirer (at summer resort). "Why don't you associate with that lady?"

—Mrs. Gotham. "She lives in Harlem."

—"Well, what is the matter with that other lady?"

—"Horror!" She lives in Brooklyn."

—"But you don't associate with the lady behind her, either, and she lives on Fifth avenue."

—"She won't associate with me."—New York Weekly.

—"How awfully wet the ocean is!" said she during a lull in the conversation.

—"Yes," said he. "It's natural, though, it's out there in the hot sun all day and constantly in motion, and of course mud perspire a great deal."—Harper's Bazar.

—"Why on earth do you have a melodeon instead of a piano, Mawson?"

—"Because my daughter was so fond of music I couldn't get her to take any exercise. Now she gets the walk and music all at once."—Bazar.

—"Yoh kain't allas jedge a man's achievements," said Uncle Eben, "by de 'mount ob noise he makes about 'em. De cannon ain' makin' er sound' now, but de bass drum am jes' ez talkative as ebber."—Washington Star.

Cleveland's

The best that money, science and 26 years experience can produce is Baking Powder. It does the most work and the best work. Cake made with it keeps moist and fresh.

—GRAND—

REPUBLICAN

RALLY

Eliot Hall, Newton,

Tuesday, Oct. 11, '92,

AT 8 P. M.

SPEAKERS:

Gen. WILLIAM F. DRAPER,

Hon. ROGER WOLCOTT,

Hon. GORHAM D. GILMAN.

HON. GORHAM D. GILMAN will preside.

Ladies are cordially invited.

43

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge

WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

43

43

WALTER C. BROOKS &amp; CO.

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

DANCING

Mr. H. E. MUNROE'S

SELECT

IN CHILDREN'S DANCING SCHOOLS IN

Begin

NEWTONVILLE NEWTON

Monday Afternoon Friday Afternoon

OCT. 17 at 4.15 OCT. 14 at 4.15

TREMONT HALL ARMORY

Until after the reception, then in

NEW CLUB HOUSE HALL

MAYOR, MRS. W. G. MONK, Hunnewell Terrace, to whom application for membership can be made. These schools are first-class in every particular.

C. B. SOMERS.

Tailor

149 A Tremont Street, BOSTON.

MAKES A SPECIALTY OF

BUSINESS SUITS AT $35.00

Fall and Winter Woolens now ready.

REFRIGERATORS.

Baby Carriages, Carpets, Ranges, Furniture and Bedding.

F. L. GRAVES FURNITURE EMPORIUM.

Largest and Finest Business Establishment in the City.

224 Moody St., Waltham, South Side.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season or this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St. Room 38.

Select Stock of Fine Bred Horses FOR SALE.

From the best Stock Farms near Lake Champlain. Acclimated and exercised during the summer. Trained to electric, steam cars, sewers, &c. All are sound and kind. Pairs and single, for family use, safe for ladies and children. Light pairs and single for fast pleasure driving, some very speedy ones for gentlemen's use. All to be sold immediately, at reasonable prices.

S. A. SYLVESTER.

Beacon Street, Newton Centre.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Andrew J. Pike, to William A. Merriam, dated September 16th, 1872, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds Book 1245, page 122, and for breach of the conditions thereof, will be sold by public auction upon the premises on MONDAY the THIRTY-FIRST DAY OF OCTOBER A.D. 1892, at 4 O'CLOCK in the AFTERNOON, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed to wit: All that parcel of land situated in that part of Newton, in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called West Newton, being lot numbered three (3) and part of lot two (2) on a plan of an estate in West Newton, sold by Chester Judson to J. F. Boyd, drawn by J. F. Fuller, dated May 18, 1871 and bounded as follows, viz: northerly on Washington Street, seventy five (75) feet; easterly on land of Gibbs, fifty eight and 7/10 (58.7) feet; southerly on lot numbered four (4), on said plan, seventy eight and 7/10 (78.7) feet; and westerly on the other part of lot two (2), seventy six and 50/100 (76.5) feet; containing 5066 square feet of land according to said plan.

Terms made known at sale.

ANDREW B. POTTER, Assignee of said Mortgage.

Newton, October 3, 1892.

Read This! 6 1/2% 50 Yrs.

Absolutely Safe Investment.

Quarterly Dividends. Can be Sold at any time.

Address for full particulars, Geo. Leonard, 246 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE,

ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

Pearmain AND Brooks,

Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)

Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,

No. 53 State St., Room 218.

SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE,

Counsellor at Law,

28 State Street, Room 55,

BOSTON, MASS.

Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

A. H. ROFFE,

HAY and GRAIN

LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE,

Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 8

Choicest Articles in the Grocery Line.

Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week.

Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobb's Prices, including

Bridal Veil, Cereal Food, in variety. Canadian Goods of all kinds. Salt Pork and Potatoes.

All Kinds of Specialties. Nuts, Raisins, Dates, Figs, Citron Currants and Spice, the purest.

Imported Jellies and Preserves of the famous Crosse & Blackwell Manufacture.

Candy Candy! Candy!

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 2.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

"THE BEATRICE."

A BEAUTY IN BRASS AND WHITE WITH CURVED FOOT.

We are exhibiting at our Warerooms the finest line of Metallic Bedsteads of both Imported and American Manufacture.

SPECIAL DESIGNS IN BRASS BEDSTEADS.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,
546 WASHINGTON ST., Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

AKRON DRAIN PIPE

AND CONNECTIONS, AT

CAMPBELL'S
Dealer in HARDWARE and CUTLERY

271 Washington Street, Newton, Mass.

STOVES

A FULL LINE AT Bent's Furniture Rooms,
WATERTOWN.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

CAKE.

Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made. Try them.

Also
OYSTERS AND SALADS.
CROQUETTES AND PEAS.
ICES AND CREAMS.

JAMES PAXTON,
Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

J. H. NICKERSON,
Merchant Tailor
and Clothier,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish the styles Fall & Winter of '92-3, Dress or Business Suits, Overcoats or Trousers to measure at low prices. Also a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing for men and boys. Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Travelling Bags.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith).
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr. James R. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 40-2.

DR. GEO. A. BATES,
DENTIST,
THORPE HOUSE, MAPLE STREET,
Auburn, Mass.

DR. S. F. CHASE,
DENTIST.
Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF

PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Eliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.
Repairing Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars 25c.; Centre Plates 25c.
Badly fitting shirts made to fit well.

HOWARD B. COFFIN
DEALER IN
FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

THE ENTERTAINMENT BUREAU
OF THE
New England Conservatory of Music
Is prepared to supply at very short notice Singers, Readers, Violinists, Pianists, Organists, etc., for churches, concerts and entertainments. The prices are moderate and the talent excellent.
Address
Conservatory Bureau,
52 1st
Franklin Square, Boston

Chandler & Co.

CLOAK DEPT.

Our usual exclusive line of FALL and WINTER CLOAKS in Staple and High-Class Novelties, containing the latest productions of
PARIS, LONDON and
NEW YORK designers
is now ready for inspection.

Chandler & Co.

Winter St.,
BOSTON.

Mrs. Caroline Field Welch,
Massage Treatments,
Refers to leading physicians of Boston and Newton.
RESIDENCE, 38 ELIOT ST.,
P. O. Box 370. 1st West Newton

MISS EMMA E. UPHAM,
TEACHER OF
Piano and Vocal Music.
RESIDENCE,
Cherry Street, West Newton, 24t

We are now ready to show new
Goods and the Latest Novelties for Fall and Winter

MILLINERY
Mourning Work a Specialty.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton.

Store open Friday and Saturday Evenings.

NEWTON.

—Dr. Hudson sells a warranted tooth brush for 25 cents.

—Mrs. H. S. Barrows has opened dress-making rooms at 62 Elmwood street.

—A nice, sunny room to rent, without board, at Mrs. Monroe's, 455 Centre street.

—Miss Margaret Lovejoy is passing the month of October with Mrs. Henry M. Bates.

—Miss Lizzie Gaw, for ten years a resident of this city died in Liverpool, Nova Scotia, recently.

—The Channing Guild will hold the first meeting of the season on Sunday evening at quarter of seven o'clock.

—Alderman Coffin has sold the new house he is building on Centre street to Mr. Geo. E. Ryder of Cambridge.

—Mr. Horace S. Newell, father of Mr. A. F. Barrett of this city, died at his home in Springfield on Sunday morning.

—Rev. Mr. Spaulding has been engaged to give two illustrated lectures in the Read Fund course on Oct. 25th and Nov. 10th.

—Mr. Miner Robinson is putting in a large amount of electric work in Mr. I. Tucker Burr's new residence at Milton, Mass.

—Mr. Odin Fritz, whose photographs have such high excellence is now prepared to give sittings and fill orders for pictures in ten days.

—Owing to the illness of Miss Howard, the "At Homes" of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Taylor will be postponed until Wednesday, Nov. 23rd and 24th.

—Classes in physical culture begin their work in Nonantum Hall, Washington street Newton, Monday Oct. 17. Ladies class at 3 o'clock, children's class at 4.15.

—There will be a game of Rugby, Oct. 21, between eleven representing Wards One and Seven. The game will begin at 10 a.m. and will be very close and interesting.

—All old soldiers and sailors are invited to join Charles Ward Post at the parade Columbus Day, and will report at Post Hall at 10 a. m. in uniform, if possible.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Elliott of Morse street, it is said, have received $5000 from the Fitchburg railroad. They were passengers on the telescoped train in the East Cambridge smash-up.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. Edgar White, Park street, assisted in receiving the guests at the golden wedding anniversary last week, Thursday, of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, Holyoke street, Boston.

—All young men wishing to form a Harrison and Reid torch-light company are requested to meet at Farlow Park, Newton, Monday, Oct. 17, at 7.30 p. m. If stormy, the meeting will be held the first pleasant night.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening: Processional, "Hail, Holy Lord God Almighty," Magnificat, "Come ye ye," Tye

After Communion, "O come ye ye," Tye

Offering Anthem, "Sing Alleluia forth," Buck

Recessional, "Hail, Holy Lord God Almighty,"

—An account of the Y. M. C. A. work the past year will be given at a Union meeting in Eliot church, next Sunday evening.

—Mr. S. M. Sayford and Mr. Dow, the new general secretary, recently assistant at the Boston Y. M. C. A., will be among the speakers. A longer announcement be found elsewhere.

—At the Methodist church an autumn service will be held next Sunday morning.

—The service will consist chiefly of musical selections, especially prepared, and song and relative exercises by the children of the Sunday school. There will be no service in the evening owing to the union Y. M. C. A. meeting at Eliot church.

—Rev. Henry G. Spaulding is now delivering his new course of illustrated lectures at Lasell Seminary, and at the Oroniz school near Philadelphia. Later he will lecture at Smith College and before the Peabody Institute in Baltimore.

—Mr. Spaulding has also made several engagements for his attractive popular lecture on "Picturesque California."

—Wednesday afternoon, Elliott J. Hyde sold at auction a large double house on Washington street, Newton, adjoining the Boston & Albany railroad tunnel, the property being a portion of the estate of the late E. M. Fuller. About 800 square feet of land was included in the sale. Annie H. Maher was the purchaser, at $400, subject to sever assessments and this year's taxes.

—A course of Wednesday evening lectures on "Travel" will be given at the Methodist church this winter, beginning Oct. 26th. The lectures, consisting of eight or more will be delivered by Rev. Dillon Bronson, under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Circle, and will be illustrated by a fine stereoscopic with views of a thousand scenes personally visited by Mr. Bronson during his recent world tour.

—Mr. Isaac D. Allen, for many years one of Newton's most respected citizens, died at his home on Centre street, Thursday, having been ill for some time. Mr. Allen was born in Boston 57 years ago, and when quite a young man started in the dry goods business on Winter street, and has made it a very successful one. A widow and four children survive him. His funeral will be held at his late residence, No. 559 Centre street at 2 p. m., Monday, Oct. 17th.

—Miss Mamie Irving of Newton, employed at Lewand's dye house, Watertown, caught her hand in a steam cylinder yesterday, and but for the quickness of Foreman Cruser would have been seriously injured. He saw the girl's peril, and, quickly springing to her aid, stopped the cylinder, and carried her from her dangerous position. She was carried to her home, and her wounds dressed. Her hand is badly burned, and she received a serious shaking up.

—Miss Robbins' millinery opening this week has attracted much attention from the ladies of Newton and vicinity, and large numbers have visited her parlors on Elmwood street, to inspect the new fall and winter styles, and the many pattern hats and bonnets displayed. As usual Miss Robbins' taste and skill received many flattering commendations, both in words and in orders for new bonnets. Newton ladies find that they have no reason for going to Boston when such superior work can be obtained at home.

—Miss Emma Hodgson was married Tuesday evening to Mr. J. G. Barri, a graduate of the Mass. Inst. of Technology of 91, who has been the past year on the City of Newton's city engineer. A reception followed at the residence of the bride's mother, Madame Hodgson, Galen street, at which a large number were present. The bride wore a handsome dress of white China silk trimmed with watered ribbon and duchess lace; many handsome presents were received. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Barri started for New York and Washington, and thence will go to North Carolina where Mr. Barri will fill a civil engineer's position under the government.

—By invitation of Chairman Dr. B. F. Davenport of the Watertown board of health, the boards of health of Newton, Waltham and Weymouth held a joint session in the selectmen's rooms, Watertown Tuesday afternoon, to consider the question of taking concerted action in forming plans for abating the Charles river nuisance.

SPRINGER BROS.

CLOAKS AND FURS.

We announce a grand display of our New Styles of Fall and Winter Garments, to which the Ladies of Newton and vicinity are cordially invited.

SPRINGER BROTHERS,

Manufacturers, Wholesale and Retail Dealers.

500 Washington St., BOSTON.

(Cor. Bedford St.)

Headquarters for Fashionable Cloaks For Ladies, Misses and Children.

FAVOR THIRD TERM

An Endorsement Never Before Received by a Newton Mayor.

Names of those who wish Mayor Hibbard to serve again.

Newton, Sept. 17th, 1892.

DEAR SIR:—

The undersigned, recognizing the energy, prudence and ability exhibited in your administration of our municipal affairs, and believing that in the present condition of our public interest, your further service would be of great value, and that your consent thereto would be generally and gratefully appreciated, hereby urgently request that you will allow them to propose your re-election as Mayor of our city.

E. W. Converse	Edw. P. Scales
E. W. Converse, Jr.	Edwin O. Childs
Chas. E. Eddy	James Utley
Henry E. Cobb	Arthur S. Doane
D. R. Emerson	Gilman Brackett
Geo. E. Allen	Henry V. Pinkham
Henry Fuller	Edward F. Barnes
Joseph N. Bacon	J. E. Briston
Chester H. Graves	Wm. F. Grace
J. S. Potter	Lewis H. Bailey
W. V. Green	W. G. Brackett
C. D. Kepper	F. L. McIntosh
C. A. Farley	G. F. Simpson
L. Alvin Farley	Luther Adams
M. N. Cobb	W. Russell Brackett
J. T. Lodge	Chas. H. Stone
Hosea Hyde	Fred W. Stone
Horace H. Soule, Jr.	I. B. Harrington
Walter Hart	E. L. Holman
Luther Barnes	W. T. Peterson
Robt. A. Brackett	C. W. Bunting
John H. Robinson	J. B. Brimblecom
James Simpson	M. Eneagess
George Agry, Jr.	E. D. Baldwin
John T. Langford	J. Herbert Park
Wm. G. Soule	A. L. Rignud
Enos C. Soule	Samuel W. Tucker
C. C. Luce	Aaron Aldrich
J. R. McLaughlin	M. V. B. Payne
M. C. Higgins	Geo. F. Hunt
F. H. Nichols	Jesse C. Ivy
J. Warren Bailey	W. S. Hutchinson
Howard B. Coffin	L. S. Holman
J. J. Johnson	W. P. Lester
Myles J. Joyce	G. W. Wade
Charles C. Prescott	Geo. T. Coppins
Henry Z. Emery	Edw. L. Bacon
J. F. Frisbie	Charles F. Bacon
B. F. Lamson	Albert C. Dearborn
G. F. Bacon	E. A. J. Smallwood
J. W. Bacon	Merced B. May
James Dunn	Lewson E. Chase
John Flood	Wm. H. Emerson
C. M. Bassett	Lewis E. Coffin
J. A. Lamson	Edwin T. Fearing
T. W. Frowbridge	Theo. L. Mason
Stephen O. Thayer	Geo. R. Morgan
N. J. Pratt	Geo. F. Abbott
E. C. Roberts	Louis E. G. Green
E. H. Cram	W. F. Lunt
Wm. F. Slocum	C. A. Cunningham
Winfield S. Slocum	C. D. Cabot
Oren F. Clark	Edw. Sands
James L. Richards	Samuel J. Spear
Edward W. Bailey	Frank F. Sylvester
J. W. Cotton	Wm. Price
Levi Parker	H. A. Boynton
Austin R. Mitchell	Thomas G. Estes
Francis A. Dawson	W. F. Kimball
Edward W. Greene	Henry F. Ross
E. W. Redpath	Wm. P. Tewksbury
John O. Smith	Frank C. Bunting
John Dorney	Geo. W. Moore
John M. Davis	Geo. L. Clark
H. W. Pierce	H. H. Sacker
J. W. Dickinson	C. C. Briggs, Jr.
John A. Fenno	E. A. Whitney
N. H. Chadwick	John V. Sullivan
Geo. F. Williams	Herbert W. Sylvester
W. H. Mendell	Geo. F. Elliot
D. E. Baker	E. A. Phippen
C. A. Burgess	Wallace C. Boyden
J. G. Thompson	Herbert R. Gibbs
Chas. W. Davidson	F. W. Tupper
Geo. W. Auryansen	F. T. Benner
Wm. H. Eaves	C. B. Wallace
A. D. Auryansen	J. B. Taylor
F. E. Proctor	F. Bancho
A. H. Soden	Wm. K. Denison
W. Hollings	Henry H. Carter
Z. D. Kelley	Robt. C. Bridgman
Chas. T. Pulsifer	John F. Payne
Charles F. Avery	Curtis Abbott
William Cladin	J. J. Coxeter
W. F. Hawley	A. W. Vose
S. F. Chase	T. G. Cutler
William H. Coolidge	S. C. Gullow
W. H. Allen	C. F. Whitney
Wm. T. Vose	G. L. Bean
Enos Thayer	H. A. Wheeler
P. C. Bridgman	Geo. L. Johnson
C. S. Keene	A. F. Cooke
W. F. Dearborn, Jr.	J. H. Walker
H. P. Dearborn	A. E. Wyman
J. M. Stickney	John B. Turner
F. M. Whipple	R. Q. Bailow
J. Walter Hamilton	Chas. A. Kellogg
Horace B. Parker	Edwin W. Vose
Arthur R. Andrews	B. L. Barlow
E. M. Rumery	V. Wentworth
Albert L. Gordon	Oliver D. Homer
Albert Metcalf	H. P. Perkins, Jr.
Chas. A. Wyman	Geo. A. Field
H. E. Burrage	C. M. Whittlesey
Geo. S. Houghton	George A. Frost
S. R. Dennen	James C. Melvin
Edward C. Burrage	Geo. F. Howland
George A. Blaney	George T. Garrison
Walter S. Wait	Geo. A. Walton
Geo. P. Howlett	John Greenwood, Jr.
George T. Lincoln

FAVOR THIRD TERM

Theo. A. Fleu
Wm. H. Stewart
Jas. Richard Carter
Geo. H. Lowe
Edward Upham
Geo. W. Newhall
George Frost
L. A. Kimberley
S. A. Darling
S. A. Kimber
James Leighton
Peter Thacher
Stephen Thacher
Alfred W. Hill
Nathan C. Pike
Heman L. Putnam
W. E. Elder
S. E. Howard
John S. Leonard
Arthur Carroll
Edwin F. Kimball
T. E. Stutson
J. W. Stanley
R. G. Elkins
R. S. Gorham
H. B. Day
Geo. W. Homer
Samuel Bernard
E. H. Saxton
J. F. Fuller, Jr.
Harry L. Ayer
J. Franklin Fuller
M. A. Richards
A. F. York
Wm. M. Bullivant
Henry Fleming
Alfred L. Barbour
Robt. A. Barbour
Wm. B. H. Dowse
Charles Burrill
Philip A. Warner
Geo. E. Peters
Aug. F. Perry
Frederic R. Cutler
Henry A. Gould
Frank W. Wise
W. P. Plimpton
Chandler Seaver
F. H. Humphrey
J. C. Jaynes
Chas. C. Pond
Asahel Wheeler
Chas. Willard Carter
E. R. Blanchard
S. N. Waters
P. W. Carter
E. J. Ethier
Edward M. Hall
James H. Nickerson
John Avery
Josiah B. Chace
Geo. H. Ellis
Richard Rowe
Ellery Peabody
Wm. A. Young
Fisher Ames
Frank R. Barker
Avalon Graves
Edward P. Hatch
J. E. Trowbridge
Chas. W. Florence
Arthur F. Luke
John S. Alley
J. L. Damon
George H. Phelps
Arthur M. Plinn
Chas. M. Kimball
George D. Dix
E. B. Haskell
Wm. H. Young
J. W. Davis
H. S. Pearson
Geo. E. M. Fiske
Waldo W. Cole
C. H. Johnson
Thomas Hill
M. A. Noyes
Geo. D. Harvey
Fred E. Whiting
Edward E. Morgan
H. L. Jewett
H. A. Thorndike
F. M. Tyler
Theodore W. Gore
F. E. Porter
F. F. Davidson
Walter C. Ware
Edward E. Hardy
Henry A. Hazen
H. G. Hildreth
A. W. Little
Calvin Cutler
Hezekiah Earl
Geo. E. Mann
E. M. Billings
Frank Fanning
Geo. E. Gilbert
William E. Webster
Frank Edmonds
J. H. Leeson
F. N. Thatcher
S. F. Wilkins
S. A. Shannon
E. Winsor
D. H. Andrews
Gustavus Forbes
S. A. D. Sheppard
Henry E. B. Thfeld
W. P. Ellison
Samuel L. Powers
James C. Elms
M. P. Spritzer
Geo. A. Pitt
Francis G. Davis
Levi P. Bowers
Arthur C. Mudge
Geo. S. Bullens
Geo. L. Bullens
E. W. Cobb
E. S. Hamblen
W. P. Wentworth
Henry P. Cole
Geo. S. Priest
Edwin H. Peering
G. H. Mandell
J. L. Bailey
Fred A. Houdlette
Chas. W. Hall
C. J. Bailey
J. D. Barrows
F. A. Wetherbee
C. W. Snow
James E. Clark
Wm. J. Follitt
John T. Wells
B. F. Holmes
Henry Brooks
A. B. Jewell
A. Marshall
James D. Heathorn
C. L. Johnson
Arthur Hudson
Chas. E. Bullard
J. M. Whittemore
Warren G. Monk
B. F. Kendrick
J. T. Wells, Jr.
James W. Bartlett
Geo. H. Hastings
S. B. Whittemore
S. A. Bartlett
A. M. Ferris
John K. Taylor
Wm. F. Farquhar
Henry C. Daniels
C. S. Spencer
W. Warren
F. A. Brown
J. W. Murray
Geo. Hill
W. C. Overman
G. E. Carrier
Henry Adams
G. A. Burgess
H. M. Bacon
I. G. Coburn
James T. Moore
James Moore

John Phillips
J. J. Gordon
W. W. Jacques
T. Edgar White
Geo. W. Bush
H. H. Smith
Wm. C. Bates
Walter H. Holbrook
Geo. A. Farlow
Samuel Farquhar
C. W. Loring
A. F. Adams
Wm. H. Capen
Daniel Dewey
Geo. E. Hatch
Andrew S. March
George W. Crosby
H. Grant
H. H. Bartlett
Bruce R. Ware
Luke F. Ashley
A. L. Brackett
S. Welles Holmes
C. H. Rogers
O. H. Fowler
Henry F. Wellington
Francis Murdoch
M. I. Cox
Albert Brackett
Fred W. Sargent
Warren P. Tyler
Frank O. Barber
A. S. Twombly

The Excess of Fiction Reading.

A public library can be sustained from the funds of the public treasury only upon the supposition that it will prove to be a valuable help in the education and refinement of the people of the place where it is established. It is doubtful if its support can be justified if it simply furnishes entertainment. A library made up solely of books of fiction could hardly claim the public funds. At the same time a library without fiction would be confessedly incomplete, especially when we consider fiction as an important part of literature.

The line must be drawn somewhere, and it is probable that the directors of the Newton Library have acted wisely in the course they adopt. They furnish a fair amount of fiction, but they aim to enrich other departments.

It is certainly a most admirable institution, and the suggestions we make do not contain any complaint of its management. The purpose is to call attention now to the excess of fiction reading. The greater number of readers of its books almost invariably select novels and stories. The large collection of more useful publications are comparatively neglected.

It would be well if something could be done to improve the taste for solid reading. To read nothing but novels is certainly not the way to gain the greatest amount of good for one's self, or to make the best use of the city's bounty.

The danger too is that the fiction reader in time loses the ability to read anything else, and requires his stories to be more and more highly spiced. Perhaps the neglecting solid reading may arise in part from the lack of acquaintance with the resources of the library in its different departments. In some places this difficulty is met by the publication of topic lists from time to time. Of course this is provided for in the catalogue and in the weekly notices, but not in the shape that attracts the same attention as the topic lists.

For example there is a growing interest at this time in the history of Columbus and of the early discoverers and explorers.

If all books having a bearing upon this general topic were grouped with brief notices of the contents of each, it would probably invite many to follow such a course of reading.

We can hardly over estimate the usefulness of a good public library, but at the same time special efforts must be made to induce people to make the best use of it. As it is today the majority of readers think of it as simply a source of entertainment, and not as a help to their higher education.

The Separation of Grades Problem.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:

In the discussions regarding the solution of this problem, there is one important point to be considered, and one that so far as I have observed has not been prominently brought forward. I refer to the interruption to travel which must be incurred for a considerable length of time if the grades are to be changed in their present location. The present service, as far as local accommodation is concerned, must be considerably hampered and the necessity of running frequent construction trains will add not only to the difficulty, but to the danger of carrying Newton passengers. One serious accident might readily cost a far greater loss of limb and life than would be incurred in years and the use of the track as it at present exists. It goes without saying that the ability of the Albany R. R. officials will be exerted to the utmost to avoid either the inconvenience or the danger indicated; but it will be putting a very severe strain upon them and it must open the door to accidents that can hardly occur under the ordinary conditions of their regular traffic. From this point of view Mr. Langford's proposal for a re-location, which could be entirely constructed before it is put to use, seems well worthy of a most careful consideration.

C. F. CREHORE.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

New England Magazine (Boston) for October: "Columbus and His Friends"; "An Acadian Province-by-the-Sea"; Arthur Wentworth Eaton, "The Whereabouts of the 'Vindicta'"; "The Ossipee Glens"; "How We Escaped from Fort Warren"; "Captain J. W. Alexander; 'The Republic of Venezuela'; Don Nicanor Bolet-Paraza; 'A Prophet'; 'The City of Denver'.

"The Forum (New York) for October: 'Cholera: The Lesson Preceding Epidemics'; Dr. Lewis A. Sayre, 'Our Public School System: Evils in Baltimore'; Dr. J. M. Rice; 'The Literature of the Future'; 'The Primary of the Pivot of Reform'; Hon. David Dudley Field; 'Sunday and the Columbian Exposition'; Bishop H. C. Potter; 'A Review of Two Administrations'; 'The Tariff and Trade'; 'The McKinley Act and the Cost of Living'; 'The Republican Policy of Reciprocity'.

St. Nicholas (New York) for October has an interesting article on "Volcanoes and Earthquakes (illustrated). An article on 'How Columbus Reckoned' is instructive as well as interesting. 'Strange Corners of Our Country' is a continued article, and describes 'The Stone Autograph Album,' situated in a remote corner of New Mexico. 'How Michael's Bullet Spoiled Tommy's Picnic' all young people will enjoy reading. 'Learning to be Weather Prophets' gives an idea of how the weather signal service is conducted, and is an interesting article. Other bright short stories and poems make the number an unusually good one.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

CANDIDATES WOLCOTT AND DRAPER ADDRESS A NEWTON AUDIENCE.

The Republicans opened the campaign Tuesday evening with a rally in Eliot Hall. Among the audience were many ladies, and every seat on the floor was filled, many standing in the rear of the hall. The Abundant Harrison & Reid battalion paraded before the meeting, and in their showy uniforms attracted a good deal of attention, and drew a large crowd.

The meeting began at 8 o'clock, and Senator Gilman presided. Upon the platform besides the speakers, Mr. Roger Wolcott and General Draper, were prominent Newton Republicans, among others, W. F. Slocum, Henry E. Cobb, E. W. Converse, Dr. D. K. Hitchcock, A. S. March, Bowditch Coffin, J. A. Gilman, Alderman Churchill, Hon. Thomas Weston, J. W. French, Councilmen L. E. G. Green and Reuben Forknall, Mr. Howard B. Coffin and Rev. J. B. Gould. Mr. R. H. Gardner, chairman of the ward and city committee, introduced the chairman, Senator Gilman, and the latter introduced the speakers, making brief reference to the issues of the campaign. Heartly applause greeted all the speakers.

Mr. Roger Wolcott began by remarking on the fact that the Republicans of Newton seemed to be wide awake, judging from the audience before him, and he defended the McKinley tariff, touched upon the address of the Independents, civil service reform, the state bank question, the Presidential candidates, and Congressman Williams.

Gen. Draper followed and devoted himself mainly to the tariff question and the high wages, which the tariff enabled both himself and other manufacturers to pay, and he argued that the law of supply and demand had very little influence upon wages. As a manufacturer of machinery which was protected by patents, he said he was very little dependent on the tariff. He closed by answering some editorials in the Boston Herald.

Before the rally the speakers were entertained at dinner by Mr. Henry E. Cobb at his residence on Mt. Ida, and after the meeting they were given a reception at the Newton club.

NEWTON POLITICS.

CLEVELAND AND RUSSELL CLUB ORGANIZED AND RALLIES ARRANGED.

At an enthusiastic meeting in Eliot Lower Hall, Monday evening, a Cleveland and Russell Club was organized and the following officers elected:

President, John W. Carter; vice-presidents, H. W. Wellington, E. W. Redpath, F. F. Raymond, Frederic Crehore, Samuel Shaw, John Lowell, Jr., W. S. Hutchinson; secretaries, F. H. Howes, F. W. Webber, Bruce R. Ware; treasurer, W. F. Hammett; executive committee, the officers named and J. R. Briston, William Paul, H. H. Hunt, P. A. McVicar, Frank W. Barney, W. H. Thorpe, H. E. Bothfeld.

Over 200 citizens are already enrolled and it is proposed to largely augment that number by an active canvass of a committee of the club.

The membership clause of the constitution of the club provide for the admission of all persons, who in the interest of good government and just taxation favor the election of Grover Cleveland as president of the United States, and of Hon. William E. Russell as governor of this state.

The question of permanent headquarters has been referred to the executive committee with full powers, and an adjournment taken to Thursday, Oct. 13, in the same hall, when the club escorted Hon. W. D. Foulke of Indiana and other speakers to the hall above, where a rally was held initiating the Democratic campaign in this city.

Arrangements have also been made for two other rallies, one a double meeting, Oct. 28, with speakers comprising Congressman Williams, D. J. Donovan, J. H. Shields and Hon. J. E. Fitzgerald, who will address the voters in the City Hall, West Newton, and Associates' Hall, Newton Centre. The other rally is to be held in Newton Highlands, Oct. 22, and Congressman Williams will be the principal speaker.

The club has started off under the most favorable auspices and promises to be an important factor in the campaign.

Larimer, "Well, the Woman Suffragists have added another ticket to the campaign lists."

Bloomfield, "Yes; they seem to think the Ship of State needs a Woodhull!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

Victory at Last. Clarence: "Charley Knowlton committed suicide by blowing his brains out."

Beckson, "Well, well; and so he managed to get something through his head at last, did he?"—Brooklyn Life.

Professor, "To what does the poet Klopstock owe his fame?"
Student, "To the fact that nobody ever reads him."—Fliegende Blätter.

For Scrofula

"After suffering for about twenty-five years from scrofulous sores on the legs and arms, trying various medical courses without benefit, I began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and a wonderful cure was the result. Five bottles sufficed to restore me to health."—Bonifacio Lopez, 327 E. Commerce st., San Antonio, Texas.

Catarrh

"My daughter was afflicted for nearly a year with catarrh. The physicians being unable to help her, my pastor recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I followed his advice. Three months of regular treatment with Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills completely restored my daughter's health."—Mrs. Louise Kelle, Little Canada, Ware, Mass.

Rheumatism

"For several years, I was troubled with rheumatism, and my joints were so bad at times as to be entirely helpless. For the last two years, whenever I felt the effects of the disease, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and have not had a spell, a long time."—E. T. Hansbrough, Elk Run, Va.

For all blood diseases, the best remedy is

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Cures others, will cure you

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY LIKE SHERIDAN'S CONDITION POWDER

If You Can't Get it Near Home, Send to Us. Ask first. It is absolutely pure. Highly concentrated. Most economical because small doses. No other one fourth as strong. Strictly a medicine, not a food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as we can. Prevents and cures diseases of poultry. Try it. Its weight in gold when hens are moulting. The large can saved me $40; send six more to prevent loss. Says a customer. Sold by druggists, grocers, general store and feed dealers. We send post paid a Poultry Raising Guide (price 5c), contains Poultry accounts worth the price, and two packs of powder for 50c; or five packs $1. One lb. can and Guide $1.50. Six large cans express paid $5; stamps or cash. In quantity cost less than one tenth cent a day per hen. Testimonials free. L. S. JOHNSON & CO., 28 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

Watts. "It is a wonder to me that no one has come forward with the claim that the Chinese were the inventors of the pneumatic tire. They have been credited with almost everything else." Potts. "Well, the pneumatic tire was an invention of the Greeks. Don't you remember Eolus, who bound the winds in a bag for Ulysses?"—Indianapolis Journal.

The H. W. Downs Company, Carry the Largest Assortment of Silk and Cotton Dress Linings and Findings in Boston, and at the Lowest Prices. Wholesale and Retail, 143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON. One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE. NEWTON BRANCH. HENRY W. SAVAGE. J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr.

BOSTON OFFICE: 37 Court Street. Telephone 2050. NEWTON OFFICE: 1261 Washington St. WEST NEWTON. Telephone 73-2.

Several very fine Estates at Newton and on West Newton Hill, which must be sold at once. Call for particulars. Houses in all the Newtons from $3,000 to $20,000. Choice building lots on West Newton Hill for sale low, on easy terms. Wanted for immediate tenants and purchase, houses in Newton and Newtonville.

DELIGHTFUL ATTENTION, pleasant compliments, are always the reward of wearing our corsets, and makes your shape more fashionable, your appearance more distinguished, no matter how much you may be so by nature. An improvement is always welcome to a woman, especially when it costs no more than ordinary corsets. This is true of the Royal Worcester. W.C. Corsets Leading Merchants Sell Them.

City of Newton.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS, 1892.

STATE ELECTION NOV. 8th.

Notice is hereby given to all male persons to present themselves for registration and that the Registrars of Voters will hold sessions for the registration of voters and to correct and revise the Ward Lists, from 7.30 to 9 o'clock in the evening upon the following dates and at the places herein named:

Newton Lower Falls—Boydell Hall, Saturday, October 8.
Nonantum Athenaeum, Tuesday, October 9.
West Newton Falls—Old Prospect School-house, Wednesday, October 12.

Newton—Armory Hall, Saturday, October 15.
At the City Hall on Monday, October 17.
Abundant—Abundant Hall, Wednesday, October 19.

Newtonville—Room 8, Central Block, Saturday, October 22.
Newton Highlands—Stevens Hall, Tuesday, October 25.

Newton Centre—Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Wednesday, October 26 from 7 to 10 o'clock. Also at City Hall from 8.30 A. M., to 12 o'clock, M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M., daily, October 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25, on Saturday, October 29, from 12 o'clock, M., to 10 o'clock P. M.

No names can be registered after 10 o'clock P. M., October 29.
All persons whose names are not on the Voting List must appear personally before the Registrars of Voters on either of the days above mentioned, presenting a tax bill of 1892 or evidence satisfactory to the Registrars entitling him to be registered.

All naturalized citizens must present their final papers when they register.
If the father of an applicant was naturalized before he (the son) became 21 years of age, the son is naturalized thereby, and must present the father's naturalization papers.

The names of all persons not assessed in 1892 are taken from the voting list, but such persons can be re-registered by applying in person to the Registrars at any session held for registering voters, and presenting satisfactory evidence to the Registrars of Voters.

Every male citizen of 21 years of age and upwards, who has resided in the State one year, and in the city of Newton since May 1st, 1892, and who shall be able to read and write, shall have the right to vote at the State election to be held November eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety two.

GEORGE E. BRIDGES, } Registrars of Voters.
GEORGE H. BOURNE, }
AMOS L. HALE, }
ISAAC F. KING, }
City Hall, Newton, September 13, 1892. 51 6t

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Andrew J. Fisk, to William A. Merriam, dated September 16th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds Book 1245, page 122, and for breach of the conditions thereof, will be sold by public auction upon the premises on MONDAY the THIRTY-FIRST day of OCTOBER A.D. 1892, at 4 O'CLOCK in the AFTERNOON, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed to-wit: All that parcel of land situated in that part of Newton, in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called West Newton, being lot numbered three (3), and part of lot two (2) on a plan of an estate in West Newton, sold by Chester Dunsford to J. Boyd, drawn by J. F. Fuller, dated May 18, 1871 and bounded as follows, viz: northerly on Washington Street, seventy five (75) feet; easterly on land of Gibbs, fifty five (55) feet; southerly on lot numbered four (4), on said plan, seventy eight and 78-100 (78.78) feet; and westerly on the other part of lot two (2), seventy six and 50-100 (76.50) feet; containing 900 square feet of land according to said plan.

Terms made known at sale.
ASPREY W. POTTER, Assignee of said Mortgage.
Newton, October 3, 1892. 1 8t

LAWYERS.

WILLIAM F. BACON,
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law
113 Devonshire St., Room 42,
BOSTON.

SPRAGUE & WASHBURN,
Counsellors - at - Law
51 SUMMER STREET, Rooms 13 and 14,
BOSTON.
Chas. H. Sprague, Residence, Abundant.
C. Everett Washburn, Residence, Wellesley Hill

JESSE C. IVY,

COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
113 Devonshire street, Room 43, Boston, Mass.
Residence, Newton. 38-ly

W. F. & W. S. SLOCUM
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law,
Rooms 9 and 10 Herald Building, 297 Washington Street, Boston.

WILLIAM F. SLOCUM. WINFIELD S. SLOCUM.
Residences, Newtonville.
Winfield S. Slocum, City Solicitor of Newton.

1852 ESTABLISHED 1887
HUBBARD & PROCTER
PHARMACISTS.
Successors to

Chas. F. Rogers,
LANCASTER BLOCK,
NEWTON, MASS.

MADISON BUNKER, D.V.S.
Veterinary Surgeon.
BUSH'S STABLE, ELMWOOD ST.,
NEWTON, MASS.
Telephonic connection. 5-

C. A. HARRINGTON
LUMBER,
Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c
Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.
Telephone 245-5 Newton. 47 2d

L. H. CRANITCH,
House, Sign, and Ornamental
PAINTER.
GRAINING and PAPER HANGING a Specialty
2d door from Central Block, Newtonville.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Gravel
ROOFING!
Special attention given to repairing.
John Farquhar's Sons,
Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.
Established 1836. Telephone No. 152. 49

T. F. CLENNAN,
Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.
BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.
Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,
FLORIST.
Conservatories,
School Street, Newton.
Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, etc., etc.
Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT,
ELECTRICIAN.
Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus
Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies and Bells.
Incandescent Light Wiring.
All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired.
SPRING FURNES.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables
HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.
Livery and Hacking.
Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landaus and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.
BOARDING.
Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 133. 30

FISH OYSTERS,
Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds
—AT—
Bunting's Fish Market.
COLE'S BLOCK.
Established 1877. Connected by Telephone.
Ripans Tabules banish pain

WM. B. YOUNG
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT.
NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES.
Land furnished and houses built to suit on easy terms.
Office, 25 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON.
Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.
INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,
Insurance Agency,
No. 2 Mason Building,
WATER STREET, - BOSTON
P. O. Box 304, Newtonville. 52

DO YOU WANT
To learn Watchmaking?
If so, attend the American Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.
For further information address or apply to
SAUL BROTHERS,
135 Moody St., Waltham.

The "REMINGTON" is a moderate priced strictly high grade wheel manufactured by the well known Remington Arms Co., whose name is a sufficient guarantee of the quality.
CATALOGUES FREE.
285 Washington St., Newton.

A FREE DISPENSARY
For the treatment of diseases of women and children will be opened in Newtonville, at the Associated Charities room on and after June 1st. Hours 4-5 p. m. Wednesdays and Saturdays, patients who can not afford regular medical attendance will be received. 52 3m.

Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company.
All orders for Gas and electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre st., will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 78-.

SAUL BROTHERS,
135 Moody St., Waltham.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB.
The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders, or High Protectionists. Address: Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

REPUBLICAN RECIPROCITY.

BY WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

Upon a campaign flag suspended over Washington street, near Water, are surmounted the names of the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President. Underneath them floats the legend "Protection and Reciprocity," a singular conjunction of words, considered in the light of their accepted meaning. Protection means a restriction of international trade, the interposition of a tax barrier to keep out foreign imports. Reciprocity, on the other hand, means an enlargement of international trade and a removal of taxes which hinder foreign imports. Protection aims at the isolation of national trade. Reciprocity would accomplish international union through trade. Protection versus Reciprocity one can understand; but forcibly coupled, the ideas are as incompatible as Slavery and Freedom, Poverty and Plenty, or Famine and Feasting.

What shall we think of a political party which gravely announces its creed in such terms? Is it not an insult to the intelligence of the people? It is usually safer to concede that "the court knows something." Before the court of thinking voters this case is to be tried.

The policy of reciprocity, over which the President and the late Secretary of State are rejoicing, was not dreamt of by the framers of the McKinley bill. How could he in one breath put the great advantage of the home market, and in the next describe in glowing terms the profits to accrue from gaining by treaty the markets of the world? How was it possible for him to ask restriction for the sake of high wages at home, and then to demand expansion of trade with nations of ill-paid workmen abroad? He was not so illogical or inconsistent as to attempt it.

It remained for the audacity and desperation of Mr. Blaine to foist upon the Republican party this ill-assorted and antagonistic program. It was not without experience in efforts to reconcile the irreconcilable, and, with his singular talents and impressive personality, was never trammelled by impracticality, was never hampered by impractical regard for logic, consistency, and veracious statement. But amid a multitude of dull political companions he was undeniably bright. He foresaw the failure of the McKinley law, and declared "there is not a section or a line in the entire bill that will open the market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of flour," and with native quickness and magnetic force, injected reciprocity into the pending bill. In the parlance of the gamster, he saw the game was a losing one and hedged.

The proposition was not received with enthusiasm by his more scrupulous associates; and Mr. Harrison, in transmitting it to the Senate, frankly said: "It will certainly be time enough for us to consider whether we must cheapen the cost of production by cheapening labor, in order to gain access to South American markets, when we have fairly tried the effect of established and reliable steam communications, and the convenient methods of money exchanges." It was decided by the Senate, however, not to wait for the trial of the agencies mentioned, and the life preserver of reciprocity was reluctantly fastened around the sinking body of protection. To-day, extension of commerce, the removal of sugar duties, the long free list, and the lower prices of goods are adduced by the Republican press and leaders as evidence of the virtues of protection, all of them denounced as Democratic heresies in the campaign of 1888.

Let us not, therefore, deceive ourselves. The same privileged classes, the same favored monopolies, the same corrupt spoilsmen are hoping to win again, this time by stealing the garments of their foes. The reciprocity now lauded is as spurious as the protection it is keeping company with is false. It needs only to be defined to be exposed. The reciprocity so praised is an alias. Its true name is retaliation.

A genuine reciprocity is free interchange of goods between nations. It needs no edicts to bring it about; it confers a mutual benefit; it is not a measure of war, but an assurance of peace. Republican reciprocity is a club. It threatens. But trade, no more than love, can be compelled by force. The protectionist can never understand that in a natural exchange both parties gain, hence his eagerness to send wealth out of the country and to prevent its coming in.

This counterfeit device of reciprocity now vaunted has a comical side. The United States proposes "to enforce reciprocal relations" by what? By compelling its own fellow-citizens to pay extra taxes. "Look you, Brazil, Cuba, or Guatemala, if you dare refuse to pay certain goods of us, beware. We will punish you by making our people pay higher prices for your wool and hides and sugar. Tremble!" The scheme seems like a plagiarism from Offenbach or Gilbert and Sullivan.

There is a plausible side also. It deceived Disraeli in 1849 and led him to affirm that "you cannot fight hostile tariffs with free imports." Sir Robert Peel said in reply to this: "I so totally dissent from that assumption that I maintain the best way to compete with hostile tariffs is to encourage free imports. So far from thinking the principle of protection a salutary principle, I maintain that the more widely you extend it the greater the injury you will inflict on the national wealth and the more you will cripple the national industry."

And Sir Robert Peel was right. In consequence of hostile tariffs abroad, foolish nations punishing themselves by shutting out entirely or restricting the importation of needed things, England has correspondingly prospered because of her open ports.

Take wool as an illustration. The duty imposed upon that staple by the present tariff, while it directly injures American manufacturers, is a direct benefit to England. She profits by our idleness. We must have the choice wools of Australia and South America, and yet voluntarily compel ourselves to load the unwashed wools, the only kind we are permitted to import, with an extra cost of eleven cents a pound. Immediately we give to English manufacturers this enormous advantage in their raw material. In spite of the high duties imposed on English cloths, they are easily able to undersell us in our own market and under the shadow of our protected mills. Consider how foolish it would be for England to shut out wools from the Argentine Republic because that nation put a tax on British manufactured goods. By her wise choice of freedom she can make them so cheaply that they penetrate into hostile markets in spite of artificial tariff barriers.

When France and Germany, in order to stimulate the production of wool, offered large bounties for its export, did England close her doors to its entrance? It doubtless conflicted with the production of West India sugar, wherein English capital was largely invested, and interested parties clamored for a protective duty. In consequence, England revelled in cheap sugar, to the immense advantage of the people. It gave an impetus to the manufacture of jellies, confectionery and kindred trades, and enlarged employment for labor. In short, England spreads her ample lap and gratefully receives the wealth that her less wise neighbors pour into it. No wonder that she is mistress of the seas, and that the exchanges of the world centre in London.

The nations with whom entire reciprocity would prove a real blessing to the economy of effort, the ideal and proper method, "buying in the cheapest and selling in the dearest market." It opens wider opportunity for labor, and gives it better returns. The motto on the flag is delusive. It does not mean Protection and Reciprocity but Restriction and Retaliation. How bad law is not cured by another. Repeal the first. Banish protective tariffs, and we shall not have to bully our South American neighbors into trading. No bounties need be wasted on sugar planters or American shipping. The law of gravitation may be trusted.

"Be just at home; then write your scroll Of honor o'er the sea, And bid the broad Atlantic roll A ferry of the free."

"For He that works high and wise, Nor pants in his plan, Will take the sun out of the skies Ere freedom out of man."

Resolutions.

The Executive Committee of the Newton Civil Service Reform Association, at a meeting held on the 8th day of October, 1892, unanimously

Resolved, that by the death of George William Curtis, the cause of Civil Service Reform has lost its most distinguished and effective advocate. For years he has been our acknowledged leader, whose earnest words and example have quickened many to more active exertions in the cause of reform. It is therefore with no common regret that we lament his passing away, for we feel that the place he has left void cannot soon be filled.

But not by Civil Service Reformers alone will his loss be deeply felt. By his pure life, his distinguished literary ability, his lofty integrity, his constant labors to elevate and purify the tone of social and political life, he has done a work which entitles him to be regarded as, in the best sense, a public benefactor whose service should be gratefully remembered by his countrymen.

To Civil Service Reformers his death should not cause a feeling of despondency or a loss of interest in the great work to which they have devoted themselves, but should rather nerve them to renewed exertions and a determination not to cease their efforts until they too have passed away or their labors are crowned with success by the establishment of the principles of Civil Service Reform in every department of the public service.

Boston Fish Markets.

To the editor of the GRAPHIC:

In 1892 the fish markets on the wharves in Boston are places of great filth.

Men may be seen chewing and spitting upon the floors where the choicest fish are laid. Men walk in from the highways with all kinds of filth upon their boots.

Men may be seen to take water from the harbor to wash the fish in, as the men cut out the entrails and skin the fish. Many of these fish are used in eating places in Boston and vicinity, and any one may know the condition of the water used when history tells us that the sewage from the people in Boston has been emptied into the water in the harbor of Boston since the year of 1701.

The same practice is in use in 1892 and the decayed flesh from sores of all kinds is allowed to become food for the eels and the fish and the clams and lobsters.

Any one to fully see the filthy habits of the fishermen and the fish dealers have only to take a walk upon the fish wharves where vessels are being unloaded in Boston in 1892. The wharves are old and dirty. The habits and practices of the men are the most filthy.

The men may be seen to spit along side the vessel in which fish are being entrained, and the spittle may be in the water used to wash the fish and clams and lobsters.

The people empty all their sewage on the vessels on the side of their craft or it goes into the water along side the wharves by the use of water closets and lead pipes.

Let your imagination have full sway and it will not lead you far away from the great danger in eating fish from the fish markets in Boston or from the fishing vessels that come to Boston wharves, as I have seen water from the harbor being used to wash the vessels after the fish had been removed, and the hold was being made ready to receive more fish.

A. F. HILL.
Boston, Mass.

Poisoned by Scrofula

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure and insalubrious blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissues; there is a period of latent life when the whole body consists of white tissues, and therefore the unborn child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect on the blood, expels all trace of the disease and gives to the blood the quality and color of health. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not accept any substitute.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation.

PROTECTION COLUMN.

(From the Boston morning Journal, Oct. 11, 1892.)

In Collision With the Constitution.

When a rapidly moving body, like Congressman George Fred Williams, comes into collision with an immovable and deeply rooted object like the Constitution of the United States, there is likely to be somewhat of a crash. This is what happened when Mr. Williams, in his speech at Dedham in defence of the wildest currency plank of the Democratic platform, said:

"President Harrison has made what seems to me to be the unfortunate statement—which unhappily is the basis of his financial policy—that 'it is the business of the Government to furnish the people with money.' I believe this is not true. And I am confident that the control of the money system by Congress ought to cease at once, and that it should be left to commercial interests to expand and contract the volume of money according to the necessities of trade."

Now, of course, when Congressman Williams says that "the control of the money system by Congress ought to cease at once" and that it ought to be given instead "to commercial interests," although there seems a certain degree of vagueness as to who or what are meant by "commercial interests," we feel that Congressman Williams ought to be commended if possible. But there is something in the United States Constitution, an instrument which Mr. Williams must be supposed to have learned by heart, else how did he ever come to be Congressman? which interferes with the execution of his plan of substituting the "commercial interests" for Congress in "the control of the money system."

In the eighth section of the first article of the Constitution, which defines the powers of Congress, it is provided that the Congress shall have power "to coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin." Moreover, in section ten of the same article it is expressly provided that the States shall not do the foregoing things. That section declares that no State "shall coin money, emit bills of credit, make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts." Congressman Williams is still quite young, and there are one or two things which he has yet to learn. Had he been a member of the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States, it is possible that he might have persuaded that august body that the safest and most stable thing to do with the "money system" was to leave it to the control and regulation of "the commercial interests of the country." But it was the misfortune of the founders of this republic to go to their graves without any personal acquaintance with the distinguished Dedham Congressman, or the illumination of his financial ideas. It seems to follow therefore that when Mr. Williams and the Constitution come into collision, it is not the Constitution which gets the worst of it.

Congressman Williams.

To the Editor of the Newton Graphic:

I have read with great interest the communication in a recent number of the GRAPHIC on Mr. George Fred Williams' financial unsoundness.

I noticed that when General Draper made his opening speech at Milford he refrained from discussing Mr. Williams' attitude on financial questions because he did not understand that it was well defined at that time on the question of state bank circulation, and the two were in substantial accord in reference to silver coinage.

But since then Mr. Williams has spoken at Dedham, and has not only accepted the Chicago platform in reference to state banking, but has undertaken to show how a state bank circulation may be safe and sound. He takes the ground that the general government should repeal the ten per cent. tax on state bank circulation when those banks will pledge all their assets and make their stockholders liable also, and then he thinks any circulation issued by such banks would be well secured.

He seems to have forgotten that the assets of banks frequently prove to be almost wholly worthless, and that the stockholders themselves in some cases prove a very poor reliance for creditors. It is unnecessary in this community to cite any other instance than the Maverick bank. All the creditors of that bank except the holders of its circulating notes must suffer, but the holders of those notes are made absolutely secure by Federal law.

Mr. Williams is lawyer enough to know that if the government repeals the tax on a condition, that will necessarily involve Federal supervision to be constantly extended, and that will make a conflict between Federal and State authorities which might make no end of trouble and against which the Democratic party would be sure to rise in protest.

Mr. Williams has labored hard to make a case for the Democratic financial policy, and it might be accepted in some parts of the country, but it cannot in Massachusetts. He has shown himself to be more of a partisan than a financier or statesman. The money which the people use as a universal measure of values and exchanges must be perfectly safe beyond peradventure or there will be great public inconvenience and constant loss. He has tampered with a subject which ought to be held aloof from political partisanship, and he has shown himself unworthy the confidence of the people as a legislator on the subject.

LAISSEZ FAIRE.

Tightened Purse Strings.

"We are poor," Mr. William C. Whitney is quoted as saying of the Democratic National Committee, "no mistake about that, and the Lord only knows where the money is to come from; I don't." Almost simultaneously the committee issues a long and piteous appeal for funds.

Well, is it any wonder that the Democratic National Committee should be poor and compelled to beg money to pay its house rent? What American manufacturer or merchant or wage earner wants to subscribe to the support of a party which condemns reciprocity as a fraud and protection as unconstitutional, which demands free and unlimited silver coinage and the revival of wildest State banks, and in the words of one of its leading statesmen "challenges the protected industries to a war of extermination—a fight to the death?" Is it surprising that it was poor, and that all of its frantic appeals for assistance were contemptuously ignored by the American people?

But where are the "combines" and monopolies, foreign and domestic, which have hitherto filled the treasury of the Democracy? Why do they not now come to its relief? Where is the Sugar Trust, and where the Standard Oil Company? Where is the foreign Steamship Trust, which in 1888 contributed $50,000 to the Democratic campaign fund, and had a representative on the Chicago Committee? Where is the huge concern which has just gobbled up the Nova Scotia coal mines? Where is the English salt trust, the English Chemical Union, the Bradford worsted trust, and last but not least the tin plate trust of South Wales and Monmouthshire? Why is it that Mr. Whitney cannot persuade these beneficiaries of "tariff reform" to "do something" for the party which promises them legislative favors?

Is it because they realize that the Democracy is playing a losing game this year, and that it is foolish to throw good money away in fighting the inevitable?

Democracy and Free Trade.

On the Democratic side there is a considerable weakness which it would be vain to cover up with any attempt at disguising the facts. It grows out of the profound division of the party upon the controversy between free trade and protection. The weakness which proceeds from this cause is especially manifested in the wild and frantic attempts of the extreme free trade faction to push into absorbing and monopolizing prominence the free trade plank which they forced into the Chicago platform by the votes of 564 delegates, against the votes of 352 delegates, proclaimed themselves as reformers, not smashers, of the tariff, as protectionists and not free traders. Their crowning effort at Chicago and all their efforts since seem to bear the stamp of a determined purpose to defeat the national Democratic ticket. In season and out of season, all places and all occasions are seized upon to proclaim and to magnify their fanatical determination to establish free trade with foreign countries, to destroy the ancient and venerable American system of protection towards foreign productions and of free trade at home; and consequently to promote the election of Harrison.—New York Sun.

Fine Democratic Harmony.

The New York World is evidently having an uncomfortable time with its Democratic campaign fund for corrupting the west. It formerly paraded under "scare" heads on the first page, but now it is put in the obscurity of the supplement. Before long it will probably occupy the smallest and most inconspicuous place possible as a paid "adv." Meanwhile the Democratic Sun in double leads warms the Democratic national committee not to trust the World, because it is "a convicted swindler," and it says: "Convinced forgers and swindlers are not commonly asked to administer trust funds." Great is Democratic harmony, and remarkable are the pictures which Democratic papers paint of one another.—Troy Times.

Two Splendid Armies.

We don't know why to the 20,000 New York soldiers, who Bourke Cockran said, in the Chicago convention, would not vote for Grover Cleveland there, should not be added the army of industrious men employed in the factories of that state, who have had their wages increased to the extent of $8,000,000 in the last year under the McKinley tariff act. See the report of state labor commissioner Charles F. Peck, a Democrat holding office since appointment by Grover Cleveland in 1888.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers,

AT FACTORY STORE OF

WALKER &amp; PRATT MFG. CO.,

GALEN STREET, - WATERTOWN, MASS.
TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.
FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, clippers, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS, WEST NEWTON, MASS.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING and PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS.
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the
varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS.

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold
and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal.

New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7.

Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Union Carpet Cleaning Works

Glen Avenue, near R. R. - Newton Centre.

We solicit your orders in the full belief that we shall give satisfaction.

PRICE LIST.

1 cent per running yard for Taking Up; 3 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wool Carpets; 8 cts. per running yard for Cleaning Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters; 8 cents per square yard for Cleaning Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for Laying in the same room; 4 cents per running yard for Refitting Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight.

All orders sent by mail to Newton Centre P. O. will receive prompt attention. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge.

Queer Free Trade Logic.

The Democratic party is such an enemy to protection and so hospitable to calamity of every kind that no one needs to be surprised to see them objecting to measures to protect the people of the United States from the cholera itself. Every man has a right to the cholera, say they; why should the government interfere to protect him. That is as good free trade logic as will be found in their newspapers.—Detroit Journal.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. Is order to be healthy this is necessary.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 938-3.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPH.

THE MAYORALTY PETITION.

The petition asking Mayor Hibbard to accept a nomination for Mayor for the third time is something unusual in Newton politics, and is a deserved tribute to the able manner in which he has discharged his duties during the past two years. The names of the petitioners are given in another part of this issue and will be read with interest. It will be seen that the solid men of Newton are largely represented, without distinction of party, and among them are an ex-governor of the state, ex-representatives, and present and past city officials, all of whom have had opportunity to follow Mayor Hibbard's course with an intelligent understanding of the difficulties in his path and the great amount of labor he has expended in giving the city such a business-like city government.

The wisdom of Mr. Hibbard's supporters, when his name was first mentioned for the office, has been fully demonstrated and the policy of having a practical business man at the head of city affairs is now endorsed by every one, and it has proved such a success that the men who are more interested in the city than in any political scheme, which includes the great majority of our citizens, are anxious to have that policy continued.

The past two years have certainly been the most important ones in the history of the city, when the importance of the questions at issue are considered, and never have decision of character, sound business principles, and an enlightened impartiality been more urgently needed. It is an old saying that in every public crisis a man to fit the needs of the hour can always be found, and it has proven true in this case. It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the compliment conveyed by such a petition and while Mayor Hibbard is fully sensible of it, we are sorry to say that there is no probability of his reconsidering his decision to retire at the end of the present year. He is reported as saying that he feels he has done all that could reasonably be asked of him and that he does not feel equal to undergoing the strain for another year. The people will be disappointed, but they will now have to look about for a successor who is the equal of Mayor Hibbard in character and business ability, and the task will not be an easy one.

In regard to the rumor that Mayor Hibbard refuses to run again because of any promise to or understanding with Alderman Harbach that he would "get out" in his favor after two years, we have the best authority for saying that it is destitute of any foundation whatever. Mr. Hibbard owed nothing to Alderman Harbach or his friends, on his first or second election and he is not a man to make bargains or deals, as many people know to their sorrow. Furthermore he is not working to secure the nomination of Alderman Harbach or any other man as his successor. He does not believe that it is fitting for a Mayor to interfere in such a matter, and all his interest is in having some liberal minded, progressive and independent man chosen, who will work to advance the interests of the city, and carry out the undertakings already begun in accordance with business principles.

ALD'MN CHURCHILL WITHDRAWS.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:

Kindly permit me to state through your columns, that increasing business cares as well as those of private interests, will not warrant my being a candidate for re-election to the board of aldermen for another year.

I have served the city for the last three years at the kind solicitation of my fellow citizens, regarding the service in the light of a public duty. How well I have attended to that duty in the several departments of our city government in which I have served, is a matter of record.

I had no other purpose than to assist in the administration of its affairs on broad lines, realizing its splendid possibilities for future development, having an ambition as a citizen and a taxpayer, to place the Garden City, of which I am very proud, in the front rank of the goodly cities of this Commonwealth.

Your obedient servant,

GEO. F. CHURCHILL.

The above will not be welcome news to Newton people, and especially to the voters of Ward Two, as Alderman Churchill has earned the gratitude of the public by his faithful service in the city government. He has always worked for the best interests of the whole city and has been very conscientious in the performance of every duty. Such men as Mr. Churchill are needed in our city government, and his decision will cause much regret. Ward Two has always been fortunate in the selection of its city officials, and Mr. Churchill's has not been an exception to the rule. It will be difficult to fill his place, and the importance of the work to be done another year makes the selection of his successor a matter of interest to the whole city.

There will probably be a great change in the board of aldermen another year, as there will have to be a new mayor chosen, and we understand that in addition to Mr. Churchill, Aldermen Sheppard, Sprague, Hyde and Harbach also intend to retire at the end of the present year, although they have not as yet given any public notice of their intention. If this report is true the people will have to hustle to find a new board equal in ability and character, to say nothing of experience, to the present board, and we imagine that considerable pressure will be brought to bear upon many of these, to induce them to spare the city the peril of trying a new board in the midst of so many important public undertakings, which need the best wisdom that the city can command to be successfully carried to completion.

COLUMBUS DAY.

An effort is being made by the city government, under charge of Alderman Hyde, chairman of the committee of military affairs, to celebrate Columbus Day by a parade on Friday afternoon, Oct. 21st, of Charles Ward Post, the High School battalion and all the organizations and societies of the city, as far as possible in uniform, and with bands of music, flags and other decorations. As the time is limited it is hoped that the societies will act on the matter promptly and send word to Alderman Hyde of their action in accordance with a notice in another column.

Newton ought to take some notice of this anniversary, in a public manner, and this seems the most fitting way and also the one in which the largest number of citizens can join.

It is proposed to have the parade start from Newtonville square, Friday afternoon next, and march down Washington street to Centre street, up Centre to Beacon, and through Beacon street and Lake avenue to Newton Highlands. Arrangements have already been perfected to make the parade representative of the city, and it is hoped that residents along the line of march will do their part towards celebrating the day by decorating their houses with flags and bunting, or any other way that their taste and inclination may dictate. Every city in the country will do something and Newton ought not to fall behind.

There is a full week in which to make preparations, which will give plenty of time to do all that is necessary, and it is hoped there will be a cordial and generous response to the invitation of the committee. With all the uniformed societies in Newton a creditable showing can be made if each society is willing to take the trouble, and in this case it is simply a patriotic duty.

The Republican rally Monday night was very successful in the point of members and enthusiasm, Elliot hall being filled, and the audience applauding liberally. Mr. Roger Wolcott made a very favorable impression, both by his manner and by the matter of his discourse. His six feet of stature gives him an advantage, and he has the bearing of a finished gentleman. His voice is unusually pleasant and well fits him for a public speaker. He will evidently make a good impression during the campaign, as the people are already disposed to like him, knowing from his previous record that he is a man of character as well as a candidate for office. Gen. Draper labored under some disadvantage coming after such a finished representative of Massachusetts culture and training, but as he himself says he is a business man and not an orator. He has been very successful in business and his speech was mainly devoted to the tariff, considered from the point of view of the manufacturer, of which he is well qualified to speak.

The present campaign is not without its humorous features, in spite of the apathy which has prevailed. One of the funniest things is the alleged letter from "A Young Lady of Boston" to Gov. McKinley, which the staid and dignified Advertiser published. In the letter the young lady rather gushingly described how she read Gov. McKinley's Boston speech to "a poor man who could not read" and his eyes filled with tears and he promised at once to vote for Harrison and Haile, and to influence other poor men in his condition to do the same. It is a very touching story and the Boston Post is cruel to ask how long since men who could not read were permitted to vote in Massachusetts. Evidently the Advertiser and Gov. McKinley have been imposed upon by some wicked Democrat who posed as a guileless "Young lady of Boston." The intelligent voter can find plenty to amuse and instruct him in this campaign if he only keeps his thinking cap on, and takes the campaign sensations of both sides with the proper amount of salt.

The Newtonville Republican Club have taken a column in the GRAPHIC for the campaign, in which to put forth their ideas on national politics, with especial reference to Congressman Williams, as will be seen from this week's sample. The matter will be found on the same page as the Tariff Reform column, which the Newton Tariff Reform Club has been conducting for several years. Readers can thus take the poison and the antidote, or the antidote and the poison at the same time.

We all expect a good deal of humbug in a campaign, but it would be as well to remind the politicians who address

Newton audiences that the old yarn about the "$10 all wool suit" is hardly adapted to this locality. It might pass in a factory village, but to tell it to an audience of Newton men, whose clothes are made by custom tailors, indicates a lack of respect for their intelligence. Imagine Mr. Wolcott or Gen. Draper appearing before a Newton audience in a $10 campaign suit.

A RESIDENT of Newtonville has a piece of land for which he recently paid $20 and the sewer assessment is $50. As it is in such shape that it never can be built upon he thinks of giving it to the city. There are said to be numerous other cases where the sewer assessment exceeds the value of the land in even a greater proportion than the one mentioned.

BETS are already being made that Alderman Harbach can never be elected Mayor, and it seems to be assumed that he will be one of the candidates.

A CARD

DR. MARY E. BATES,
Has removed from Newton Centre to
EXETER CHAMBERS, Boston.
Exeter Street,
OFFICE HOURS: 9-12 A. M.
SPECIALTIES: Heart and Lungs, Kidneys, and Diseases of Women. 2 13t

MARRIED.

MARIN-JANES-At Boston, Oct. 11, Manuel
Casalis Marin and George Helen Janes.
SLAMIN-FITZGERALD-At Newton Lower
Falls, Oct. 11, John H. Slamin and Mary V.
Fitzgerald.
BARRI-HODGSON-At Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. M. Dolan, Joel Gray Barri of Cambridge and Emma Francis Hodgson of Newton.
TAYLOR-BUSHER-At Auburndale, 12th inst., at the Congregational parsonage by Rev. Calvin Cutler, Mr. Woodford Taylor and Miss Williamine Busher.
GOTTWALD-CHADWICK-At Boston, Oct. 10,
Joseph Gottwald and Adelaide Chadwick of
Newton.
O'BRIEN-SHERWIN-At Upper Falls, Oct. 1,
John H. O'Brien and Elsie Persis Sherwin.
YOUNG-SOUTHCOMB-At Newton, Oct. 9,
Philip Young and Maria Jane Southcomb.
BENNETT-SUTHERLAND-At West Newton,
Oct. 6, Abner R. Bennett and Caroline P. Sutherland.
BENNETT-SUTHERLAND-At West Newton,
Oct. 6th, by J. B. Gould, Abner R. Bennett and Miss Caroline Phebe Sutherland.

DIED.

SHINN-At Newton, Oct. 13th, 13th, eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. G. W. and Mrs. E. M.
Shinn. Funeral services in Grace Church,
Saturday, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in St. Mary's church yard, Newton Lower Falls.
BOUCHER-At Newtonville, Oct. 8, Simon
Boucher, 23 yrs.
NODEN-At Newton, Oct. 8, Mrs. Margaret
Noden, 71 yrs. 3 mos.
THOMAS-At Newton, Oct. 7, Thomas Thomas,
70 yrs. 6 mos.
WIGGIN-At Newtonville, Oct. 5, Mrs. Abbie F.
Wiggin, 44 yrs.
CONDON-At Newton, Oct. 11, Thomas C. Condon, 9 yrs. 11 mos.
BECK-At Newton, Oct. 9, John Joseph Beck,
7 mos.
DAVIS-At Newton Lower Falls, Oct. 7, William
Bowman Davis, 31 yrs.
EDWARDS-At Newtonville, Oct. 8, Arthur, infant son of Arthur and Annie Edwards, 2
mos.
ALLEN-At Newton, Oct. 13, Isaac D. Allen, aged 57 years. Funeral at his late residence 559 Centre street, Monday, Oct. 17th, at 2 p. m.
Relatives and friends invited without further notice.

By the way, would it not be proper to remind you that a good picture of yourself, which "Fritz"
can make, neatly framed, makes a very acceptable Christmas present, and is a delight at all times? From Locket to Life size portraits. Call and see samples.
All work delivered in ten days.
Competent help engaged makes this now possible.

ODIN FRITZ,

Artist and Photographer. Newton.

Columbus Day.

City Hall, West Newton,

Oct. 10, 1892.

It is proposed to celebrate Oct.
21, Columbus Day, by a procession, including the City Government,
G. A. R. Post, Claflin Guards,
High School Regiment, Sons of Veterans, and such civic bodies as may wish to participate. The route will not be over three and one-half miles in length, and we wish to start promptly at 1 p. m., from Newtonville Square.

Any organization not already notified are requested to join the procession, and to send notice of the fact and the probable number of men in line, as soon as possible, to

ELLIOTT J. HYDE,

Chairman Committee

Military Affairs,

City Hall, West Newton.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength. Latest United States Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES-50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time
thereafter, in advance.

FOR SALE-Democrat wagon, canopy top,
in good condition, cheap. Apply to Frank L.
Tainter, Newtonville. 2 13t

WANTED-A girl for general housework, for small family. Apply to Mrs.
H. N. Hyde, cor. of North and Crafts Street,
Newtonville. 2 13t

WANTED-At once a first-class plumber.
Apply to Chas. Keiser, Station Street,
Newton Centre. 2 13t

WANTED-Cast off clothing of any size for boys over ten years of age, will be gratefully received at Pine Farm School, West Newton. Team will call for bundles any day. Address Pine Farm School, West Newton, Mass.
2 13t

LOST-Between Walnut Park and Elliot
Riverside, new house containing 7 rooms,
be rewarded on leaving the same at 89 Walnut
Park. 2 13t

BOARDS-WANTED-Pleasant rooms with board at 10 Brook Street. Four gentlemen can be accommodated. Apply to Mrs.
Crozier, 10 Brook St., Newton. 2 13t

FOR SALE-Or to let in Auburndale near Riverside, new house containing 7 rooms,
set tubs and bath to a small Protestant family.
Rent $20. Inquire of A. B. Potter, Waltham St., West Newton. 2 13t

TO LET-In Watertown, small tenements.
For sale, a cellar with lot of land. Inquire of A. B. Potter, Waltham St., West Newton. 2 13t

A GENTLEMAN-And wife, or two single gentlemen can have rooms with or without board in a strictly private family in Newton Highlands. Location three minutes from depot and surroundings first-class in every respect.
Address P. O. Box 197, Newton Highlands. 2 13t

WANTED-Situation for a first-class cook and second girl, who want to go to the same family. Also a coachman wishes a situation. Apply to Percolla's Laundry and Intelligence Office, Adams St., Newton. 2 13t

FOR SALE-A good second-hand cornering top buggy, for sale cheap. Apply to E. P.
Burnham. 2 13t

WANTED-Capable housework girl with references. Wages $4 to $4.50. Apply to Mrs. C. A. Cunningham, cor. Walnut and Lowell
Sts., Newtonville. 1 13t

TO LET-The new block corner of Pearl and Thornton Streets, two stories with a modern convenience; corner store has three large show windows, and would make very desirable store for druggist. Also nice to erect in same block. Address J. J. D., 55 Cabot Street,
Newton. 2 13t

WANTED-Protestant boys wishing to join a boys orchestra. Apply in person or by letter to W. A. Shipton, 121 Boyd Street, or to
A. Handley, 77 Morse Street, Newton. 2 13t

WANTED-By the Associated Charities, a Safe. Address Mrs. M. R. Martin, Newtonville,
Mass. Office hours of Secretary of the N. A. C.,
Washington St., 9 to 11 p. m. 9 to 10 every week.
Fridays and Saturdays 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. 1 13t

WANTED-By an experienced reliable girl, a situation to do general housework in small family. Can furnish best of references.
Apply at Graphic Office. 2 13t

FOR RENT-$23, a month, 5 minutes from Newton depot, house of 9 rooms, bath and bureau, also at $21, a month, 8 rooms and furnace. Both houses in good order and can be had this month. Apply to Edw. F. Barnes, 27
State Street, Boston. 2 13t

FOR SALE-At a great bargain, a single seamless top buggy and two wheel, a small beach wagon. The harness is new and the carriage in good condition. Apply at Graphic Office. 2 13t

TO LET-Tenement of 6 rooms in new double house on Prospect St., West Newton, also 4 in new house ready Oct. 15th, 4, 5, and 6 rooms, with separate entrances and cellars. Key at 1389
Washington St., West Newton. Mrs. Woodward's. 1 13t

TO LET-At Newtonville on Walnut Street,
and Claflin Place fronted by Park, a fine
apartment house with modern conveniences.
Address Curtis Abbott, 5 Tremont St., Boston or
23 Bowers St. 2 13t

FOR SALE-The locksmith and general jobbing business now carried on by John Beaulier at Newton Centre. A good opportunity for an industrious man to make money. An increasing business in a growing town. Apply to John Beaulier, Newton Centre, or to H. K. Richards,
12 Pearl Street, Boston. 2 13t

WANTED-Intelligent boy, 15 to 20 years of age, to learn the retail boot and shoe business. Must come well recommended. Address or call upon C. C. Clapp, shoe dealer, Associates' block, Newtonville. 2 13t

TO LET-One-half double house, 3 minutes
from depot, 10 rooms and bath, furnace,
etc. Good garden. Apply to J. B. Turner, Newtonville, Mass. 49 13t

WANTED-A situation by a young lady as copyist or to make out bills. Good references. Apply to "D", Newtonville. 49 13t

FOR SALE-Coupe Rockaway, property widow lady, used only short time. Apply to Edward B. Hill, Office of Lunst & Co. in stables, Newtonville. 49 13t

GENTS ENGLISH RIDING SADDLE-47;
Address B Graphic Office. 49 13t

TO LET-A house on Newtonville Avenue,
Newton, containing seven rooms. Apply at 114 Newtonville Ave., Newton. 36 13t

FURNISHED HOUSES-To rent for the winter. Address Walter Thorpe, Newton
Centre. 49 13t

TO LET-Auburndale, House 9 rooms, bath, furnace, etc. 6 minutes from the R. R.
Station. Apply to C. A. Miner, City Hall, West
Newton. 35 13t

PERNOLLA'S LAUNDRY AND INTELLI-GENCE OFFICE. I have in my laundry
a mangle, arrived from England. All plain clothes without buttons can be mangled as nicely
as if hot irons were used. Tablecloths and napkins look as though they were new. Mangle
15 cents per dozen. I have in the Intelligence
Office a girl who gets up and serves dinner, church and supper parties. Ladies who wish
such help will please call at Pernolla's Office,
Adams street, Newton. 49 13t

W. J. HALLAHAN,
Harness Maker

—AND—
Carriage Trimmer

—ALSO DEALER IN—
BLANKETS, COMBS, BRUSHES, ETC.

Waltham Street, West Newton, Mass.

Jobbing in Both Branches a Specialty. 2 13t

AGENTS WANTED.

Salary and expenses paid. Address W. & T. SMITH
CO. Geneva Nursery, Geneva, N. Y. Established 1846
2 13t

Hatch's
Superfine Derby

For Autumn Wear.

Our extremely large sales of Hatch's Perfected $3.00 Derby have brought to our store a class of trade that have been paying $5.00 and $6.00 for their hats.

We have, therefore, manufactured for these special customers a hat into whose makeup only carefully winnowed stock is put, and which is hand-made in every part. For actual wear it is no better than our regular hat, but has possibly a little more exclusive look from its finer finish and selected materials.
It is in actual value a $6.00 Derby and will rank with any American or Imported Derby, but we shall sell it in any shape or color for just

$4.00

We invite critical customers to give it the benefit of a demonstrating test of its superlative merits and be governed in their purchases by the results of the trial.

HATCH'S HAT HOUSE,

Methodist Building,

5 Moody St., Waltham.

Boston Store: 311 Washington St.

Real Estate.
Mortgages.
Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES
in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES

—OFFICES—

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE!

A FULL LINE OF

Dry Goods and Trimmings,
CAN BE OBTAINED AT

FRANK MAYNARD'S

Formerly of CLARK, MAYNARD &amp; CO.,

"MAYNARD BUILDING" Main St., Waltham.

Waltham and Newton Electric Cars pass the door.

Now is the time for Housekeepers to be getting ready for the Winter Social Duties. The more connected rooms make it the easier to entertain.

Take down the ugly wooden door and use pretty inexpensive

PORTIERES

of which we have as complete a stock as can be found.

WARREN F. EMERSON,

698 Main Street, Waltham.

ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

By ELLIOTT J. HYDE, Auctioneer,
31 Milk Street, Boston.EXECUTORS' SALE OF SEVERAL Fine Building Lots
IN AUBURNDALE.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises

On Monday, October 17, '92

AT 3:30 O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON,

Three valuable Building Lots in Auburndale, the property of the estate of the late ROYAL M. PULSIFER.

The first lot is situated on the east side of Irvington Street, and contains about 41,218 feet of land extending to the Charles River, has a frontage of 170 feet on said street, and is in a good state of cultivation; the lot is assessed for $1,000.

The second lot is on the corner formed by the turn of Irvington Street, and opposite the gateway of Mr. Louis F. Ober, has a long frontage on the street on both sides, contains 68,728 feet, and is assessed for $2,000.

The third lot is at the end of Irvington Street, and extends to the Charles River, has a frontage of 227 feet on the street, and a frontage of 240 feet on the river, contains 47,405 feet, and is assessed for $2,700; there is a stable on this lot.

This property will be sold absolutely to the highest bidder, as the executors desire to close the estate.

TERMS, $100 ON EACH LOT AT SALE. BALANCE IN 10 DAYS.

DEPOSITORS

—IN THE—
Newton Savings Bank

will please take notice that by a change in the
By-Laws of the bank, interest begins on deposits on the

TENTH Day of January, April, July and October in each year instead of on the first day of said months as heretofore. And that the time for declaring dividends is TENTH day January and July in each year instead of first day of said months as heretofore. Dividends will be paid after the Tuesday following said 10th day January and July.

A. J. BLANCHARD, Treas.
Newton, Sept. 8, 1892. 49 13t

DRESSMAKING

By the Day. Terms, $2.00
APPLY TO
MISS E. L. SHAW,

23 PEARL STREET, NEWTON.
2 13t

BRACKETT'S MARKET CO.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 16-3.

The Best Meats
Poultry
Game

Cream
Butter
Eggs

Fruits and Vegetables

AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

This Market intends to fill all orders as if the purchaser was present. Goods which are found not to be as represented may be returned.

7 & 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
Washington near Centre Street,

NEWTON, MASS.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Wash. St., Newton.
—Mrs. C. C. Clapp is entertaining guests from Sandwich.
—Mr. D. C. Needham is enjoying a short vacation at Lawrence, Mass.
—Mr. W. L. Chaloner is away on a sketching trip on Cape Ann.

—Mrs. C. E. Atherton of Central block has come to New York City for a few days.
—Y. P. S. C. E. Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock in the Universalist church parlors.
—Geo. W. Trofiter has entered the employ of a large Boston wholesale woolen firm.

—Do not forget the "Lend a Hand" oyster supper at the Universalist church, Oct. 27th.

—Mrs. Lydia Higgins, Mr. Willard Higgins and Roger Higgins spent Sunday at Gloucester.

—Miss Eva Groat has returned to Lynn after a few days visit at Poconean suite, Walker street.

—The first meeting of the Woman's Guild was held Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. S. Keene.

—Mr. Bodwell rendered a very pleasing bass solo "Come Unto Me" Sunday morning in the Universalist church.

—Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin, the authoress, was a guest last Wednesday of Mrs. Beverley K. Moore at Old Elms.

—Mr. William Sylvester and Mr. Prescott enjoyed a vacation on Saturday and Sunday at the Hoosac Tunnel.

—Mrs. E. Addie Brooks has been admitted as a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra Chorus of Boston.

—Mrs. Geo. F. Johnson has accepted a position in the fur department of Mackintosh's new store on Boylston street, Boston.

—The regular meeting of the Goddard Literary Union will be held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th, at 7.45 o'clock. An interesting program is promised.

—The anniversary of the Methodist Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in the Methodist church parlors next week, Tuesday evening, and an interesting time is anticipated.

—Miss C. E. Benson, the modists of Associates' block, is in New York this week securing novelties and the latest designs in feminine wearing apparel. She returns today.

—The annual meeting of Massachusetts Association of the New Church was held Thursday of this week at the church of the Newtonville society. There was a large attendance.

—Mrs. Katharine T. Prescott, the sculptress who has recently opened a studio in Pierce building, Boston, will pass the winter with her sister, Mrs. Beverley K. Moore on Walnut street.

—Prof. Walter's dancing class opened very favorably on Saturday evening in Tremont Hall, with thirty-one in attendance. The class will meet every Saturday evening for the next twelve weeks.

—Alderman Churchill, Councilman Greene and Mr. E. S. George represented Ward Two on Thursday afternoon, followed by the usual supper and social. Preparations are being made this early for a grand fair to be held early in December, to which all ladies of the society interested are invited to lend a helping hand.

—The funeral of Mrs. Wiggin took place on Saturday last at 10 o'clock from the Universalist church, and was attended by the relatives and friends of the deceased. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful. Rev. A. J. Priest officiated, and the church quartet rendered appropriate musical selections. The interment was at the Newton cemetery.

—Miss Daisy Carroll Hoyt will give a reading in Central Congregational church on Thursday evening, Oct. 20th. She will be assisted by her sister, Miss Alice Hoyt, who is a well known whistler, also by Mr. Dennison, baritone soloist, the proceeds of which will go towards the fund for building the new church. Miss Daisy Hoyt has twice appeared before the Newtonville audience and it goes without saying she will draw a full house.

—It will interest our Newtonville ladies to know that the winter season of Mrs. Erving Winslow's readings will be inaugurated by the course on the "Early English Dramatists" under the auspices of the N. E. W. Press Association at Pierce Hall, Boston.

—Mrs. Winslow has the happy faculty of giving her audiences the concentrated essence of months of study in the compass of a few minutes, and her readings usually bring out a representative contingent of the literary culture.

—It was an entirely unexpected victory that the Newton High school eleven won from the Boston English High team on the Magnolia grounds Tuesday afternoon. The object of the contest was to give the English High practice before beginning their schedule in the senior interscholastic league. It was a hot struggle from start to finish and Newton winning by a score of 4 to 4. English High excelled in interference and in running with the ball around the ends. Capt. Clark's work was especially brilliant in this respect. The tackling on both sides was of the best, but the weak centre and guards of English High accounted for nearly all the gains made by Newton.

—The Newton High school football team opened the junior interscholastic league season last Friday afternoon, by defeating the Waltham High school team on the Magnolia grounds by a score of 28 to 0. The game was very one-sided, Newton having everything their own way from the start. The Newton boys played with a good deal of snap and on the rush line broke through and tackled well. The backs broke through the line well, but fumbled the ball badly at times. The quarter-back was rather off on his passing. The Waltham team played with no life, and failed to use their weight properly. Their rush line men neither broke through nor tackled.

—A happy party of local sportsmen returned last week on a two week's hunting trip in Maine laden with the spoils of war. It comprised Messrs. Charles Curtis, B. T. Wells, W. M. Tapley, A. A. Savage and J. L. Richards. The game included, besides partridges and wild duck, five deer and a moose weighing about 900 lbs. The latter was sighted on Echo lake and was shot by Mr. Tapley, after an exciting chase, while swimming across the placid sheet of water. Mr. Tapley fired six shots from the bow of a boat which had been propelled rapidly after the animal by Mr. Savage and a sturdy guide. The last shot took effect, penetrating the brain. The horns and hoofs were brought home and will be preserved as relics of the trip.

—On Tuesday evening at about 6.30 o'clock a large assembly of the citizens of Ward 2 began to gather in the square until at 6.45 a dense crowd had congregated to witness the raising of a Republican campaign flag by representatives of the party. There is nothing more inspiring than to witness the unfolding of the stars and stripes. The committee of arrangements had everything complete, and while the band played that very appropriate piece, the "Star Spangled Banner," the Auburndale Republican battalion was drawn up in line under the flag staff, with red fire and the lights from the torches of the battalion, and the hearty cheers of the multitude, the flag was successfully unfurled to the breeze. It bears these names: At the top, Republican Club, Ward Two; next, Hale and Volcott; next, for Congress 11th District, Gen. W. E. Draper; at the bottom, Harrison and Reid.

WEST NEWTON

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hayes returned this week from the mountains.

—Miss E. E. Barry has returned from a week's sojourn at Putney, Ct.

—Mr. Siser of Cincinnati is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Stephen Child.

—Dr. Curtis is away for a short time for the purpose of obtaining a needed rest.

—Mr. Warren Kilburn and Mr. Frank Newhall are in Baltimore for a short stay.

—Mr. James P. Tolman and family are again occupying their house on Highland street.

—Mr. Joseph Emerson of Bangor, Me., is visiting at Mr. William Eaton's on Lander street.

—Newton Lodge, I. O. O. F., will confer the third degree at home next Thursday evening.

—Mr. Minor Robinson is wiring Mr. Lawrence Mayo's new house on Chestnut street, for electric lights.

—Rev. J. N. Gilman was one of the vice-presidents at the Cleveland-Russell rally in Eliot Hall last evening.

—The Newton Veteran Firemen came out fifth in the contest at Nashua, N. H. last week, and Waltham was sixth.

—Mrs. E. A. Thayer has just returned from Brookline where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Doibeare.

—Mrs. A. H. Bennett who has been boarding here with Mrs. Brigham has returned to her winter residence in Georgia.

—Mr. E. H. Saxton and family have closed their Mt. Vernon street residence and will reside in Boston during the winter.

—Mr. C. Willard Carter has returned from Brooklyn, N. Y., where he attended his niece's wedding and gave the pretty bride away.

—Albert D. Upham and Anna C. Upham son and daughter of Edward Upham, commence their second year at Emerson's College of Oratory.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Luke and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelton attended the Luke-Leighton wedding Monday. The groom is Mr. A. F. Luke's brother.

—Rev. H. J. Patriok, D. D., presided at the thirty-eighth semi-annual session of the Suffolk West Congregational conference in Wellesley Hills, Wednesday afternoon.

—Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars received seven propositions Wednesday evening. After the meeting a public Good of the Order was enjoyed by many friends of the order.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of Miss Emma A. Upham, in another column, who devotes special attention to training the voice for singing and instruction on the piano.

—At the request of many citizens of West Newton Rev. Henry G. Spaulding will give in the City Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 31st, his illustrated lecture on "Our Italy: Picturesque California."

—Mr. Eugene F. Fay of Brookline is preparing an interesting catalogue of past members of the Allen school, which he hopes to have as complete as possible by the time of the re-union of members of that famous old school.

—W. J. Hallahan invites horse owners to his shop on Waltham street, where he has a fine stock of blankets and stable goods, which he sells at very low prices. He is an experienced harness maker and carriage trimmer, and any work entrusted to him will be done in a satisfactory manner. See adv.

—There are letters at the post office for Mrs. John Armitage, Mr. D. Baker, Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mr. Caverley, Flora Cameron, E. Crouse, Cora Corning, Geo. Daley, M. Darnody, William Killen, Mr. William Loring, Luella Lanst, Miss T. M. Melody, Charles Pratt, Lizzie Pennell, Maria Perry, Mrs. Ida L. Stebbins, J. W. Work, William White.

—The Boston English High school team defeated the Allen school eleven on the West Newton common yesterday, 26 to 4. English High won by superior team work. Allen was not in it from the start, and he only touchdown was made by Ryan. Kelly, Allen's centre rush, was knocked down during the game and had his nose broken.

—The Congregational church will hold its annual fellowship meeting on Friday the 21st. It is the oldest of organization 111 years ago. There will be social hour from 5 to 6 p.m. in the parlors. Tea at 6 and exercises in chapel at 7. The roll will be called and responses given. Members of other churches worshiping with them are invited to be present.

—The proceeds of the Basket Party given by Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars, Wednesday evening added quite a sum to the furnishing fund. A short entertainment was given by members of the lodge previous to disposing of the baskets. Miss Ethelyn Ellis was awarded first prize for best basket. Miss Loretta Payant, second prize. Preparations are in progress for an important event to be given in City Hall in November.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mr. F. C. Perry is home for a short vacation.

—Mrs. S. G. Pond and family have just returned from their summer outing at Winthrop.

—Mr. C. W. Starbuck and family are removing to Cincinnati. Mrs. Starbuck has already gone.

—Conductor John Adams and wife have returned from their wedding tour and are now settled in their home on Auburn street.

—Mrs. Hall, a sister of Mr. C. E. Sweet, has returned from an extended European tour, and will make her home with her brother.

—Mr. and Mrs. George P. Sanger and Mr. Samuel Carr and family of Marlborough street, Boston, are staying at the Woodland Park Hotel.

—Mr. E. E. Anderson and wife greatly enjoyed their recent trip to Washington, Antietam, Gettysburg and the other battlefields and places of interest.

—Mr. W. F. Holmes and family of Boston have left Manchester-by-the-Sea, and are passing a few weeks at the Woodland Park Hotel, before returning to town.

—Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Davenport, who have been at the New Cliff Hotel, Newport, during September, are now at Auburndale, where they will remain for several weeks.

—List of letters remaining in the post-office: Mrs. Childs, Albert Curtis, Miss N. M. C. Haskell, Mrs. J. A. Haskell, Mr. Clark, Rev. W. B. Eldridge, Mrs. Emmett Fitch, 2, Mrs. Maggie O'Donnell.

—Mr. E. E. Hardy has disposed of one of his fine blooded colts of two years old, to go to Kentucky. Mr. Hardy makes quite a business of breeding colts, and has disposed of several which promise finely in the way of blooded stock.

—Among the fine horses which have recently changed hands in Auburndale, is a 2.28, sold this week by Mr. T. Hart to Mr. Hollis of Brighton. Price not definitely known, but Mr. Hart some time since refused an offer of $1400 for the same animal. It is likely he got a large advance over this sum.

—The 16th annual course in demonstration lessons in cooking will be given by Miss Anna Brower at Lasell Seminary, beginning Oct. 17th, at 10 a.m. The course is free to pupils of the Seminary, but outsiders can be admitted both to the demonstration courses, or to the practice work, for the usual fees. Classes in dress-cutting and millinery will begin in January.

—The kindergarten, corner of Woodland avenue and Hancock streets, is now open, and the parents and children are to be congratulated in having secured for another year the services of Miss Susie C. Aiken, by whom the school was founded. It is desired that friends who can, will assist in maintaining this excellent addition to our schools. Miss Aiken can be seen daily, Saturday excepted, at the school rooms.

—The Auburndale Harrison & Reid Club with the Waltham Watch Co. Band, assisted Tuesday evening in the flag raising at Newtonville, and attended the Republican rally at Eliot Hall the same evening. Next Monday evening they will turn out with full ranks for a home torchlight procession and parade, and Wednesday evening they will turn out to attend a grand rally there, accompanied by a good drum corps, Holmes as major.

—Miss Louise Imogen Quiney has made a capital translation of "The Demi-Monde," the play which Mrs. Langtry is presenting in London, under the title of "The Fringe of Society." The work was done for Manager Stetson, who will star Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bellew in it. The translation is now in the hands of Mr. Seymour, who is adapting the work in a manner highly satisfactory to the stars. Mr. Seymour has written, rewritten and adapted many plays, although he is better known as an actor, stage director and manager than as a translator. The play has been named by Mr. Stetson "The Trust of Society."

—Last Sunday was missionary day at the Methodist church. It was a day long to be remembered. The address by Dr. Parker of India, in the forenoon, was one of the finest ever delivered in our village. The doctor spoke from his personal experiences covering many years of service. The wonderful results attending the labors of the missionaries, under Bros. Bailey, Parker and Bishops Thorburn and Taylor, can hardly be understood by those of us who are used to thinking the usual slow methods of christianizing heathen nations. The obstacles to be overcome, the prejudices of the different castes, were enough to discourage the most heroic, and it may be truly said, "except the Lord had been on their side," they could have accomplished little, if anything at all, with such formidable forces. The missionary collection this year will amount to about $700, a large increase over former years. In the evening a meeting was held under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Dr. Steele of Auburndale presided, and addresses were made by Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Hanford of Allen.

—The Waltham High school team defeated the Allen school eleven on the West Newton common yesterday, 26 to 4. English High won by superior team work. Allen was not in it from the start, and he only touchdown was made by Ryan. Kelly, Allen's centre rush, was knocked down during the game and had his nose broken.

—The Congregational church will hold its annual fellowship meeting on Friday the 21st. It is the oldest of organization 111 years ago. There will be social hour from 5 to 6 p.m. in the parlors. Tea at 6 and exercises in chapel at 7. The roll will be called and responses given. Members of other churches worshiping with them are invited to be present.

—The proceeds of the Basket Party given by Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars, Wednesday evening added quite a sum to the furnishing fund. A short entertainment was given by members of the lodge previous to disposing of the baskets. Miss Ethelyn Ellis was awarded first prize for best basket. Miss Loretta Payant, second prize. Preparations are in progress for an important event to be given in City Hall in November.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church in the presence of free thought and individual freedom?" Rev. John M. Dutton; "The relation of administration and constitution to methods of church work?" Rev. Wolcott Hall, D. D.; "What new methods and agencies are needed by the church today?" Rev. Theodore J. Holmes; "The part of the Newton Congregational churches in the Christian Workers' Convention to be held in Boston next November?" Rev. George G. Phipps. Opportunity will be given for general discussion.

—The Waltham Veteran Firemen's Association has sent a challenge to the Newton Association for a play out on Columbus day for $75 a side. Two contests, one horizontal and one perpendicular, are proposed, and it is probable, if the challenge is accepted, that the event will come off at Central Park in Waltham. The Waltham vets have felt chagrined ever since Newton captured the prize in the tournament in the Watch City, Labor Day. They want to even up, if possible.

—The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the parlors and chapel of the Second church, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The doors will be open at 5 o'clock; supper promptly at 6 o'clock. James Paxton will be the caterer. This will be the Pastors' Night, and the general topic will be "The Growing Church." Various aspects of the subject will be presented by different speakers, as follows: "Have the conditions of modern life changed the problems for the Christian church?" Rev. Calvin Cutler; "Where and why has the Congregational church failed to secure and hold her former pre-eminence?" Rev. Henry J. Patriok, D. D.; "The position of the church

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

BOSTON THEATRE.—Mr. Denman Thompson continues to present his now celebrated impersonation of Joshua Whitcomb in "The Homestead" at the Boston Theatre. "The Old Homestead" should be visited while the beautiful presentation is still fresh and fair. It is but repeating an old story to remark that in all respects the play is worth the attention it has commanded. It preserves in entire vitality and in correctness of detail types of character which are fast slipping away from sight, it blends genuine humor with touches of simple pathos, and inculcates kindness, trust, honesty and plain dealing. Its personages are well embodied and the atmosphere of moral life breathes through it.

GLOBE THEATRE.—Digby Bell recently started out to star in "Jupiter," a comic opera in which he will appear at the Globe Theatre for a brief engagement commencing next Monday, Oct. 17. The story runs as follows: Sergius a chariot-driver, in love with Lucilla, arrives at the slave auction in Rome just in time to see her sold. At the same moment Jupiter, who has come down to earth to see the world, and being appealed to by Sergius for help proves his power to give it by transforming himself into the likeness of Spurius, a drunken cobbler. Sergius finding that the change was made by a magic cup, steals the talisman. Jupiter, deprived of it, and powerless to assist him, is left to the cobbler, while Sergius changes the cobbler into Jupiter. The pair return to Olympus, where Spurius turns everything topsy-turvy, till the real Jupiter gets back to set things right. Mr. Bell will be supported by Laura Joyce Bell, Louise Montague, Josephine Knapp, Edith Libbey, John Beiden and Forrest Jones among others. A bright libretto, tuneful music and fine stage appointments are promised; also a most attractive, shapely and youthful chorus. The company numbers sixty-five persons and is at present playing to immense audiences at the largest theatres in Philadelphia. Seats for the Digby Bell engagement should be ordered well in advance.

TREMONT THEATRE.—The first presentation for many a long day of an Opera Comique (barring of course the Grand Opera productions of such class of works) worthy the name, is from all accounts certain to occur at the Tremont Theatre, beginning next Monday night Oct. 17. Col. Henry Mapleson will on that date bring here a company of artists seldom equalled in point of capability and excellence. Laura Schirmer, whom we all consider and regard, as a Bostonian, is the head of the organization. Accompanying her are such absolutely able artists as Philip Tomes, the celebrated English tenor, long identified with Carl Rosa's and the Royal Italian Opera Companies, Arthur Seaton, one of the finest of baritones, who possesses a voice akin to that of the famous Del Puente; Chas. H. Drew, a capital comedian and quite as good a singer as an actor; George Stanfield and Wynn Nickols, basses, of the highest calibre, and very successful young sopranos, Irene Jerome and Emma Blanchard are to be noted as especially efficient. Signor Tomasi will be the conductor and he declares that he never before has had control of so good a chorus or so strong a group of principals. The opera to be produced, with J. Norcross's stage direction, is the English version of Maillart's "Les Dragons de Villars," which was given over 1000 representations in England, by Carl Rosa's Company, under the title of "Fadette"—the same title used here. Superb settings, gorgeous costumes and a superlative production, ensemble will mark the production. The sale of seats now in progress.

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE.—Probably there is no stronger melodramatic production before the public than L. R. Shewell's masterpiece, "Shadows of a Great City," which will be the attraction next week at the Bowdoin Square Theatre. It is distinctively an American play. Confessedly sensational, and perhaps improbable though not impossible, it is so cleverly contrived that the most wearied habitue of the theatre must yield to its absorbing and continuous interests. The play will be presented with entirely new scenery and appointments, embracing the mechanical showing of the panorama of New York harbor at Hell Gate, the boat-house upon the Harlem river and the banker's mansion with its huge vault, massive doors and grand stair-case. It will be presented by a strong company under the management of C. B. and T. Jefferson.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—"The Grey Mare," which was produced at the Hollis Street Theatre Monday night by Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Theatre Company of New York, is the greatest comedy of the year has been offered to Boston. Every line sparkles with humor, every situation is exquisitely elegant and clean. Since "A Comedy of Errors" not many plots have been woven with the engaging ingenuity employed in this delightful piece. It speeds along like a dairy clipper-built ship under full sail, and all the surprises come in breezy sweeps that buoy up the diverting story. The members of Daniel Frohman's excellent company never quite so covered themselves with glory. There are four capital character hits admirably drawn and accentuated by the art of four of the best actors in the Lyceum company.

COLUMBIA THEATRE.—At the Columbia on Monday evening, "The Spanish Tragedy," the first of a series of plays which Charles Frohman will present in this city for the first time on any American stage as announced by him at the beginning of the present season, is a comedy by William Lestocq, the author of "Jane." It is from the French and ran nine months at the Palais Royal in Paris and was secured by Charles Frohman during one of his visits to that city. The play touches upon the story of a young husband of a sporting disposition, who is supposed to have given up this sort of thing when he marries. The complications arise around the husband who cannot forego his desire for light gambling, and the wife's aversion and discovery of his weakness, brings about, it is said, a number of absurd incidents and original situations. This being the first work of Mr. Lestocq, author of "Jane," since that successful farce has been presented in this country, it will be carefully watched by metropolitan managers and European agents. Its production therefore will be of great interest in both this country and England and particularly in Boston. Of course the play will be handsomely staged.

"I am tired of modern fiction; can't you recommend me a good exciting standard work?"
"Have you read 'The Last Days of Pompeii'?"
"No, I believe not. Can you tell me what he died of?"
"An eruption, I believe."—Salem Gazette.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Pianos tuned, Farley, Newton.
—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. C. H. Brown.

—The Chautauque Circle will have a "Columbian Day" next Monday, at Mrs. Tyler's.

—Rev. Mr. Allen will have charge of the Unitarian services next Sunday at Stevens Hall at 4 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Horner have gone to housekeeping in one of Mr. B. Dickerman's houses at Elliot.

—Rev. Mr. Patrick of West Newton will conduct the services at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

—Mrs. E. Moulton and young son have returned from an absence of three weeks, visiting friends at Washington and Philadelphia.

—The Rev. C. A. Shatto will occupy the Methodist pulpit during the coming winter. Services as usual next Sunday at 10.45 and 7 o'clock, in Stevens Hall.

—The M. E. society held a pleasing and appropriate harvest service last Sunday evening, and a successful temper and fruit auction the following evening.

—List of letters remaining in the post-office: Maud Bailey, Mary Callahan, Rufus Dalton, Annie Laurie, Mrs. Beatrice Pratt, A. I. Paine, Spencer Smith, Mrs. Ellen Sullivan.

—Mrs. T. T. Fisher, mother of Mr. G. R. Fisher of Lake avenue, gave a reception at her beautiful new home on Hyde street, Saturday evening last, and a large number were in attendance.

—Mr. Leonard Bacon has returned home from his visit to the Provinces after an absence of several weeks. On account of taking cold during his stay he is somewhat enfeebled. He is now in his eighty-fourth year.

—Miss Gould, a teacher at the Hyde school, has purchased of Miss Paul of Newton Centre about two acres of land on the road of Lincoln street, with an entrance from Tappan place, and will soon erect a house on a portion of the same.

—The Shakespeare Club held its first annual meeting at the house of Mrs. Eaton, Oct. 1st, and elected the officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. S. S. Eaton; Vice-President, Mrs. F. Johnson; Secretary, Mrs. A. L. Pratt; Treasurer, Mrs. F. E. Dudley. The report of this year's work shows it to have been very successful both in the studies and social life of the club. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Luitwiler, Saturday, Oct. 15.

—On Tuesday, the 11th instant, Rev. Manuel C. Marin of Barcelona, Spain, for the past few weeks residing at the Highlands, was married to Miss Gertrude Helen James of Newton Centre, in the First Baptist church, Commonwealth avenue, Boston, by the pastor, Rev. Philip S. Moxon, assisted by Rev. Theodore J. Holmes, pastor of the First Congregational church of Newton Centre. Mr. Norman McLeod presided at the organ with his accustomed efficiency and taste. A large number of friends from Boston and the Highlands gathered noon, the hour designated to witness the ceremony, a delightful feature of which was the presence of two beautiful boys, sons of Mr. C. Peter Clark of this village, who preceded the bride and groom up the broad aisle. After the service, Mr. and Mrs. Marin proceeded to the church parlors, whither the entire audience followed them to express congratulations and good wishes. Dr. Dickinson, the Foreign Secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union, graced the occasion with his presence, as did also among others, Professor Stearns and Mrs. President Hovey of Newton Centre. The wedding lunch was given in the lovely and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Clark of this village, to as many friends and relatives of Mrs. Marin as the house would hold. Mr. and Mrs. Marin left on the Fall River boat for New York, whence in a few days they sail, probably on the Deutscher Lloyd Steamship Fulda, for Gibraltar, en route to Barcelona, which is to be their home. Six years ago, Mr. Marin, after a dozen years of study in academy, college and theological seminary, under the patronage of the First Baptist church of Boston, was ordained to the work of the Christian ministry and commissioned by the Missionary Union to the work in Spain. During these years he has labored with great patience and devotion in the face of many and severe trials. It is not too much to say that he has displayed heroic qualities, and certainly he has won the respect and confidence of all who know of his work. The church which he has made his home, and in which he has labored so long, is a woman of sterling worth, endowed with qualities of mind and heart that will make her a strong ally of her husband in all his work. With both will go the blessings and prayers of a large circle of devoted friends. The readers of the Watchman may expect to see occasional communications in its columns during the year from the nervous and graphic pen of Mr. Marin. His address is Rev. Manuel C. Marin, 45 Calle de la Cruz, San Gervasio, Barcelona, Spain.

WABAN.

—Benevolent Society will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. De L. Sheple.

—Messrs. Harlow, Shaw and Davidson attended the Columbus celebration at New York this week.

—The Improvement Society meet in the hall Thursday evening at eight o'clock to discuss the change in the by-laws.

—The school children are endeavoring to raise by subscription enough money to purchase a flag staff, the flag being already obtained by this means and nearly enough for the pole. The pupils intend to throw their new stars and stripes to wind on Columbus Day for the first time.

—All residents of Waban are cordially invited to meet at the residence of Mrs. Sheple, Beacon street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, to consider the subject of a continuance of religious services, and the advisability of forming an association for furthering the cause. It is desired that there may be a full attendance, that the subject may be thoroughly discussed.

—The Tennis Club held a meeting at the residence of Mr. Robert Seaver last Friday evening. The voting for the officers of next year resulted as follows: Pres. Mr. C. J. Bulfinch, Vice Pres. Mr. Alec Dresser, Sec. and Treas. Mr. Maynard Collins. The club is arranging to hold a dance on the evening of Columbus day, Oct. 21st. It is to be hoped a large number will attend and make it a great success.

—The Rev. James M. Gray, Rector of the First Reformed Episcopal church of Dartmouth street, Boston, will conduct the services Sunday afternoon, October 10th, commencing at 3.30 o'clock. We trust our friends and others interested will be present and assist in the service. By special request Mr. Gray will at the close of the service speak upon the subject of the "Reformed Episcopal Church."

—Officer Mitchell has returned from a trip through the White Mountains with his brother. They went on foot to the summit of Mt. Washington, through the Tuckerman Ravine a distance of 14.12 miles and returned next day by way of the Crawford Bridle Path. Tuckerman Ravine is especially noted for its danger, many tourists having been lost there while trying to gain the summit in this way.

A Typographical Error. There is a typographical error on our coins that should be corrected. We refer to the inscription, "In God we trust." It should read, "In this God we trust." We move that in the interest of truth "this" be inserted.—Independent Pulpit.

The Ministers' Institute.

Doubtless many of our readers will welcome some information concerning the Ministers' Institute, the biennial meeting of which is to be held in Channing church, Rev. Mr. Hornbrook's, next week, Oct. 17-20.

It is a body composed chiefly of Unitarian clergymen, but membership is open to any clergymen interested. Its meetings are intended to gather the members, every other autumn, to listen to addresses by eminent theologians and persons who are authorities in philosophy, sociology, and philanthropy. The session next week begins Monday evening and closes the following Thursday forenoon. It should be well understood that not only clergymen of all denominations but the general public also are heartily welcome to any of the exercises. The program for the meetings in Channing church includes the names of a number of distinguished preachers and theologians; they are to handle subjects which have no little attraction for the intelligent laity.

The opening sermon will be preached next Monday, the 17th inst., at 7.30 o'clock p. m., by Rev. Dr. Horatio Stebbins of San Francisco, who has long been a preacher in the Unitarian body, whether one has in mind his striking personal appearance, or his logical and ability of his matter. The paper on "Certain Parallels between Zoroastrianism and Christianity," on Tuesday morning at 10.30 o'clock will be given by A. V. W. Jackson, a professor of Columbia College and a specialist in Persian religion. He will be followed at 11.30 a. m., by Prof. J. P. Peters, D. D., of the same city, an eminent Assyriologist who is in thorough sympathy with the high criticism on the "Psalms." The subject in the hands of Prof. Alpheus Hyatt of Cambridge "Are Acquired Qualities Inherited," is one of peculiar interest at present, on account of the latest scientific theories by Prof. Weismann's writings; it has a very obvious bearing on education. In the evening at 7.30 o'clock, Prof. F. G. Peabody, D. D., of Harvard, will discuss the question of "The Care of the Soul in the Unitarian Religion." The subject in the hands of Dr. Peabody is a careful student of sociology, and he has recently returned from Europe, where this subject has been specially investigated by him. On Wednesday, the 19th, there will be three papers relating to progress in theology. The essays will be by Prof. A. V. G. Allen, D. D., of the Cambridge Episcopal school on "What Constitutes Progress in Theology," 10.30 a. m., and Prof. E. C. Smyth of Andover on "Progressive Orthodoxy," at 11.30 a. m. In the afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, these two papers will be supplemented by one from Rev. E. H. Hall of Cambridge on "The New Unitarianism." In the evening at 7.30 o'clock a platform meeting will be held, to be addressed by a number of eminent speakers.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Rev. Mr. Wright of New York, who speaks Thursday, the 20th, at 10.30 a. m., on "The Grounds of Faith within and without the Soul," has the reputation of being one of the most earnest and eloquent Unitarian preachers in the country. The Institute will close Thursday forenoon with three reports on notable books published within the last two years, of particular interest to the clergy, made by Profs. J. N. P. Gilman.

Mr. Chas. N. Hauer

Of Frederick, Md., suffered terribly for over ten years with abscesses and running sores on his left leg. He wasted away, grew weak and thin, and was obliged to use a cane and crutch. Everything which could be thought of was done without good result, until he began taking which effected a perfect cure. Mr. Hauer is now in the best of health. Full particulars of his case will be sent to who address C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills, assist digestion, cure headache and biliousness.

Newton City Market.

ALL KINDS OF

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME.

Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,

Canned Cakes, Fruit,

and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

Ripans Tabules prolong life.

G. W. RIGBY,

Carpenter and Builder.

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN

NEWTON, MASS.

Ripans Tabules relieve nausea.

GEO. W. BUSH,

Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes.

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

WM. H. PHILLIPS

Would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

Newton National Bank,

NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

On Saturdays, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.

Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Murdock, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, Charles E. Bellings, William C. Strong, Charles Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward and Chas. T. Pulsifer.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT:

James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Treasurer.

CHAS. A. MINER, Clerk and Auditor.

H. W. MASON, Attorney.

Interest begins on deposits on the 10th day of January, April, July and October.

—THE—

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1867.

West Newton, Mass.

JUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. SICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Hough- ton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Pre- scott C. Brigham, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Gate, Adams K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and Octo- ber.

Don't Drink impure water longer when for 50c. you can buy a good filter. They will fit a faucet whet- er it has thread or not. Call and see at

Barber Bros.

"Improvement of the Order of the Age."

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER

LEADS THEM ALL.

In Improvements of the Highest Order.

Originality by an Old Family Physician.

Think of It. In use for more than Eighty Years, and still the most reliable

Kitchen Extension.

University Extension is good, but Kitchen Extension is better. Wider knowledge of better cooking processes means better health and comfort for everybody. Science can never do us better service than by the multiplication of the cooking schools which make healthful means and methods available for even the most modest home.

COTTOLENE

The vegetable substitute for lard, is science's latest gift to the kitchens of the world. Every woman who has ever cooked a meal, knows that lard is disagreeable in use and unhealthy in its effects.

Cottolene is a most satisfactory substitute—clean, delicate and far more economical. At your grocers.

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.,
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

Ladies:—

The Secret

Of a Fair Face

Is a Beautiful

Skin.

Sulphur Bitters

Will give you

A lovely

Complexion.

Sent 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

TEETH.

Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates.
DR. W. R. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park Square, up one flight.
ROOM 7, IN REAR.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT
Cured by
DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY
All Grocers sell and warrant it.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, &c.
Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is sold.

LANE'S MEDICINE
All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one today. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

Does Lightning Sour the MILK?

It is a well known fact that milk is especially apt to sour during the prevalence of a thunderstorm, and from this it has been surmised that the electric discharge held some mysterious sway over the lactical fluid. An Italian experimenter, one Professor G. Tolomei, has been making trials of various sorts, the object being to throw some light on electric influence over milk molecules. In his first experience he passed an electric discharge from a Holtz machine between two balls of platinum hanging two inches apart in a bottle containing a quart of fresh milk; secondly, by sending a current between two strips of platinum at the bottom of a V tube filled with the same fluid; thirdly, by subjecting milk in a test tube to the action of a strong battery current through a silk covered copper wire wound spirally around the tube.

In each one of these experiments, which were as thorough as any lover of science could wish, it was proved that acidulation of the milk was delayed instead of hastened, as had been expected. Three equal portions of milk from the same milking thus treated began to grow acid on the seventh, the ninth and the sixth days, respectively, while other portions of it which had not been treated with electricity was rankly acid on the evening of the third day. Having thus disproved the popular theory of lightning being the direct cause of the acidification of milk, Professor Tolomei tried ozone and found therein the mystic agent of milk souring. In his second trial of ozone he brought the surface of a quantity of milk close to the two balls of the machine used, and the fluid almost instantly became acid in consequence.

Here at last a mystery that has puzzled professors and peasants alike has been made plain.—St. Louis Republic.

Shoes for the Dead.

Among Chicago's industries is a factory where the manufacture of shoes for corpses is carried on exclusively.

Out of five neat black boxes a representative of the firm yesterday took as many different sizes. These were adults' and children's shoes. The material corresponds with the purpose of their use. The shoes are certainly nice to look at. The soles are cut out of pasteboard and are covered with grained paper. The uppers are a combination of quilted satin and crocheted work. A ribbon, inserted at the top and tied in a neat bow-knot, holds the shoe to the foot.

"Men's shoes are always black," it was said. "Occasionally we turn out a lot of brown ones. We have had special orders for men's white shoes, but only in a few instances. Shoes for women and children are always white. They are not expensive; five to fifteen dollars will purchase a dozen pairs."

The burial shoe is a patented article. It was designed by a Joliet (Ill.) woman milliner, who now enjoys the profits of her idea. The Chicago company has been in existence for nearly a decade, and is catering to an ever increasing demand. The firm employs a traveling man, who covers all the territory between Maine and California. It takes ten girls and several machines to keep up with his orders. The average monthly output is 15,000 pairs during the dull season. It is increased to 25,000 during a busy period.—Chicago Tribune.

The Gold Cure Is Very Old.

The precious metal has been employed both externally and internally, in the metallic state, in solution and by sympathy, for a great variety of the ills that flesh is heir to, for over 2,000 years. The train of thought which led the ancients to employ this highly prized material can be well told in the quaint language of the distinguished Dutch physician and chemist, Hermann Boerhaave; writing about 1735, he says: "The alchemists will have this metal contain I know not what radical balm of life capable of restoring health and continuing it to the longest period."

"What led the early physicians to imagine such wonderful virtue in gold was that they perceived certain qualities therein which they fancied must be conveyed thereby into the body; gold, for instance, is not capable of being destroyed; hence they concluded it must be very proper to preserve animal substances and save them from putrefaction, which is a method of reasoning very much like that of some fanciful physicians who sought for an assuaging remedy in the blood of an ass' ear by reason the ass is a very calm beast!"—Professor H. Carrington Bolton in Popular Science Monthly.

A Laughable Superstition.

"A curious illustration of the value of superstitions," said Mr. Kunz, the diamond expert for Tiffany & Co., "was afforded the other day by a lady who brought a set of opals here for the purpose of selling them. She felt obliged to part with them on account of a series of misfortunes in her family which she feared were attributable to the gems, so notoriously unlucky. On examining them I found that they were merely imitations. A few weeks ago I had in my possession three seashells which had been transformed into opals. Their original limy material had been dissolved out of the rock by which they were enclosed, and the precious substance was deposited by water in place of the lime, retaining the form of the shells. A graduate of Harvard college bought the curiosity and presented it to that institution."—New York Sun.

An Absentminded Journalist.

Jim Faberpusher is one of the most illustrious journalists in New York. He thinks of nothing but his professional duties.

One day his wife (to whom he was recently married) said to him: "You don't speak to me any more. Have you ceased to love me?" "Oh, no, but I just can't find time. I'm pressed for time."

"Yes, but I don't get pressed at all," responded the neglected wife. This well merited rebuke reminded the journalist of his obligations to his better half.—Texas Sittings.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.
Andrews, C. M. The Old English Manuscript; a Study in English Economic History.	86.127
The author has sought to go over the whole field of public finance, presenting the results in a systematic form, and to give a manual in which the student may obtain a general knowledge of the leading facts and present position of this branch of political science.
Garner, R. L. The Speech of Monkeys.	103.565
An account of experiments with monkeys, with the author's deductions that "we find in them the rudiments from which all the faculties possessed by man could develop, including thought, reason, speech, and the moral and social traits of mankind."
Gould, S. Baring. Lives of the Saints, Vols. 4-12.	95.137
Hale, E. E. East and West; a Story of New-England Ohio.	64.1225
A picture of rough pioneer life in the days of the early settlement of Ohio.
Imbert de Saint-Amand, A. L. The Duchess of Berry and the Court of Louis XVIII.; tr. by E. G. Martin.	95.573
This princess became, upon her marriage to the Duke of Berry, the central figure of the French court, and the volume, while largely biographical, presents vivid pictures of the times.
Johnson, E. R. The End of a Rainbow; an American Story.	64.1221
McCollier, S. H. After-Thoughts of Foreign Travel in Historic Lands and Cities.	31.403
Mathews, G. B. Theory of Numbers, Vol. 1.	105.448
Metcalfe, W. C. Aboveboard; a Tale of Adventure on the Sea.	64.1213
Molesworth, M. L. Next-Door House.	64.1215
Schultz, J. The Story of Colette.	66.706
Shinn, G. W. A Manual of Information concerning the Episcopal Church.	91.737
Tyndall, J. Fragments of Science; a Series of detached Essays, Addresses and Reviews. [New rev. and ed.] This edition contains 2 vols.	104.60
This edition contains additional papers and represents the author's latest changes. This work and "New Fragments" (64.717) recently issued, include all the occasional writings which the author has decided to preserve in permanent form.
Watson, W. The Adventures of a Blockade Runner; or Trade in Time of "War."	74.267
The writer was compelled to engage in this hazardous business of blockade running, and had experience in the small-craft traffic and afterwards in steamers, as well as in some of the less pleasing incidents of business in the war time.
Wiel, A. Two Doges of Venice; a Sketch of the Lives and Times of T. Mocenigo and F. Foscari.	95.472
Wigton, W. F. C. The Columbus of Literature, or Bacon's New World of Sciences.	56.340
An effort to establish the Baconian theory of the authorship of the Shakespearean plays.
Wilson, G. H. Musical Year Book of the U. S.	51.451
A record by cities of the music performed in the U. S. during the musical season of 1891-2; contains also a list of new American compositions and of American music performed abroad.
Woodbury, W. E. Encyclopedia of Photography.	104.461
A time to assist all who practice photography to better understand the optical and chemical principles of the art.
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.
Oct. 12, 1892.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

To Prevent the Grip

Or any other similar epidemic, the blood and the whole system must be kept in healthy condition. If you feel weak or have "that tired feeling" in the morning, do not be guilty of neglect. Give immediate attention to yourself. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to give strength, purify the blood and prevent disease.

Head of Firm. "Have you any excuse for missing the train this morning, sir?" Penwiper (a suburbanite). "Yes, sir. I came in with my wife."—Puck.

Just Married.

How loving they are; this is always a sure sign. After the first year sometimes it doesn't hold good. When Charles comes home to you groggy and cross, snapping and snarling, unable to relish the nice dinner you have cooked, and feels as if there was a ton of pig iron in his stomach, he is troubled with dyspepsia, and Sulphur Bitters is the only medicine that will cure him.

"Your parlor maid is about to enter my service. Would you mind giving me some information about her character. Is she honest?" "I am not quite sure. I sent her to you with a bill last week, and she hasn't turned up with any money up to now."—Zurichische Freitagszeitung.

When catarrh attacks a person of scrupulous diathesis, the disease is almost sure to become chronic. The only efficacious cure, therefore, is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels scrofula from the system and the catarrh soon follows suit. Local treatment is only a waste of time.

Mike. "It's like owl time to see you again, Pat. Why did you never write me a letter since last we met?" Pat. "O! didn't know yer address, Moike."

Mike. "This why, in the name o' sinse, did ye not write fur it?"—Harper's Bazar.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

NONANTUM.

A Council has been called by the North church to advise them in regard to their call to Rev. Daniel Greene to become their pastor, to meet at 3 p. m., on Tuesday, Oct. 25, the installation service to take place at 7 o'clock. The churches invited are the Congregational churches in Newton, Waltham, Brighton, Allston, Needham, Water-town, Brookline, Old South and Berkeley temples, Boston, and Prof. J. S. Sewall, Rev. Dr. Furber, Rev. Dr. Creggan, Rev. Dr. Wellman, Rev. C. L. Woodworth, Rev. R. F. True.

A meeting of the Nonantum Club was held in the club building on Watertown street, Monday evening. Important action was taken in regard to contemplated improvements, and it was voted to make extensive additions to the clubhouse, including a hall to accommodate about 400 persons, and a new billiard room. The latter apartment will be located in a wing, and the hall space will be secured by carrying up an additional story. Some changes will be made in both the interior and exterior, and the result is expected to be a comfortable, convenient and substantial building adapted to the uses and growing membership of the club. After the transaction of routine business it was announced that the club had been made the recipient of a gift from President Samuel Hyslop, in the shape of a valuable silver loving cup, to be known as the Hyslop cup, and to be offered as a prize in the handicap tennis tournament. The cup must be won two years before it can become the property of a member. Arrangements for the tennis tournament are now in progress, and the date of matches will be made up as soon as the list of entries is completed. Following the meeting Monday night, the members of the club adjourned to the dining hall, where an excellent collation was served.

Lasell Notes.

On Friday evening Mr. Spaulding gave at Lasell the second lecture of his course. Subject, "Pompeii, the Jewel Box of Antiquity," name well chosen. The structure of the Roman house was admirably explained and illustrated by several fine views, some of which were in color. The development of the atrium from the reception room into the living room of the family was shown to have been induced by changes in the character of the government and the consequent reaction upon the customs of the people. Views were shown of restored Pompeii, its forum, temples, tombs, theatres, etc., and followed by views of the same in their present ruined condition, giving clearness and definiteness to one's ideas of the place. Afterwards the lecturer dwelt at some length upon the art of the enchanting old city, her gaily painted walls, her frescoes and mosaics, the artistically fashioned and decorated utensils and furniture of the house, and the amusing caricatures found here and there on Pompeian walls. In conclusion the detail of the lovely Naples Vase was shown, and a fine view of the celebrated vase itself. The chapel filled with an interested and attentive audience, and the lecture was a success every way.

A Trip to the Moon.

That singularly effective spectacle, "A Trip to the Moon," which was given with unexampled success in the Carnegie Music Hall in New York last season, is to be presented at the Tremont Theatre next week on the afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 18, 19, and 20, at 2 o'clock. It is a stage spectacle which appeals to the educated public in many ways, combining in an indescribable and delightful manner all that is most interesting and attractive in the highest class of illustrated lectures, with the beauty and perfection of the highest scenic art. Electricity has never shown itself a more obedient and more wonderful working agent of man than in its application to these novel "Uranian" entertainments. Here are some of the daily multiplying wonders of astronomy, and of the science that teaches how worlds are made, presented more eloquently and realistically than one could be shown. A new and most fascinating means of intellectual enjoyment and entertainment is here spread before both old and young, before the learned and the unlearned alike. The second of the "Uranian" entertainments, "From Chaos to Man," will form the subject of the second series, later in the month.

Cure Yourself.

Don't pay large doctor's bills. The best medical book published, 100 pages, elegant colored plates, will be sent you on receipt of three 2-cent stamps to pay postage. Address A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

A tourist on a very hot day was watching a man who, with head uncovered, was laboriously turning a windlass which most clumsily hoisted from a shaft a bucket filled with rock. Said the tourist:

"My friend, why don't you cover up your head? This sun will affect your brain."

"Brain is it?" replied the man. "If I had any brains I'd be here pulling 'up in this way this bloomin' bucket!"—Exchange.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam cures the cough at once.

When the hair begins to come out in coming it shows a weakness of the scalp that calls for immediate attention. The best preparation to arrest further loss of hair and restore the scalp to a healthy condition is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Hall's Hair Renewer enjoys a world-wide reputation for restoring the hair to bald heads and changing gray hair to the original color of youth.

"You are charged with running along the sidewalk at a rapid rate and knocking people down," said the police justice.

"Well, I have a right to, haven't I?" saucily answered the prisoner.

"No, sir, you have not. If you want to do that sort of thing you must own a bicycle."—Indianapolis Journal.

"Handsome is that handsome does," and if Hood's Sarsaparilla doesn't do handsomely then nothing does. Have you ever tried it?

"A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three or four times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your Balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson, Portsmouth, N.H.

I was so much troubled with catarrh it seriously affected my voice. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm did the work. My voice is fully restored.—B. F. Liepner, A. M., Pastor of the Olivet Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 115th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Water Bugs and Roaches

CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Elys Cream Balm For
CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

The elephant in the Maverick case seems to have a little black trunk.—Lowell Courier.

In the Orchard: He. "How the trees are moaning and sighing today."

She. "So would you, if you were as full of green apples as they are."—Life.

Proprietor (of barber's shop). "How did you hack up this stop so?"

First assistant. "I made a mistake; I thought I was shaving a man."—New York Herald.

"Biggers is just a bit unromantic and cold-blooded, I fear."

"Cold-blooded, you say? Every mosquito that tickles him gets a case of cramps."—Indianapolis Journal.

Fitchburg Railroad.
Reduced Rates of Fare
For Round Trip Tickets on account of Summer

VACATION EXCURSIONS
Tickets on sale June 1 to Sept. 30, and good until Oct. 31, 1892.

SUMMER EXCURSION BOOK FREE
On receipt of 2c. stamp for postage. Gives information in regard to routes, rates of fare and list of hotels and boarding houses. Can be obtained at 250 Washington St., Boston, or on application to.

J. R. WATSON, Gen. Pass. Agent.

30 ct.

Had the Desired Effect!

MARYVILLE, R. I., March 2, 1891.
I, the undersigned, suffered from epilepsy for 6 years, had no appetite and could do no work whatever; consulted a number of doctors, but all said there was no remedy for my disease. I then took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and am now in perfect health, and work all the time. Thousands thanks to your remedy.

PHILIP MONGEON.

95 PROSPECT ST., NEWARK, N. J., March 2, 1891.
I got some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervousness and sleeplessness, and it helped me; the first time I took it I had the best sleep I had had for several months. I also know friends of mine who used it and say it is the best nerve tonic they ever used. I write this that some sufferers may use your medicine and be helped by it.

MRS. J. MURPHY.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases free to any address and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge. This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1856, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Ripans Tabules: best liver tonic.

LADIES AND GENTS' BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feel trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom price.

A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newt put in a

Best in the world. We can prove it. Ask us what it costs.

Our 48-page book and all other information free. Send your address to WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO., 34th STREET, WATERTOWN.

JOHN A. FENNO, C. A. HAMMOND, G. T. A. Boston, Sept. 11, 1892.

Daily, 50c. a Month.

THE BEST BASE BALL NEWS IN

Sunday, $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD—and—THE SUNDAY HERALD.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and rent, and insurance companies in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Carpets and window shades at McWain's. Cash on instalments.
—Work on the Willow street sewer has again been resumed.
—Mr. W. L. Peck has returned from his summer vacation spent in Maine.
—Mr. C. C. Livermore and family, Parker street, have removed to Somerville.
—Mrs. Hiram Blaisdell is occupying the Trowbridge house on Bowen street.
—Mr. Frank Hathaway and family, Parker street, have removed to Cambridge.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Brewer (nee Warren) have returned from their wedding tour.
—Mr. Barker and family have removed recently to Mr. Coffin's house on Pelham street.
—Mr. Stephen D. Greene is building a new house on Centre, opposite Grafton street.
—Mr. Stoddard of Boston is occupying the house, corner of Sumner and Ray streets.
—Mr. C. Kennison entertained a number of friends who surprised him at his home last evening.
—McWain has got some good rubber shoes that he will dispose of at cost, rather than keep it over.
—McWain keeps mattresses and pillows of all kinds. Also comforters, bed spreads and blankets.
—John Cook, formerly of this place and now quite an invalid, is here on a visit to his brother, George Cook.
—Mr. Vinal has closed his summer home at Concord, Mass., and is moving into his new house on Ashmont Park.
—Dr. Mary E. Bates has removed from Newton Centre to Boston and has opened an office at Exeter Chambers.
—Mr. W. H. Pulsifer and family have returned from their summer outing to their stately residence on Beacon street.
—Mr. Lawrence Mayo has sold his house on Homer street to Mr. Fellows of Boston, and has moved to West Newton.
—Dr. Banfield, who recently sold his house on Gibbs street, has moved into Mrs. Porter's house on Station street.
—Mr. C. M. Newton and family, Beacon street, have removed to Little Rock, Ark., where Mr. Newton has large business interests.
—The next union meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. societies of the city will be held at the First Congregational church Monday evening, Oct. 24.
—Complaint comes from Parker street that the stench from deposits of garbage north of the street is disagreeable and perhaps unhealthy.
—Mrs. Geo. E. Huse of Knowles street has returned from Providence, R. I., where she has been staying with friends at the Hotel Narragansett.
—The engagement is announced of Mr. Henry T. Hesse, a well known business man of Newton Centre, to Miss Eleanor Clark of Five Islands, N. S.
—Rev. S. F. Smith, D. D., and Mrs. Smith are at Newton Centre again. The doctor was quite ill during his illness, but is again in his usual health.
—Mrs. George A. Pierce and children have returned from Stamford, Ct. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce attended the Columbus Day celebration in New York.
—Mr. Clarence W. Stetson of Dedham street has presented a U. S. national flag, 21x12 feet, to the Mason school. Teachers and pupils are much pleased with the gift.
—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Andrews have left their Chestnut Hill estate and gone to their apartment at The Kensington, Boylston street, Boston, for another winter.
—List of letters are as follows: Mrs. Leonard Boyd, Michael Dorsey, Home street, Miss Mary Healy, Mrs. Geo. P. Johnson, Margaret Lynch, Miss Lizzie Serage.
—Mr. Joseph W. Work, Grey Cliff road, is in the city for his health. He makes his headquarters at Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he is the guest of an ex-governor of the state.
—The first sociable of the Methodist society took place last Wednesday evening and was fully attended. The usual social features were enjoyed and light refreshments served during the evening.
—Mr. Frederick Turner and family have returned from a summer at Nantasket Beach, to their home on Norwood avenue.
—Mr. H. G. Green and family, who have been occupying their house, have returned to Boston.
—Unitarian Sunday school at 2.30 next Sunday. Service at 3.45 p. m. Rev. Mr. Bowser will preach upon the following subject: "The Religion of Jesus and some tendencies of modern thought." All cordially invited.
—Many pleasant expressions of appreciation have been heard from teachers and pupils of the Rice school for the gift of an elegant flag. The giver, Mr. Marshall O. Rice, will long be held in pleasant remembrance by the little folks.
—Mrs. F. H. Scudder and son, Mr. Charles M. Scudder, who have been very ill with typhoid fever at the Newton Cottage Hospital, are slowly recovering at this writing, while joyful and pleasant news to their numerous friends in Newton Centre.
—At the meeting of the Baptist society last Thursday evening a vote was passed in favor of consolidating the society with the church. The action of the society was adopted at a meeting of the church organization on Friday evening, and a partial list of officers was elected by the new organization.
—Unitarian services are held Sunday at 3.45 p. m. in the Associates Small Hall. The music for next Sunday will be as follows:
Anthem, "Praise the Lord," Corbin
Hymn 151, "Glory to Thee, my God this night," Gounod
Response, "Incline Thine ear," Schilling
Anthem, "Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant," Warren
—You are cordially invited to attend a lecture on fancy cooking to be given by Miss Farmer, teacher and demonstrator of cookery at the Boston cooking school in Associates Hall, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 15th, at 2 o'clock. You will be presented with a dainty dessert cook book by Mrs. D. A. Lincoln, author of the Boston cook book, Mrs. Carrie M. Dearborn, principal of the Boston cooking school, and Miss Anna Barrows, teacher of cookery at the Y. W. C. A., Boston; free of charge.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Other items on page 6.
—One case of scarlet fever has been heard of at the Highlands.
—Mr. O. J. Kimball is better and can now sit up a few hours each day.
—Mr. Lyford now occupies the house on Centre street formerly occupied by the Wetmore family.
—Services at St. Paul's next Sunday, 9.45, 10.45 and 7. The pastor will officiate and preach at 10.45 and 7.

—Notice that all the seats in St. Paul's are entirely free to be conspicuously posted in the vestibule.
—Harvest home service at St. Paul's, Thursday, Oct. 27th, at 7.30 p. m., followed by sociable at Mrs. Bacall's.
—Mr. Silsby of Newton has leased the house of Mr. Beach on Columbus street, and now occupies the same.
—Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, lately married, have gone to housekeeping at the house of Mr. A. S. C. Hilton on Hartford street.
—Mr. J. F. Pollard of Brookline has purchased the house on Rowdoin street belonging to Mr. A. B. Putney and has moved in.
—A flag pole has been erected on the Hyde school house, and there will be a rally around the flag, Oct. 21st, rain or shine.
—Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Clark are in New York for a short tarry, and will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Coley, Mrs. Clark's sister.
—St. Paul's Sunday school is making an encouraging beginning for the winter. A Bible class and an infant class have been formed and a new system of lessons and prizes adopted. All welcome. Meets at 12.15.
—Our Republican friends have suspended a Harrison & Reid flag across Lincoln street, opposite Stevens' Hall, where the voting is to be done in November. The new voting list for Precinct 2, Ward 5, contains two hundred and sixty-four names, and will probably be largely added to before election.
—Sunday's music at the Congregational church will include:
Anthem, "The 23rd Psalm," Otto
Response, "When God inclines the heart," Broadwell
Offertory, "Charity" for Baritone, Faure
Hymn, For Male voices, Wallace
Hunting tenor, Mr. Estabrook, tenor,
Mr. Ayer, baritone, Mr. Ryder, bass,
Miss Stone, organist.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Other items on page 6.
—A prohibition campaign flag floats above the square, showing the enterprise of college of Good Templars.
—Mr. E. G. Chamberlain has revised the map of Echo bridge and Upper Falls, which he surveyed in 1879, and brought it down to the present year, and it gives visitors a very clear idea of the surroundings.
—The evening school at the old Prospect school house opened very auspiciously last Monday evening, under the direction of Mr. Stevens and Miss Dick. There is increased interest in the school this fall, nearly twenty-five joining on Monday.
—Mr. Newell Flagg, who is employed in the foundry at the Pettes Machine Works, was severely burned Monday night while carrying a ladle of molten iron. He was so unfortunate as to trip before reaching the mouth of the ladle, and the burning of his left leg and hip, and one hand and arm very seriously. He is getting along as comfortably as can be expected.
—Mr. Edward Lee is having quite an addition built on to his barber shop on Eliot street, and intends when all the alterations are completed to place another notable in the new part. He contemplates making quite a radical change. The main entrance to the shop will be at the corner instead of in front, and a side door will give access to the pool room, which will have two tables. The barber shop and pool room will be separated by a closed partition, with a door leading to the pool room. The interior finish of the barber shop is to be in pure white.

UNIQUE FEATURES PROMISED.

NEWTON'S PARADE ON COLUMBUS DAY WILL BE A TREAT.

The celebration of Columbus day in Newton promises many interesting features not the least of which will be a trade procession and military pageant. The committee of arrangements, representing the school board, city council and Charles Ward post 62, G. A. R., met Wednesday night, and formulated plans for the day's observance.
In the morning, commencing at 9 o'clock, there will be exercises in all the public schools, including salutes to the flag and patriotic features.
At 10.30 o'clock a public meeting will be held in the High school drill hall, Newtonville, where an oration will be delivered by Rev. Francis B. Hornbrooke.
In the afternoon there will be a big parade. The line will form at Washington street, Newtonville, right resting on Walnut street, and promptly at 1.30 o'clock the procession will move its route being Washington and Walnut streets to Newton square; thence to Newton Centre and through Beacon street and Lake avenue to Newton Highlands, where there is to be a grand review by the mayor and members of the city government.
The procession will be made up in two divisions, the first comprising Charles Ward post 62, G. A. R.; Claffin Guard, company C, 34th Regiment, M. V. M.; Newton High school battalion; J. Wiley Edwards camp 100, S. V.; city council and distinguished guests in carriages.
The second division will be made up of the various civic and secret societies of the city and the trade organizations, Norumbega and Waban tribes, I. O. R. M., will present the unique feature of a trained dog, named as a clever equestrian. The fire ladders will be represented in the procession, and the veteran association will turn out with the famous hand tub Nantom, the winner of many prizes in the tournaments of recent years in this state.
Some comical and elaborate features are promised in the galaxy of drays and vehicles which will form a part of the trade display.
Altogether, the procession will be the largest and most unique in detail seen in Newton for a period of more than 20 years.
Mr. Austin T. Sylvester has been chosen chief marshal and Alderman Charles Sprague chief of staff. Alderman E. J. Hyde will command the second division. Citizens are taking great interest in the celebration, and a committee is making arrangements to secure a general decoration of the houses along the route of the procession.

Y. M. C. A.

It must be gratifying to the friends of special work for young men, to know that the Young Men's Christian Association of our city is in line with the progress which has marked the growth of the general association in our own and other countries. The securing of an elegant suit of rooms about a year ago in Beacon block; the coming of Mr. Barrett as general secretary or executive officer; the definite work attempted for the boys of Newton, inaugurated a new epoch for the local organization. The number of lads frequenting the rooms, even during the summer months, has justified the experiment and has gone beyond the expectations of the most sanguine friend of the new enterprise. For years the association conducted religious meetings for both sexes, but not until a year ago was there any distinctive young men's work attempted. This was owing to the difficulty in securing a man to give his whole time to the work, and because a number of the supporters of the association believed there was no field for it here. Investigation, however, proved the need of doing something for the boys and young men, who until recently, had no beautiful place for recreation. "Clubs" have been organized where young men spend hours in very questionable occupation, and in one or two instances have proved a nuisance to the neighborhood in which they exist. Influences of the best kind can be done to elevate the moral tone of our young men should be done cheerfully and liberally. Mr. Barrett, called to a larger and more important field, is to be succeeded by Mr. Dow an efficient young man who has been one of the assistants in the Boston association. On next Sunday evening in Eliot church, several of the churches uniting in the service, an account of the year's work will be given, our townsman, Mr. Sayford, will deliver an address and the new general secretary will be introduced. Such an event will doubtless crowd Eliot church since our people are particularly interested in any movement which has for its object the well-fare of our young men.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Planes, Farley, 334 Wash. St., Newton
The Bullock estate has been rented by a Boston party of ladies.
—Mr. Edgar Shattuck has returned from a three weeks visit at Nashua, N. H.
—Mr. William Ware has started the manufacture of cider at his mill on Walnut street.
—Mr. J. Louis Sears has contracted to paint the outside of the old Norton residence and decorate the interior.
—The registrars of voters were in session at Freeman Hall last Friday evening from 7.30 until 9 o'clock. Nine voters were registered.
—A Democratic rally will be held in Freeman Hall this Friday evening. The speakers secured are Mr. Phillip J. Doherty and Boardman Hall. A flag raising precedes the rally.
—The popular course of lectures given at the Methodist Episcopal church last winter will be succeeded by another this Fall, with a good variety of interesting subjects. Further particulars next week.
—Mr. Wm Davis, an aged and much respected resident of this place died last Friday after a brief but serious sickness. Deceased was in his 83rd year and was remarkably active for a man of his years up to a short time before his death. He leaves a widow and one daughter. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from his home on Grove street.
—The Columbus Day parade in Boston next Friday at which about 150 members of St. John's church will turn out to represent the parish, has every prospect of being a success. Through the untiring energy of Rev. P. H. Callanan a drum and pipe corps has been organized and equipped at a comparatively very short notice, and after a few lessons from an instructor are now giving a good account of themselves.

Newton Savings Bank.

The following is gathered from the Treasurer's Statement, approved by the Auditor for the quarter ending October 9th, under the amended by-laws:—

Deposits	$2,147,474.26
Undivided Earnings	$7,295.73
Guaranty Fund	$6,765.00
Contra:
Loans on Real Estate	$1,281,346.43
Municipal Loans	20,000.00
Personal Loans	574,476.94
Bonds and Bank Stock	254,625.00
Expense Account	7,295.48
Cash on hand and in Banks	48,079.14
	$2,286,062.99

Deposits have increased $154,700, so far in the year 1892. The duties of the Investment Committee during the last quarter have required them to invest $288,000.

A Correction.

Newton Highlands, Oct. 13, 1892.
To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—
The recently published constitution of the Cleveland and Russell Club of this city is followed by a list of names headed, "We the undersigned hereby subscribe our names to the foregoing constitution and by-laws." Among the list of signers I am surprised to find my own name; and beg space to say that I am not a member of the club, and never signed its constitution nor authorized anyone to sign for me. It is true that I am a Democrat; and, to any true friend of the Republic, I am cheerfully giving the reason for my convictions. But I am not in politics, and have concluded not to join any political club, however sound its principles may be.
SAMUEL L. EATON.

Associated Charities.

The annual meeting of the Newton Associated Charities will be held this year in the Channing church, Newton, Oct. 16, at half past seven. After sacred music, reading of scripture and prayer, the annual report will be given by the president, Rev. W. A. Lamb. Followed by addresses from Rev. C. F. Dole, Rev. A. S. Twombly, D. D., and others. The public is cordially invited to be present.

(From a letter of Marion Harland's, written February 5, 1892.)

"A like quantity of

Cleveland's

Baking Powder goes further and does better work than any other of which I have knowledge. It is therefore cheaper."

Marion Harland

IT IS A DUTY you owe yourself and family to buy and use only the best. Economize in your footwear by purchasing W. L. Douglas shoes, which represent the best value for the price asked as thousands will testify.

$5.00	$3.00
$4.00	$2.50
$3.50	$2.00
$2.50	$2.00
$2.25	$1.75
$2.00	$1.75
FOR GENTLEMEN	FOR LADIES
FOR GENTLEMEN	FOR LADIES

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN.
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY.
GIVEN BY THE MANUFACTURER.
The same high grade, and represent a money value beyond the price charged. See that name and price are on the shoe. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.
W. L. DOUGLAS, Boston, Mass. Sold by A. L. KEND, Newton. 2 St.

Good, Better, Best.

Most things are judged by comparative values. An article is rated "good" in distinction to others of its class which are poorer.

The "better" class is excelled by the "best," and another word for "best," according to Webster, is "superfine," and here is where Mr. Hatch found his name for his derby hat.

He knew it was the best the world could make, and named it Hatch's Superfine Derby because it stood for the best, and the name must fit the quality of the hat.

Moral: If you want the "best" Derby hat in the market, just leave $4.00 at Hatch's Hat House, 5 Moody Street, Waltham, and you will thank us for giving you this "straight tip."

Furnishing

the house is an art that requires study, but when wall papers, draperies, upholstery goods, and curtains can be seen in combination, the seeker after happy and tasteful effects has a great advantage. This is why so many patronize the Boston Wall Paper Co., 20 Summer street, Boston, as they not only have a great variety of wall paper, but also of all the other goods mentioned. See adv.

Building Lots.

Several valuable building lots will be sold at auction next Monday, at 3.30 p. m. by Elliott J. Hyde. The lots belong to the estate of the late Royal M. Pulsifer, and are located on Islington street, Auburn, and are finely situated for building purposes. The sale will take place on the premises. For further particulars see advertisement.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the Broadway National Bank of Boston. This institution is one of the most prosperous in that city, having recently added $50,000 to its surplus, making $200,000 in all, which has accumulated in the few years since its reorganization. They issue travellers checks which are an excellent accommodation to that class, and maintain a system and department for the care of small as well as large depositors.

Must Defer to the Real Mistress. The Rev. Dr. Fourthly—"I shall see you at church next Sunday morning, as usual. Mrs. McSwat, I presume?" Mrs. McSwat—"I am afraid not, Dr. Fourthly. Bridget has just got a new bonnet."—Chicago Tribune.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge
WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St. Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

C. B. SOMERS.

Tailor

149 A Tremont Street, BOSTON.

MAKES A SPECIALTY OF
BUSINESS SUITS AT $35.00
Fall and Winter Woolens now ready.

REFRIGERATORS.

Baby Carriages, Carpets, Ranges, Furniture and Bedding.

F. L. GRAVES FURNITURE EMPORIUM.

Largest and Finest Business Establishment in the City.

224 Moody St., Waltham, South Side.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season or this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds. Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St. Room 38.

Select Stock of Fine Bred Horses FOR SALE.

From the best Stock Farms near Lake Champlain. Acclimated and exercised during the summer. Trained to electric, steam cars, sewers, &c. &c. Are sound and kind. Pairs and single, for family use, safe for ladies and children. Light pairs and single for fast pleasure driving; some very speedy ones for gentlemen's use. All to be sold immediately, at reasonable prices.

S. A. SYLVESTER.

Beacon Street, Newton Centre.

Pearmain AND Brooks, Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)
Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,
No. 53 State St., Room 218.
SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE,
Counsellor at Law,
28 State Street, Room 55,
BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

A. H. ROFFE,
HAY and GRAIN
LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE,
Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 3

Choicest Articles in the Grocery Line.

Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week. Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobb's Prices, including Bridal Veil "Cereal Food, in variety. Canned Goods of all kinds. Salt Pork and Potatoes. Also "Kendzay" Specialties. Nuts, Raisins, Dates, Figs, Citron Currants and Spice, the purest. Imported Jellies and Preserves of the famous Croese & Blackwell Manufacture.

Candy Candy! Candy!
W. O. KNAPP & CO'S
Station Street, NEWTON CENTRE. 5

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach, DENTIST.

422 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON.
The correcting of irregular teeth in children months a specialty.
Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre.
Will make appointments at residence after 6 p. m.

GEORGE H. LOOMER,
Successor to Armstrong Bros.
Between News Room and J. J. Nobles Store is offering a fine line of BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS and RUBBERS, at low prices.
NEWTON CENTRE

S. L. PRATT,
FUNERAL AND FURNISHING UNDERTAKER
Newton Centre, Mass.
First-class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone.
Also shall continue to handle Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand, corner of Beacon and Station Streets. 31

MR. WM. I. HOWELL
Pianoforte, Organ and Theory.
Also, SIGHT SINGING.
149 A TREMONT STREET, BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, 91 Newtonville Ave. 48 134

ARTHUR BURNETT,
Teacher of Singing.
Italian method. Terms moderate. Send for circular. 66 Clarendon st., Boston. 60 8

PIANO AND HARMONY
MISS EMMA D. ELLIS
will resume her lessons in Newton Centre, on TUESDAY and FRIDAYS at house of Mrs. Ellen D. Bond, Pelham street, Sept. 27.
Other days at suite 12, Hoffman House, 128 Berkeley street, Boston. 501f

A. B. ALLISON, will continue lessons with
Pianoforte Pupils
AFTER OCT. 3rd.
201 California St., Newton. 501f

To Church Music Committees.
An experienced Cornet Player wishes a position to lead singing in church.
Address P. O. BOX 153,
51 44c NEWTON CENTRE, MASS.

STORAGE TO LET.

For Furniture, Carriages, Sleighs, &c., &c. Stalling for Horses. Stalls To Let. Prices very reasonable. Will take a few Family Horses to board for the winter.

W. B. WHITTIER,
371 Centre Street, Newton. 51 4t.

M. CAVANAGH,
MASON,
Jobbing of All Kinds Promptly Attended to.
Adams Street, - - - Newton.

Read This! 62 1/2 50 Yrs.
Absolutely Safe Investment.
Quarterly Dividends. Can be Sold at any time.
Address for full particulars,
Geo. Leonard, 246 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

LUMBER.
GILKEY & STONE,
ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

YOUR ORDER for any kind
JOB PRINTING.
Leave at the Graphic Office.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 3.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

"THE BEATRICE."

A BEAUTY IN BRASS AND WHITE WITH CURVED FOOT.

We are exhibiting at our Warerooms the finest line of Metallic Bedsteads of both Imported and American Manufacture.

SPECIAL DESIGNS IN BRASS BEDSTEADS.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,
546 WASHINGTON ST., Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

AKRON STANDARD DRAIN PIPE

AND CONNECTIONS, AT

CAMPBELL'S

Dealer in HARDWARE and CUTLERY

271 Washington Street, Newton, Mass.

STOVES

A FULL LINE AT

Bent's Furniture Rooms,

WATERTOWN.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS

Turner Centre Cream,

FOR SALE BY

C. P. ATKINS

Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

CAKE.

Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made. Try them.

Also

OYSTERS AND SALADS.
CROQUETTES AND PEAS.
ICES AND CREAMS.

JAMES PAXTON,
Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON

J. H. NICKERSON,

Merchant Tailor
and Clothier,

WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish the styles Fall & Winter of '92-3, Dress or Business Suits, Overcoats or Trousers to measure at low prices. Also a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing for men and boys. Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Travelling Bags.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours:—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
Office of the late Dr. Keith.
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home until 9 A. M.
Refers to: Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr. James R. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

DR. GEO. A. BATES,
DENTIST,
THORPE HOUSE, MAPLE STREET,
Auburndale, Mass.
OFFICE HOURS: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. $9.00

DR. S. F. CHASE,
DENTIST.
Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF
PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION

Ellet Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Shirts Made to Order!
By E. S. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre Plates, 25c.
Badly stained shirts made to fit well.

By the way, would it not be proper to remind you that a good picture of yourself, which "Fritz" can make, neatly framed, makes a very acceptable Christmas present, and is a delight at all times? From Locket to Life size portraits. Call and see samples. All work delivered in ten days. Competent help engaged makes this now possible.

ODIN FRITZ,
Artist and Photographer. Newton.

Leave YOUR ORDER for any kind of JOE PRINTING at the Graphic Office.

NEWTON.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett Brooks Adams, Eliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Field have returned to California.

—Mr. W. B. Whittier has recovered from his recent illness.

—Miss Jones of Vernon street is visiting friends in New York.

—There was a great game of rugby on Converse's field to-day.

—Rev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins returned Tuesday from Minneapolis.

—Dr. E. B. Hitchcock will remove to his house on Hollis street, Nov. 1st.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Barker have returned from Bethlehem, N. H.

—Rev. George A. Hood occupied the pulpit in the Eliot church, Sunday.

—A chorus choir has been organized by the young people of the Channing church.

—Mr. Samuel Hano has leased his house on Centre street and removes soon to Boston.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coolidge, Jr., and children, sailed for Havre yesterday from New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. March of Bellevue street are receiving congratulations. It is a girl.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bliss removed to Brighton, this week, where they have built a very attractive residence.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—Owing to the illness of Miss Howard, the "At Homes" of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Taylor will be postponed until Wednesday, Nov. 23rd and 30th.

—There will be a musical and dramatic entertainment given in the basement of the Church of Our Lady, next Thursday evening, to commence at 8 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Converse are in town this week. After a short stay they go to New York for a few weeks and from there depart for Mr. Converse's ranch.

—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Maria Welch of this city and Mr. Marcus Morton of Andover. The ceremony takes place in Grace church at 10 o'clock, Oct. 26.

—Mr. H. R. Mandell has taken the Brown house on Nonantum street and will remove there Nov. 1st. He has bought a lot of Mr. Jas. Stevenson on Hunnewell hill and will build at once.

—The first meeting of the Unitarian Club was held last evening. The address on "The Increased Activity of Laymen in the Church," was delivered by Rev. B. R. Burley of Concord.

—The services at the Immanuel Baptist church here for religious services were held for the celebration of the discovery of America. Morning worship with sermon by Mr. Merrill, the pastor, at 10:45 o'clock.

—A memorial service in honor of the late Seth K. Harwood, under the auspices of Dalhousie lodge, & A. M., and Newton lodge, 92, I. O. F., will be held in Grace church, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 30, at 3 o'clock.

—A fair will be held at Miss Williston's home, Oct. 28th and 29th. There will be the usual fancy articles and refreshments, and friends are invited, not only to attend, but to provide whatever their generosity may dictate.

—The Eliot church clock was shrouded in darkness Saturday and Sunday evenings and it was impossible to tell the time. The clock was repaired and is now running again, but as a consequence the dials were not illuminated.

—Miss Agnes Maud Williams, daughter of Mr. G. H. Williams of Jefferson street, died Wednesday after a long and painful illness. The funeral services will be held this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock at her father's residence.

—On next Sunday morning Rev. D. H. Ela, D. D., of the Boston City Missionary Society will preach at the Methodist church. At 7:30 p. m. Rev. Dillon Bronson will preach. Mr. Chas. Burgher and Mrs. Braunen will sing.

—Miss M. L. Wagstaff, who for the past two years has been much admired by Nantasket beach, has through the advice of her numerous friends in Newton opened a boarding house 322 Church street, where she solicits patronage. Apply at present at 42 Arlington street, Newton.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker, an artist whose work has been much admired by those who have had an opportunity of seeing it, is fitting up her studio in Brackett's block directly opposite the Public Library. It is understood that she will receive a limited number of pupils.

—A Harrison & Beld torch light battalion was organized Monday evening, with these officers: Co. A., E. F. Hollis, captain; C. D. Stephenson, first lieutenant; H. C. Liggins, second lieutenant. Co. B., W. F. Feltton, captain; E. H. Woodworth, first lieutenant; A. L. Franklin, second lieutenant.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening: Processional, "Lead us Heavenly Father." Name Dimittis. Duet, "For His wrath endures but for a moment." Anthem, "To thee O Country great and free." Recessional, "Abide with me."

—The course of eight stereopticon lectures on "A Tour of the Globe" will be delivered on successive Wednesday evenings at the Methodist church by Rev. Dillon Bronson, will commence next week Oct. 26th, at 7:30 p. m. Tickets for the course are on sale at Hubbard's drug store, Barber Bros. and at the church.

—Mr. J. H. Wheelock arrived home from London on the City of Paris, Wednesday, making the fastest trip on record, 5 days 14 hrs. 24 min., the steamer breaking her own record by 1 hour 34 min. On the 17th the steamer made the highest run ever made by an ocean steamer, 530 miles. The City of Paris now holds the record of the fastest trip and day runs.

—Rev. Francis B. Hornbrooke will next Sunday evening at 7:30 begin a course of lectures in Channing church on "Religious Life and Thought in America." The subject for the first evening will be "Religious work for and among the natives." The young people who have had the instruction of Mr. H. B. Day have kindly consented to sing at these services. All are heartily welcome.

—The funeral of the late Isaac D. Allen took place from his residence, Centre street, Monday afternoon. Rev. D. L. Furber, D. D., officiated and appropriate selections were rendered by the Eliot church quartet choir. The floral tributes were largely those of the family and near relatives.

—There was a large attendance at the service, including a delegation of Mr. Allen's former employees. The remains were interred in the Newton cemetery.

—Capitalists in Newton and Waltham are reported to be interesting themselves in a project to establish an extensive plant for the manufacture of street railway cars in the latter city. The plan is said to con-

Have
You
Seen
SPRINGER BROTHERS
Magnificent
Display
Of
CLOAKS
500
Washington St.
Boston.

template the purchase of the small establishment at Beaver Brook, which is now in operation, and enlarge it and develop the business with a considerable capital. The parties interested are said to have already placed some of the stock of the new corporation.

—Nathaniel Hewes of Waltham, an employee of the American Watch Company, while on his way to visit a friend in this city Tuesday evening, fell in a fainting fit on Centre street. He was taken into Hubbard's pharmacy, and later removed to the police station, where he was found that he was suffering from an attack of neuralgia of the heart. Dr. Carrol attended the man and by his orders he was removed to the Waltham hospital Wednesday. It is thought that he will recover.

—The Young Ladies' Mission Society of Eliot church held its annual meeting, Tuesday afternoon and elected these officers: Mrs. Charles Kepner, president; Miss Hamilton, vice-president; Miss Wise, secretary; Miss Emerson, treasurer. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, followed by entertainment features, introducing some familiar historical characters which were very creditably impersonated by the young ladies. Cleopatra, Miss Belle Barnes; Pocahontas, Miss Cobb; and Isabella, Miss Nellie Wales, were among the best of those presented.

—Mrs. Mary Bullens Raymond died after a very brief illness at her home in Niehart, Montana, on Wednesday. She was the daughter of Mr. George S. Bullens of this city and was married in Grace church eighteen months ago. She had taken an active part in church work in her new home, and was much interested in building a chapel here for religious services. Miss Annie Baker of this city was with her during her illness, and her father arrived there two days before her death, having gone west for a vacation trip. The news has been a very sad surprise to a large circle of friends in Newton. The remains will be brought here for interment.

—Miss Estelle Marshall and Mr. Lewis E. Jordan of New Gloucester, Me., were married yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Merrill Waverley avenue. Rev. E. K. Alden, D. D., of Boston, officiated. The bride was attended by her cousins, Misses Lizzie and Helen Seaverns, Misses Annie and Carrie and Master Edward Merrihew of Brooklyn, N. Y. Only the relatives and intimate friends were present. A reception followed the ceremony, Paxton catering. At its close the newly wedded couple, with a large circle of friends in Newton. The remains will be brought here for interment.

—Big tennis stories were told at the dinner of the Inter-Club Tennis League at Young's Hotel Saturday evening. President Harry A. Pilon sat at the head of the table and all those who sat about him were conspicuously prominent in the league's efforts during the season. After telling how they won games, others why they did not win. It was voted to continue the league next season, and to try to induce other clubs to join. Treasurer Beal of Waltham showed that the finances had been in safe hands, and Mr. Brimblecom gave an idea of how the work had been carried on. Among those present were H. A. Pilon, E. A. Beal, E. A. Walker, C. F. Young of the Waltham Club, H. A. Apple and J. C. Brimblecom of the Waban Racquet Club, H. C. Brown, A. F. Fuller and A. J. Wellington of the Belmont Club, W. V. Condon, F. A. Savage, Warren Peasbridge and A. C. Emery, Waban Racquet Club; B. E. B. Mitchell and J. B. Noyes.

—The ladies of the Norumbega Club entertained the gentlemen of the club in a most enjoyable way at the home of Miss Safford last Wednesday evening. The program consisted of a series of tableaux interspersed with music and readings. Among the tableaux which deserved especial mention were "The Wedding," "Topsy and Eva," "Liberty," "The same maid" and the "Norumbega Bouquet." The costumes were very tasty and appropriate and the grouping was very effective. The colored fires added greatly to the effect. The selections of the orchestra in a measure announced the tableaux and were greatly enjoyed. The reading of Mr. Morris was extremely entertaining. "The Volunteer Organist" being exceptionally fine. The program finished with refreshments. The ladies are to be congratulated on the complete success of this year party, and the gentlemen desire to express their appreciation of the pleasure enjoyed and extend their thanks to the Norumbega maidens.

Death of S. K. Harwood.

Mr. Seth K. Harwood died at his residence, Hotel Hunnewell, Sunday, aged 46 years. He had been ill for about six weeks and dangerously so for a greater part of the time, and death was ultimately due to blood poisoning.

Mr. Harwood had many friends throughout the Newtons, people who came to spend a few weeks at the Hunnewell, and falling in love with Newton, settled here, and all cherished pleasant memories of the time spent with him. He was an excellent landlord, and although his house has been enlarged many times, it was never too large for the demands it was upon it. Many of his guests had been with him for years, and others returned season after season.

Born in Athol, he went to Boston at the age of 14 and worked his way up in the hotel business until he became superintendent and then general manager of the Commonwealth Hotel, which was then one of the leading hotels in Boston, and held this position for nine years. About 13 years ago he removed to Auburndale, and also managed Hotel Wellesley for one season, after which he opened the Hotel Hunnewell in Newton, and made it one of the most select and popular of the hotels in the suburbs of Boston.

in many ways he did much to help make the city attractive. He was also connected with numerous local organizations, being a member of Newton Lodge, I. O. F., Dalhousie Lodge F. and A. M., and was also an associate member of Charles Ward Post, G. A. R. He was successful in business and in a quiet way did much to help along every good cause. His death will cause much regret among a large circle of friends. He leaves a widow, his only child having died about a year ago. A memorial service will be held in Grace church at an early date.

Death of Chas. E. Billings.

Mr. Chas. E. Billings, one of Newton's best known citizens, passed away on Wednesday afternoon. He was born in Boston in 1834, his family moved to Newton in 1842, and Newton has been his home ever since. He attended the public schools until he was fifteen, and then entered the business house of Brewer, Stevens & Cushing, Boston. He remained with them several years. In 1860 he entered the firm of Jas. R. Nichols & Co. and soon became the head of that house. After the Boston fire the name of the firm was changed to Billings, Clapp & Co. and thus it remains today.

For many years Mr. Billings has been a director of the Newton National Bank and a trustee of the Newton Savings Bank. He has been a prominent member of Eliot church for nearly forty years, and was superintendent of the Sunday school for three years. He was chairman of the building committee of the new Eliot church. He has been a generous giver all his life, and his name has been on the roll of nearly every benevolent project which has come before the people of Newton.

In 1861 he married Miss Mary Murdock, who with two sons survives him. Since the completion of the Eliot church he has done but little in public way, owing to failing health, but has spent much of his time quietly and happily in his beautiful home on Franklin street. A fortnight ago he had an attack of neuralgia of the heart from which he did not rally, although he suffered but little during the past few days. About six o'clock Wednesday afternoon he had a renewal of the attack and passed away quietly a few minutes later.

The funeral services will be held at his home on Saturday at 2:15. Friends are invited to attend without further notice, and are requested not to send flowers. The burial will be private. He has fought the good fight, he has finished the course, he has kept the faith, and henceforth there is laid up for him in Heaven a crown of righteousness.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. C. H. Spring has finished the contract for erecting electric light poles through Wellesley. The wires are now being strung.

—A lecture course will open at the M. E. church Monday evening, Oct. 31st. The program includes some very eloquent and talented speakers.

—Rev. G. S. Chadbourne, D. D., presiding Elder of the North Boston District, will preach in the Methodist church on Friday evening, Oct. 21st. The public are invited. A quarterly conference will be held at the conclusion of the preaching service.

—The Republican campaign opened with a boom here, Wednesday evening. The event was accompanied by the raising of two Republican campaign flags and a rally at Freeman Hall, which was filled to its utmost. The Auburndale drum corps and a number of members of the Harrison & Reid Club with torches paraded the streets and greatly enlivened the occasion. The speakers were Samuel Powers and A. A. Carleton.

—A party of gentlemen while out on horseback riding early Tuesday morning met with an accident, passing through opposite Mr. Lyons' residence, one of the horses became frightened by a milk train and kicked another horse mounted by another party, in such a manner as to break the joint of the left leg. Officer Mitchell was called on to shoot the animal to relieve it from suffering.

—Rev. W. J. Pomfret of West Medford will preach in the Methodist church on Sunday morning next, Oct. 23rd at 10:45. In the evening will be held the Harvest Concert by members of the Sunday School, with appropriate recitations and music. All are cordially invited to these services. The lecture course in the Methodist church will be opened on Monday evening, Oct. 31 by Rev. L. B. Bates, D. D., subject "1400 miles in 108 days." The lecture will be illustrated with souvenirs of Dr. Bates' travels, and is highly commended.

The Newton Club.

Farewell was said to the old Gen. Hull mansion at 8 o'clock last night, and some 300 members of the club formed in line, and holding a torch of colored fire and marched to the new clubhouse, amidst a blaze of fireworks and headed by the Crescent band of Waltham.

"Auld Lang Syne" was sung and then the members marched into the new building. After the handsome rooms were inspected, the annual meeting was held. President Henry E. Cobb made the annual address, and cheers were given to Henry F. Ross, the builder, the building committee and its chairman, Mr. W. J. Follett, and the architect, Mr. C. W. Richardson. At the close of the address three hearty cheers were given for President Cobb. A committee was appointed to nominate a list of officers, and after routine business a lunch was served in the banquet hall. The formal opening will be on Nov. 16.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

ANOTHER HEARING ON WEST NEWTON TELEPHONE POLES.

Both branches of the city council met Monday night. In the board of aldermen all the members were present and Mayor Hibbard presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Geo. H. Osborn was granted an honorable discharge from No. 7 hose and Stephen Morgan was appointed his successor.

The warrant for the coming election was read and ordered published.

The report of the city auditor for the last quarter was presented $2,887.27 was expended, leaving a balance of $2,575.68 on hand.

A report of the patients cared for since Jan. 1, at the Cottage Hospital was presented and filed.

Several remonstrances against sewer assessments were received and referred to the sewer committee.

Mr. Otis Pettie set a communication regarding the deed from the town of Newton to William May of the old schoolhouse property, dated Jan. 11, 1855. An effort was made to perfect the title in 1888, but two of the boundaries read respectively 79 instead of 175 feet and 170 instead of 175 feet, as in the original deed. The land had been sold to Mr. Haggerty and he wished the city to correct the deed. Referred to the city solicitor.

The school committee invited the city council to be present at the Drill Hall at 11 a. m. on Friday, for the exercises in honor of Discovery Day, and Chas. Ward Post invited them to lunch in the Post Hall at 1 p. m. Both invitations were accepted.

Mrs. Mary Lang sent in a remonstrance against sewer assessments on Cabot street.

The committee on resolutions appointed at the Langford meeting asked that some evening be designated on which they could appear and present the resolutions and such reasons in support of them as they thought proper.

Mayor Hibbard said it would be better to make it a public meeting.

Alderman Hyde suggested that all parties, both those who favored the moving of the tracks and those who opposed it be invited to appear, and Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, in the upper hall, was appointed.

Alderman Churchill read a remonstrance against any removal of the railroad tracks, on the ground that it would unsettle values, and signed by E. W. Redpath and some fifty others, from Newtonville. The remonstrants were granted a hearing on Oct. 16th, the same date as those in favor of the change.

Alderman Harbach presented the plans of the city engineer for sewerage assessments on Hollis, Pembroke, Nonantum, Hume and other streets. The assessments were granted a hearing on Oct. 16th, the same date as those in favor of the change.

Alderman Hyde presented a petition from 264 parents of children attending the Hyde school, calling attention to the dangerous condition of the building and asking that it be put in proper order.

A petition from Lassell Seminary for license to put up a building 24x40 feet for storage purposes, off Seminary avenue, was received. Mr. Bragdon was present and said that Myrtle avenue had been closed and he had built a fence upon it some five years ago, leaving a foot way for pedestrians. He had been given a paper where the adjacent property owners had signed a request to have the street closed. The building would be used for the storage of screens, double windows, etc., and it was about the only place on the Seminary grounds where it would not be conspicuous.

There seemed to be some question whether the street had not been open to the public for over 20 years, and thus become a public way, and also whether the fence had been built for five years or not, but license was granted, on condition that Mr. Bragdon bear the expense of removal if it should be found necessary.

$800 was appropriated to pay the expenses of the celebration of Discovery Day.

The chief of fire department was ordered to have such apparatus as the fire committee should determine to take part in the parade.

Mrs. L. C. Pettigrew asked for license to build stable on Auburn street, N. Y. Rev. Henry H. Wende of Newburg, N. Y., Rev. C. E. St. John of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rev. E. Vinal of Lebanon, N. H., Rev. J. L. Marsh of Saco, Me., Rev. Frank L. Phalen of Brattleboro, Vt., Rev. A. C. Nickerson of Exeter, N. H.

Rev. Dr. Horatio Stebbins of San Francisco delivered the opening sermon, speaking upon "Certain Parallels Between Zoroastrianism and Christianity."

He said the more knowledge imparted and derived of nature, the finer the conception of the supernatural, and the more knowledge of man, the clearer the knowledge of God. The conflict of religion with knowledge, in minds that cannot appreciate truth, but in man, is the cause of disturbance. In man, Jesus saw that the conflict between experience and new knowledge was inevitable before this bursting forth of the full truth. The Son of Man knows the difference between science and religion. The former concerns causes, and the latter methods. The great principle comes in teaching men the divine order in the development of truth.

Man has been alert for a thousand years and has just begun to understand the power of the world. The reason is that truth presents itself only as his mind is prepared to receive it. The people of the primeval time had no use for the eight day clock, and the magnetic telegraph would have only served to have increased Job's discomfiture. The minister is the type of the race. The progress and development of religion is concurrent with the Son of Man in this day. The fact is not in truth but in man, and happy is the man who has no conflict with the past. The lively discussions concerning beliefs and creeds are after all little more than a comparison of errors. The attempt to reduce religion to the point of scientific exactness must always fail.

The exercises of the session Tuesday began at 10.30 o'clock. The speakers were Prof. A. V. W. Jackson of Columbia College and Prof. J. P. Peters, D. D.

Prof. A. V. W. Jackson of Columbia College presented the opening paper, Tuesday morning, speaking of character of the Persian religion, but in man, and happy is the man who has no conflict with the past. The lively discussions concerning beliefs and creeds are after all little more than a comparison of errors. The attempt to reduce religion to the point of scientific exactness must always fail.

The Street Light Committee through Alderman Churchill, reported in favor of the following street lamps and they were ordered: 1 on Avon place, Berkeley, Boylston, Nonantum and Prince streets, and 2 on Curve and Prospect streets, Eliot avenue, Henshaw court and Hunnewell Terrace.

M. G. Crane and others asked for concrete sidewalks.

On motion of Alderman Wilson $2000 was transferred from the appropriation for sidewalks, bath house and curbing, to the miscellaneous department.

TELEPHONE POLES.

The West Newton hill telephone pole bearing came up again, and this time the objection is to poles on Chestnut, Highland and Temple streets.

Mr. Alderman represented the telephone company and said every man in the company's employ had made an attempt to meet the objections of the people on West Newton hill, who wanted telephones, but did not want poles, but so far with but little success.

Rev. Mr. Patrick, Mr. Geo. A. Frost and Mr. E. C. Burrage protested against poles on Highland street, and Mr. Geo. Davis against poles on Temple street.

Alderman Hyde asked if the Telephone company were not burying their wires in Brookline.

Mr. Alderman said they were to bury about a mile of cables and wires on certain streets, which would cost them $20,000, they also expected to ask for permission to bury some in Newton, the expense of which would be $30,000.

The matter was then laid over again. L. V. Hinckle who asked for license for a pool table was given leave to withdraw, as was petitioner for street lamp on Pearl street.

Transfer of Alderman Wilson $1200 was transferred from appropriation for interest on temporary loans to that for Almshouse expenses and repairs.

$200 was appropriated for use of City Solicitor.

The City Treasurer was authorized to borrow $25,000 in anticipation of this year's taxes, and give the note of the city therefor, payable in one year.

$101,235 was appropriated for city expenses in November.

Property owners on Edinboro and Watertown streets objected to having pipes stored on the city lot at the corner of those streets, and also to the widening of Edinboro street unless it was of uniform width.

The rates of fare for hackney carriages were reported and established as 25 cents for each passenger for any distance within 3-4ths of a mile from any station, between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m., and 25 cents for every half mile additional, and 50 cents between 9 p. m. and 7 a. m. Also $1.50 per hour for depot carriages and $2.00 per hour for landaus for the first two hours, and $1.50 for each additional hour thereafter. It was recommended that owners of carriages have cards printed with rates thereon and put up in their carriages and also small maps showing distances. These are maximum prices and there is no rule against charging less than these prices.

The Telephone Co. were given leave to withdraw for poles on Highland and Temple streets.

On motion of Alderman Hyde flags were ordered displayed and bells rung usual on holidays, and the City Hall closed on Discovery day.

T. G. Woodman was granted license for billiard and pool table.

Edward Lees was also granted license for billiard table.

L. Mayo's petition for private stable on Berkeley street came up. Alderman Wilson objected, as the stable was not placed where it was understood that it would be when Mr. Mayo bought the lot, and all the abutments objected to its present location, which would also damage the tennis courts. The cellar had been dug and work on stable had already begun before the license was asked for. The matter was referred to the license committee.

Alderman Hyde presented a communication in regard to watering streets.

Alderman Coffin asked if the petitioner objected to the watering, and Alderman Hyde stated that he wanted less bill and more water.

The board then went into executive session.

THE MINISTERS' INSTITUTE.

PROMINENT UNITARIANS AT THE SESSION IN THIS CITY.

The biennial session of the Ministers' Institute, composed chiefly of Unitarian clergymen, opened Monday evening in the Channing church. The large auditorium was well filled, and the representation of ministers number about 100, including many prominent divines from various sections of the country. Among others were:

Rev. N. E. Boyd of Portland, Me., Rev. M. Lyman of Andover, N. H., Rev. E. Hyde of Boston, Rev. T. B. Forbush of Chicago, Ill., Rev. Arthur S. Graves and G. W. Kent of Worcester, Rev. Carl G. Horst of Pittsfield, Mass., Rev. J. C. Kimball of Hartford, Ct., Rev. Watari Kitashimo of Cambridge, Rev. Alfred Manchester of Providence, R. I., Rev. H. C. Stebbins of San Francisco, Cal., Rev. Mary G. Leggett of Green Harbor, Rev. V. E. Southworth of Union City, Pa., Rev. S. H. Calthrop of Syracuse, N. Y., Rev. J. M. Leighton of Wolfboro, N. H., Rev. Henry H. Wende of Newburg, N. Y., Rev. C. E. St. John of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rev. E. Vinal of Lebanon, N. H., Rev. J. L. Marsh of Saco, Me., Rev. Frank L. Phalen of Brattleboro, Vt., Rev. A. C. Nickerson of Exeter, N. H.

Rev. Dr. Horatio Stebbins of San Francisco delivered the opening sermon, speaking upon "Certain Parallels Between Zoroastrianism and Christianity."

He said the more knowledge imparted and derived of nature, the finer the conception of the supernatural, and the more knowledge of man, the clearer the knowledge of God. The conflict of religion with knowledge, in minds that cannot appreciate truth, but in man, is the cause of disturbance. In man, Jesus saw that the conflict between experience and new knowledge was inevitable before this bursting forth of the full truth. The Son of Man knows the difference between science and religion. The former concerns causes, and the latter methods. The great principle comes in teaching men the divine order in the development of truth.

Man has been alert for a thousand years and has just begun to understand the power of the world. The reason is that truth presents itself only as his mind is prepared to receive it. The people of the primeval time had no use for the eight day clock, and the magnetic telegraph would have only served to have increased Job's discomfiture. The minister is the type of the race. The progress and development of religion is concurrent with the Son of Man in this day. The fact is not in truth but in man, and happy is the man who has no conflict with the past. The lively discussions concerning beliefs and creeds are after all little more than a comparison of errors. The attempt to reduce religion to the point of scientific exactness must always fail.

The exercises of the session Tuesday began at 10.30 o'clock. The speakers were Prof. A. V. W. Jackson of Columbia College and Prof. J. P. Peters, D. D.

Prof. A. V. W. Jackson of Columbia College presented the opening paper, Tuesday morning, speaking of character of the Persian religion, but in man, and happy is the man who has no conflict with the past. The lively discussions concerning beliefs and creeds are after all little more than a comparison of errors. The attempt to reduce religion to the point of scientific exactness must always fail.

The Street Light Committee through Alderman Churchill, reported in favor of the following street lamps and they were ordered: 1 on Avon place, Berkeley, Boylston, Nonantum and Prince streets, and 2 on Curve and Prospect streets, Eliot avenue, Henshaw court and Hunnewell Terrace.

M. G. Crane and others asked for concrete sidewalks.

On motion of Alderman Wilson $2000 was transferred from the appropriation for sidewalks, bath house and curbing, to the miscellaneous department.

TELEPHONE POLES.

The West Newton hill telephone pole bearing came up again, and this time the vealed through the power and discerning attributes of the Father of men. Every evildoer will be depicted as the black sheep in the flock.

To reach the full glory of the future state, the speaker said, the bell I was that there were stages of development toward purity, culminating finally in the ideal heavenly state, to which the Persians allude as a condition where one will appear to be walking through warm waves. After Prof. Jackson's paper, Prof. G. F. Peters, D. D., spoke in length on the higher criticism on the psalms.

HOW A CITY SHOULD TAKE CARE OF ITS POOR.

The session of the Ministers' Institute, Tuesday evening, was largely attended. The exercises opened with singing by a double quartet, followed by prayer by Rev. Francis B. Hornbrook.

Prof. Francis G. Peabody, D. D., of Harvard University, was then introduced, and delivered a very interesting paper, his topic being, "How ought a City to Take Care of its Poor?"

He commenced by saying that in American cities there was no clear principle of relief for the poor. The municipal system, he added, is not in vogue in this country.

Americans, like the English, distrust the methods of outdoor relief, and the poorhouse test is applied to defend the community from the pauper.

In some American cities, continued Dr. Peabody, the plan of the Associated Charities has been introduced, with some measure of success.

The German system of relief for the poor, I think, is the most consistent with right-minded citizenship and Christianity.

How does a German city deal with its poor? For example, I will take the city of Dresden in Saxony. The population of Dresden in 1890 was 270,000. The Elberfeld system went into effect there in 1880. It provides for the relief of the poor through the administration of a single salaried official who has a seat in the board of aldermen. This superintendent of poor relief is a trained expert. He is assisted by a committee of fifteen, made up of members of the city council and citizens, and the committee thus disposed is similar to our board of overseers of the poor, but differing from it in having the expert at the head instead of at the foot.

Under the direction of the committee comes the enrollment of friendly visitors, made familiar to us in the plan of the Associated Charities.

The visitors in Germany are, however, men, the services of women not being utilized as in this country.

The cases under the Elberfeld system are assigned by the districting of the town, and the cases are distributed to the districts, owing to increase in the number of cases requiring relief.

This division by space or districts is the only thorough system by which a city or town may make a certain person responsible for the cases in one section.

The German system is compulsory, and calls the most competent persons in each city and town into its service.

The selections of those who compose the visiting committee are made with great care, and the persons selected are initiated into office with various degrees of honor.

It is essential that each visitor combine humanity with firmness and the interests of the poor with the interests of the town or city he represents.

It is interesting to note that the system has provided cheap fares for poor children, recreation places and other legislation in the interests of the poor classes.

In connection with it, it is the custom to provide homes for orphans. It is done systematically, thoroughly, municipally. There are some poor houses that may possess somewhat of the features of home and home influences, but generally speaking there is no life or spirit in them.

The faults of the system are the faults of human nature. Some men are too kind to be discreet, some too cold and hard to be just.

The chief value of the Elberfeld system is in educating the people in caring for the poor.

Is the German system applicable to American cities? Perhaps not, in the case of a city dominated by a ring where appointments of visitors may be influenced by political considerations.

It would not be applicable in a city where there was a manifest lack of public spirit. It has been said of the German system that what there was good in it was due to good citizenship.

In this country the Associated Charities wait for volunteer visitors. Why not district the city or town and assign the blocks and cases to those deemed most competent for the work?

Few good citizens, I think, would refuse to do the specific work of looking out for, say, five or six families in a section assigned to their care.

Compulsory municipal service might be successfully applied in many American cities and towns. There are two things, certainly, that judicious charity can accomplish—the education of the prosperous to the responsibility of citizenship, and the prevention of the existence of unknown cases of need.

Where there are the abuses of institutions, their thrifty poor would be happy and contented, and the underserving poor would seek some other place of residence.

The citizens of such a town who enrolled themselves in the work of caring for the poor would be doing what thousands of German citizens are doing every day in their own country.

Not Enthusiastic. Charlie—"May I announce our engagement at once?" Clara—"Not yet. Perhaps both of us may be able to do better."—New York Herald.

Jack—"Come with me to the theatre this evening, Tom?" Tom—"But you're going to take Alice Murray." Jack—"Yes, and her aunt."—Kate Field's Washington.

Not a Question of Age. "All the girls wear them." "Do you still call yourself a girl?" "Why not? My husband is still one of the boys, though my senior by twenty years."—Life.

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY LIKE SHERIDAN'S CONDITION POWDER

If You Can't Get it Near Home, Send to Us. Ask first.

It is absolutely pure. Highly concentrated. Most economical because small doses. No other one fourth as strong. Strictly a medicine, not a food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as we can. Prevents and cures diseases of poultry. Worth its weight in gold when hens are moulting. One large can saved me $40, and six more to prevent "Roup" says a customer. Sold by druggists, grocers, general store and feed dealers. We send post-paid a "Poultry Raising Guide" (price 25c) containing poultry accounts worth the price, and two packs of powder for 25c; or five packs $1. One 1-lb. can and Guide $1.25. Six large cans express paid $5; stamps or cash. In quantity costs less than one tenth cent a day per hen. Testimonials free. L. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

The H. W. Downs Company,

Carry the Largest Assortment of Silk and Cotton Dress Linings and Findings in Boston, and at the Lowest Prices.

Wholesale and Retail,

143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON.

One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE.

NEWTON BRANCH.

HENRY W. SAVAGE.

J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr.

BOSTON OFFICE: 37 Court Street.

NEWTON OFFICE: 1261 Washington St. WEST NEWTON.

Telephone 2050. Telephone 73-2.

Several very fine Estates at Newton and on West Newton Hill, which must be sold at once. Call for particulars.

Houses in all the Newtons from $3,000 to $20,000. Choice building lots on West Newton Hill for sale low, on easy terms. Wanted for immediate tenants and purchase, houses in Newton and Newtonville.

Our customers are inquiring especially for Newton Centre building lots. We have them to show, and at prices which must soon advance. Call and allow us to explain why now is the time to buy.

We are ready to buy, sell, rent, mortgage, insure for you.

ALVORD & WARD,

113 Devonshire Street, Boston, and Newton Centre.

F. G. BARNES & SON.

Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers.

AUCTIONEERS FOR REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.

FOR SALE AND FOR RENT

a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

BOOM IN HOUSE LOTS.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

Can show you plans and prices of Splendid Lots in first class location where great improvements are being made and property is steadily advancing.

Buy Now and Save Money. Make the Advance Yourself.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston.

ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON.

CHARLES F. ROGERS,

(Successor to Chas. F. Rogers.)

Real Estate Agency

For selling and leasing Real Estate and Negotiating Mortgages, Care of Real Estate and Collection of Rents. Auctioneer for sale Real Estate and Personal Property. A list of desirable estates for sale and lease always to be found at office. Correspondence solicited.

OFFICE, BRACKETT'S NEW BLOCK, 417 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

Newton, Nov. Telephone.

WM. B. YOUNG

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT.

NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES.

Land furnished and houses built to suit on easy terms.

Office, 25 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON

Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,

Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,

Insurance Agency,

No. 2 Mason Building,

WATER STREET, - BOSTON

P. O. Box 304, Newtonville. 32

DO YOU WANT

To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Waltham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 Moody St., Waltham.

LAWYERS.

WILLIAM F. BACON,

Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law

113 Devonshire St., Room 42,

BOSTON. 50st

SPRAGUE & WASHBURN,

Counsellors - at - Law

51 SUMMER STREET, Rooms 13 and 14,

BOSTON.

Chas. H. Sprague, Residence, Auburndale,

G. Everett Washburn, Residence, Wellesley Hill

JESSE C. IVY,

COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

113 Devonshire street, Room 43, Boston, Mass

Residence, Newton. 38-1y

W. F. & W. S. SLOCUM

Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law.

Rooms 9 and 10 Herald Building, 297 Washington Street, Boston.

WILLIAM F. SLOCUM. WINFIELD S. SLOCUM.

Residences, Newtonville

Winfield S. Slocum, City Solicitor of Newton.

1852 ESTABLISHED 1887

HUBBARD & PROCTER

PHARMACISTS,

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address: Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

HON. J. B. SARGENT.

OF NEW HAVEN, ON PROTECTION, AS APPLIED TO METALS AND HARDWARE.

After an active experience of about five years in the manufacture of hardware, and very soon after the beginning of the late war, I built quite a large manufacturing establishment in New Haven. After the war was over I had time to think of the possible future of the business. I asked myself: What if the people of this country should get tired of allowing manufacturers a protection of from thirty-five to one hundred per cent, and should stop doing so? What then would our great factories and machinery be worth? But as I had been taught, and accepted as true, the doctrine that all the people would sink to utter ruin and starvation if there should be any considerable approach toward free trade, I concluded that Congress, the representative of the people, would do nothing to sink the people, and in any event, as we were all in the same boat, we should sink or float together. Still, the more I thought upon the subject, the more I could not see why the people should be much interested in paying us manufacturers from thirty-five to one hundred per cent, more for goods made by us, than the foreign price; especially as the great West and South could pay in exports of produce of their own raising. The more I thought and the more I studied the New York Tribune, the more I saw danger ahead, if I should be compelled to compete with what the Tribune calls "the free trade pauper labor of Europe." I knew that free trade England was our severest competitor; but I also knew that we got but very little emigration from the manufacturing districts of England, compared with that of the manufacturing districts of high tariff Germany. This looked as though the "pauperism" was in the high tariff country, rather than in the free trade country. As I looked into the matter I could not make the Tribune's high tariff doctrines tally with what I knew to be facts.

VICTIMS OF A METAL OLIGARCHY.

The necessities of business seemed to require an unusual increase in our factory buildings and machinery, but before enlarging I concluded to investigate in Europe for myself. I spent four months of each of the years 1873 and 1875 in Europe, and looked up the protective theory with my own eyes, in the light of my own experience and observation as a merchant, and especially as a manufacturer. I became thoroughly convinced that, instead of having been so many years a genteel and aristocratic pauper, living and prospering upon the charities of the people, I really had been one of the deluded and oppressed victims of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Lake Superior coal and metal oligarchy, who, in order to pile up illegitimate wealth, had so managed Congress as to acquire, through high tariffs, substantially a monopoly of supplying us with coal and metals, and at a price very largely in excess of the prices paid by our foreign competitors. But in order to increase the demand for their coals and metals at the prices they fix, they also, by tariff protection, try to shut out all hardware not made from their metals; not that they care anything for our (the manufacturers) good, only so far as we are used to enrich them. I saw why this great monopoly, aided by the wool growers, always stands ready to throw the vote of the half-enslaved workmen under their control against tariff reform. They rob us manufacturers at wholesale, and allow us to rob the people at retail. They take over sixty per cent on pig iron from its foundrymen, and allow us to rob the buyers of our hardware of from twenty-five to forty-five per cent, whenever we can combine to keep up prices, so that they feel tolerably secure in their monopoly of supplying the metal in nearly all the hardware used in this country. I found that our woolen goods manufacturers sustain about the same relations with the wool growers that the metal goods manufacturers do with the producers of metals. The wool growers rob the manufacturers of woolen goods, and the metal goods manufacturers rob the people. I, continue to take the New York Tribune, partly for its many good qualities as a family newspaper, and partly to continue to see what preposterous nonsense, in defense of a despised, hoary-headed and selfish old fallacy, people who will not think for themselves can be made to accept and believe.

The iron rolling mill also limits the price below which no member shall sell wrought iron in the condition in which it comes from the mills. But the rolling mill owners can work up their own product into manufactured goods and be able to undersell manufacturers who are not iron makers. Four per cent, on the whole manufacture of a certain article of wrought iron goods of large sale and universal use is paid to certain iron rolling mills of Pennsylvania monthly in cash to keep them out of the manufacture of the article. They could afford to sell the manufactured goods at a less price per pound than that at which the iron associations, backed by the United States government, allow us to buy the iron. I alluded to this particular case because I am one of the small manufacturers of the goods who pay that "blood money," but as we all put ten per cent, extra upon our price to the people, we manufacturers can stand the "protection," if the people insist. Free trade would not only enable the rolling mills to do a steady and fairly profitable business for home consumption and for export, but would be a check to syndicates and monopolies in their attempts to limit production and tyrannically keep prices unnaturally and unnecessarily high.

CURIOSITIES OF THE LEAD DUTIES.
Foreign lead pays a duty of two cents per pound. Foreign lead of the best quality can be laid down in the Atlantic ports for one and a half cents per pound, duty not paid. The duty is two cents per pound, or more than one hundred per cent. This high duty was put upon lead to enrich the bonanza silver miners, lead being the residuum of the smelting of silver ores. The bonanza Croususes are not satisfied with the government taking their silver off their hands at above the market prices of the world, to stack it up as fast as it can be mined and smelted, in needless coin worth eighty cents to the dollar; but the government must do more for them, they must have two cents per pound protection on their lead, and so every man in the country who paints his house or fence pays two cents extra per pound for his paint, that bonanza silver miners may display and riot in great wealth. Every piece of lead pipe or sheet lead we are charged for by the poor plumber, every bullet or shot used by the hunter, pays two cents per pound to the bonanzas.

THE MAIN-STAYS OF MONOPOLY.

Those that cling to and are the mainstays of the system are: First the owners of mines, who got a royalty on the product taken out. These property owners are not obliged to be at the expense of a mining or manufacturing plant, or at a loss in consequence of wear of machinery by use or waste by idleness. They are the nobility of the land, and receive their royalties for the right to dig iron and other mineral ores and coal—oftentimes more than its price in foreign lands mined and delivered at the vessel's side. They have their associations and combinations, by which to limit the product and keep up prices, and the United States government protects them in it. Protection enriches them. They are the bottom combination in coal, metals and metal goods. "They so or not, neither do they spin."

The next step upward is the combination of miners and smelters and furnace men, including most of the railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, arbitrarily limiting the product, and thereby fixing prices. Woe be to the rash private coal miner who dares to mine and attempt to ship to market a greater amount than his allotment, or undersell the combination price. His coal will no longer be carried to market till penalty is paid, and new promises made for his future good behavior. We have the Western Pig Iron Association and the Eastern Pig Iron Association, and for many years have had the Ingot Copper Association and Syndicate, happily now apparent corpses, but probably to be resurrected as soon as a good demand for copper appears. We also have the Western Iron Rolling Mill Association and the Eastern Iron Rolling Mill Association, and the American Iron and Steel Association, all banded together for the same purposes, to regulate Congress, limit supply and keep up prices. The Western Association controls the country west of the Allegheny Mountains, and the Eastern Association controls the country east of those mountains. The American Iron and Steel Association spreads its benevolence all over the United States.

Congressman Williams.

To the editor of the GRAPHIC:
I have been much amused by the contributions from the Republican Club of Newtonville attacking Congressman Williams, they are so puerile in character. They cannot deny that he is the first man we have had to represent us at Washington for many years. We have had mere partisans, who did what they were told to do, but who were never heard from after they got to Washington, although we were told that they were "strong on committee work." There has been no need of such an apology for Mr. Williams, for the excellent work he has done at Washington is known to every newspaper reader. His fight against free silver was in marked contrast to the action of our Republican Congressmen.

Now what can Gen. Draper do if he is elected? He will be "strong on committee work," we suppose, especially in favor of an increase of tariff taxation in favor of the many manufacturing enterprises in which his wealth is invested, but he does not profess to be a public speaker, and will merely add one more to the Republican majority, to vote blindly for free silver laws or any other legislation the managers may dictate. Mr. Carnegie is reported to have given $100,000 to the Republican campaign fund, out of a lively remembrance of past favors and expectation of future ones. Gen. Draper is known to be in full sympathy with him and can probably be depended on to help Mr. Carnegie get this money back again out of the pockets of the American people.

Have not the Carnegies and the Drapers and their friends taxed the people sufficiently? INDEPENDENT.

MAYOR HIBBARD DECLINES

TO ACCEPT A THIRD NOMINATION FOR MAYOR.

West Newton, Mass., Oct., 17th, To E. W. Converse and other petitioners, Newton, Mass.

Gentlemen:—I regret that I cannot favorably consider your request and permit you to propose my re-election as Mayor of the city of Newton.

Experience during the past two years has proven to me conclusively that to retain my health, I must give up either my official duties or my own private business.

I trust my friends and fellow citizens will believe that I most highly appreciate their generous endorsement of my efforts, and the honor conferred in kindly offering to present my name again.

Thanking each and all sincerely, I remain,

Yours with much respect,
HERMON E. HIBBARD.

I was so much troubled with catarrh it seriously affected my voice. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm did the work. My voice is fully restored.—B. F. Liepser, A. M., Pastor of the Olivet Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

An Oholady was so frightened by a snake that her glossy black hair turned white as snow. It was soon turned to its original color by Hall's Hair Renewer.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

A damsel of twelve who dislikes boys wrote an essay upon them, in which she said, "If I had my way, half the boys in the world would be girls and the other half would be dolls."—Modern Society.

Catarrh in the Head

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood, and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. It gives an appetite and builds up the whole system.

Cure Yourself.

Don't pay large doctor's bills. The best medical book published, 100 pages, elegant colored plates, will be sent you on receipt of three 2-cent stamps to pay postage. Address A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

PROTECTION COLUMN.

PROTECTION AND RECIPROCITY.

A REPLY TO WM. LLOYD GARRISON BY ALBERT CLARK.

To the Editor of the Newton Graphic:

If you will kindly allow space I would like to reply to Mr. Wm. Lloyd Garrison's article on "Republican Reciprocity" in the GRAPHIC of Oct. 4.

He says protection "means the restriction of international trade," and in saying this he ignores a cardinal principle of protection, which is to promote all non-competitive trade.

He says the reciprocity which we now enjoy "was not dreamt of by the framers of the McKinley bill." There were a good many framers of that bill, but if he refers to Mr. McKinley, let me show his mistake. The Republican platform of 1888, in its tariff plank drawn by Mr. McKinley, declared for "such revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our labor, and release from import duties those articles of foreign production except luxuries the like of which cannot be produced at home."

Now this is the essential principle of protection. It protects both production and consumption. It is the foundation for the doctrine that has been built upon it. It says to Brazil: "You produce coffee and we do not. We produce flour, machinery and many other articles that you do not. We desire your specialties and you desire ours. Let us exchange on fair terms. We will admit your goods free of duty if you will admit ours free."

Here was a proposition which offered mutual advantage and no disadvantage. It is fair trade. Behold how different it is from free trade. Free trade makes no discrimination between goods. It gives those which we do not need equal access to our market with those which we do need. If a yard of cotton can be produced in China on machinery precisely like that at Fall River, which is speeded just as high and run from daylight until dark seven days in the week, by patient, ingenious toilers who are glad to accept ten or fifteen cents a day, and which cotton cloth it would cost less than four mills a yard to transport to New York, free trade would admit that cloth without hindrance, even though it would close every mill in Fall River, nay in the United States, or bring down the wages and conditions of American labor to the Chinese level.

But fair trade, on the contrary, would say to China, "We will admit your tea free of duty, because we do not grow tea but desire it; we cannot, however, admit your cottons until you will first pay into the treasury of the United States an amount equal to the money that you save by not paying for labor what we pay here." Was there ever a more reasonable proposition?

Such a policy is not calculated to restrict any kind of trade between nations that is desirable; it promotes such trades and every one can now see that under the operations of the McKinley tariff, our exports and imports are both larger than before. There has been a falling off in the imports of competing goods, or, in cases where there has not, the foreign export prices have been reduced by the amount of the duties. In such cases the duty is not a tax upon the American consumer even though he buys the foreign article. There has also been a revival of productive industry in nearly all lines in this country, and on so large a scale that domestic competition keeps down the price, so here again the duty fails to be a tax. The advantage to the country is that we produce the goods we consume, employ domestic labor instead of foreign labor, keep our money at home instead of sending it abroad, and thus make a market for our own products more than twenty times greater than if the same quantities of goods were manufactured for us in foreign lands.

Mr. Garrison says the "privileged classes favored monopolies and corrupt associations." What endorsing terms our friends use, are now lauding protection by reason of the "removal of the sugar duties, the long free list and the lower prices of goods." Well, why not? Protectionists lauded the new tariff for precisely these reasons two years ago, but Mr. Garrison and his friends denied the facts and probabilities, and swept the country by a three weeks' campaign of unexampled prevarication. To-day, happily for us, the facts can no longer be denied. What we said would happen is transpiring every day, and all that is left to the opposite party is to attempt a further deception, though perhaps they are sincere in this, by calling every abolition or reduction of duty "a free trade feature." Here again they display persistent blindness to the distinction between a free trade tariff and a protection tariff. It is just as much the policy of protection to take off duties as it is to put them on, the principle being to discriminate between what we can and what we cannot produce in adequate quantities, and the object being to benefit both production and consumption.

But Mr. Garrison says "the things we want and must have are in England, Canada, Germany and France, much more than in South American Republics and dependencies." It would be interesting to have him name them. If he can name any kind that we cannot produce in commercial quantities, I will agree that we should admit it free of duty. But if he names the products of fields, mines and hills which our own people can supply in abundance, I should say we ought not to give people who are not of us, who pay none of our local taxes, who owe no allegiance to our flag, and who have interests that are always alien and often hostile to ours, an equal chance with our own people in our own market, or rather a better chance, in so far as they have any advantage over us in the conditions of production.

All the leading nations of the world except Great Britain have become strongly protective. What kind of business management would it be for us to admit their goods to our markets, not needing them, when they will not admit ours to their markets? I sometimes illustrate free trade by the figure of two boys swapping similar jackknives, in which transaction there is small chance for either to be benefited, and both may be cheated; and I liken protection and reciprocity, or fair trade, to the farmer exchanging his wool with the manufacturer for his cloth, in which both are benefited and neither is cheated, unless one is given protection and the other is not, as some of Mr. Garrison's associates propose. But what shall be thought of the proposition now made to the American people to open their own markets without gaining others, and to risk, nay to invite, if not the destruction of their industries, at least a total revolution in methods and prices, which would instantly arrest the teeming prosperity of the country and throw every kind of business into confusion, doubt and distress?

ALBERT CLARKE.
Boston, Oct. 18, 1892.

The Roxbury Latin-Newton High Game

The game played Tuesday on Cambridge and Newton High School eleven was very exciting, resulting in a tie, 18 to 18, after two halves. The eleven were evenly matched as to science and weight, but Newton played the harder game all through.

In the first half Capt. Skinner of the Roxbury eleven was severely injured, and retired in favor of Patnam, who put up a first-class game. The work of the Newton players was unusually good. Rogers, Flint, Donald and Hall distinguished themselves in individual work for Roxbury, especially Flint, whose running around the ends was of the highest class. Capt. Page, Knox, Redpath and Benedict did valiant work for the other side.

The tie will probably be played off one week from next Saturday on the same grounds.

NEWTON HIGH POSITIONS ROXBURY LATIN
Manfield.....Left end.....Valentine
Benedict.....Left tackle.....Donald (Bowler)
Cobb, ".....Left guard.....Hoy (Bowler)
Hubbard.....Center.....Cobb (Bowler)
Paul.....Right guard.....Hall
Pease.....Right tackle.....Byrnes
Cobb.....Right end.....Rogers
Knox.....Quarter back.....Skinner (Patnam)
Page.....Half-backs.....Flint
Redpath.....Full back.....Weld
Brown.....Full back.....Weld
Score—Roxbury, 18; Newton, 18. Touchdowns—Roxbury, 3; Newton, 3. Goals from touch-downs—Roxbury, 2; Newton, 2. Safety touch-downs—Roxbury, 1.

Religious Differences.

In the greater concerns of life there are wonderful illustrations of the conflicts of opinions. There are something over 1,200,000,000 of human beings in the world. Among these are six varieties of religious belief; three of these are said by one class to be false, and by others three are said to be the true religion. And yet every religionist, every sectarian claims that he and she alone are right. What our Chinese neighbors say is "true" we say is "false." We call them "heathens"—they class us as "outside barbarians."

What we English speaking people think is the right and the true religion is in a startling minority in human belief or religious creed—for there are only some 350,000,000 Christians in all the world. There are some 6,000,000 Jews, and they have clung with singular persistency in all ages to their religious belief; it is seldom a Jew renounces his faith; it is more seldom that a Christian embraces Judaism. There are more than 400,000,000 people who are pagans and Mohammedans.—Detroit Free Press.

A Natural Incubator.

The officers and men of the United States cutter Rush relate marvelous tales of wondrous discoveries made by them during their 1890 cruise. They dredged for deep sea oddities in the almost fathomless "sinks" of the Pacific's bed. They collected marine algae so delicate in figure that it took the finest microscopes to bring out even the coarsest outlines, leaving the minute fibers as a hazy mist on the vision, and finally outdid themselves by getting a fine photographic view of a creature sporting in the sand of one of the low lying islands which leads their paleologist to the belief that some of the supposed antediluvian monsters are still in existence.

But the feat of which they seem proudest was the discovery of a natural incubator on the sides of the volcano Bogosejov, where millions ofawks, gulls and other sea birds deposit their eggs and leave them to be hatched by volcanic heat. Who says that birds are devoid of intelligence?—St. Louis Republic.

Not Looking for a Job.

A young woman, whose distinguished carriage was hidden beneath her mackintosh, and whose well kept locks were crowned with a soft felt cap, came in to engage a cook. An elderly woman with a lorgnette had come for the same purpose. The latter became a little impatient over the delay to which she was subjected and began a little investigation on her own account. She advanced to the lady in the mackintosh, whose head happened to be turned away, and inquired tersely:

"Can you cook?"
The young woman turned her astonished gaze upon her of the lorgnette. Then she said politely:
"I can cook. But I am not looking for a situation."—New York World.

For Bronchitis

"I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few months, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. After trying various remedies without benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and securing a good night's rest."—T. A. Higginbotham, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Lung Trouble

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhages, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured. I can confidently recommend this medicine."—Franz Hofmann, Clay Centre, Kans.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Prompt to act, sure to cure.

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,
GALEN STREET, - WATERTOWN, MASS.
TELEPHONE NO. 30, NEWTON.

ALL KINDS
Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.
FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, cissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?
And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?
If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
Work Guaranteed.
Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of
IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS,
STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold
and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY
MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS
NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE
NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 5 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per night. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet works in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the
New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Union Carpet Cleaning Works
Glen Avenue, near R. R. - Newton Centre.

We solicit your orders in the full belief that we shall give satisfaction.

PRICE LIST.
1 cent per running yard for Taking Up. 3 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wool Carpets. 3 cts. per running yard for Cleaning Brussels or Tapestry. 4 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters. 5 cents per square yard for Cleaning Turkish Rugs or Carpets. 4 cents per running yard for Laying in the same room. 4 cents per running yard for Redding. Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per night.
All orders sent by mail to Newton Centre P. O. will receive prompt attention. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge.

For Envelopes, Billheads, Cards, Programmes, Circulars, Posters, try the
GRAPHIC PRINTING OFFICE.
Estimates given.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
85 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.
Entered as second class matter.
Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.
All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to
EDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.
TELEPHONE NO. 938-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.
ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE NEWTON TRANSCRIPT HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED WITH THE GRAPHIC.

THE MAYORALTY.
As was feared, Mayor Hibbard positively refuses to accept a third nomination for Mayor. His letter will be found in another column. The question now is, who will be selected as his successor.
This is a matter of much more importance to Newton people than the Presidential election, even, as it has to do directly with the prosperity of the city.
We need a practical business man, with enlightened views on city affairs, who will have a due regard for economy, and one who is able to take an impartial view of all questions that may come up.
These are important considerations, and they should be considered before the voters yield to the personal ambition of any man who desires the honor of holding the office. The name most promi-nently mentioned is that of ex-Alderman Fenno, who is not a candidate, and there is doubt whether he would accept,
but he would make an excellent successor to Mayor Hibbard. One great point in his favor is that as chairman of any important committee he did not exceed the appropriation, and yet more was accomplished by his committees than by others where appropriations were exceeded and a great display made over the work. Mr. Fenno is one of those quiet men who do not make great speeches but who make every effort tell, and those who watched his work as chairman of the highway committee were surprised at the amount accomplished, when compared with former years. He would make a strong candidate if he would accept.

The candidates for representatives are now all nominated. The Republicans present Mr. Dwight Chester, who has already served two terms with great credit, and Mr. J. H. Estabrook of Ward
One, who is well known from his service in the Common Council, where he was one of the most valuable members, and he would do equally well in the legislature. Both gentlemen will sustain the high character of Newton's representatives. The Democrats have put up Mr.
Samuel Shaw of Ward Five, one of the ablest of the Independent citizens who have made Newton famous as the home of the original Mugwump. His chances of election will depend on whether the other two candidates receive the full party vote.

This councillor district has a normal Republican majority of 1500 but it is hoped that Newton will practically give a nearly unanimous vote for Mr. J. R.
Leeson, so as to make his election certain. His opponent is Mr. Grimes of Somerville, who is making a vigorous campaign, and local pride is expected to give him a large vote in his own city.
Newton should offset this as much as possible, and there are a great number of Democrats here who have already signified their intention of voting for Mr. Lee-son.

The announcement of a meeting to be addressed by Mr. Roger Wolcott, Gen.
W. F. Draper and Congressman Lodge at Newton Centre next week Saturday evening, is full of interest and indicates that the Republicans are determined to carry Newton Centre. Hitherto the Ward has been regarded by both parties as so sure that no rallies have been held there, and the good people of Ward Six had almost forgotten this was presidential year.

A HEARING will be given those interested in the question of moving the railroad tracks, either for or against, at the City Hall next Wednesday evening. As some opposition has developed in Newtonville, judging from a remonstrance presented Monday evening, a lively hearing may be expected.

COUNCILMAN C. B. MCGEE appears to be the favorite for the successor of Aldermen Hyde from Ward Five. His constituents say that he is a live man and has done so much for his ward as councilman, that he has fairly earned the promotion.

It seems that rail road tracks are sometimes relocated, as the City of Lowell has just approved such action in that city.

Something New.
The ladies will be interested to learn that A. L. Gordon & Co. of 22 and 24 Temple Place, Boston, have added to their stock a choice line of linens for embroidery, stamped exclusively with design by Mr. Walter M. Eddy of Boston and sold only by them. Opening Monday, October 24th.

A GENEROUS GIFT.
THE NEWTON COTTAGE HOSPITAL TO HAVE A HOME FOR NURSES.
The friends of the Cottage Hospital will be rejoiced to hear that one of the most pressing needs of the Cottage Hospital is soon to be filled by the erection of a Home for Nurses, two generous Newton citizens having pledged themselves to give the money necessary for a building that will be ample for years to come.
The two gentlemen are Mr. Lucius G.
Pratt of West Newton and Mr. E. W. Converse of Newton, two of the trustees, and they have already engaged the architects and the location has been selected, apart from the Hospital but in front of the laundry and offices, on the Lower Falls side of the present buildings and fronting the main drive.

The necessity for such a building has been often noted, and in his last annual report Mr. J. R. Leeson called attention to the two great advantages that would follow the erection of such a building. The training school has already done much good, the demand for nurses in Newton homes being much larger than can be supplied, and the Home will allow of the number being increased, so that in every home in Newton where sickness is liable to enter at any time, the services of a trained nurse can be secured. Such employment also brings a revenue to the Hospital, as the money received has so far more than repaid the cost of maintaining the school.

When Mr. Leeson was first chosen president of the corporation the number of pupils was less than ten, but there are now twenty pupils, and the new building will furnish accommodations for double that number, with private room for each pupil, a hall for lectures, and for recreation, with probably apparatus for physical training, which is highly important.
So far the pupil nurses have been crowded into the upper story of the private ward, with no opportunity to get out of the Hospital atmosphere, or for that rest and recreation which their arduous duties demand. They were studying under difficulties, but they have made the best of it, and the results have been very encouraging in spite of the limited accommodations.
At the last meeting of the executive board Mr. Pratt was present, and said that he thought of giving such a building, and the physicians were called on to state just what was needed. It was at first thought that $5,000 or $6,000 would be all that was needed, but the physicians took very liberal views and said that the building should contain forty rooms at least. In order to answer the needs of the Hospital and the community for the years to come, and the plans grew until it was seen that the cost would be double the first estimates. Mr.
Pratt thought over the matter and finally proposed to Mr. Converse that they should become partners in the good work, and put up such a building as was desired.
The proposition was accepted in the same generous spirit in which it was made, and the pleasant announcement made to the trustees.

The plans will be carefully studied and developed the coming winter and work will begin early in the spring.

Six Illustrated Lectures.
Prof. Lyon of Harvard University will give a course of six illustrated lectures at West Newton upon Assyrian monuments and Babylonian art and literature.
The first to be held in the Baptist church
Wednesday, Oct. 20th at 7.45. Tickets for the course $2.00 can be obtained at the door.

A CARD
DR. MARY E. BATES,
Has removed from Newton Centre to
EXETER CHAMBERS,
Exeter Street, Boston.
OFFICE HOURS: 11 A.M. to 3 P.M.
SPECIALTIES: Heart, Lungs, Kidneys, and Diseases of Women. 2 13

MARRIED.
SMITH-SMITH—At Cambridge, Oct. 17, at the home of the bride, Miss Maude Smith of Cambridge and Edward C. Smith, formerly of Newton.
HECKMOTT-FRANKLIN—At Danvers, Oct. 12,
Warren D. Heckmott and Carrie Louise
Franklin of Newton.
McHALE-EGAN—At Newton Oct. 13, Martin
H. McHale and Catherine Egan.
TAYLOR-BUSHER—At Abundale, Oct. 12,
Woodford Taylor and Wilhelmine Busher.
McGAINLEY-MONAGHAN—At Newton, Oct.
13, Bartholomew McGainley and Julia Monaghan.

DIED.
STEWART—At his late residence in Abundale, on October 17th, John Brigham Stewart, 57 yrs.
3 mos. 3 ds. Funeral services at the house on Saturday, Oct. 22nd, at 2.15 p.m.
IRWIN—At West Newton, Oct. 18, at the residence of Charles I. Travell, Mary C. Irwin, widow of James Irwin, Pittsburg, Pa.
RAYMOND—October 19th, at Nehart, Montana,
Mary, wife of Robert M. Raymond, and daughter of Geo. S. and Caroline A. Bullens of this city.
LENNOX—At Newtonville, Oct. 15, Benjamin F.
Lennox, 8 mos.
McDONOUGH—At Newton, Oct. 14, Mary Mc-
Donough, 9 mos.
SLAVIN—At West Newton, Oct. 14, Bridget
Slavin, 53 yrs.
LAHEY—At West Newton, Oct. 13, Mrs. Mary
Lahey, 57 yrs.
WALSH—At Newtonville, Oct. 16, William
Walsh, 65 yrs.
MURRAY—At Newtonville, Oct. 16, Sally Murray, 25 yrs.
McCARTY—At West Newton, Oct. 5, Thomas
P. McCarty, 4 yrs. 11 mos.
HARWOOD—At Newton, Oct. 16, Seth Kendall
Harwood, 46 yrs.
STEVENS—At Natick, Oct. 12, Mary Ann
Stevens, 88 yrs. 8 mos.
PERKINS—At Watertown, Oct. 15, Daniel T.
Perkins of West Newton, 51 yrs.
BILLINGS—At Dover, Oct. 14, Albert Billings,
70 yrs. 11 mos. 18 ds.
WILLIAMS—At Newton, Oct. 19, Agnes Maud-violet daughter of Geo. H. and Emily M.
Williams, she died at her father's residence, 55
Jefferson St., Friday, Oct. 21, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

BILLINGS—At Newton, Oct. 19, Charles E. Billings, aged 57 yrs. Funeral at his late home
Franklin Street, Saturday, Oct. 22, at 2.15 p.m.
Relatives and friends invited without further notice and kindly requested to send flowers.
Burial private.

HOWARD B. COFFIN
DEALER IN
FINE TEAS and
BEST COFFEES
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 364 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

ROYAL BAKING
POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 108 Wall St., N.Y.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS
Reasons Why He Should Be
Re-elected to Congress.
TO CITIZENS OF THE ELEVENTH DISTRICT
His Record in the Massachusetts Legislature and National House of Representatives Proves Him to Be a Safe Representative and Worthy the Confidence of the People.

The Democratic candidate for congress from the Eleventh district is Hon. George Fred Williams of Dedham. What are some of the reasons why Mr. Williams should be chosen to represent you in the next congress?
1. The record of Mr. Williams in the Massachusetts legislature and in congress has proved him to be a safe representative of The People's Interests.
2. He is worthy of continued confidence. His legislative history shows that he has not followed that test of legislative action laid down by Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, which consists in the question "Does it pay?" but that other test comprised in the question "Is it right?"
3. His record on the silver question is the history of a struggle begun within the ranks of his own party. In a House with a Democratic majority of 140, presided over by a free coinage speaker, against whose election
Mr. Williams exerted all his influence, it was confidently predicted that a free coinage measure would pass and the Republican journals hailed with ridicule the appointment of Mr.
Williams on the coinage committee, picturing his helplessness to stem the free coinage tide which would sweep him with it and engulf the Democratic party.

Through the efforts of Mr. Williams and the sixty-nine other Democrats who supported him no law for the free coinage of silver was passed. What was the attitude of the Republicans from Massachusetts? When the question was taken on Tuesday of the consideration of the Bland bill on March 7, 1892, the Republicans of Massachusetts, with one exception, treacherously

Deserted Their Convictions
and voted for the consideration of the measure.
Mr. Williams' firm attitude on the silver question in the last session is a sufficient guarantee to the people of the Eleventh district of his earnest efforts in the future in behalf of the people.
3. From 1890-91 the country was under a low tariff. The exigencies of revenue required higher duties upon imports and the Morrill tariff of 1891 was passed. Henry Wilson declared that he had voted for the bill as a revenue measure. After the war broke out increased duties were imposed to defray the enormous expense of carrying on the war.
After the war a commission was appointed to revise and reduce the duties, but private interests, which had received benefits from the high war duties, protested and since that time we have had a

War Tariff Maintained
in the time of peace. The McKinley bill we witness the deliberate payment by the Republican party of a political debt to the private tariff interests which contributed to Republican success in 1888.

To the partnership between private interests and public officials Mr. Williams is opposed, and he favors such wise reduction of tariff duties as will

Remove the Burdens of unnecessary taxation from our people and place a check upon the tariff interests who think that Congress should grant special favors by tariff legislation to their private business enterprises.

Cast your ballots, then, on Nov. 8 for Mr.
Williams, the advocate of honest money and tariff reform.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
To all persons interested in the estate of Prudence
C. Bass late of Newton in said County, deceased.
Whereas Sarah J. Freeman the executrix of the will of said deceased, has presented for allowance the final and final account of her administration upon the estate of said deceased;
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the 19th day of November, 1892, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.
If you fail to appear at the time and place so appointed, the court will make such order in the premises as it may think proper.
Witness my hand and seal of office, the 15th day of October, 1892, at the City of Boston.
Wm. George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, the nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
3 31 S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

IT IS A DUTY you owe yourself and family to get the best value for your money.
Economize in your footwear by purchasing W. L. Douglas Shoes, which represent the best value for the price asked, as thousands will testify.
$5.00 $3.00
$4.00 $2.50
$3.50 $2.00
$2.50 $2.00
$2.25 $1.75
$2.00 $1.75
FOR GENTLEMEN FOR LADIES
FOR BOYS FOR MISSES

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE GENTLEMEN
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY.
OTHER SPECIALTIES in footwear are of the same high grade, and represent a money value far beyond the price charged. See that name and price are stamped on bottom of each shoe.
W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass. Sold by
A. L. REYNOLD, Newton. 2 31
Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company.
All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 95-1

READ FUND
Lecture Course
—AT—
Eliot Hall, Newton
SEASON OF 1892.
Commencing at 7.45 p.m.

The course will open with two stereoscopic
Lectures by Rev. H. G. Spaulding of Newton.

OCT. 25. SUBJECT—"Around the Bay of Naples."
NOV. 10. Subject to be announced.

Tickets for Reserved Seats for the Course can be had by addressing L. E. Coffin, G. M. Weed, Reub n Forknall, or Hubbard & Proctor's store Seats will be reserved till 7.40 o'clock, but not later.
Single evening tickets can be obtained by application at Hubbard & Proctor's store on the evenings of the Lectures.

BUSINESS NOTICES
RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time
thereafter, in advance.
FOR SALE—A large bookcase, chamber sets, sideboard, chairs, tables, hat tree, etc., etc., will be sold Saturday morning from 9 to 12, at the residence of Mrs. Elsie Bassett, Parker street.
TO LET—Square Piano at $9. per quarter.
Apply to Box 285, Newton Centre. 3 11
TO LET—Furnished, two pleasant rooms to gentleman and wife and one single gentleman, or two gentlemen without board; five minute walk from stat. n. Address Box 357, Newtonville. 3 31
FOUND—A pocketbook. Address P. O. Box,
173, Newton Centre. 3 11
SITUATION WANTED—A middle aged American widow desires a position as housekeeper in elderly gentl man's home. No objection to children. Address Whitmore, Box 281,
Newtonville.
ABUNDABLE—Board can be obtained for two young men in a good location near station. Terms moderate. Address H. Abund-dale.
THE GENTLEMAN—Who took the scarf pin from the Eliot Choir room last Saturday evening, is requested to return same to the owner without further delay.
TO LET—In West Newton, small tenements.
For sale, a cellar with lot of land. Inquire of
A. B. Potter, Walnut St., West Newton. 2 11
FOR SALE—A fine maple shell snare drum, in excellent condition, cheap for cash. Address F. Phillips, Newtonville. 3 11
ANY PERSON—Desiring of selling one-half of "Players" tickets for coming season may claim same by addressing "B" Box 463, West
Newton. 3 11
TO LET—At Newtonville, apartment house of
C. H. Abbott, favorably located and especially adapted for warrent and comfort in winter.
Free from vermin and complete modern conveniences. Inquire of owner at Newtonville or 5
Tremont St., Boston. 3 11
WANTED—Once a first-class plumber.
Apply to Chas. Kelsor, Statio. Street,
Newton Centre. 2 11
BOARDERS WANTED—Pleasant rooms
with board at 10 Brook Street. Four gentlemen can be accommodated. Apply to Mrs.
Crozier, 10 Brook St., Newton. 2 11
FOR SALE—Or to let in Abundale near river, new house containing 12 rooms, with bath and a small Protestant school.
Rent $20. Inquire of A. B. Potter, Walnut St.,
West Newton. 2 11
TO RENT—Furnished house of 12 rooms, south side of the track, three minutes walk from the Newton station, with modern improvements. Rent moderate. Address H. M. Graphic
Office. 1 11
WANTED—Capable housework girl with reference. Wages $4. to $4.50. Apply to Mrs. C. A. Cunningham, cor. Walnut and Apple
Sts., Newtonville. 1 11
TO LET—The new block corner of Pearl and Thornton Streets, two stories with a 11 modern conveniences; corner store has three large show windows, and would make very desirable store for druggist. Also nice tenement in same block. Address J. J. D., 35 Cabot Street,
Newton. 2 11
WANTED—Protestant boys wishing to join
a boys orchestra. Apply in person or by letter to Mr. Shipton, 121 Boyd Street, or to
A. Handley, 77 Morse Street, Newton. 1 11
WANTED—By the Associated Charities, as gift, loan or at a very low price, a small
Said. Address Mrs. M. R. Martin, Newtonville,
Mass. Office hours of Secretary of the N. A. C.,
Monday 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. 9 to 10 every week-day.
Fridays and Saturdays 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. 1 11
FOR RENT—$23. a month, 5 minutes from Newton depot, house of 9 rooms, bath and furnace, also at $21 a month, 8 rooms and furnace. Both houses in good order and can be had this month. Apply to Edw. F. Barnes, 27
State Street, Boston.
FOR SALE—At a great bargain, a single harness, top buggy, and two seated open beach wagon. The harness is new and the carriages in good condition. Apply at Graphic Office.
TO LET—At Newtonville on Walnut Street,
and Claflin Place fronted by Park, a fine
apartment house with all modern conveniences.
Address Curtis Abbott, 5 Tremont St., Boston or 23 Bowers St.
FOR SALE—The locksmith and general jobbing business now carried on by John Reulair at Newton Centre. A good opportunity for an industrious man to make money. An increasing business in a growing town. Apply to John Reulair, Newton Centre, or to H. R. Richards,
12 Pearl street, Boston. 5 11
WANTED—Intelligent boy, 15 to 20 years of
age, to learn the retail boot and shoe business. Good wages and room and board. Address or call on C. C. Clapp, shoe dealer, Associates block, Newtonville.
TO LET—One-half double house, 3 minutes
from depot, 10 rooms and bath, furnace,
etc. Good garden. Apply to J. B. Turner, Newtonville, Mass. 4 11
TO LET—A house on Newtonville Avenue,
Newton, containing seven rooms. Apply at 114 Newtonville Ave., Newton. 26 11
FURNISHED HOUSES—To rent for the winter. Address Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre.
TO LET—Abundale, House 9 rooms, bath,
furnace, etc. 6 minutes from the R. R.
Station. Apply to C. A. Miner, City Hall, West
Newton. 35 11
PERNOLLA'S LAUNDRY AND INFEL-
GENCE OFFICE. I have in my laundry
a mangle, arrived from England. All plain clothes without buttons can be mangled as nicely
as if hot irons were used. Tablecloths and napkins look as though they were new. Mangles,
15 cents per dozen. I have in the Intelligence
Office a girl who gets up and serves dinner,
church and supper parties. Ladies who wish
such help will please call at Pernolla's Office,
Adams street, Newton.

HATCH'S
Perfected Derby
In Autumn Weights and Colors.
We have received these notable hats in twenty differing heights, of five shapes, for Fall and Winter wear. They include the standard styles of the leading makers, and are the finest line of Derby Hats ever offered to the American public. We confidently recommend them as being unequalled for wear, style, and shape. The regular price for such a hat would be $4.50, some dealers cut to $3.50, but we only sell them in all sizes and shapes, at the uniform price of $3.00.
Our stock is now complete and offers a large range of Styles, Shapes, and Colors, so that the most fastidious buyer can be completely satisfied in every respect.
In Gloves and Umbrellas we easily lead any out-of-town store as regards style, price, and quality, and request personal examination of our stock by discriminating buyers.
HATCH'S HAT HOUSE,
METHODIST BUILDING,
5 Moody Street, Waltham.
BOSTON STORE, 311 WASHINGTON STREET.

Real Estate.
Mortgages.
Insurance.
Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Abundale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES
in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES
OFFICES
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE!
A FULL LINE OF
Dry Goods and Trimmings,
CAN BE OBTAINED AT
FRANK MAYNARD'S
Formerly of CLARK, MAYNARD & CO.,
"MAYNARD BUILDING" Main St., Waltham.
Waltham and Newton Electric Cars pass the door.

Now is the time for Housekeepers to be getting ready for the Winter Social Duties. The more connected rooms make it the easier to entertain.
Take down the ugly wooden door and use pretty inexpensive
PORTIERES
of which we have as complete a stock as can be found.
WARREN F. EMERSON,
698 Main Street, Waltham.
ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

DRESSMAKING
By the Day. Terms, $2.00
APPLY TO
MISS E. L. SHAW,
23 PEARL STREET, NEWTON.
1 11

DRESSMAKING
BY THE DAY
MISS FRANCES L. WHITE,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. 313

City of Newton.
Notice is hereby given of a public hearing before the Board of Mayor and Aldermen at City Hall, Wednesday, October 20th, 1892, at 7.30 o'clock p. m., upon the petition of Samuel L.
Powers Esq., for a hearing at which a Committee of citizens propose to present resolutions relative to the removal of the tracks of the Boston and Albany Railroad to another location and the acquisition of the present roadbed for a boulevard and park system in connection with Washington Street, and upon the remonstrance of E. W. Redpath et al against such removal.
By order of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.
ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Clerk.
October 21st, 1892. 3 11

Mechanics
BE JUST AND FEAR NOT
BOSTON
OPEN DAILY
JAN 9 AM 10 PM
25
ADMISSION 25 CENTS
ELECTRICAL DISPLAYS
ART DOMESTIC SCIENCE

BRACKETT'S MARKET CO.
Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 16-3.
The Best Meats
Poultry
Game
Cream
Butter
Eggs
Fruits and Vegetables
AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

This Market intends to fill all orders as if the purchaser was present. Goods which are found
not to be as represented may be returned.
7 & 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
Washington near Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

W. J. HALLAHAN,
Harness Maker
—AND—
Carriage Trimmer
—ALSO DEALER IN—
BLANKETS, COMBS, BRUSHES, ETC.
Waltham Street, West Newton, Mass.
Jobbing in Both Branches a Specialty. 2 21

M. R. E. A. SMITH,
MILLINERY!
202 Moody St., opp. Walnut St.
WALTHAM, MASS.

AGENTS WANTED.
Salary and expenses paid. Address W. & T. SMITH
CO. Geneva Nursery, Geneva, N.Y. Established 1846
4 11

NEWTONVILLE.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Elliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Wash. St., Newton. —Capt. Doane departed this week for California.

—Miss Eva Grows is visiting at Officer Soule's on Walker street.

—Mrs. Wadleigh and daughters have returned from North Falmouth.

—Misses Jennie and Sue Preston have returned from North Falmouth.

—Y. P. S. C. E. meeting Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock, Universalist church.

—Mr. Walter Chalmers has returned from his sketching trip to Cape Cod.

—Mr. F. T. Cutter has taken a furnished house on the south side for the winter.

—Oriental Oleate still retains its great popularity as a specific for chapped hands.

—Rev. Henry G. Spaulding will deliver his new illustrated lecture in City Hall, Oct. 21st.

—The Cleveland and Russell Club has headquarters in Claffin's block, adjoining Mr. Bradshaw's.

—Messrs. Higgins & Nickerson have broken ground for another house on Lowell near Foster street.

—A meeting of the Lend a Hand was held on Thursday afternoon in the Universalist church parlors.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Dr. Henry Hunt, Dr. Hunt, Charles Kinsland and John McDonald.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—Miss Martin, formerly of the Newton Centre postoffice, succeeds Mr. Benyon as assistant under Postmaster J. B. Turner.

—Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W., initiated four candidates Monday evening. After the lodge session an entertainment was enjoyed.

—Ten "Mary Washington" roses and buds were plucked on Oct. 20, from the flower garden of Mr. A. C. Juddins, Central avenue.

—The G. L. U. held its first regular meeting Tuesday evening in the Universalist church parlors, and a pleasant evening with Whittier was enjoyed.

—It was a happy thought to hold the Congregational Fair in the hospitable old mansion now abandoned by the Newton Club, and the attractions are to be many and novel.

—Miss Lella Page was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Mary F. Chase to Dr. Chas. W. Jackson, at Roxbury, Tuesday evening, wearing a dress of white crepe de chine, trimmed with yellow ribbons.

—The anniversary of the Methodist Y. P. S. C. E. was held Tuesday evening in the Methodist church parlors and enjoyed by all present, delegates being in attendance from all the neighboring societies.

—The ladies of the Central Congregational church will hold a grand fall old clubhouse the first week in November. Many interesting and attractive features are promised, details of which will be given later.

—Eugene Bartlett and Miss Lucy Ross were appointed delegates from the Universalist Y. P. S. C. E. to attend the anniversary of the Methodist Y. P. S. C. E. held Tuesday evening in the chapel parlors.

—A fair will be held at Miss Williston's home, Oct. 28th and 29th. There will be the usual fancy articles and refreshments, and friends are invited, not only to attend, but to provide whatever their generosity may dictate.

—The delightful ride to Echo Bridge calls pilgrims from far and near. On Wednesday a party of Waltham, Concord and Springfield ladies enjoyed it cordially and reported Echo as doing herself full credit on the occasion.

—The Lend a Hand gives an oyster supper and entertainment on Thursday evening, Oct. 27th, in the Universalist church parlors. Supper will be served and an entertainment provided, consisting of tableaux, music and illustrated poems.

—Ex-Collector W. A. Simmons and family are spending their fifth winter at the Westminster Hotel, New York city. Mrs. Simmons was a Newtonville lady. W. A. Simmons, Jr., formerly a Newtonville school boy, is now a student at the Columbia Institute, New York.

—During the conference of the Associated Churches of New England, held in Lynn, Oct. 25 and 26, the rooms of the Newton organization will be closed. The convention is to be a big affair. Dr. Peabody of Harvard will be among the speakers and his topic will be "How a German City takes Care of its Poor."

—Mrs. B. S. Grant was a guest at the Press Club's reception to Mrs. Burnett and also met Mrs. Cora Stuart Wheeler and many other friends at that delightful "high tea." This week the club had a paper by Mrs. Croly (Jennie June) on "Woman's Clubs" and one by Mrs. Waldron on "The Universality of Music as a Means of Entertainment."

—The Autumnal Concert of the Universalist Sunday school will be held next Sunday evening, Oct. 23rd, at 6 o'clock. An extremely interesting program has been arranged for the concert, consisting of music and recitations by the children. Miss Maud Davis is chairman of the music committee, Mr. Nat. Buxton of the literary committee, and the young ladies of Mr. Oils Hall's class will have charge of the decorations.

—On Tuesday afternoon the Guild held a Columbus Memorial in the Methodist vestry which was in gala dress for the occasion. Appropriate music was rendered with fine spirit by Miss Cora Davis, Miss Josephine Martin and Miss Mary. The triumphs and disappointments of Columbus were portrayed by Mrs. Mary Martin, who closed with Joaquin Miller's grand poem, "Sail On!" an article was read on "Isabella the Woman," to whom we owe 400 years of American civilization and the crowning pleasure of the hour was the recitation by Mrs. Dr. Hunt of the "Ode to Columbus" by Miss Edna Dean Proctor.

—A union "Columbian" meeting of the churches was held Sunday evening at the Congregational church and was attended by a very large audience. Music was furnished by choir and interesting remarks were made by Prof. Taylor on Columbus. "The Man," Mr. Wilson, of the Youth's Companion office, on the "Times of Columbus." Rev. Mr. Jackson, "Providence leading to the Discovery of America," Miss A. M. Beecher, "Effect of the Discovery of America on the Status of Women." Rev. Ira Priest, "Effect on State Government." Rev. Mr. Dutton, "Effect on church." The meeting closed with the singing of "America" by the Congregation.

—The Pilgrim Christian Endeavor Society of the M. E. church celebrated its first anniversary Tuesday evening. The program consisted of a piano solo by Miss A. L. Weeks, vocal selections by Mrs. Chas. A. Soden and Mr. William Lunt, earnest addresses by the president of the society, Mr. James Page, Rev. G. S. Butters, a former pastor, and Rev. Samuel Jackson. A paper entitled "Convention Echoes," was read by Miss Alice M. Nelson, delegate of the New York convention. The vestry had been transformed by the social committee into a very pretty and attractive place, and at the close of the formal exercises the guests of the society were invited to participate in a "Butterfly Tea."

—The friends of Mr. Henry Breck will be pained to learn of the severe accident he met with yesterday morning. His horse ran away and he was thrown from a hay wagon. He was dragged some distance and the wheels passed over his head. He was found lying on his face bleeding profusely, partially unconscious. Dr. Carroll happened on the spot and with the assistance of passers by carried him to his home, where he was attended by Drs. Carroll and Cutler. His injuries consist of a cut and bruise on the left temple, two large wounds over the left eye, a broken nose and numerous bruises. Two-thirds of the left ear was ground off and the right ear was almost severed from the head.

—The Newtonville Republican Club has completed arrangements for a torch bearers' parade on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26. Among the organizations already assigned a place in line are Newtonville, Newton, Newton Centre, Auburndale and Newton Lower Falls Harrison and Reid battalions, the Waltham Republican battalion, the Belmont cavalry, the Nonantum artillery and the Nonantum Bicycle battalion. The torch-bearers will be headed by a mounted staff of 30 men and the Waltham band. The procession will be formed in Newtonville square, and the line will move at 8 o'clock through Walnut street, Highland avenue, Murray, Oils, Walnut, Washington, Lowell and Watertown streets, to Nonantum, where a Republican campaign flag will be raised amid the strains of patriotic music and a display of fireworks. It is expected that many of the residences along the route of the procession will be illuminated.

WEST NEWTON

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Elliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Wash. St., Newton.

—Mrs. C. B. Richardson and family have removed to Wellesley.

—The annual fellowship meeting this (Friday) evening at 7. The social hour at 5.

—Miss Ida Forte started yesterday for Montreal, Canada, where she is to attend school.

—Mrs. C. Willard Carter of Henshaw street is expected home from Nova Scotia Saturday.

—Rev. G. G. Phipps of Newton Highlands exchanged pulpits with Rev. Dr. Patrick last Sunday.

—Mr. George A. Field and family will spend the winter months at their Boston residence.

—Mr. George F. Hewitt of Boston has leased Mr. G. A. Field's house on Waltham street for the winter.

—The annual fellowship meeting of the Congregational Society will be held in the chapel this (Friday) evening.

—Mr. I. S. Gates' house, corner of Sterling place and Temple street, has been rented to Mr. G. S. Sprague of Boston.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—Caroline Healy Dall of Washington, D. C., the authoress, has been the guest this week of Mr. N. T. Allen, Cherry street.

—The Garden City Cadets of Auburndale and the Newton Centre Cadets will parade in West Newton, Thursday evening, Oct. 27.

—Miss Virginia Dox will speak in the Congregational church Sunday evening, Oct. 30, on the work of the "New West Commission among the Mormons."

—Miss Farmer, teacher and demonstrator at the Don. Codrington School, delivered a lecture in Odd Fellow's Hall yesterday afternoon. Her subject was Desserts.

—Newton Lodge, I. O. O. F., conferred the third degree last night. There was a large attendance of visiting Odd Fellows, including a delegation from Jamaica Plain.

—A service of praise will be held in the Congregational church next Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Selections will be given appropriate to the Columbus commemoration.

—Miss Williston will hold a fair at the Williston Home next week, Friday and Saturday from 3 to 9 p. m., for the sale of fancy articles and refreshments. All friends of the Home are invited to attend.

—A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Knights of Honor Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 25th, at 8 o'clock. Interesting reports are expected from delegates who will attend the State convention held this week in Boston.

—Rev. Henry G. Spaulding will deliver his new and beautifully illustrated lecture on "Our Italy" in City Hall, West Newton, Monday evening, Oct. 31, at 7.45. Tickets 50 cents with reserved seats at Ingraham's. Seats open Wednesday, October 26th.

—Attention is called to the advertisement elsewhere of a course of lectures by Prof. Lyon of Cambridge, upon "The Bible in the light of recent discoveries in Nineveh and Babylon." All those interested in Biblical study will not fail of improving this rare opportunity.

—The many friends of Miss Priscilla White, who have enjoyed her singing on many occasions, will be gratified to learn that she is fast taking rank among our first artists. She will appear in two Symphony concerts this winter, also accompany Mr. Nikisch in some of his musical tours through the country.

—The first of the series of winter sociables in the Unitarian church will take place Friday evening of this week. A social hour and supper will precede an address by Mr. Abbott in commemoration of the hero of the day. There will be singing of patriotic songs by the audience, interspersed with solos by Misses Coffin and Chase.

—There are letters in the post-office for Kate Barry, John Doherty, Henry Erving, John Green, Oswald Herring, Louisa Hoyt, Anna Lind, Thomas Lane, Della McKinney, Mary J. McDonald, E. A. Moore, Alfred Matthias, Hugh McWilliam, Annie Nickerson, Frank Osborne, Lizzie Pennell, Thomas Ryan, W. F. Simpson, J. E. Walsh, Miss E. Ward, Mrs. G. B. Wiswall.

—The Veteran Firemen's Association with many regrets were forced to decline the invitation to participate in the Columbus day parade because its arrangements for a contest with the Waltham Association had practically matured before the Newton parade was mentioned. Had the projection of the parade been a few days earlier the veterans would surely have been with them, as they much desired.

—The funeral of Mrs. M. C. Irwin took place from the residence of her grandson, Mr. C. I. Travell, Chestnut street, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D., officiated and appropriate selections were rendered by the L. O. O. F. quartet, including "Gathering Home," "Rock of Ages" and "Lead Kindly Light." The interment was made in the Newton cemetery. Mrs. Irwin was the widow of James Irwin of Pittsburg, Pa., and a lady of great refinement and culture, who was beloved by all who knew her.

—The Democratic representative delegates met in convention in the City Hall, Tuesday evening for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature. Mr. H. E. Bothfield presided. Mr. Samuel Shaw was nominated on the first ballot and was declared the unanimous choice of the convention. Mr. Shaw is a gentleman who has most worthily represented the city. He is treasurer of the Murdock Parlor Grate Co. of Boston and has been a resident of Newton for 10 years. He is well known in Masonic and Odd Fellow's circles, and is universally popular. No citizen, his friends say, need hesitate to cast his vote for him.

—Mrs. Moran of the Nonantum district was arrested by Officer Blue Tuesday evening, and was arraigned the following morning in the police court for drunkenness. Judge Kennedy gave the woman some good advice, and imposed a three month sentence in the house of correction.

—As she stepped down from the witness stand she drew from her bonnet a long pin, and, striking toward the bench where Officer Blue was seated, made a vicious stab at him. The officer threw up his arm and warded off the blow, whereupon the now thoroughly angry woman struck out with her right hand, and, hitting the officer under the ear. A struggle then ensued, and the woman was overpowered and carried screaming and kicking to the padded cell, where she was kept in temporary confinement until her removal to East Cambridge.

—The first winter meeting of the Congregational Club for the season of 1892-3 was held in the Second church, Monday evening. The preliminary exercises consisted of the customary greetings and supper, and the business session was followed by discussion of the evening's topic, "The Growing Church." The following papers were read, presenting various aspects of the subject: Rev. Calvin Cutler, "Have the Conditions of Modern Life Changed the Problems for the Christian?" Rev. Henry G. Spaulding, D. D., "Where and Why has the Congregational Church Failed to Secure and Hold Her Former Pre-eminence?" Rev. John M. Dutton, "The Position of the Church in the Presence of Free Thought and Individual Freedom." Mr. Thomas Weston, "The Relation of Administration and Constitution to Methods of Church Work."

Rev. Theodore J. Holmes, "What New Methods and Agencies are Needed by the Church Today?" Rev. George G. Phipps, "The Part of the Newton Congregational Churches in the Christian Workers' Convention."

—The Unity Dramatic Club presented the curtain raiser "A Picked-up Dinner" and the two-act comedy "Jack's Chum," Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the Unitarian church parlors. The pieces were both finely acted, and the plots were cleverly enacted. Mr. C. W. Cole and Miss Emma Nickerson were excellent in the curtain raiser in which Miss Alice Thaxter played did some admirable comedy work. The parts in "Jack's Chum" were distributed as follows: Squire Morton, Mr. Henry W. Langley; Jack Morton, Mr. H. Stewart; Ned Winslow, Mr. Stephen L. Snell; Johnnie, Mr. Harry L. Burrage; Belle Morton, Miss Josephine Howard; Marion Kimball, Miss Ethel A. Hornick; Miss Sarah Morton, Miss Mattie E. Lang; Martha, Miss Emma Newhall. Harry Burrage was very clever as Johnnie, and Mr. Langley made an excellent part of Squire Morton. Miss Hornick gave an intelligent rendering of her lines and had fine stage presence. Between the acts, instrumental selections were rendered by the Hayden sextette.

AUBURDALE.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Elliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Thomas Hart is quite ill with malaria.

—Mr. A. A. Gay is quite ill, and confined to the house.

—Thos. Townsend has left the employ of Mr. Vickers.

—Dr. Porter is making improvements about his premises.

—Rev. Mr. Barle of Allston will preach at the Congregational church on Sunday.

—Miss Dudley has returned from Europe, and will spend the winter in Cambridge.

—Mr. F. H. Manning moves to Boston next week. He will reside on Beacon St.

—Rev. Henry G. Spaulding will deliver his new illustrated lecture in City Hall, Oct. 31.

—Mrs. and Miss Judd of Honolulu, will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farley.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bragdon of Lasell have gone to Chicago to attend the dedication of the Exhibition.

—The engagement is announced of Mr. Eugene H. Mather of Auburndale to Miss Blanche S. Butler of Lynn.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clement H. Betts have moved today into the new residence of Mrs. Jennings, Hancock street.

—John Bates, who left town quite suddenly some months ago, has been heard from. He was in Philadelphia.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—Lasell Seminary has been so fortunate as to secure John Fiske for the address. Sale of its pupils on Columbus Day, Oct. 21st.

—Miss Louise Woodward of St. Louis, Mo., daughter of Prof. C. M. Woodward of Washington University, is visiting Miss Laura Coffin.

—Mr. Dean Walker will give a stereopticon lecture on Tuesday evening next at the Congregational church in behalf of the Chapel fund.

—W. M. Scribner, the contractor, has completed his work upon the new Catholic church at Natick. The work has consumed nearly a year.

—114 young ladies from Lasell Seminary have chosen the Methodist church as their home this year. This is even a larger number than a year ago.

—The Latimer Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a social in the Centenary M. E. church next Tuesday evening. A very interesting program has been prepared.

—There will be a Union Praise and Prayer meeting of the Congregational and Methodist churches next Sunday evening in the Methodist church at 7.30 o'clock.

—Mr. Henry Washburn, from Colorado, who owns Washburn block and other property in this place, as well as elsewhere in its vicinity, is visiting friends in the East.

—The Auburndale Harrison and Reid battalion went to Lower Falls Wednesday evening with their drum corps and participated in two flag raisings. The boys report an excellent time.

—Mr. John B. Stewart died quite suddenly on Monday from heart trouble. He had been practically paralyzed for some time. He was a man prominent in many enterprises, a member of the Masonic and several other secret and local societies. He was in the flour business on Commercial street, Boston, and had been a resident of Auburndale some 25 or 30 years.

—Rev. Mr. Bishop has received an invitation to become pastor next spring of one of the largest and most influential Methodist churches in the suburbs of Boston. It numbers among its membership a number of gentlemen prominent in professional and mercantile life. Mr. Bishop is considering the matter, which has come as a surprise. He is very happy in his present field and desires no change.

—Rev. Mr. Bishop's young men's Bible class has recently re-organized for the season as follows—Pres. Walter Dillingham, vice Pres. James Jordan, Treas. Edw. Waite, Sec. A. H. Waite. A social and an Outlook committee were also chosen. The class has started off well. On a recent Sunday Mr. S. G. Tenney, son of the late Prof. S. G. Tenney of Williams College gave a class a most interesting account of his ascent of Mt. Sinai and the convent there. Young men not connected with other Sunday Schools are welcome to membership.

Lasell Notes.

The Friday lecture had for its theme the most interesting topic, Pagan Rome. The temples, palaces, baths, amphitheatres and triumphal arches of those wonderful old Romans were vividly and expertly explained; their special contribution to architecture, the round arch, commented on, and several fine views of the Forum, both as restored and as now seen, were shown. The arch of Titus with its finely executed reliefs was especially dwelt upon, the views of the interior being particularly clear and good. A view of some celebrated statuary and a sip from a mystic fountain rounded the evening's enjoyment.

Miner Robinson, electrician, has connected Lasell Seminary with its two annexes and stable by three telephones, which practically bring the four places in touch with the office of the Seminary.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 12th, the Harvard Triple Quartet, assisted by Mr. Mart Dow, the well known reader, gave a concert at Lasell, under the auspices of the senior class of '93.

On Friday afternoon twenty-seven of the students enjoyed the pleasure of a drive through Newton to Waban Hill, thence by way of Echo Bridge and Newton Lower Falls to Auburndale again. The exquisite coloring of the fall foliage lent additional charm to the trip.

A Taste of the Force Bill.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—It seems that, contrary to all former procedure at elections in this city, we are to have United States Deputy Marshalls at the polls on November 8th, in order "that peace may be kept, order preserved laws enforced and frauds prevented."

We had supposed the police force of this city were without question, able to maintain law and order within the municipality. But it appears that such is not the opinion of certain residents of this city. These men have requested the United States Marshall to appoint special deputies (two for each precinct) who shall man the polls on election day and serve as guardians of the law.

Acting on this request the United States Marshall is now about to appoint his deputies in this city. He says that "vigilant and discreet men are needed; conscientious workers, impressed with the importance of an honest franchise, and no others."

Are not these the qualifications that our police force possess? And if so, why is it necessary for the government of the United States to step in and interfere in the election of a peaceable and well ordered community such as we know the city of Newton to be? CITIZENS.

The Piano of acknowledged merit

Trustworthiness
Reliability
Sweetness
Volume of tone
The Piano which pleases
Entertains
Satisfies
Gives more music
To the square inch
Keeps sweeter
Lives longer
Needs little care
Other than plenty of usage
The all-round
Satisfactory Piano
The celebrated

Briggs Piano
We should be pleased to
Correspond with you.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Mfrs.
5 & 7 Appleton St., Boston.

Drawing &amp; Painting

Lasell Seminary.

MR. HENRY O. RYDER, who has recently returned from abroad after six years' study with the best French Masters, such as Boulanger and Lefebvre, has taken the charge of the studio at Lasell Seminary.

Mr. Ryder has neglected no branch of art, and has been especially successful in figure, genre and landscape. His paintings have received favorable notice at the most important exhibition of modern art, the Paris Salon, in the years '89, '90 and '91, as well as at Berlin and other European cities. Also in America, as at Chicago and Boston. Mr. Ryder is a member and exhibitor of the Boston Art Club.

Mr. Ryder has also had exceptional opportunities of personal acquaintance with leading French artists, and of learning their methods.

With these qualifications are combined some experience in teaching and much aptitude for that work. Lasell feels assured that her pupils in the art department are furnished with special advantages for thorough training. The object is to give students familiarity with fundamental principles, to train the hand and eye; in short to give some mastery of drawing before confining them with the difficulties of color.

The studio is large, admirably arranged and lighted, and furnished with every requisite in implements and models for the learner. The walls are hung with paintings that educate and refine the taste.

Terms $100. for School Year, eight hours each week.

Apply to C. C. BRAGDON, Principal.

44

HIGHLAND VILLAS.

TO LET

Nos. 25, 27 & 29 Highland Ave.

Every modern convenience, speaking tubes, etc. finished in first-class manner, hot and cold water, gas lighted by electricity, 12 rooms and Bath in each house, cellars concreted.

APPLY TO

JOSEPH SWALLOW,

416 Newtonville Avenue, Newtonville.

BROADWAY NATIONAL BANK

Cor. Milk and Arch Streets,
BOSTON.

Open for Business from 9.00 A. M. to 3.00 P. M.
Location Especially Desirable.

DISCOUNTS DAILY.

Issues Travellers' Checks.

Maintains a system and department for the accommodation of small as well as large depositors.

ROSWELL C. DOWNER, President.
FRANK O. SQUIRE, Vice President.

JAMES B. KELLOCK, Cashier.
FREDERICK H. CURTIS, Asst Cashier

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton.
Private Residences fitted for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Electric Light and Power Installations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates Furnished.

Boston 3311 West Newton, 234-2.

BARGAINS.

BRASS AND IRON BEDSTEADS

Larger variety than found elsewhere in N. E.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
70 WASHINGTON ST.
BOSTON.

H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

NEWTONVILLE

Hack Boarding &amp; Livery Stables.

BERLINS, LANDAUS, COUPES, with CAREFUL DRIVERS.

We have constantly on hand Fine Family Horses for Sale.

SPECIAL CARE TO BOARDERS.

Your business is solicited.

LUNT & COLBURN, Proprietors.

ROBERT HILL, Foreman. Office Telephone, 201-2. Stable Telephone 201-3

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street,

SOUTH SIDE,

WALTHAM,

Dealer in

Fine Millinery Goods.

We are daily receiving New Goods in every department, direct from New York and Boston Importers. Our assortment of which we sell at very low prices, quality considered. We employ none but experienced saleslady makers and trimmers, and we guarantee our work to give satisfaction. We especially invite the ladies of the Newtons to visit our store and select their millinery.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets

133 MOODY STREET,

Lard as a Life-Saver

The school boy's composition asserted that pins had saved the lives of many people by their not having swallowed them; so lard has saved the lives of thousands by their having avoided food of which it forms a part. Hog's lard is responsible for much indigestion and dyspepsia, as any physician will testify, hence has been introduced to take the place of lard. There is no secret as to its composition. It consists of highly refined Cotton Seed Oil, and Beef Suet. Clean, delicate, healthy and economical. Lard has had its day, and a greasy day it was. When next about to use lard,—Don't, but try Cottolene. At leading grocers. N. K. FAIRBANK & CO. Sole Manufacturers, CHICAGO, and 5 Central Wharf, Boston.

COTTOLENE

SULPHUR BITTERS

IT WILL drive the humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and blotches which mar your beauty are caused by IMPURE BLOOD. They can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier, Sulphur Bitters.

TRY A BOTTLE TO-DAY.

Why suffer with Boils? Why rave with that terrible Headache? Why lay and toss on that bed of pain with RHEUMATISM? Use Sulphur Bitters. They will cure you where all others fail. The dose is small—only a teaspoonful. TRY IT and you will be satisfied. The young, the aged and the tottering are soon made well by its use. Remember what you read here, it may save your life, it has SAVED HUNDREDS. If you are suffering from Kidney Disease, and wish to live to old age, use Sulphur Bitters. They never fail to cure. Get it of your Druggist.

DON'T WAIT. GET IT AT ONCE.

Sulphur Bitters will cure Liver Complaint. Don't be discouraged; IT WILL CURE YOU.

Send 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

TEETH.

$10 a SET. Guaranteed. Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates. DR. W. H. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park Square, up one flight. ROOM 7. IN REAR.

LADIES AND GENTS' BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feel trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. Full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots. Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand, at bottom prices. A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, &c. Sold Everywhere. 25 cents. Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

DO YOU COUGH? DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A sure cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. The at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by druggists every where. Large bottles, 50 cents and $1.00.

A FIGHT WITH CACTUS

A RISKY STORY OF A WESTERN MISADVENTURE AT NIGHT.

A ludicrous Adventure of a Party Hunting Indians in Southwestern Mexico. The Bravery of a Leader Brought Ridicule Upon Himself.

"Halt! What's that?" said our leader in a sharp whisper.

It was a clear moonlight night in the extreme southwest of Mexico.

I was visiting a friend who conducted a large ranch and hacienda there.

A local revolt had just been quelled in the neighborhood and a spirit of lawlessness still pervaded the atmosphere. Only the night before my friend had been fired upon and one of his storehouses robbed by a band of Indians some fifteen or twenty strong. Early in the morning four of us, under the leadership of our host, had set out upon the track of the robbers.

We were well mounted, and resting only a few hours at noon had followed hard after them till nearly midnight. If we met them in a fair field we could drive them into quarters like cows to a pen, but we had no mind to run into a trap in the dark with five against fifteen; hence caution.

"Halt! What's that?" our leader had whispered. We had come to the edge of a dense woods, and across an open space, upon the brow of a low sand hill, clearly outlined in the moonlight against the sky, we had discovered a dozen or more half naked fellows, with their arms extended in every direction, engaged in some sort of a weird, fantastic dance.

We could not see their legs, for the tops of the trees beyond the hill rose waist high, making a black background, but their arms moved slowly to and fro and we could easily imagine their legs keeping company.

"Those are the thieves!" our host muttered. "I know them, even at night. You fellows just come to the edge of the wood, where they can see you without knowing how many there are of you, and I'll have them down here in no time."

He rode out alone to the foot of the hill.

It required no little courage, and we watched him with proportionate admiration. "Fire!"

The figures did not cease their dance or notice him. Suddenly, with his rifle at his shoulder, he called to them: "I have you there! If one of you moves I'll shoot him dead!"

The wind had been blowing through the trees, so that we could not have heard their response, but fortunately at that moment it ceased, and in the deep silence which settled down upon the forest in such a momentary lull we waited for the result.

Every Indian suddenly ceased his dancing and stood like a statue outlined against the sky.

"Come down here now," shouted our host. "Come quietly, too, for the first man who makes any trouble drops dead."

We could hear a sound, as of a hurried consultation of some sort, going on upon the hill for a moment, but the wind sprang up again before we could distinguish a single voice, and to our utter astonishment the fellows actually began their solemn dance again.

"Come down or I'll shoot!" roared our host, but they kept on dancing and he did shoot.

Then there was commotion enough. A wild cry, followed by a cloud of dust, rose from the brow of the hill.

"Fire!" yelled our host, and we responded with a well aimed volley, while he whipped out his heavy revolver and gave them another peppering.

There was a perfect bedlam of screams from the hill, and the dust hid everything from view. They were either coming down upon us in an unexpected horde or running for their lives.

For us it was either fly or follow. We waited irresolutely for the word of our leader, when the dust settled, and there stood the Indians, silently going on with their fantastic dance as though we were a hundred miles away.

With a fierce ejaculation our host spurred to his horse and dashed up the hill. We followed, without command, to find him upon the summit, sitting on the ground beneath a line of gaunt and ghostlike prickly pears—the ungainly cactus of Mexico.

They extended along the brow of the hill, their naked, skeleton branches spreading out in every unaccountable way and swaying solemnly in the breeze.

Among the roots a multitude of burrows in the dry dust showed where the sandbirds had been lying, half buried, and quietly sleeping; and it was their noisy yelp we heard when they were frightened away by our host's duel with the cactus.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Russian Discipline.

During the review of the army recruits in Vilna the general in command, turning to one of the new soldiers, asked him, "What is military discipline?"

"It is that a soldier has got to do just what he's told by his superior officer, only nothing against the czar," was the answer.

"All right, then; you take your cap, bid your comrades good by and go and drown yourself in that lake there. Look sharp!"

Tears glistened in the soldier's eyes; he gazed earnestly and prayerfully at his commander, turned suddenly about and rushed off to the lake. He was on the very brink before he was overtaken and stopped by the sergeant sent to prevent the involuntary suicide.—Exchange.

When Death Is Welcome.

"There was great pathos," says a missionary in Honolulu, "in a story I heard from a friend who had just returned from a visit to Molokai. He suddenly heard the joyous strains of a band strike up in the leper settlement. 'What is it for?' he asked. The answer was, 'Two lepers have just died in the hospital.'"

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Adams, C. F. Three Episodes in Massachusetts History. 2 vols. The first episode deals with the settlement of Mass. Bay, showing the struggle which took place between the royal party and the Puritans; the second, with the early religious disputes in Mass., known as the Antinomian controversy; and the third describes the slow growth and gradual development of a Massachusetts town from 1640 to 1890. Barr, A. E. The Preacher's Daughter. 64,1237. Besant, W. London. 74,268.

An endeavor to present pictures of the London-instantaneous photographs, showing the streets, the buildings, and the citizens at work and at play. Prefaced by an introduction, and illustrated by architectural renderings, buildings, bridges, street scenes, works of art, etc. Doudney, S. Strangers Yet. 64,1209.

Hering, J. Recent Progress in Electric Railways. 101,627.

A summary of current periodical literature relating to electric railway construction, operation, systems, machinery, appliances, etc. Julien, A. Richard Wagner, his Life and Works, trans. from the French by F. P. Hall, with Intro. by B. J. Lang. 2 vols. 57,330.

Lummis, C. F. Some Strange Corners of Our Country; the Wonderland of the Southwestern States. 32,468.

Descriptions of the wonders of Arizona and the neighboring regions, which are not only ought to be known by Americans. Marshall, E. Eaglehurst Towers. 63,20.

Missing Friends; Adventures of a Danish Emigrant in Queensland, 1871-80. 34,392.

The hero of these adventures was born in Copenhagen, 1850, and in relating these experiences desires to give a true picture of Australia in its interior. Mitchell, S. W. Characteristics. 65,752.

Moeller, W. History of the Christian Church, A. D. 1-600, tr. fr. the German by A. Lutherford. 96,352.

The author wishes to exhibit this course of the historical movement as a whole in a continuous representation, and also to facilitate access to the sources. Something to Laugh at. 54,761.

Little rhymes and stories for the children with colored illustrations. Stockton, F. R. The Clocks of Ronda and other Stories. 66,709.

Stoddard, C. A. Spanish Cities; with Glimpses of Gibraltar and Tangier. 38,430.

The writer is the editor of the N. Y. Observer, author of "Across Russia," "People, customs, manners, traditions, history, commerce, and the political economy of modern Spain are discussed. Sumner, W. G. Robert Morris. (Makers of America.) 91,739.

A condensed history of a current narrative of the most essential information about Morris' life, which is contained in the author's "Financier and the Finances of the American Revolution." (36-103.) Taussig, F. W., ed. State Papers and Speeches on the Tariff, with Intro. by F. W. Taussig. 82,165.

Five papers by Hamilton, Gallatin, Walker, Clay and Webster which have been used with advantage in a course on the tariff history of the U. S. by the editor in Harvard Univ. Ward, H. D. The Captain of the Kitehawk. 61,821.

Wiggin, K. D. Children's Rights; a Book of Nursery Logic. 52,502.

Papers that were originally talks given before members of societies interested in the training of children. E. P. THURSTON, Librarian. Oct. 12, 1892.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

GLOBE THEATRE.—Mr. Digby Bell and his opera company made their first appearance in Boston at the Globe Theatre on Monday night in the successful comic opera, "Jupiter." Mr. Bell's initial bow as a star and he scored a great hit in the double character of King of Olympus and the Gobbler. The house was crowded with an enthusiastic audience that gave a hearty welcome to both stars and opera. Aside from Mr. Bell, individual hits were scored by Laura Joyce Bell, Louise Montague, Josephine Knapp, the Misses Hollins and J. Aldrich Libby and J. G. Belden. "Jupiter" is one of those light and tuneful operas that are written to please. Its libretto is quick its music is catchy and the scenic investigations of the finest. The costumes too is of the most gorgeous description. "Jupiter" will be given at the Globe during the entire engagement of Mr. Bell. The sale of seats so far has been very large and the prospects are that 3 weeks excellent business will be done. Matinees Wednesday and Saturdays at 2.

LYCEUM THEATRE.—Of all the plays before the public none retains a firmer hold than "The Captain of the Kitehawk" to Boston's new and handsome Lyceum Theatre on Washington street near Boylston street, next Monday afternoon under the able direction of Mr. Harry W. Ward, who appeared as "Marks" at the Hollis Street theatre three years ago. He brings a fine company, new scenery, a splendid troupe of colored singers, dancers and specialists. Also a trick donkey, Shetland pony, large bloodhounds and a positive novelty in the shape of large, live alligators that are to perform in full view of the audience during the "wood" scene. Matinees are given every day.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—The third and last week of Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Theatre Company at the Hollis Street Theatre begins on Monday with the production of a new play entitled "Squire Kate," by Robert Buchanan, the celebrated English poet and novelist. It is an entirely new piece and received its first production on any stage last winter at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, at the hands of the company which will play it next week. It is said to possess great intensity of dramatic power, intermingled with poetic, rustic simplicity. The story, much condensed, is as follows: The characters are all strong, and especially those played by Miss Georgia Cayvan and Mr. J. Lemoine, which call for stronger powers than these excellent players have hitherto drawn in Boston. "Squire Kate" will be given Monday, Tuesday and Friday night and Wednesday matinee. The "Charity Ball" will be seen Wednesday night only.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month.

THE BEST STOCK AND MARKET NEWS IN

THE BOSTON HERALD

—and—

THE SUNDAY HERALD.

of that week, and "The Wife" the first play ever presented here by the Lyceum Company, will be given Thursday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee. The company never plays anywhere in New England except Boston.

Marie Tempest and "The Fencing Master" follows the Lyceum Company, beginning a short engagement Oct. 31. COLUMBIA THEATRE.—On Monday night Charles Frohman's comedians produced for the first time on any stage Lescoc's comedy, "The Sportsman," and, like all of Mr. Frohman's efforts, met with instantaneous success. The play is cast to include Messrs. Joseph Holland, M. A. Kennedy, C. S. Abbe, George Drew Barrymore and Miss Tittell, and all are offered ample scope for their natural abilities. "The Sportsman" is announced until further notice. It will be followed by "Mr. Wilkinson's Widows," the present company presenting the original cast of that immensely popular play.

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE.—"Faust," an adaptation of Goethe's immortal poem, returns to the Bowdoin Square Theatre on Monday, when Lewis Morrison will once more be seen in his incomparable creation of Mephisto. The version given by Mr. Morrison is the one dramatized by Bayle Bernard of London. The scenery, all of which is carried by the company, is very expensive, the public square at Neuremburg, Marguerite's garden and the square of the fountains being not only historically correct, but most beautifully painted. However, the climax in scenic effect is reached in the fourth act, when the imps and goblins hold high carnival on Walpurgis night on the summit of the Brocken in the Hartz mountains. Mr. Morrison will have practically the same supporting company as seen in Boston during his remarkable engagement last spring. Following "Faust," comes that remarkable scenic production, "The Bottom of the Sea."

LIVING ON AIR.

The Remarkable Survival of Three Entombed Miners in Bohemia.

The teaching of experience as illustrated by several instances of prolonged abstinence, though it may afford some idea of human endurance in this particular under special conditions, has yet provided no certain criterion of the vital resistance possessed by the average man when suddenly deprived of every form of sustenance. The measure of this force may nevertheless be gauged with approximate correctness from the history of recurrent instances of prolonged and accidental privation. As an example, the following is remarkable even in this category:

It is the narrative of three Bohemian miners, who, after being entombed by a fall of sand in the pit where they were working, were finally rescued alive, though of course in an utterly prostrate condition, seventeen days later. During the period of their live burial air was pumped down to them by bore holes. On this they may be said to have lived, without food and without water. The total want of the latter is what makes their survival so remarkable. But for this essential the longer fasts of professional fasting men would have been quite impossible.

We can have no difficulty in understanding generally why this holds true if we bear in mind the fact that not only does water constitute by far the greater constituent of every tissue, but that without its due proportion the circulation and nutrition of the blood and that needful if costly chemical change upon which all tissues repair depends would be alike impossible.

In endeavoring to trace the rationale of a life persisting, as in the case of the buried miners, in spite of the absence of every natural condition, we must notice one or two significant points. In the first place, their condition was that of rest, their functional metabolism being proportionally less active, their waste of tissue diminished and their output of carbonic acid not so likely to overcharge the surrounding atmosphere. Further, we may take it for granted that a robust physique had no small share in the conservation of vital energy.

Much depends in such cases on the amount of nitrogenous matter stored up, for the most part in the muscular tissue, and available for destructive changes. We may safely assume that the amount of reserve nitrogen in the case of these men was not meager. It is mainly, no doubt, to this circumstance that we must attribute not only the fact of their existence, but the still more remarkable prospect of their convalescence and ultimate recovery.—London Lancet.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam stops the cough at once.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Irate guest.—Here, sir! I telegraphed you to save me the coolest room in the house, and you haven't done it. Polite clerk.—Well, sir, I have given the coolest room in the house to two hundred and fifty people already, and I thought you might not like to be crowded.—Elmira Gazette.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Just Married.

How loving they are; this is always a sure sign. After the first year sometimes it don't hold good. When Charles comes home to you grouchy and cross, snapping and snarling, unable to rid the state dinner, you have cooked, and feels as if there was a ton of pig iron in his stomach, he is troubled with dyspepsia, and Sulphur Bitters is the only medicine that will cure him.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month.

THE BEST STOCK AND MARKET NEWS IN

THE BOSTON HERALD

—and—

THE SUNDAY HERALD.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City, Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 1231 1/2 Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Water Bugs and Roaches EXTERMINATOR

CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR. No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO., 7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Housekeeper—"No, no, no; I don't want anything. This is the tenth time I have had to say this morning. Tramp peddler—"Don't you want ter hire me to stay here an' say it fer yer, ma'am?"—Bazar.

If you wish to receive a certain and speedy result, when using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, be careful in observing the rules of health, or the benefit may be retarded. A fair and persistent trial of this medicine never fails, when the directions are followed.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

Circus-man (hunting for a stray elephant): "Have you seen a strange animal around here?" Irishman: "Begorra! I know that: there was an injur-rubber bull around here pullin' carrots wid his tail."

"A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your Balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson, Portsmouth, N.H.

Fitchburg Railroad.

Reduced Rates of Fare.

For Round Trip Tickets on account of Summer.

VACATION EXCURSIONS.

Tickets on sale June 1 to Sept. 30, and good until Oct. 31, 1892.

SUMMER EXCURSION BOOK FREE.

On receipt of 2c. stamp for postage. Gives information in regard to routes, rates of fare and list of hotels and boarding houses. Can be obtained at 250 Washington St., Boston, or on application to J. R. WATSON, Gen. Pass. Agent.

30 ct.

Had the Desired Effect! II.

MANVILLE, R. I., March 8, 1891. I, the undersigned, suffered from epilepsy for 9 years, had no appetite and could do no work whatever; consulted a number of doctors, but all said there was no remedy for my disease. I then took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and am now in perfect health, and work all the time. Thank and thanks to your remedy. PHILIP MONGEON, 65 PROSPECT ST., NEWARK, N. J., March 9, 1891.

I got some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervousness and sleeplessness and it helped me; the first time I took it I had the best sleep I had had for several months. I also know friends of mine who used it and say it is the best nerve tonic they ever used. I write this that some sufferer may use your medicine and be helped by it. MRS. J. MURPHY.

FREE

A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1858 and is now prepared under his direction by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Varge Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Ripans Tabules: best liver tonic.

Why not put in a WALKER FURNACE?

Best in the world. We can prove it. Ask us what it costs.

Our 48-page book and all other information free. Send your address to WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO., 241 N. STREET, WASHINGTON.

HOWARD ICE CO., SUCCESSORS TO HOWARD BROS.

Orders can be left at

342 Centre Street, - Newton.

Office Hours: 7.45 to 11 A.M.; 3 to 5.45 P.M.

ABRAHAM L. HOWARD, Proprietor

OFFICE, 46 GALEN ST., WATERTOWN.

NEWTON COAL CO.

SUCCESSORS TO

HILLS, BULLEN & CO.,

DEALERS IN

COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty.

OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.

Branch Office, Tainter's

News Stand, Newtonville.

E. BRADSHAW. Agent for Newtonville

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM

One Cow's Milk supplied whe desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.</

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Eliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Pianos, Farley, 334 Wash. St., Newton. Dr. Hovey has recovered from his few days of illness.

—Fine shoes at Loomer's shoe store are attracting attention.

—Miss Susan Arnold of Braintree is visiting Mrs. Thorpe.

—There are but very few houses at Newton Centre to rent at present.

—Garrey & English are building a fine house on Ridge avenue, for Mr. Byers.

—Miss Lily P. Alden of Farmington, Me., is spending a few weeks in this village.

—Mr. F. R. Frost took two barge loads of the torchlight boys to Rosindale last evening.

—A notice of a furniture sale to-morrow morning will be found in the business notices.

—Mrs. Elisha Bassett has taken a flat for the winter at 311 Huntington avenue, Boston.

—Mr. John Beular, the locksmith, has removed to New Hampshire for a permanent home.

—The J. R. Leeson Drum Corps and Torchlight Co. will parade in Newton Centre 29th.

—Mr. S. G. Steeves is putting some very good work into a house on Centre street for Mr. S. Green.

—The Democrats are erecting a pole opposite Woodman's news rooms, to float a Cleveland flag.

—At the Oak Hill school district money for a flag was easily raised and quite a surplus left on hand.

—Mrs. W. Hinkle Smith, son and sister, Miss N. L. Harrison, are spending a few weeks in Newton Centre.

—Mrs. Samuel D. Garey has leased her house for three years and will make her home in New Hampshire.

—Mrs. Ida Blaisdell has moved into the house on Bowen street, formerly occupied by Mr. Geo. F. Richardson.

—Mr. Dwight Chester and Miss Minnie Chester left yesterday for Auburn, N. Y., where they will stay a few days.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—Hon. Wolcott Hamlen and Rev. John L. Malle will speak at a prohibition rally in Associates Hall next Thursday evening, Oct. 27.

—Mr. and Mrs. William C. Brewer have returned from their trip to the mountains and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. George Warren.

—It is apparent to all who have ears to hear that the new drum corps are doing an immense amount of work in the way of drilling.

—Mrs. Shaw has returned from Western Mass., where she has been spending the summer, to the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Hamlin.

—There has been a fine show of about 40 scholars for a few mornings on our common with evolutions and marching to the music of the drum.

—Mr. David Blaisdell witnessed the great procession in New York and the greatest naval display ever in the country, in New York harbor on Columbus Day.

—Newton Centre very much needs a gymnasium, and many are ready to contribute. The boys should have some place of the kind for exercises, particularly for winter.

—Bemis & Jewett are painting the Blaisdell house and stable, recently bought by Mr. Golding of Boston. Mr. Golding will soon become a resident of Newton Centre.

—Mr. Edward F. Hamlin of Pelham street, was one of Governor Russell's party, to attend the opening dedication exercises of the World's Fair in Chicago.

—Mr. Arthur Muldoon has put in the cellar of Mr. Stephen Green's new house on Centre street, very rapidly, and now Mr. Stevens is getting part of the frame up.

—The Rev. Mr. Barnes, who has recently returned from Palestine, is giving interesting incidents in the life of Christ at the Baptist church, Sunday evenings at 7 p. m. Seats free.

—Harvest Sunday will be observed at the Methodist church Sunday morning, where the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hughes, will preach the annual Harvest Lesson adapted to children as well as adults.

—The new juvenile drum corps have been in practice for a number of evenings near or in Mr. Peck's stable, and his horse has caught the military step and cannot now be driven out of a walk.

—Rev. Mr. Barrows' daughter, who was recently married, will live in New York City. Mr. Barrows and family will remove to the same city, he remaining here long enough to deposit a vote for Harrison.

—Two Newton Centre men made a bet on Monday, a horse against a cat, the man with the horse won the cat on Tuesday, and now as he claims the cat he is modestly asked to pay three pence board for pussy.

—Mrs. Hayes, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. William B. Merrill of Lake avenue, has returned to her home in Milwaukee, Mrs. Merrill accompanying her as far as Detroit, where she will make a short visit.

—Mr. J. C. Holden, station agent, was run over Wednesday by a runaway horse with a light lumber wagon. His head was cut a little and his back and hip injured. He is still confined to his room, but it is thought not seriously hurt.

—The Sunday evening services of the Congregational church are now held in the main church at 7 o'clock. The Pequotette quartet of Watertown have been engaged. J. M. Fraser, 1st tenor; W. H. Rice, 2nd tenor; F. H. Bustin, baritone; G. W. Ulmer, basso.

a brilliant assembly, Thursday last, when their daughter, Clara A. Kiser, was united in marriage with Chas. D. Kiser of this village. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. F. Fuller. Miss Maude Crane, cousin of the bride, and Miss Florence Kiser, acted as bridesmaids. Mr. Will Kiser, brother of the groom, as best man. After a wedding tour they will reside in their new house on Parker street. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Eliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Pianos tuned, Farley, Newton.

—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Eagles.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ward will return to the Highlands this week.

—Mr. A. R. Cook has been kept at home for several days with malaria.

—Rev. Mr. Priest of Watertown will conduct the Unitarian services next Sunday.

—Mr. J. W. Foster, the purchaser of the Harriman estate, has been ill for several days.

—M. E. services next Sunday morning at 10.45. Subject, "Shallow-Water Christianity."

—Mrs. Hilton has returned from Minneapolis, and with her husband is boarding in Boston.

—Stevens Hall was filled with ladies on Wednesday afternoon, to hear the lecture on cookery.

—Mr. G. A. Norman and family of Forest street will soon remove to Baltimore, their former home.

—Mr. C. E. Beal has taken a tenement in the house of Mr. G. W. Ferren on Winchester street.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Curtis have an addition to their family circle by the birth of a ten pound son.

—The Chautauqua Circle will meet next Monday with Miss Bryant at the residence of E. J. Hyde.

—The attention of those interested in Art Study is called to the advertisement of Lasell Seminary in another column.

—House painting has set in quite lively. We notice Mr. Ogden, Mr. Lapham and Miss Rand are having their houses painted.

—Mrs. Wheeler has returned to the Highlands and is boarding with Mrs. Holman, corner of Forest and Bowdoin streets.

—Rev. Geo. W. Herrick will present the cause of the New West Commission at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Benson of Chester street will soon go to Paris. Mr. Benson is a buyer for Messrs. R. H. White & Co., Boston.

—List of letters remaining in the post office: Mr. F. A. Cook, D. Clark, Mrs. P. H. Hall, Andrew J. Hanley, William Hurley, Mrs. J. B. Sullivan, Patrick Sullivan, Joseph Vincent.

—The two men who robbed the postoffice a few weeks ago, were arrested at Brighton yesterday and identified by Postmaster Nash. The men were trying to rob the Brighton Savings bank when arrested.

—Sunday's music at the Congregational church will include:

Anthem, "Guide me O thou great Jehovah." Dow Response, Sanctus. Schubert Offertory for Tenor, "Jesus Lover of my Soul." Spohnz Palmer

—A Columbian service will be held in Lincoln Hall next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, under the auspices of the M. E. society. The program will include quartet singing by Mr. Louis S. Brigham, Miss Fanny Stevens, Mrs. E. J. Hyde and Mr. Phillip S. Brickett, reading of Columbian ode by Mrs. F. W. Johnson, cornet solos by Dr. R. Shuerbuck, late of Boston Synchordia Orchestra, and an address by C. A. Shatto on "America's Place in History."

—The ladies of the C. L. S. held their Columbian celebration on Monday last, at the home of Mrs. Alex. Tyler on Lincoln street. The house was beautifully decorated with the American and Spanish colors, and after a dainty lunch provided by the hostess, the business of the afternoon commenced, and like every thing emanating from this circle was interesting.

—The program of the program was a class poem and a class oration, the presentation of a handsome silk flag, given by the husband of one of the members, and reading of the Columbian ode by Mr. F. Bellamy, whose arrangement for the celebration of Columbus day has been so universally adopted. A letter was read from Edna Dean Procter, regretting that she could not be present.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Geo. Fred Williams and E. J. Donovan speak at Newton Highlands, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Dr. William Everett, Brooks Adams, Eliot Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

—Edward Lee has received a license for a billiard table.

—Mr. Curtiss is building a house on Pennsylvania avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hale are taking an excursion to Niagara Falls.

—Miss Bertha Billings entertained the Clover Club, Tuesday evening.

—Councilman C. B. McGee is the favorite here for Alderman Hyde's successor.

—Mr. Frank Fanning went on an excursion to the Hoosac Tunnel this week.

—The Quinobegun Association held their regular meeting Monday evening.

—Rev. Mr. Peterson of Nantucket preached at the Baptist church last Sunday.

—Pettee Machine Works are making extensive additions to their foundry buildings.

—The house on the corner of Rice and Summer streets has been sold by Alvord & Ward for Garrett Schenck, at $6,500. The purchaser is Dr. A. H. Stoddard, Boston office 196 Marlborough street, who will move in after some alterations. Dr. Stoddard's purchase does not include the corner lot.

—The boys of Newton Centre, with Republican proclivities, have formed a drum corps and have named it after Mr. J. R. Leeson, to show their appreciation of his generosity in the matter of the playground, and other services in their behalf in Newton Centre. They have received permission to parade from the board of aldermen.

—Mr. W. M. Tenney of the Boston Engraving Company has purchased of Mr. William J. Jobling his estate on the southerly side of Beacon street, near Chestnut Hill road, Chestnut Hill, this city. Mr. Tenney will occupy the large frame house which pleasantly overlooks the Chestnut Hill reservoir. With the house are about 36,000 square feet of land.

—There will be a grand Republican rally at Associates Hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 29th, at which Col. E. H. Haskell will preside. The list of speakers is an unusually strong one, comprising Mr. Roger Wolcott, Gen. W. F. Drayner and Congressman Henry Cabot Lodge. This is expected to be the greatest rally of the campaign and it is expected that Associates Hall will not hold all who will desire to be present.

—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stearns of Billerica was the scene of —Martin Hunting is moving his barn on Summer street and intends to erect a house on the lot.

—The buildings of the Nelson Chemical Co. are being painted and are much improved in appearance.

—Father Danahy arrived home on Monday from his two months' visit to Rome, much improved in health.

—The furnace at the Catholic parsonage has been removed and a hot water heating apparatus placed in its stead.

—The stores will be closed to-day, and every one will go to the Columbus celebration in other parts of the city.

—The street cars bring many to the Upper Falls to enjoy the extensive views and the gorgeous autumn foliage.

—Mr. Harry Scheinfeld has associated himself with Bishop's Newton Centre express and will extend his route to this village.

—Rev. Nathaniel Fellows, pastor of the Methodist church, will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. Mr. Jackson of Newton.

—Mr. Joseph C. Meehan has severed his connection with Pettee Machine Works and is enjoying a well earned and much needed vacation.

—A Republican rally will be held in Prospect school house hall next Tuesday evening with Mr. Samuel L. Powers and Edward Fitz Williams as speaker.

—Rev. W. H. Eaton, secretary of the Massachusetts Baptist State Convention, will preach in the Baptist meeting house next Sunday. Don't miss hearing him.

—A quiet home wedding took place last evening when Miss Rose Kempton was married to Mr. Walker of Lynn. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside in Lynn.

—The membership of Echo Bridge Council Royal Arcanum is rapidly increasing and will initiate two candidates at its next meeting. Members of the Supreme and Grand Councils are expected to be present to witness the ceremony.

—A flag pole 40 feet high was placed in position on the Prospect school yesterday, under the oversight of a large force of citizens. The flag was unfurled with appropriate exercises this morning. The scholars collected the sum necessary, $60.

—Real Estate Changes in Newton and Vicinity.

—Mr. Edward F. Barnes, real estate agent, has recently negotiated the following sales and leases: The new house with 6,000 sq. ft. of land situated on Centre street, Ward Seven, owned by Lewis E. Coffin sold to George E. Ryder of Cambridge. The estate No. 38 Carleton street, Ward Seven, owned by Thomas E. Mepharm sold to Jonathan J. Gordon of Newton. A lot of land containing 13,000 sq. ft. situated, corner of Hunnewell avenue and a new street, Ward Seven, owned by James Stevenson sold to Henry R. Mandell of Newton. A lot of land containing 66,000 sq. ft. situated on Ward street, Ward Six, adjoining the Newton reservoir, owned by James Stevenson sold to Edward R. Pennell of Cambridge. A lot of land containing 7,500 sq. ft. situated, corner of Church street and Waverly avenue, Ward Seven, owned by Nellie M. Galland sold to Arthur H. Page of New York and Benj. F. Hallett of Boston. A lot of land containing 11,000 sq. ft. situated on Brook street, Ward Seven, owned by Joel Edmonds sold to Chas. O. Tucker of Newton. A lot of land containing 21,000 sq. ft. situated, corner of West and Green streets, Ward One, owned by C. McBride sold to A. M. Small of Boston. The estate No. 50 Bennett street, Brighton, owned by the Cohasset Savings Bank sold to M. McGee of Brighton. The estate No. 33 Union Park, Boston, owned by Mrs. A. S. Arens sold to Mabel C. Patno of Boston. The estate of the late Mary Dexter situated, corner of Galen and Boyd streets, leased to C. C. Symmes of the Eppler, Welling Machine Co., Boston. The estate of J. J. Gardner situated on Carleton street, Ward Seven, leased to E. N. Soulls of Newton. The estate of Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Brown situated No. 131 Nonantum street, Ward Seven, leased to Henry R. Mandell of Newton. The estate of E. D. Baldwin, Walnut Park, Ward One, leased to Geo. F. Gay of Boston. The estate of Martha F. Hitchcock situated No. 594 Centre street, Ward Seven, leased to Wm. A. Patterson of New York. The estate of George Hull situated, corner of Ivanhoe and Montrose streets, Ward Six, leased to Frank W. Stearns of Boston. The estate No. 34 Park street, Ward Seven, leased to George S. Noden of Newton. The house No. 78 Richardson street, Ward One, leased to George McAsssey of Newton. The estate No. 96 Boyd street, Ward One, owned by George S. Downes, leased to J. J. Tibbetts of Newton. The estate No. 33 Union Park, Boston, owned by Mabel C. Patno leased to J. S. Beckford of Boston.

WABAN.

—Mrs. L. M. Bacon is quite ill.

—Mrs. S. R. Reading entertained Mrs. Chas. Fuller this week.

—The Corner Court Tennis Club holds its dance tonight at 8 o'clock.

—Mr. C. B. McGee is spending the week with friends in Burlington, Vt.

—The exterior woodwork of the station has received a new coat of varnish.

—The Benevolent Society meets with Mrs. Sheple next Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. Webster and family will move into the Fuller house, Chestnut street next Monday.

—Letters unclaimed at postoffice: Mrs. Mary E. Pierce, Belle Virginia Gagnon, Miss Katie Hurlbut, Miss C. McIntire, Mr. Thomas Costellar.

—The flag pole was placed in position on the schoolhouse Wednesday, Columbus day.

Day the school will have patriotic exercises at 8.45 a. m. to which all are invited.

—A meeting for the purpose of discussing the religious services in the future here, will be held at the residence of Mr. Wm. Gould Sunday evening next. A full attendance is desired.

—Mrs. W. B. Locke and her daughter, Miss Lou E. Locke, have returned from a pleasant vacation which they spent in Lowell. Miss Minnie Locke is attending the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston.

NONANTUM.

—An account of a "Trip through Holland" will be given by Mr. F. A. Pellon of Boston before the Newton Girls' Club at the Athenaeum, Monday evening, Oct. 24.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge

WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.*Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

C. B. SOMERS.*Tailor

149 A Tremont Street, BOSTON.

MAKES A SPECIALTY OF

BUSINESS SUITS AT $35.00

Fall and Winter Woollens now ready.

Suits, Overcoats and Trousers, Hats, Caps and Furnishings

"THE MODEL"

(Formerly GEO. A. FENNO & CO.)

Corner of Beach and Washington Sts, BOSTON.

Single and Double Breasted Business Suits,	$ 8.00 to $25.00
Black Worsted Dress Suits	$15.00 to $35.00
Latest Fabrics in Trousers	$ 2.00 to $ 8.00
An Attractive Line of Boys Suits	$ 3.00 to $15.00

A New and Complete Stock of Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps.

A New Concern BUT Reliable.

At The Old Stand BUT New Goods.

Ready to Wear Clothing BUT Tailor Made.

Perfect in Fit and Finish BUT Reasonable in Price.

A guarantee accompanies every sale, which allows FIVE DAYS for examination at home, and if dissatisfied with the purchase THE MONEY WILL BE CHEERFULLY REFUNDED.

NOW KEEP IN MIND*"THE MODEL"

Clothing, Hats and Furnishings, 670 & 672 Washington St., Cor. Beach St., Boston.

FENNO'S OLD STAND.

REFRIGERATORS.

Baby Carriages, Carpets, Ranges, Furniture and Bedding.

F. L. GRAVES FURNITURE EMPORIUM.

Largest and Finest Business Establishment in the City.

224 Moody St., Waltham, South Side.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season for this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St. Room 38.

Pearmain AND Brooks, Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.) Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,

No. 53 State St., Room 218.

SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE, Counsellor at Law,

28 State Street, Room 55, BOSTON, MASS.

Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

A. H. ROFFE, HAY and GRAIN

LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE.

Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 8

Choicest Articles in the Grocery Line.

Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week. Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobb's Prices, including Bridal Veil. Cereal Food, in variety. Canned Goods of all kinds. Salt Pork and Potatoes. All Kinds of Specialties. Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Citron Currants and Spice, the purest. Imported Jellies and Preserves of the famous Crosse & Blackwell Manufacture.

Candy Candy! Candy!

W. O. KNAPP & CO'S

Station Street, NEWTON CENTRE. 5

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach.

DENTIST.

492 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON.

The correcting of irregular teeth in children's mouths a specialty.

Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre.

Will make appointments at residence after 6 p. m.

GEORGE H. LOOMER,

Successor to Armstrong Bros.

Between News Room and J. F. Noble's Store is offering a fine line of BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS and RUBBERS, at low prices.

NEWTON CENTRE

S. L. PRATT,

FUNERAL AND FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass.

First-class Appointments and Competent Attendants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone.

Also shall continue in the Hack, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand, corner of Beacon and Station Streets. 31

MR. WM. I. HOWELL

Pianoforte, Organ and Theory.

Also, SIGHT SINGING.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 4.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

"THE BEATRICE."

A BEAUTY IN BRASS AND WHITE
WITH CURVED FOOT.

We are exhibiting at our Warerooms the finest line of Metallic Bedsteads of both Imported and American Manufacture.

SPECIAL DESIGNS IN BRASS BEDSTEADS.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,
546 WASHINGTON ST., Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

AKRON DRAIN PIPE
AND CONNECTIONS, AT
CAMPBELL'S
Dealer in HARDWARE and CUTLERY
271 Washington Street, Newton, Mass.

GRAND OPENING SALE
—AT—
RIVER PARK,
Friday, November 4, 1892, at 3 P. M.

River Park is situated five minutes walk from
NEWTON UPPER FALLS STATION
on the banks of the Charles River.

HOUSE LOTS ON EASY TERMS
Our Lots contain 3600 to 5000 sq. ft. Our prices range from 2c. to 5c. PER FOOT.

Terms $1. to $2. per week. 10 per cent. discount for cash.

Buy your Lot now and Build in the Spring.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS TO BUILDERS OF FIRST TEN HOUSES
F. W. YERXA, General Agent,
53 State Street, Room 829. NEWTON UPPER FALLS OFFICE,
Opposite Depot

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

DR. GEO. A. BATES,
DENTIST,
THORPE HOUSE, MAPLE STREET,
Auburndale, Mass.
OFFICE HOURS: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. 39 tf

By the way, would it not be proper to remind you that a good picture of yourself, which "Fritz"
can make, neatly framed, makes
a very acceptable Christmas present, and is a delight at all times? From Locket to Life size
portraits. Call and see samples.
All work delivered in ten days.
Competent help engaged makes
this now possible.

ODIN FRITZ,
Artist and Photographer. Newton.

DR. S. F. CHASE,
DENTIST.
Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

J. H. NICKERSON,
Merchant Tailor
and Clothier,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish the styles
Fall & Winter of '92-3, Dress or Business Suits, Overcoats or Trousers to measure at low prices. Also a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing for men and boys. Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Travelling Bags.

CAKE.

Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made.
Try them.

Also
OYSTERS AND SALADS.
CROQUETTES AND PEAS.
ICES AND CREAMS.
JAMES PAXTON,
Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

Chandler & Co.
CLOAK DEP'T.

Our usual exclusive
line of FALL and WIN-TER CLOAKS in Staple
and High-Class Novel-
ties, containing the latest productions of
PARIS, LONDON and
NEW YORK designers
is now ready for inspection.

Chandler & Co.
Winter St.,
BOSTON.

MISS EMMA E. UPHAM,
TEACHER OF
Piano and Vocal Music.
RESIDENCE,
Cherry Street, West Newton.
2 ft

We are now ready to show new
Goods and the Latest Novelties for Fall and Winter

MILLINERY
Mourning Work a Specialty.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton,
Store open Friday and Saturday Evenings.

MRS. H. S. BARROWS,
Dress Maker,
No. 62 Elmwood Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

NEWTON.

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon. Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas. F.
Fairchild speak at City Hall, West Newton,
this evening, Oct. 28.

—Extract of Witch Hazel in pint bottles,
35 cents at Hudson's pharmacy.

—Secure reserved seats for the Spaulding illustrated lecture, City Hall, Oct. 31.

—Nice, sunny room to rent, without board. Mrs. Monroe, 455 Centre-street.

—Rev. Mr. Hornbrook has been elected president of the Boston Browning Society.

—Mr. Geo. Robbins has removed from Pearl street to 79 Franklin street, Malden.

—Mrs. Emeline Whipple has returned from Brooklyn, N. Y., to the Central House, Waltham.

—Mr. Stephen Moore has been chosen president of the Mass. Baptist Sunday school association.

—Mrs. J. A. Hamilton has been chosen one of the directors of the Women's Home Missionary Association.

—Fashionable hair cutting at John T.
Burns. Popular hair dressing room, Cole's block, over H. B. Coffin's.

—The Ludwig Concert, which drew such a large audience at Eliot Hall a year ago will be repeated on Nov. 15th.

—The Rev. Mr. Bennett of the church of the Ascension, Waltham, is expected to preach in Grace church on Sunday night.

—The subject of Rev. Mr. Bronson's discourse at the Methodist church on next Sunday morning will be "American Conflict."

—Mayor Hibbard has bought a lot of seven acres at Penzance, near Wood's Hill, and will build a handsome summer home
there.

—The Newton Bicycle Club are talking of having a reception and dance at their next meeting, and a bowling party is also in prospect.

—The Baptist Sunday school will hold a Harvest Concert in the church on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. They extend an invitation to every body.

—Rev. Mr. Hornbrook and Mrs. Horn-brook (Mrs. Dancy), were at the reunion of the descendants of Governor Thomas Dudley at the Revere House, Tuesday evening.

—Rev. Francis B. Hornbrook will speak next Sunday evening in Channing church on "The Beginning of Christianity in the Colonies." Service will begin at 7:30. All heartily welcome.

—Mrs. C. L. Read has invited Miss A.
Louise Franks to spend the winter with her in Boston. Miss Florence Franks will remain with Mrs. Richard G. Elkins on Regent street, West Newton.

—Mr. E. P. Burnham and Mr. W. W.
Stall accompanied the Boston Press Club on their run to Newport and return last Friday. This is Mr. Burnham's fourth century for the season, 223 started with the party and 175 finished, among them eight ladies.

—Rev. Geo. E. Merrill has been elected vice-president of the Northern Baptist Educational Society, held this week at Worcester, and also one of the trustees of the Newton Theological Seminary. Mr.
Geo. S. Harwood has also been elected a trustee.

—Music at Eliot church next Sunday
evening.
Anthem "I will Mention," Sullivan.
Duet "My song shall be," "Hymn of Praise."
Hymn "Praise ye the Father" Mendelssohn
Trios "From Mendelssohn"

—Miss Corinne M. Warner and Mr.
Louis E. P. Smith, who were united in marriage at Young's Hotel, Oct. 4, have been at home to friends on Tuesdays in October at their residence, corner of Park and Vernon streets, and have greeted a large number of people.

—The Entertainment Club is to give four dramatic entertainments in the Channing church parlors on Wednesday evenings,
Nov. 30, Jan. 11, Feb. 15 and March 30.
Season tickets, giving reserved seats, will be on sale at Mr. Hubbard's drug store on Monday, Oct. 31, at 7:30 a. m. Price $2.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening:
Processional, "Christ is made the sure foundation."
Cantata, "Goss"
Deus, "Goss"
Anthem, "Grant we beseech thee," Roberts
Duet, "Sing alleluia forth," Roberts
Recessional, "Saviour again to thy dear name."

—Miss Annie L. Marshman celebrated her twenty-first birthday Wednesday, and entertained a large company of friends during the evening at her home on Park street. Music, a collation and the usual social features made the occasion enjoyable.
Miss Marshman was the recipient of several valuable gifts.

—A woman who calls herself Mrs.
Rogers has been soliciting money about the city, and shows a letter signed by Mrs. S.
A. Bell of Waverly avenue. There is no such name in the directory, and a gentleman took the trouble to call at every house on the street, but could find no Mrs. Bell.
The woman had collected some twenty dollars at last accounts.

—Services in memory of the late S. K.
Harwood will be held at Grace church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Shinn officiating. The service will be attended by Dulhouse Lodge of Masons, Newton Lodge of Odd Fellows, Chas. Ward Post and G. A.
R. and members of the city government are invited. The music will be in charge of H.
B. Day, and the service will be very impressive.

—The New England conference of Associated churches held their meeting this year at Lynn on Wednesday, and Newton was represented by the largest delegation.
Rev. W. A. Lamb of this city was elected president of the N. E. association, and it was decided to hold the next meeting in this city. The delegates were hospitably entertained by a drive about the city, and an address by Mayor Hayes.

—Rev. Dillon Bronson's lecture in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening was replete with many interesting descriptions and personal experiences of a trip from Boston to Japan. The stereoscopic views were excellent throughout and were thoroughly appreciated by a large audience.
This is the first of a series of "Round the World" lectures to be given weekly for eight weeks. The lecture next Wednesday evening will be devoted wholly to the Mikado's empire.

—The funeral of Mr. Charles E. Billings took place Saturday afternoon from his late residence, Franklin street. There was a large attendance at the services, including the board of directors of the Newton National bank, with which the deceased had been connected for several years. Rev.
Dr. Wolcott Calkins officiated, and a quartet comprising Mrs. H. E. Hibbard,
Mrs. J. S. Potter, Mr. L. E. Chase and Mr.
E. L. Bacon, rendered appropriate selections. The floral tributes included a collection of cut flowers arranged upon the casket. The burial was private, and the interment was made in the family lot in the Newton cemetery.

—At the residence of Rev. J. A. Buckingham, Waban street, Tuesday evening, October 26, the marriage of his youngest daughter, Edith Rebecca Buckingham and Mr. William Sheldon Ball of this city, late of Roxbury. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody of Cambridge.
Mr. Arthur Ware Ball of Deerfield was best man and the bridesmaids were Miss Miriam Steadman Smith and Miss E. Linder
Smith. The bride was gown in white silk, entraine, and wore the usual tulle

Have
You
Seen
SPRINGER BROTHERS
Magnificent Display
Of
CLOAKS
500
Washington St.
Boston.

GRADE CROSSING PROBLEM.

LANGFORD PLAN THE THEME AT HEAR-

ING GIVEN BY THE ALDERMEN.

The aldermen on Wednesday evening gave a hearing to the petitioners favoring the Langford plan of relocating the B. & A. railroad tracks in Newton, and to remonstrants, represented by Messrs. E. W. Redpath, A. J. Mundy and others.

Mr. Samuel L. Powers appeared for the Langford petitioners and presented the resolutions passed at the recent largely attended public meeting, requesting the city council to investigate the proposition outlined in the Langford plan, to employ experts to get at the cost and to estimate also the comparative cost of that and the plan of elevating the tracks.

Mr. Frank T. Benner appeared for the remonstrants. He gave quite an exhaustive resume of the statute of 1887, affecting the separation of grades. Under the statute, provision was made, he said, for the appointment of a commission. The board of aldermen was not called upon to examine into the details of the Langford or any other plan for the sake of coming to a decision. The matter is entirely, continued
Mr. Benner, in the hands of the committee.
All that the city council can do is to draw up a petition to the superior court, requesting the appointment of a commission with a view to the abolition of certain grade crossings which, it must be set forth, are dangerous and a menace to the safety of citizens.

There is one thing contemplated in the Langford plan, which is almost sure to meet opposition from the commission, the proposed removal or re-location of stations.
There is no provision for the abandoning of stations under the act, and it is a very difficult matter to make a change if there is even a tangible evidence of opposition.

In regard to the removal of the tracks, I maintain that it is to result in great injury to many property owners in Newtonville and elsewhere in the city, who will have no legal redress. Every house in Newton has been located with reference to its distance from the railroad. The Langford plan with regard to distance from stations, has determined in a great measure the valuation of real estate. Now, it is proposed to remove the station, in Newtonville, a distance of about one-fourth of a mile. You might just as well move a man's house; the effect in either case would be the same.

Mr. Benner in conclusion said that the shrewdest part of the Langford plan was that it was impossible to tell just where it was proposed to run the line of tracks in the event of their removal further north.
The moment the line was moved, the value of some of the present advocates of the plan would turn out enemies. Some of those who favored it thought it was going to benefit their property. When they found out that it was not to result in their advantage, they would lose much of its rosaceous coloring.

Mr. A. J. Mundy said that the removal of the tracks in his opinion would greatly depreciate the value of his estate, he thought to the extent of $200.

Mr. E. W. Redpath said that there were two classes in the community advocating the Langford plan, one a set of theorists with aesthetic views, the other expecting to derive some pecuniary benefit from the proposed change of the tracks. He said that the tax levy would be increased nearly $200 per thousand to meet the expense of moving the tracks and constructing a boulevard in conformity to the Langford plan. The cost of the land and necessary clearing of buildings for the boulevard would be not less than $500,000. One of the greatest objections is, however, the unsettling of values. It would be a great injury to property in Ward Two. For my part, I prefer to see the tracks remain as they are, with fences and closed gates to render them safe.

Mr. Curtis Abbott—I believe the railroad should go further north. There is a natural valley between Fairview and Auburndale, where the tracks should run. The land is cheap, the grading would be easy, and the cost of building the roadbed not greater, in my opinion, than the cost of the proposed elevation.

Rev. Dr. Shinn asked if the city had considered the Langford plan. Mayor Hibbard said in reply that it had not been until the present time, officially before the city council. Dr. Shinn then said he believed it had many good features. I don't believe in snuffing out a plan, he added, simply because the Boston & Albany railroad says we won't have it.

Mr. H. F. King said that the Boston & Albany had no right to say that if the tracks were moved it would only put up an elevated roadbed. He asked the mayor if that statement had been made by the Boston & Albany officials. The mayor replied that it had, and said that President Bliss had further stated that the roadbed would still further north than the line suggested in the Langford plan if the tracks were moved.

Mr. A. S. March said that in Glasgow and Edinburgh the railroads were put out of sight, under ground practically. He thought a plan could be devised to put the railroad out of the way in Newton, and that it would not cost any more than it would to elevate the tracks.

Mr. Langford was called upon, and said that he did not care to discuss the plan until information had been procured in regard to the cost and the comparative cost of elevating, depressing or changing the location of the tracks. He advocated the boulevard along the line of Washington street and said that the prosperity of the city would be enhanced by connecting systems of boulevards uniting the north and south sides of the city and opening broad avenues east and west.

Dr. Shinn said the Langford plan should be thoroughly investigated. The city should look into all the plans suggested for getting rid of the grade crossings very carefully and take sufficient time to determine the best thing to be done.

Prof. F. A. Waterhouse opposed the removal of the tracks. Mr. J. F. Allen said that the elevation of a station 30 feet was far worse than its removal 100 feet.

The hearing closed shortly after 10 o'clock.

veil. The bridesmaids were gown in white crepe de chine and carried bouquets of bride's roses. A reception was held. The ushers were Messrs. L. W. Fairchild of Watertown, Clarence P. Hoyt of Boston,
William R. Howard of Cambridge and William H. Buckingham of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Ball departed on a tour after the reception. Upon their return they will reside at 35 Waban street where they will be at home Tuesdays, Nov. 22 and 29.

—Melvin Woods, a school boy, was struck by an 8:20 outward train, composed of empty passenger cars, at the Washington street crossing of the Boston & Albany railroad Tuesday. The little fellow, 9 years of age, was on his way to school.
He had waited at the crossing until an express dashed by, and then started across the tracks, not seeing the other train. He was thrown several feet and received an ugly blow in the head, besides having his cheek cut open, his jawbone fractured and nearly all his teeth knocked out. The train that struck the lad was moving very slowly, or the result of the accident would have been, probably fatal. Spectators rushed to the boy's assistance as soon as the train passed the crossing, and he was taken to the Cottage Hospital in the ambulance, after being made as comfortable as possible through the services of a physician who was hastily summoned. The boy resides with his parents on Brook street, near the scene of the accident. It is the opinion of the house surgeon at the hospital that the boy will recover.

—The Republican rally in Associate Hall, Newton Centre, Saturday evening.

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon.
Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas.
F. Fairchild speak at City Hall, West
Newton, this evening, Oct. 28.

—Jack Maloney is ill with malaria.

—James Imeson returned this week from England.

—Hon. Roger Wolcott in Associates Hall
Saturday evening.

—James Murphy of Manchester, N. H., is visiting friends in town.

—Rev. A. W. Jefferson of Norwood will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday.

—Mr. George H. Chambers enjoyed a few days hunting this week down in Maine.

—Hose 7 had a run Saturday to the fire at Waban when Mr. Dresser's barn was burned.

—The popular driver of Atkinson's express, is enjoying an outing in Nova Scotia.

—Mrs. James Mills and family arrived Monday from England. Mr. Mills meeting them in Boston.

—Rev. Dr. Eaton, secretary of the Baptist State Convention, preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

—John Temperley returned Monday from England, where he has been spending the past two months.

—Mr. Frank Procter entertained a number of his friends on Monday evening and displayed some fine presents recently sent him by relatives and friends in England.

—Word has been received from Mr. Benj.
Armstrong of improvement in health and hopes of returning from England with his family next month.

—While at work for the Boston Water Works, John Anderson in using an axe cut an ugly gash in his leg. Dr. Thompson attended him and the injured man is now improving.

—Mr. James Ford, formerly a resident of this place, returned from England on a visit here this week and was tendered a large number of friends.

—John Singleton held a party at his home last Thursday evening to which many invitations were sent out. A large number were present and dancing was enjoyed until early morning, refreshments being served during the festivities.

—Mr. Murray, driver of one of Mague's teams, received a severe compound fracture of the leg Monday. He was driving down Chestnut street toward the square when the harness broke causing the horse to kick, fracturing his leg. Dr. Hildreth attended him and he was taken to the Newton Cottage Hospital.

—A Republican rally was held Tuesday evening at Prospect Hall at which Mr.
Barber of Connecticut and Mr. Samuel L.
Powers of Newton spoke before a large gathering. A torchlight parade took place previous to the rally in which three battalions participated coming from Newton, Newton Centre and Auburndale. There were about 500 in line and each battalion was headed by a drum corps. The procession passed through all the principal streets and there was a general illumination of dwellings and places of business. A warm reception was given the battalions on High street where almost every house was ablaze with light, and fireworks and colored light added beauty to the scene.

—The parade of the battalions were escorted to old Prospect schoolhouse hall where coffee and sandwiches were served.

Tearing Down Posters.
The Democratic committee are much exercised over the fact that their posters are torn down the same night they are put up, all over the city, while the Republican posters are rarely touched, even when they are side by side. They think such action must be the work of boys who do not know how mean and contemptible such action is,
and who need some vigorous home discipline.

Papanti at West Newton.
The pupils in the dancing classes of the Allen school will have unusual advantages this year in having Prof. L. Papanti for an instructor. He rivals his distinguished uncle as an instructor and stands first in the list of Boston's instructors. The classes will begin Friday, Nov. 11, at 3:30 and there will be a section for beginners and another for advanced pupils. For terms, etc., address N. T. Allen.

THE SCHOOLS CELEBRATE.

A Large Audience at the High School Drill Hall.

FULL TEXT OF ORATION BY REV. MR. HORN BROOKE.

The public observance of Columbus Day attracted a large number of people from all parts of the city and the High school drill hall, where the exercises were held, was packed with an audience that filled all the seats and available standing space, over 2500 persons being present. Upon the platform besides the High school pupils and the orator of the day and invited guests were the members of Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R. Seats in the front of the auditorium were occupied by the Claffin Guard and High school battalion. The notable guests present were Dr. S. F. Smith, author of "America" and Francis Bellamy, the well known writer, the author of "The Meaning of the Four Centuries." The order of exercises was as follows:

Prayer, Rev. Dr. S. F. Smith; singing, "To Thee O Country," school chorus; recitation, "Columbia's Banner," Miss Grace Whittemore; singing, "Soldiers Chorus from Faust," school; oration, Rev. Francis B. Hornbrooke; singing, "The Red, White and Blue," school; declamation, "The Meaning of the Four Centuries," Edward F. Hollis; singing, "America," school; benediction, Rev. Mr. E. Lawrence. The oration by Rev. Mr. Hornbrooke is given below:

We come together today to celebrate the discovery of the continent, of which the nation we love and honor forms a large, and most important part. It is a celebration possible to the people of no other continent. No doubt, the other physical divisions of the earth have all had their first discoverers, but the date when they were first revealed to the searching eye of man is absolutely unknown. No historic record, no hoary tradition even, can aid us in finding any definite period when the history of Europe or Asia or Africa began. Their beginnings are hidden in the depths of a fabulous past. Even Australia, which since the close of my school days, has risen from an island to the dignity of a continent, can only guess when and by whom it was first found. Ours is an anniversary unique in its character. We alone know the year and most the day when our history as a continent began. Four centuries ago to day we became part of the known world.

It is possible that when Columbus returned to Spain, bearing with him the specimens of the regions he had touched in the mysterious west, no one, not even the great discoverer himself, dreamed that what a contribution had been made to Europe, and how the fortunes of nations would be shaped by their relations with it. Perhaps the value of the discovery seemed less, because all its implications and possible results were not at once revealed. But, from the first, all thinking persons have been conscious of the grand possibilities of the achievement of Columbus. And ever since, as the centuries have passed his fame has grown with ever increasing lustre.

I am not unmindful of the attempts made to diminish his renown by the accounts of those who nearly half a millennium before him were driven upon these distant shores from the north of Europe. But when all these earlier discoveries are acknowledged Columbus stands no less than before. No doubt, many of the wisest and wittiest things in Shakespeare were said by wise and witty people many times before he made them. No one would ever have known them if he had not given them a permanent place in literature. And so, hundreds from Europe may have seen these shores, but Europe was no wiser for what they had seen, and would never have known anything about them, if the discovery of Columbus had not made it possible for us centuries after, to find that they had been here. The renown of Columbus consists in the fact, that he first made our continent a permanent part of the general knowledge of Europe. Before him it was a vague dream, after him it was a constant reality for human knowledge.

It is likewise true, that Columbus was not alone in his belief that land might be reached by sailing westward. No great discovery ever is made without relation to existing conditions. They are, as it were, in the air, and so are destined sooner or later to be made. None the less, however, is he who takes the first step, which transforms the possible and probable into the actual worthy our praise. It is idle to speculate as to what others might have done. Twenty other men might have sailed west and found a new world, but still the inevitable fact remains, that Columbus was the first who acted in obedience to the faith that was in him, and the first to find a world responding to his faith. The history of the world is not made up of what might have been, but of what was.

The supreme glory of Columbus is that he had the courage to face the terrors of the unknown. After his deed had demonstrated, that no unusual dangers were to be encountered, any mariner could sail west. But previous to that, it was an act of the highest bravery to dare the horrors with which ignorance had peopled his path. To thousands the sun was set in the west was red because he was looking down on the fires of hell. He might sail into those infernal fires. Or if he was above these fears what did he know of the nature of the waters he was seeking to navigate? Whirlpools might drag him down, terrible monsters of the deep might crush his vessels within their colossal jaws? He might come to the end of things and be whirled over some awful cataract whose waters were ever plunging downward into some fathomless abyss. Notions like these, and a thousand others might well have impressed him as they did those around him, and deter him from his great endeavor. It is because he rose superior to all these things that we give him our homage.

It is useless to waste our time in small criticisms of the man. Let us allow all his infirmities, but do not let these, make us unmindful of the man's aspiration, and the greatness of his deed. What we ought to remember is the providential mission that in spite of his baser qualities, he was able to fulfill. That work was so great, that in the contemplation of it, we can well afford to forget all that was unworthy of his highest moments.

Columbus died, it is true, without realizing just what he had done. To the end of his days he supposed he had discovered one side of Asia, instead of a new continent. But in estimating the work that men do we give them the credit of all the consequences that flow from their achievements. To Columbus therefore belongs the glory of the expanding life and thought of America.

In the century that followed his great achievement an element of romance clings to these practically unknown shores. Anything might be found or happen here. Gold enough was to be picked up to fill the treasures of Spain depleted by its long centuries of conflict with the Moor, to pay for armies that might conquer Europe, and enable Columbus himself to send an armed host to rescue the Holy Land from the Mohammedan. Fountains of perpetual youth were supposed to gush forth in the wilderness. As the guide in California told the visitors from the east, of a certain forest where the laws of gravitation were petrified, so people imagined these Columbus himself in our continent where the law of death was suspended. Even two centuries after the discovery of America people in New England expected to grow rich by the sale of saffras, which, it was supposed, would cure every ill that flesh is heir to. Every navigator who sailed up some hitherto unknown river, or explored some unknown bay was animated by the hope that he had found a short cut to the Indies, and that in a few hours he might find himself amid scenes of oriental wealth and splendour. This feeling of romantic expectancy was the spur to the eager search in every part of the new world. The immediate results to these bold sailors was bitter disappointment. This world was as hum-drum, and prosaic and hard as the old. But what they did find has been far better for the world, than what they sought. Their hopes were blasted, but their achievements have blessed the world, and the great reward is the memory of heroic self-devotion they have left behind them.

The formation of the map of America must have been very much like that of the formation of the map of Africa, in our own time. The school boy twenty-five years ago, was always delighted to see that there was so little to be said about the interior of Africa. What rapture it was to find great spaces of the map covered by a single name, and what a blessing it was to know that no teacher was able to trouble him about lakes, mountains, and rivers, and countries that have since been discovered by Grant and Livingston and Stanley. So it must have been with the boy of the early part of the 16th century in regard to the map of America. At first it gave him little trouble. There was a continent, but he was not called upon to describe it or bound it. But it kept on growing, and the school boy if he was anything like his successor today, found less desirable as the burden of ever increasing knowledge was laid upon him. The terrible map grew from year to year. To the few islands which dotted the sea. Cabot added the knowledge of the extended shores of North America in 1497, and Columbus those of South America in 1498. Then in 1501 the Gulf of St. Lawrence was explored. In 1513 Dr. Soto had found Florida, and Balboa from a peak in Darien first looked down upon the waters of the Pacific. Before the middle of the sixteenth century the coast of South Carolina, the northern coast of the Gulf of Mexico, and the mouth of the Rio Grand, and that of the Mississippi had all been discovered while the Spanish forces in search of the far-famed city of Cibola, had explored the territories now known as Kansas and Colorado. Carter had ascended the St. Lawrence river to where Montreal now stands, Cortez and Pizarro had added Mexico and Peru to the realm of Spain. Magellan in 1521 had passed through the straits to which his name has been given. And so the work proceeded from century to century until at last the map of the new world was almost as complete as that of Europe, and all the grand significance of the work of Columbus was fully revealed. The impulse he set in motion has taken almost four centuries to fulfill.

But the work of discovery was followed by that of settlement. And we are here today, and we rejoice in the event it commemorates, because this land is our home. Our chief concern is to recall the steps by which a few feeble folk in the wilderness, have grown into a united, free, and mighty nation. Other nations of this continent may recall all the progress they have made, and we may well rejoice with them for all the blessings of freedom, of prosperity, and of moral and intellectual progress, the centuries in their past, have bestowed upon them. Still, it is with special pride, we love to trace the progress we ourselves have made. The end of the seventeenth century saw the beginnings of civilized life along the Atlantic coast of North America. Here and there in the midst of the primeval forest the contrast of man with nature had been made in the hearts of the people. To the domination of the national spirit many causes have conspired. The first was the elevated character, popularity, and insight of our first president. As a man he was too great to be overlooked, as a president of the United States, he would not suffer any sort of inferiority. All that was in the heart of Massachusetts, John Hancock whose name at the head of the signers of the Declaration of Independence is an example of patriotism and penmanship, was governor, and as governor he believed himself in his own state superior in rank to the President of the United States. Indeed, therefore of calling upon the president he waited for him to call upon himself. But he waited in vain. Never has a point of etiquette involved so much that is important in principle, that simple act Washington impressed upon the whole country the fact that the nation was greater than a state.

What Washington taught by his executive wisdom, Chief Justice Marshall impressed in his interpretation of the constitution. No doubt those who aided in the construction of that document, had different conceptions of the rights of the states under it, and perhaps it was capable of being interpreted in a way that would minimize the authority of the national government. It is the glory of Marshall that he interpreted it in the sense of the sovereignty of the nation. John Adams rendered many valuable services to his country, but none more lasting in its value, than the appointment of John Marshall as chief justice of the United States.

In Congress and through the country two of the greatest statesmen our country has ever produced, gave all the weight of their ability and popularity to the confirmation and establishment of the principles of constitutional interpretation which Marshall had proclaimed from the bench. Daniel Webster, with his matchless power of logical reasoning and oratory combined, met the reasonings of Calhoun and Hayne, and by the force of his masterful spirit succeeded in infusing into the masses of our people the sentiment embodied in the closing words of the greatest speech to which Congress ever listened, Liberty and union, now and forever one and inseparable. Henry Clay, by the graces of charming speech, and by the power of a popular wisdom which no other has ever possessed, imbued the people with quired to awaken the desire for unity was the sense of a common danger. Very early our New England colonists found that union was their only defense against the power of the Indian. Later there were those who saw that the defense of the colonies against the French and Indian foe could be made effective only by a union of all the colonies for common defense. Dr. Benjamin Franklin, drew up a comprehensive plan for the union of all the colonies under one head, and it was submitted to the government in England, but met with no encouragement from men, who called themselves practical because they were blind to everything save their immediate interests. But the conflict for the possession of this continent between France and England necessarily brought the men of different colonies together. Men who fought side by side for the interests of England learned how it was possible to co-operate for themselves. The attempt to hang on to Great Britain to exercise arbitrary and unconstitutional authority, was the signal for the beginning of the formation of a union which the years have made more real and more enduring. But like every great work this union has demanded for its growth, time, patience, wise statesmanship and self-sacrifice. We all know how slow our people were to adopt a system of united government. Even the stress of our conflict for independence was often insufficient to arouse the colonies to the sense of their common fortune. When the Declaration of Independence was being signed one of the signers said, "we must all hang together." Dr. Franklin replied, if we do not all hang together, we shall all hang separately. But very often during the struggle for independence the colonies seemed to forget that they owed any duty to one another, or to any central authority. Each one was aroused when its territories were invaded, and impatient when the enemy had retired.

During our revolutionary struggle the authority of Congress was so weak, and the selfishness of states so great, that the war lasted years after a united and vigorous effort would have brought it to a successful termination. Our final success is mainly owing to two causes. In the first place to the fact that the British government sent its stupidest generals. And in the second place to the patriotism, persistence, patience and wisdom of George Washington. It is useless to praise such a man. The best we can say is poor when compared with his work. An imperial republic on which the sun never set, was the dream of the patriot.

When the war for independence was at an end, it seemed as if we had escaped from tyranny, only to rush into the arms of anarchy. The spirit which had raised men above themselves died away and gave place to isolated and self-centred aims. We were no longer afraid of England, but we were afraid of each other. The dread of a central government was all pervading. This need not surprise us. Each colony had for more than a hundred years grown alone. It seemed as if it were in itself a world. Lack of communication made people ignorant of one another. It was father from Boston to New York, then, that the Pacific boundary of the state of Washington to day. There were difficulties of all kinds in the way to a strong united government.

Here again, the necessities of our situation were the impelling causes of union. The dangers from a united government were great, but those from a disunited government were greater. It is well for us to-day, that there were men who were wise enough to discern our need, and brave enough to devise a remedy for it. It is easy enough now to say what they ought not to have done, but then more could not be done. The framers of our constitution may have made compromises, but they made them in the hope, which has been justified by the event, that time might accomplish what was impossible for them to do at once. To organize the constitution of the United States, but to devise one which will work better, or from which so many benefits have been derived is practically impossible. Instead of complaining of what they failed to do, let us gladly recognize what they did, and give them the reward which is due to those who by their labor, have enabled their country to rise from poverty to wealth, from weakness to power, from chaos to order, from an aggregation of isolated states into a harmonizing united and regnant nation.

When in 1789 Washington became president of the United States, we had become a nation on paper. Only time, and wisdom, and courage could make the fact of our nationality supreme in the hearts of the people. To the domination of the national spirit many causes have conspired. The first was the elevated character, popularity, and insight of our first president. As a man he was too great to be overlooked, as a president of the United States, he would not suffer any sort of inferiority. All that was in the heart of Massachusetts, John Hancock whose name at the head of the signers of the Declaration of Independence is an example of patriotism and penmanship, was governor, and as governor he believed himself in his own state superior in rank to the President of the United States. Indeed, therefore of calling upon the president he waited for him to call upon himself. But he waited in vain. Never has a point of etiquette involved so much that is important in principle, that simple act Washington impressed upon the whole country the fact that the nation was greater than a state.

What Washington taught by his executive wisdom, Chief Justice Marshall impressed in his interpretation of the constitution. No doubt those who aided in the construction of that document, had different conceptions of the rights of the states under it, and perhaps it was capable of being interpreted in a way that would minimize the authority of the national government. It is the glory of Marshall that he interpreted it in the sense of the sovereignty of the nation. John Adams rendered many valuable services to his country, but none more lasting in its value, than the appointment of John Marshall as chief justice of the United States.

In Congress and through the country two of the greatest statesmen our country has ever produced, gave all the weight of their ability and popularity to the confirmation and establishment of the principles of constitutional interpretation which Marshall had proclaimed from the bench. Daniel Webster, with his matchless power of logical reasoning and oratory combined, met the reasonings of Calhoun and Hayne, and by the force of his masterful spirit succeeded in infusing into the masses of our people the sentiment embodied in the closing words of the greatest speech to which Congress ever listened, Liberty and union, now and forever one and inseparable. Henry Clay, by the graces of charming speech, and by the power of a popular wisdom which no other has ever possessed, imbued the people with

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY LIKE SHERIDAN'S CONDITION POWDER

If You Can't Get it Near Home, Send to Us. Ask first.

It is absolutely pure. Highly concentrated. Most economical because small doses. No other one fourth as strong. It is a medicine, not a food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as we can. Prevents and cures diseases of poultry. Worth its weight in gold when hens are moulting. (One large can saved me $40; and six more to prevent "Roup" says a customer. Sold by druggists, grocers, general stores and feed dealers. We send post-paid a poultry raising guide (price 25c), contains poultry accounts worth the price, and two packs of powder for 50c or five packs 80c. One 2 1/2 lb. can and Guide 80c. Six large cans express paid $1.00; stamps or cash. In quantity costs less than one tenth cent a day per hen. Testimonials free. J. H. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

the spirit of words spoken almost at the end of his great career: "I owe a paramount allegiance to the whole union, a subordinate one to my own state."

Whatever else these men failed to do, whatever else we may find in their public career to blame, still to them belongs the ineffaceable glory of laying deep and strong the unshaken pillars on which our national existence rests.

It was examples and influences like those of Washington and Marshall and Clay and Webster that succeeded in deepening the sense of the supremacy of the nation, and made that idea clear to the hearts of millions of our people. Well would it have been if these influences and examples could at last have swept away all traces of opposition to it. But along with the national interpretation there had also grown the theory of a constitutional right of states to withdraw from the Union. This theory was a natural outgrowth of the old independent colonial existence. It found justification in some of the founders of the constitution. No doubt when they signed it, they did so with the belief that the right of withdrawal from the union still remained to the separate states. Many held that occasions might arise when such withdrawal would become necessary. Such opinions were not peculiar in New England, and it is probable if the war of 1812 had continued another year several states would have seceded. But the spirit of nationality deepened, the sense that we were a nation was increasing from year to year, and it seemed possible that in time the memory of our existence as separate and independent states would be forgotten in our life as a nation. But fate ordered otherwise. This union was to be won, as many of the best things must be won, through pain and the agony of a greater struggle. The time came when nearly all the southern states of our union, in the interest of the institution of slavery, which they considered to be threatened by the election of Abraham Lincoln, sought to withdraw from the Union. Then came the terrible contest for nationality, which at last decided the issue. Before 1861 the question whether we were indeed a nation was still unsolved. After 1865 it was settled, for all coming time. To-day there is only one permissible interpretation of the constitution, and that is the one that makes the nation paramount and supreme. We are no longer citizens of the North, the South, the East, the West, we are citizens of a nation whose flag protects us wherever we stand.

Let us not in our rejoicing forget the men whose heroic and self-sacrificing heroism made that flag honored and loved wherever it unfolds its beauty to the air. Thirty years have passed since they felt the profound truth of the line of Horace, "Sweet and beautiful is it for one's native land to die." The awful years of struggle seem far away. The drum and life that once were heard in our streets, and the camps that dotted our land seem now like the sounds and visions of a dream. Nature has so many times covered the fields of battle with garments of living beauty, that it is hard to believe that on them souls have contended with all the might that was in them, and the life blood of our noblest and dearest, enriched and blessed the soil. But though the battle was fought so long ago, the results achieved are ours to-day. Grant and Sherman and Sheridan, the great leaders of the war, and those whose manful support made their purposes prosper are gone, but a nation's gratitude is not gone. To-day we pay our tribute to their memory with love to those who follow, and to those who remain. If lasting honor belongs to him whose daring discovered a new land, none the less it is due to those whose valor and self sacrifice have made a new nation. On that nation's heart may their memorial be borne forever.

Such, in broad outline is the course pursued, and the end gained, by the endeavor of four centuries. Through discovery to colonization, through colonization to a sense of the need of unity, through unity to nationality. It has taken four hundred years to make this great nation possible. To-day it stands at the beginning of a new century. Will it remain a nation mindful of the great ends it is set to fulfill, or will it become a collection of isolated and perhaps antagonistic nationalities? Will it absorb the nations and peoples of the world, or will it lose its consciousness of itself in the masses that threaten to overwhelm it. Shall we continue to care only for human cogs in our mills, or shall we seek to find men, who can aid in filling out the grand outlines of our life, which our fathers laid? Shall we imitate our politics

Continued on page 6.

Oldie muse for such great names. For such greatness for ages long. Preserve a wide approach of fame. And ever ringing avenues of song.

DELIGHTFUL ATTENTION, pleasant compliments, are always the reward of wearing our corsets, and makes your shape more fashionable, your appearance more distinguished, no matter how much you may be so by nature. An improvement is always welcome to a woman, especially when it costs no more than ordinary corsets. This is true of the Royal Worcester W.C.B. Corsets. Leading Merchants Sell Them.

H. W. D. COMPANY.
The H. W. Downs Company,
Carry the Largest Assortment of Silk and Cotton Dress Linings and Findings in Boston, and at the Lowest Prices.
Wholesale and Retail,
143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON.
One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE.
NEWTON BRANCH.
HENRY W. SAVAGE.
J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr.
BOSTON OFFICE: 37 Court Street.
NEWTON OFFICE: 1261 Washington St. WEST NEWTON.
Telephone 73-2.

Several very fine Estates at Newton and on West Newton Hill, which must be sold at once. Call for particulars.
Houses in all the Newtons from $3,000 to $20,000.
Choice building lots on West Newton Hill for sale low, on easy terms.
Wanted for immediate tenants and purchase, houses in Newton and Newtonville.

Our customers are inquiring especially for Newton Centre building lots. We have them to show, and at prices which must soon advance. Call and allow us to explain why now is the time to buy.

We are ready to buy, sell, rent, mortgage, insure for you.

ALVORD & WARD.
113 Devonshire Street, Boston, and Newton Centre.

F. G. BARNES & SON.
Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers.
AUCTIONEERS FOR REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.
FOR SALE AND FOR RENT
a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.
Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

BOOM IN HOUSE LOTS.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,
Can show you plans and prices of Splendid Lots in first class location where great improvements are being made and property is steadily advancing.
Buy Now and Save Money. Make the Advance Yourself.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,
No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston.
ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON. 26

CHARLES F. ROGERS,
(Successor to Chas. F. Rand.)
Real Estate Agency

For selling and leasing Real Estate and Negotiating Mortgages, Care of Real Estate and Collection of Rents. Auctioneer for sale Real Estate and Personal Property. A list of desirable estates for sale and lease always to be found at office. Correspondence solicited.
Office, BRACKETT'S NEW BLOCK, 417 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.
Newton, Nov. Telephone.

WM. B. YOUNG
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE AGENT.
NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES.
Land furnished and houses built to suit on easy terms.
Office, 35 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON.
Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.
INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies. Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,
Insurance Agency,
No. 2 Mason Building,
WATER STREET, - BOSTON
P. O. Box 304, Newtonville. 32

DO YOU WANT
To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Waltham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to
SAUL BROTHERS,
135 Moody St., Waltham.

LAWYERS.

WILLIAM F. BACON,
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law
113 Devonshire St., Room 42, BOSTON. 5017

SPRAGUE & WASHBURN,
Counsellors - at - Law
51 SUMMER STREET, Rooms 13 and 14, BOSTON.

Chas. H. Sprague, Residence, Auburndale.
O. Everett Washburn, Residence, Wellesley Hill

JESSE C. IVY,
COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
113 Devonshire Street, Room 43, Boston, Mass.
Residence, Newton. 38-17

W. F. & W. S. SLOCUM
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law.
Rooms 9 and 10 Herald Building, 297 Washington Street, Boston.

WILLIAM F. SLOCUM. WINFIELD S. SLOCUM.
Residences, Newtonville.
Winfield S. Slocum, City Solicitor of Newton.

1852 ESTABLISHED 1857
HUBBARD & PROCTER
PHARMACISTS.

SUCCESSORS TO
Chas. F. Rogers,
LANCASTER BLOCK,
NEWTON, MASS.

MADISON BUNKER, D.V.S.
Veterinary Surgeon.

BUSH'S STABLE, ELMWOOD ST.,
NEWTON, MASS.
Telephonic connection.

C. A. HARRINGTON
LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c
Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.
Telephone, 248-5 Newton. 47 28

L. H. CRANITCH,
House, Sign, and Ornamental PAINTER.

GRAINING and PAPER HANGING a Specialty
2d door from Central Block, Newtonville.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Gravel ROOFING.
Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons,
Nos. 20 and 32 East St., Boston.
Established 1836. Telephone No. 162. 49

T. F. CLENNAN.
Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.
BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.
Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,
FLORIST.
CONSERVATORIES,
School Street, Newton.
Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, &c.
Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT,
ELECTRICIAN.
Annunciators, Gas Lighting Apparatus, Burglar Alarms, Electric Supplies and Bells.
Incandescent Light Wiring.
All kinds of Electrical Apparatus Installed & Repaired.
SPRING FURN.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables
HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.
Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.
Landaus and Hack, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.
Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 13-3.

FISH OYSTERS,
Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds

-AT-
Bunting's Fish Market,
GOLD'S BLOCK.
Established 1871. Connected by Telephone.

Ripans Tabules banish pain.
Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company.

All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 25-4

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
To all persons interested in the estate of Prudence C. Bass late of Newton in said County, deceased.
Whereas Sarah J. Freeman the executrix of the will of said deceased, has presented for allowance the first and final account of her administration upon the estate of said deceased.
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be holden at Cambridge in said County, on the second Tuesday of November, 1892, at five o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed. And said executrix is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week in the Newton Graphic a newspaper printed at Newton, three weeks successively, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.
Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

AGENTS WANTED.
Salary and expenses paid. Address W. & T. SMITH CO. Geneva & Sursey, Geneva, N.Y. Established 1846

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to all articles, criticisms, and communications of every kind whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

Members of the Tariff Reform Club are invited to send even a small contribution to the Treasurer, according to the recent circular. They are reminded that according to law the name and amount of every contributor must be filed with the city clerk and with the secretary of state, and they will readily imagine their chagrin when they are shown to be indifferent to the expense by the omission of their names from the list of contributors.

The Story of Steel Rails.

The story of steel rails is very instructive to any one who wishes to understand the operation of Protection. It is an epitome of the history of our effort to grow rich by taxing ourselves. Change the name of the article from steel rails to clothes or tools or food, and you can apply the conclusion to nearly every item on our long tariff list.

Steel rails have done much to cheapen the distribution of wealth. The reduction in their price has helped to reduce the cost of transportation. It has helped the farmer to get his crops to tide-water at a comparatively little expense. Bessemer steel has been a great blessing. It might have been a still greater blessing if the iron-masters who own the secret of making it had not been so greedy.

It is said that the price of steel rails has gone down since the Bessemer process was discovered. Senator McKimley would not hesitate to say that they were cheapened by a law passed for the purpose of making them dearer.

As a matter of fact, they have been cheapened by discoveries and inventions due to the ingenuity of men whose names are always equal to the task of modifying the exactions of a tariff law. Since 1873, the Bessemer converter has been quadrupled, while the labor required has diminished. The Gilchrist-Thomas process enables four men to accomplish, with less material, a result that ten years ago required the work of ten men. In 1888, the making of a ton of steel rails consumed 10,000 pounds of coal; today, 5,000 pounds only are needed.

These are some of the causes of the reduction in the price of steel rails, and Protectionist who says that his statute accomplished this wonder, is perfectly capable of saying that high tariff taxes make big crops.

In 1873, the price of a ton of steel rails in this country was $95.00, and there was a duty of $28. The duty is now lower. It is $13.44; but, high or low, it is the protection demanded by the makers of steel rails. While steel rails in this country have been coming down from $96 to $30, steel rails in England have been coming down from $74 to between $17 and $19.

The American makers do not care what may be the result of their production. The protection enables them to charge just what they please, so that they keep under the price that would buy English rails, pay the tax of $13.44, and the cost of transportation. There is no competition at home. There is a trust.

Just now $30 is the price at which the importation of England rails is prohibited. This has been the price for a long time. There is no demand for steel rails, but that makes no difference. In the absence of a demand, under natural conditions, the makers of rails would seek to force sales by lowering their price. But there is no need of that in the steel rail mills. Practically, there is only one seller in the United States, and there will be only one so long as the tariff tax is high enough to prevent importations of English rails.

The cost of production has gone down since 1880, and so has pig iron. Pig iron costs our steel rail makers $3 a ton less than it did in 1880, but rails are $4 higher. In England, pig iron has gone up, but rails are cheaper, because production is cheaper. This is an instructive protection story, as we said at the outset, for it shows that protection is for the manufacturer alone. If labor costs less, he gets the benefit; if his product costs him less, the difference gets into his pocket.

And American people have paid a good deal for Bessemer steel rails. Mr. David A. Wells says that from 1878 to 1887 the tariff tax on them cost the people of this country $140,000,000.

The Biggest Joke of the Campaign.

The very biggest joke is the claim of the Protectionists this year that the McKinley tariff increases the price of what we have to sell and decreases the cost of what we buy.

No Duty Needed.

We are told that ready made clothing can be bought in this country at as low prices as in England. If that is so, with all the duties on materials, what a good argument it is for a reform of the Tariff! Surely no duty is needed there.

Dr. Carroll the Victor.

A handicap tennis tournament for the Hyslop silver cup was played on the courts of the Nonantum Club, Newton, Saturday. The trophy must be won two years, not necessarily successively, before it passes from the ownership of the club. It is a very valuable prize, a chased affair in silver and gold, bearing the name of the donor and the title of the club.

Play began in the morning at 9 o'clock, and continued through the day, except between the hours of 12 and 2. The handicaps were: John Gill, one-half 30; Joseph Cashman, 15 straight; William Ballantyne, 30 straight; M. P. Barrows, one-half 15; Frank Page, Dr. D. W. Stearns and Dr. T. F. Carroll, scratch. The cup was won by Dr. Carroll. The summary:

FIRST ROUND.
Barrows beat Page.....	6-4 6-1
Dr. Stearns beat Gill.....	6-4 6-2
Cashman beat Ballantyne.....	6-3 6-2
SECOND ROUND.
Barrows beat Stearns.....	7-5 6-2
Dr. Carroll beat Cashman.....	6-2 6-4
FINALS.
Dr. Carroll beat Barrows.....	6-1 1-6 6-1

It is a great misfortune for the young and middle aged to be gray. To overcome this and appear young, use Hall's Hair Renewer, a reliable panacea.

Honest.

In these days of adulteration and fraud, in all branches of business and pursuits, it is pleasing to know that there is one medicine prepared which is strictly pure. Such a medicine is Sulphur Bitters in curing scrofula; you can depend on them every time.—W. B. Everts, A. M., Charleston, S. C.

PROTECTION COLUMN.

The Services of Gen. Draper.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—

I have read with much interest the contributions to your "Tariff Reform" and "Protection" columns. The plan offers equal opportunity and a fair hearing to each side in controversy and it supplies to the destitute also some of the polemic training which helps to distinguish Congressman Williams from the ordinary man.

Demagogic art on the stump may rely on obscuring the truth by appeals to passion or prejudice or by dodging the issues, but this art is pained in the cold coffin of type and the deadly parallel column is fatal to falsehood and venom.

If an appeal in your columns therefore is prejudiced, insolent or unfair, it will almost surely fail of its object and the reaction of just resentment will advance the cause of an opponent. For this reason the friends of General Draper may welcome the indiscretion of any assault upon his position or his record.

The curious contrast between the signature and the contents of the communication by "Independent" to your issue of the 21st, would strike your readers, if the custom of partisanship had not dulled the edge of the travesty. The "Independent" has advertised himself too often as a victim of the yellow fever of partisanship of a peculiarly malignant type.

It is fair to admit that the real insolence of the common references to the manufacturers of this country is often unconscious. They have been pelted so long with the pet phrases of "robber baron," "haughty plutocrat" and "guiding monopolist" that a milder allusion may even be construed as a compliment, and it is a rare stretch of invention that can offend the hardened ear of the public.

So I would raise no particular objection to the slings and arrows of the individual "Independent" who writes to the GRAPHIC, seeing that they are drawn so obligingly from the ordinary Democratic campaign stock in hand. Will it advance the election of Mr. Williams, however, to sneer at the position and services of General Draper and assail him with hollow suppositions in place of facts?

"Independent" "supposes" that General Draper will be "especially strong in favor of an increase of tariff taxation in favor of the many manufacturing enterprises in which his wealth is invested." This is a bare assumption, implying, if it means anything, that General Draper, if elected to Congress, will urge a further advance of the tariff to expel the present one. This I am authorized to contradict flatly, though it seems hardly necessary to note that the Republican party has the business sense not to attempt to reform prosperity.

"Independent" next remarks that General Draper "does not profess to be a public speaker and will merely add one more to the Republican majority, to vote blindly for free silver laws or any other legislation the managers may dictate." To this sample of independent observation and judgment, no rejoinder is required. Every body in the Electoral District, who is not afflicted with blindness, can see that General Draper is making nightly public speeches of real pith and moment and every intelligent voter in the district knows that it was not the Republican majority in Congress that voted for "free silver" and that General Draper would not vote for "free silver" at anybody's dictation.

Finally "Independent" whacks at General Draper over the shoulders of Andrew Carnegie, quoting a "report" that Mr. Carnegie has contributed $100,000 to the Republican campaign fund and adding sweetly that "General Draper is known to be in full sympathy with him and can probably be depended on to help Mr. Carnegie to get this money back again out of the pockets of the American people." Now if any friend of Mr. Williams will draw the line between this reference to General Draper and arrant demagogism, he will serve the young Congressman better than his advocate has served him.

Permit me to oppose to this style of campaigning a brief recital of what General Draper has done for his home, his state and his country, and your readers may judge for themselves of the fitness of such a man to legislate for the maintenance and advancement of the prosperity of the nation. It was one of the astonishing discoveries of Mr. Williams on the stump that General Draper had "no record of public service well done."

When the war for the Union broke out, William F. Draper was less than twenty years old, but he volunteered at once and took an active part in raising the company with which he went to the field as a lieutenant. His field experience ranged from the Mississippi to the Potomac and he had a fighting hand in some of the most notable battles of the war. He earned every step of his promotion to a brigadier-generalship by distinguished capacity and gallantry in the field.

He was shot through the body while charging at the head of his regiment in the battle of the wilderness. Before his nearly fatal wound was healed, he took his place again with Grant in the field and was shot down again while the party opposed to him to-day was declaring the war a failure.

It is respectfully submitted to the admirers of Mr. Williams that the share of such a soldier in the freeing of the slave and the saving of the nation is a public service that will not shrink by comparison with the contribution of a stumbling block in the way of a Democratic party majority in Congress.

When General Draper returned home from the war, Hopedale was a little village employing some forty American workmen in competition with the cotton spinning machine manufacturers of Oldham and Manchester. To the work of building up this home industry, General Draper devoted himself with such signal energy and ability that to-day the works of which he is the head, employ steadily and well from seven hundred to eight hundred American workmen.

Everybody who has seen Hopedale and is qualified to judge by comparison, knows that it is a model mill town. There is no establishment in the same line abroad that can compare with it in its provisions for the comfort, convenience and health of the working man. It is a standing confutation of the reckless assertion of Mr. Brooks Adams that the interests of the manufacturer are diametrically opposed to the interests of the operative.

The wages paid to the operatives at Hopedale average fully 100 per cent higher than those paid to the operatives in like establishments abroad. For this statement General Draper gives his personal word and it will take more than a sneer to dispose of this warrant.

When George Draper began to introduce an American spindle, the spindle in ordinary use was sold for four dollars and a half. To-day the stimulated invention of Hopedale turns out a spindle for three dollars or less that will spin twice as much and in the aggregate in use in this country will serve as much power as is supplied by the Merrimac River.

Now Republicans believe that the building up of such a town, the employment of Massachusetts workmen, the march of invention and the assurance of industrial independence are public services of very considerable value and that General Draper's share in them will compare favorably with any feats of Mr. Williams in uplifting America.

General Draper has shared also in many other enterprises for the productive employment of American capital and labor and only a very foolish demagogue will pretend that these enterprises have not benefited the country. He has been a close student of economic conditions at home and abroad, with all due regard for the academic experience and other noted qualifications of Mr. Williams. It may be confidently maintained that there will be no material "economic waste" or any other serious affliction to the district, if it should cast its vote for the patriotic soldier, the gallant general, the honorable business man, the up-builder of Hopedale, the expert economist and the true American, General William F. Draper. ELIOT LORD.

The Force Bill.

It does not appear that the so called "force bill" is cutting any figure to speak of in practical campaigning in the East, in spite of the Democratic resolution to leave it up as a political issue. There is no committal to it certainly in the national platform of the Republican party and it is idle to pretend that any specific legislation is pledged in the call for a ballot unstained by fraud as the foundation stone of free Republican government.

But in the fanfare of denunciation of this bill it is curious to observe a perfect ignorance or a wilful hiding of the fact that it is merely the branching out from a root already existing. To listen to the party speakers of the bill, as they themselves, the audiences might naturally suppose that this bill with a bad name was an awful and novel invention conjured up by desperate politicians to convert the practice of one hundred years ago into a military device for the use of the states that they cannot be trusted to regulate and control their elections. Now who would gather from this shocking message that this country has been rolling along comfortably for twenty years under licensed federal interference with congressional elections?

Fully half the objections that the governor brings up against the "force bill" in his eye, strike the actually existing statute. By the law to-day, upon specified application the judges of the circuit courts must appoint supervisors of elections with wide ranging powers to detect and check fraud in registration and in voting. To back up the supervisors, the United States marshal for the district can invest the polls with armed men to detect and check fraud. When two or more citizens apply to him for this protection. Every one of such officers is empowered and directed "to prevent fraudulent voting, by the arrest of offenders with the aid of the by standers, if appealed to, as a posse comitatus."

If it had occurred to the slumbering wits of the Democratic party for the past twenty years to stigmatize the present statute as a "force" statute, the tin pans and drums might have been thumped upon with about as much reason as is shown in the anti-force bill campaign to-day.

Deputy Marshals.

October 26, 1892.
To the Editor of the Newton Graphic:
As there is some curiosity in Newton as to the responsibility for the appointment of United States Supervisors and Marshals at the coming election, I am glad to be able to state the facts. The statute provides that these officers shall be appointed by the Chief Supervisor, in any city of over twenty thousand inhabitants, on a petition filed by two citizens and voters. The Chief Supervisor sent me a blank petition which I put in my waste-paper basket, for, although this statute is a very valuable one in cities like Albany, New York, for instance, where colossal Democratic fraudulent registration has just been discovered, there is no occasion for it whatever in Newton. A prominent Democrat in Ward 5 was anxious to have these officers appointed, and asked a Republican to join him in signing the petition. The Republican came to me, and I did my best to dissuade him, and thought I had succeeded, but his Democratic friend finally induced him to sign the petition on the ground that it would do no harm to him. It has given me a good deal of wholly unnecessary trouble, for I have had great difficulty in finding suitable men who were willing to undertake the duties. I think I have at last succeeded in finding men who are fit representatives of the city. It is only fair to add that I believe the members of the Democratic committee are generally as much opposed to the appointment of these officers as I was. They have, however, one more reason for their opposition than I had. In addition to the fact that these officers are unnecessary in Newton, and that their selection has given a good deal of extra work to the political committees, the Democrats are aware that the adoption of the system will show the citizens of Newton by an object lesson, that the Democratic outcries about the so called Force Bill are entirely unfounded. There is practically no "Force" either in this statute, which has passed about twenty years ago, or in the so called Force Bill. The object of each measure is simply to watch the registration and elections, and report any illegality. Yours truly,
ROBERT H. ZADWINER,
Chairman Newton Republican Com.

A man's idea of practicing economy is to preach it three times a day to his wife.—Aitchison Globe.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

IT IS A DUTY you owe yourself and family to get the best value for your money. Economize in your footwear by purchasing W. L. Douglas Shoes, which represent the best in the world for prices asked, as thousands will testify.

$5.00
$4.00
$3.50
$2.50
$2.25
$2.00

$3.00
$2.00
$2.00
$1.75
$1.75
$1.75

FOR GENTLEMEN
FOR LADIES
FOR BOYS
FOR MISSES

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE GENTLEMEN
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY.
OTHER SPECIALTIES IN FOOTWEAR OF THE SAME HIGH GRADE AND QUALITY, AT THE SAME LOW PRICES.
W. L. DOUGLAS, BROOKLINE, MASS. Sold by A. L. BRYANT, Newton. 2 St.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Y-our best remedy for R-rhysipelas, Catarrh R-rheumatism, and S-crofula.

Salt-Rheum, Sore Eyes A-bscesses, Tumors R-unning Sores S-curvy, Humors, Itch A-nemia, Indigestion P-imples, Blotches A-and Carbuncles R-ingworm, Rashes I-mpure Blood L-anguidness, Dropsy L-iver Complaint A-ll cured by

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Cures others, will cure you

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

MIDDLESEX, SS.

City of Newton.

TO RODNEY M. LUCAS, one of the Constables of the City of Newton. GREETING:

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to warn the citizens of PRECINCT ONE, WARD ONE qualified to vote as the law directs, to assemble at

THE VOTING BOOTH, WABAN PARK.

IN SAID WARD.

On Tuesday, the 8th day of November next.

at seven o'clock in the forenoon, and from that time until twenty-nine minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon, then and there to give in their ballots for thirteen electors, one for each congressional district and two electors at large of President and Vice President of the United States, for a Representative of said Commonwealth in the fifty-third Congress of the United States for the Eleventh Congressional District, for a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, one Counsellor for District Number Three, a Secretary, Treasurer and Receiver General, Auditor, and Attorney-General for the Commonwealth aforesaid; for one Senator for the Second Middlesex District; for two Representatives for Middlesex District Number Seventeen, to represent them in the General Court to be holden in Boston, on the first Wednesday of January next; a District Attorney, for the northern District Middlesex County, a Register of Probate and Insolvency for the unexpired term of Joseph H. Tyler deceased, a Sheriff, Three Commissioners of Insolvency, one County Commissioner and two Special Commissioners all for the County of Middlesex. Also to vote on the following Article of Amendment to the Constitution, abolishing the property qualification for the office of Governor, viz:

So much of article two of section one of chapter two of part the second of the constitution of the Commonwealth as is contained in the following words: "and unless he shall at the same time, be seized in his own right, of a freehold within the Commonwealth of the value of one thousand pounds," is hereby annulled.

All of the above officers and amendment to the Constitution to be voted for on one ballot. The polls will be opened at seven o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at twenty-nine minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon, on the day aforesaid.

And you are directed to serve this Warrant, by posting attested copies thereof in not less than four public places in said Precinct One, Ward One, seven days at least before the time of holding said meeting, and publishing the same in the Newton Journal and Newton Graphic.

Hereof fail not, and make due return of this Warrant, with your doings thereon, to the Warden of said Precinct One, Ward One, on or before the eighth day of November next.

Witness, Hermon E. Hibbard, Mayor of our said City of Newton, on this seventeenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

HERMON E. HIBBARD, Mayor.

The form of warrant is the same in all the precincts and wards, with exception of number and the places of meeting as hereinafter stated.

Precinct 2, Ward 1—Armory Hall, Washington Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 2—Room No. 8, Central Block.

Precinct 2, Ward 2—Tremont Hall.

Precinct 1, Ward 3—City Hall.

Precinct 2, Ward 3—City Hall.

Precinct 1, Ward 4—Auburn Hall.

Precinct 2, Ward 4—Freeman Hall.

Precinct 1, Ward 5—Old Prospect School House.

Precinct 2, Ward 5—Stevens' Hall.

Precinct 1, Ward 6—Associates' Hall, Centre Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 6—Associates' Hall, Centre Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 7—Eliot Lower Hall.

By order of the Mayor and Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. CITY OF NEWTON, OCTOBER 28, 1892.

In pursuance of the foregoing Warrant, I hereby warn the citizens of Newton, qualified to vote as the law directs, to assemble in the several precincts in which they belong, at the time and places and for the purposes therein set forth.

RODNEY M. LUCAS, Constable.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers,

AT FACTORY STORE OF

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

GALEN STREET, - WATERTOWN, MASS.
TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.
FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, clisors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS,
STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD MASS.

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters 5 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal.

New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Union Carpet Cleaning Works
Glen Avenue, near R. R. - Newton Centre.

We solicit your orders in the full belief that we shall give satisfaction.

PRICE LIST.

1 cent per running yard for Taking Up; 3 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wool Carpets. 3 cts. per running yard for Cleaning Brussels or Tapestry. 4 cents per running yard for Cleaning Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters. 5 cents per square yard for Cleaning Turkish Rugs or Carpets. 4 cents per running yard for Laying in the same room. 4 cents per running yard for Refitting. Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight.

All orders sent by mail to Newton Centre P. O. will receive prompt attention. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge.

For Envelopes, Billheads, Cards, Programmes,

Circulars, Posters, try the

GRAPHIC PRINTING OFFICE.

Estimates given.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon. Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas. F. Fairchild speak at City Hall, West Newton, this evening, Oct. 28.

—Pianos, Parley, 433 Wash. St., Newton.

—Miss Eva Groves has returned to Lynn.

—Miss Susie Bigelow is entertaining friends from Worcester.

—Mrs. J. S. Willey is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lupton in Connecticut.

—G. C. Ballou has taken some very good photos of the new clubhouse.

—Y. P. S. C. E. meeting, Universalist church next Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

—Secure reserved seats for the Spaulding illustrated lecture, City Hall, Oct. 31.

—John Beals is out again and able to get around with the aid of crutch and cane.

—Mrs. Lucy J. Cook, the dressmaker, is in New York on a business trip and returns Nov. 1.

—Miss Grace Denison of Wellesley College has been spending a few days at her home on Lowell street.

—Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W. have in preparation the opera "Priscilla" to be given at an early date.

—Frank Bryant of Worcester Academy has been spending a short vacation at his home on Walker street.

—Miss Eva Wright of Westboro, formerly of this place, is visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Mabel Westwood.

—The float of C. N. Allen and its display of stoves and furnaces was one of the notable features of the trade procession, Columbus Day.

—Capt. and Mrs. Galbreth have returned from their summer place at Buzzard's Bay and have leased Mr. W. E. Chaloner's house for the winter.

—A special meeting of the Ladies Sewing circle was held Thursday afternoon in the Universalist church parlors to sew for the fair to be held in December.

—The Newtonville office of the Newton Coal Company is now at John F. Parsons drug store, where the local orders will be received and filled promptly.

—There is something suggestive about that Republican transparency on Claffin's block. Some one, it is thought, should undertake to remove it to a more "central" position.

—The oyster supper given by the Lend a Hand on Thursday evening in the parlors of the Universalist church was enjoyed by all present. A pleasing entertainment was furnished after the supper.

—A very interesting and largely attended praise service with remarks on "Lessons from the Lives of the Early Christians," by Rev. M. Dutton, was held Thursday evening in the Central Congregational church.

—The Newton Club will informally entertain Hon. Chas. F. Fairchild, Hon. G. Fred Williams and Hon. Sherman Hoar in the new clubhouse on Friday evening. The members are invited to meet these gentlemen after 10 o'clock.

—The Republican torchlight parade has been postponed until Monday night. The procession promises to be a good one and over 1000 men will be in line. New features will be added to comprise floats and local surprises. The West Roxbury, Cambridge, Waltham, Somerville and Belmont battalions have accepted invitations to turn out.

—A dramatic entertainment will be given in the Universalist church parlors, Washington Park, on the evenings of Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, and Thursday, Nov. 3rd, when the charming comedietta "Man Proposes" by Sidney Grundy, and "When Greek Meets Greek" by Jerome K. Jerome, will be presented finely cast. Good music. Tickets 35 cts.; children under 12, 25 cts. Doors open 7:15. Curtain rises 7:30. Tickets at Payne's.

—Quartermaster E. E. Stiles of Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., was presented by his comrades with an elegant gold-headed cane Wednesday evening. The cane was dropped in upon him and Capt. Fowler, the first commander made the presentation speech. Mr. Stiles made an appropriate response and after that singing was enjoyed. Bradshaw contributed a poem. "Owed to Stiles" and the festivities wound up with a collation. A fine woven silk badge was presented him by Comrade J. Flood.

—The Newton Club will give a series of Subscription Concerts in the Assembly Hall of the New Club House as follows: Nov. 23, Boston Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Arthur Nikisch, leader; Dec. 13, Adamowski Quartet, Miss Gertrude Edmonds, contralto, Mr. Will H. Dunham, tenor; Dec. 20, Kneisel Quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nikisch; January 17, 1893, Boston Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Arthur Nikisch, leader. The capacity of the hall being limited, it is intended to have the concerts repeated in case a sufficient number of tickets are subscribed.

—The autumn concert of the Universalist Sunday school was held last Sunday in the Universalist church. The decorations consisted of autumn leaves, fall flowers and sheaves of wheat. Suspended from each gas jet was a white and gilt basket heaped high with all kinds of fruit. The decorations were unusually tasty and reflect credit on the young ladies of Mr. Otis Hall's class. The concert consisted of singing by the quartet, an alto solo finely rendered by Miss Emerson, a duet by Misses Davis and Sherwood singing by the school, recitations were also given by Lawrence Parker, Miss Linda Curtis, Edna Noyes, Maude Fennel and Little Dudley Fitch closing with remarks by the pastor, Rev. Ira A. Priest.

—Mr. George H. Shapley has returned from a three weeks hunting and fishing trip in the Berkshire Hills. Mrs. Shapley has also returned from Lenox. She passed a few days in New York City before coming home and had a peculiar experience there. It appears that Mrs. Shapley is known in some of the large New York houses where she occasionally trades. A confidence woman in some way secured her name and address and bought a bill of goods at Stearns Bros. charging them to Mrs. Shapley. The purchase comprised a diamond ring, a pearl and diamond pin and a gold filigree comb. The articles were not delivered to the woman but sent to the Continental Hotel where Mrs. Shapley was stopping. This led to the discovery of the attempted swindle. The woman was, however, too shrewd to call for the goods, ascertaining, probably, that the articles had been forwarded to the real Mrs. Shapley. When she made the selection, she said she would call for the jewelry upon completing some other purchases.

WEST NEWTON

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon. Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas. F. Fairchild speak at City Hall this evening, Oct. 28.

—Mr. William Goulding is visiting relatives in New York.

—Mrs. Clark of Beaumont is visiting friends in this place.

—Mrs. C. G. Pond is entertaining relatives from Pennsylvania.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Travell have returned from Pittsburg, Pa.

—Mrs. W. H. Stewart, who has been seriously ill, is now convalescing.

—Mrs. Barnard has leased Mr. Wetherbee's new house on Berkeley street.

—Mr. Garrison's new houses on Chestnut street are nearly ready for occupancy.

—The janitor of City Hall has two umbrellas, left there last Saturday evening.

—Rev. Dr. France was chosen president of the Baptist Conference at Worcester this week.

—First meeting of the Nuclei Club at house of Mrs. Richard Rowe, to plan for winter's work.

—Mrs. J. Willard Carter has returned from an extended tour through Nova Scotia and the Provinces.

—Mr. V. E. Carpenter is putting up nine new houses on the lot bounded by Hunter, Putnam and Margin streets.

—Republican rally at City Hall, Saturday evening, with Gen. Draper, Mr. Roger Wolcott and Mr. Edward FitzWilliams as the speakers.

—Rev. Dr. Patrick was chosen moderator at the conference preceding the installing of Rev. Mr. Greene as pastor of the North Evangelical church.

—Mr. Theodore C. Severance, formerly a prominent citizen of this place, and father of Mrs. E. C. Burrage, died on the 13th instant at Los Angeles, Cal.

—Yesterday, the Allen school foot ball eleven defeated West Newton 6-0. In the second half, Vedder of the Allen team made a touchdown, from which Hawes kicked a goal.

—There will be an extra session of the board of registrars of voters in the City Hall, this (Friday) evening, between the hours of 7:30 and 9 o'clock. Registration closes Saturday evening at 10 o'clock.

—Kate Fogg, a nurse employed by Mr. H. A. Barker, fell down stairs Tuesday evening, and received injuries about the head of a serious character, necessitating her removal to the Cottage Hospital. She is reported as out of danger.

—Hon. Charles F. Fairchild, ex-Secretary of the treasury during ex-President Cleveland's administration, will be one of the speakers at the Democratic rally to be held in the City Hall to-night. At the close of the meeting, he will be entertained at the Newton clubhouse.

—The Spaulding lecture on California in City Hall, next Monday evening, will be a rare intellectual treat as well as a feast of light and color for the eye. The sixty stereopticon views, many of them painted, are exceptionally beautiful. Reserved seats at Ingraham's.

—The first of the course of lectures delivered by Prof. Lyons upon the "Ruins of Babylon and Nineveh," was given in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening. It was a very interesting one, and a large audience was in attendance. The second will be given the following week in the same place.

—James R. Gaw, while at work painting the house of G. B. Macomber, corner of Crafts and Clifton streets, last Saturday morning, fell from the staging to the ground, a distance of 30 feet, fracturing his skull. He was unconscious for a long time, but finally recovered and it is thought he may get well. Dr. Hunt attended him and he was taken to the Cottage Hospital.

—Miss Virginia Dox will speak next Sunday evening in the Congregational church at the west end of the New West Cambridge among the Mormons. She has been a teacher and will speak from experience. The annual fellowship meeting last Friday evening was well attended and was a very enjoyable occasion. Some former residents returned to review their friendships. About 130 responded to the roll call.

—The members of the Woman's Educational Club will hold their annual reception at the house of Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, Friday evening, Oct. 28th. A large gathering is expected. The club numbers some over 200, and a large waiting list remains. The first meeting in November is devoted to "Summer Outing," by members of the club. The work for the ensuing year, besides that of the regular topics of the fortnightly meetings, will be the study of art under the direction of Mr. Pratt, also current events, studied with Miss Amelia Davis.

—A fair in aid of the building fund of the church of the Messiah will be held at Auburn Hall, Auburndale, Nov. 9 and 10, from three till ten o'clock. The tables will be in charge of the following ladies: Girls' Friendly, Mrs. Matteson, Miss Jones; Kings Daughters, Mrs. Wm. Hinman; Miss Atkinson, Miss Abram, Miss Barnes, Miss Demming; Art Table, Mrs. V. D. Baldwin, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Markham, Mrs. S. S. Whitney, Mrs. George, Mrs. H. H. Henry, L. Jewett, Misses Katsy; Fancy table, Mrs. E. C. Hoyt, Bon Marche, Mrs. Henry Pemberton, Mrs. Chas. H. Sprague, Mrs. Thomas Marley, Mrs. George Shepley; Candy table, Mrs. H. P. Perkins; Mrs. George H. Lowe, Mrs. Frederick Whiting, Mrs. Arthur Brigham, Mrs. John Warland Bird, assisted by Miss Alice Newell, Miss Gertrude Barker, Miss Noat, Miss Nellie Brewer; Refreshments, Mrs. Alfred Brush, Mrs. James Ford, Mrs. H. Bunker, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Wm. I. Goodrich, assisted by Miss Haisdel, Miss Worley, Miss Wills, Miss Brown, Miss Stickney, Miss Ayres, Mrs. Pond. There will be a unique exhibition under the supervision of Miss Brush. Monsieur Courvoisier, a famous French milliner, with two of his best Parisian artists will be at the fair both evenings. He desires only male patrons. Each gentleman will have the rare opportunity of selecting his own hat and trimmings; a prize will be awarded to the most successful competitor. The supper consists of salads, cold meats, etc., and will be served for twenty-five cents. Admission free.

—The English and Classical school celebrated Columbus Day with appropriate exercises. The festival program was devoted to reading, singing and addresses being supplemented by original papers. Commander Wetherbee, ex-Commander S. S. Whitney and Sergeant Ryan, who were present with other members of the Grand Army, addressed the school. Sergeant Ryan gave reminiscences of his twelve years in the U. S. Army. These covered the war of the Rebellion, the Klutuk and Frontier campaigns, culminating in the Battle of Manila. Plans of course rivaled the attention of the pupils, especially, and were very interesting. A large new flag was raised and dedicated. The school is decorated with the flag of the Republic and the American flag and also of Italy and Germany, in recognition, not only of the close, peaceful and friendly relations existing between these countries and our own, but also of the fact that we always have all those nations represented in this school. The singing was spirited and the occasion was one of profit and satisfaction to all.

AUBURDALE.

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon. Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas. F. Fairchild speak at City Hall, West Newton, this evening, Oct. 28.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kipp are visiting friends in New York state.

—Secure reserved seats for the Spaulding illustrated lecture, City Hall, Oct. 31.

—Mr. Wm. Weeks has purchased a new house off Melrose street and is occupying it.

—Mr. C. H. Bess and family have moved into Mrs. Jennings house on Hancock street.

—Conductor Wm. Thayer and family of Riverside will occupy a house on Ash street, Nov. 1.

—Contractor Higgins of Melrose has commenced building another new house on Melrose street.

—Mr. A. F. Winslow of this place has been appointed assistant night editor of the Boston Globe.

—George Palmer of the switch tower at Riverside has gone to Winthrop, Me. Mr. Johnson will return and take the place vacated.

—Horace Lovell, assistant baggage-master at the depot, has secured a position on the A. & A. Riving and is in place at the depot has been taken by Stephen Welch.

—Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Annie G. Hall, daughter of Mr. Chas. H. Hall of this place, and Mr. Harry G. Preston, which takes place Wednesday evening, Nov. 9th.

—Miss Bridget Hannagan and Mr. James Constantine, night freight clerk at the Boston & Albany depot, Boston, were married Thursday evening by Rev. L. J. O'Toole of West Newton. They will reside at Dorchester.

—Mr. Ralph Davenport's horse was frightened by a train passing under the Auburndale street bridge Wednesday, and shied, throwing Mr. Davenport out and injuring the wagon. Mr. Davenport escaped uninjured.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Meacham of Newton, who have been passing the autumn at the Woodland Park Hotel, will spend the winter at the Hotel Huntington, Boston, occupying their apartments early in November.

—Mr. Ralph P. Ahl of Messrs. Ralph P. Ahl & Co. fell dead upon the floor of the Boston Stock Exchange about 1:05 p. m. yesterday. Mr. Ahl and his mother, Mrs. Ahl, are well known here where they have for several years been regular guests at the Woodland Park Hotel.

—The community was pained to hear of the sudden death of Harry Warren Bates, only son of Dr. Geo. A. Bates of Maple street, formerly of Salem. He was a promising young man of nineteen years, graduated from the Salem high school last June and had just commenced his studies for his chosen profession. His early death is a sad bereavement to his parents and friends.

—Miss Annie E. daughter of the late William E. Plummer, and Mr. William Kirk Corey of Brookline were married, last evening, in the Congregational church. The maid of honor was Miss Alice Walker of Melton, were in waiting. A quartet, consisting of Mrs. E. Humphrey Allen, Miss Kaula, Messrs. Geo. J. Parker and C. B. Ashenden, and the harmonizing tones of the organ, presided over by Mr. James Hazard Wilson of New York, furnished a tuneful measure for the bridal procession on its way to the chancel, where the groom and his best man, Mr. Wilbur C. Walker of Melton, were in waiting. The bride was given in marriage by her mother. The maid of honor was Miss Edna Johnson of Auburndale, and the bridesmaids Miss Howard of West Newton and Miss Alice Angier of Newton. The marriage service was conducted by Rev. Calvin Cutler, assisted by Rev. T. W. Bishop. The bride was gowned in white bengaline silk, on train, the bodice and skirt heavily trimmed with duchess lace. Her only ornament was a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white caryanthemums. The maid of honor's gown was white chiffon and lace, and the bridesmaids wore gowns of heliotrope crepe de chine. The flowers of the maid of honor and bridesmaids consisted of corsage bouquets of white caryanthemums. The church decorations were especially attractive and beautiful, comprising a display of autumn foliage and tropical verdure surrounding the pulpit platform. After the ceremony, a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on goddard avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Corey received with Mrs. Plummer. The wedding gifts of great value and beauty were displayed in one of the upper rooms. At the close of the reception, Mr. Corey and his party left for a wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside in Auburndale.

NONANTUM.

—Mr. Cyrus W. Upham of Needham paid a short visit to this village this week.

—A Halloween party will be given by the N. G. S. C. at their rooms on Dalby street, Monday evening, Oct. 29.

—A Republican flag was thrown to the breeze last Wednesday afternoon at the corner of Watertown and Chapel streets.

—Last Tuesday was an eventful day in the history of the North church. It was the meeting of an advisory council and the installation of Rev. Daniel Greene of Maine as their pastor. The action of the church and society has been very harmonious as shown to the council from records. Rev. Dr. Patrick was moderator and Rev. Mr. Gleason scribe. The examination of the candidate was voted to be satisfactory by the church. It was in the afternoon. The ladies provided an abundant collation for the delegates, and in the evening the installation services took place as follows: Invocation, Rev. L. Woodworth; Scripture reading, Rev. G. G. Phipps; anthem by choir; sermon, Rev. Reuben Thomas, D. D., of Brookline; in children; Children's prayer, Rev. W. Calkins, D. D.; charge to pastor, Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D.; anthem by choir; right hand of fellowship, Rev. W. Calkins, D. D.; address to the people, Rev. J. M. Dutton; benediction by pastor. The ladies have been earnestly at work of late and had raised money sufficient to furnish needed chairs for the pulpit platform and carpet in the church. Harvest concert will be given by the Sunday school at 6:30 Sunday evening, to which all are invited.

—A Mistake in the Century Dictionary is hard to find. Its definition of the word "delicious," however, contains an error of omission. The definition, "Pleasing in the highest degree; most sweet or grateful to the senses; as a delicious viand," would have been more complete and intelligible if it had read "as a delicious Ferris Ham." Nothing like a concrete illustration, you know.

The Piano of acknowledged merit
Trustworthiness
Reliability
Sweetness
Volume of tone
The Piano which pleases
Entertains
Satisfies
Gives more music
To the square inch
Keeps sweeter
Lives Longer
Needs little care
Other than plenty of usage
The all-round
Satisfactory Piano
The celebrated
Briggs Piano
We should be pleased to Correspond with you.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Mfrs,
5 & 7 Appleton St., Boston.

Dancing
Classes
at
West Newton.

PROF. L. PAPAETI of Boston will form two classes (advanced and beginners) in connection with the English and Classical School.
Friday, Nov. 11, at 3:30 P. M., in Lyceum Hall.

FOR TERMS AND ADMISSION,
Address N. T. ALLEN, West Newton.

Central Cong'l Church
FAIR
AFTERNOON AND EVENING.
At the Old Club House,
NEWTONVILLE.
A Dime Admits You Safely.
Supper Each Evening ENTERTAINMENTS, and NOVEL ATTRACTIONS.

General Draper.

To the editor of the GRAPHIC:
You kindly printed some words of mine on Congressman Williams last week and now I wish to say a few words more on Gen. Draper, who is so highly extolled for his services in the war and for holding his umbrella over the working-men for whom he says "half a loaf is better than no bread."

Gen. Draper appears to be a very healthy man, and is reported to be a millionaire, but it is said that for years he has been drawing a pension for his services in the war. We have heard of veterans who refused their pensions when health returned or when fortune smiled, so that less fortunate men might have the money, but apparently Gen. Draper is not one of that kind.

River Park.

Opening sale of lots at this new suburb of Upper Falls, Friday, Nov. 4, at 3 p. m. See adv.

Drawing &amp; Painting

—AT—
Lasell Seminary.

MR. HENRY O. RYDER, who has recently returned from abroad after six years' study with the best French Masters, such as Boulanger and Lefebvre, has taken the charge of the studio at Lasell Seminary.

Mr. Ryder has neglected no branch of art, and has been especially successful in figure, genre and landscape. His paintings have received favorable notice at the most important exhibition of modern art, the Paris Salon, in the years '89, '90 and '91, as well as at Berlin and other European cities. Also in America, as at Chicago and Boston. Mr. Ryder is a member and exhibitor of the Boston Art Club.

Mr. Ryder has also had exceptional opportunities of personal acquaintance with leading French artists, and of learning their methods.

With these qualifications are combined some experience in teaching and much aptitude for that work. Lasell feels assured that her pupils in the art department are furnished with special advantages for thorough training. The object is to give students familiarity with fundamental principles, to train the hand and eye; in short to give some mastery of drawing before confining them with the difficulties of color.

The studio is large, admirably arranged and lighted, and furnished with every requisite in implements and models for the learner. The walls are hung with paintings that educate and refine the taste.

Terms $100. for School Year, eight hours each week.

Apply to C. C. BRAGDON, Principal,
44

City of Newton.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS,
1892.
STATE ELECTION NOV. 8th.

Notice is hereby given to all male persons to present themselves for registration and that the Registrars of Voters will hold sessions for the registration of voters and to correct and revise the Ward Lists, from 9 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the evening upon the following dates and at the places herein named:

Newton Lower Falls—Boydell Hall, Saturday, October 8.
Nonantum Athenaeum, Tuesday, October 11.
Newton Upper Falls—Old Prospect School-house, Wednesday, October 12.
Newton—Armory Hall, Saturday, October 15.
At the City Hall on Monday, October 17.
Auburndale—Auburn Hall, Wednesday, October 19.
Newtonville—Room 8, Central Block, Saturday, October 22.
Newton Highlands—Stevens Hall, Tuesday, October 25.
Newton Center—Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Wednesday, October 26, from 7 to 10 o'clock.
Also at City Hall from 8:30 A. M., to 12 o'clock, M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M., daily, October 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28, and Saturday, October 29, from 12 o'clock, M., to 10 o'clock, P. M.
No names can be registered after 10 o'clock P. M., October 29.

All persons whose names are not on the Voting List must appear personally before the Registrars of Voters on either of the days above mentioned, presenting a tax bill of 1892 or evidence satisfactory to the Registrars entitling him to be registered.

All naturalized citizens must present their final papers when they register.
If the father of an applicant was naturalized before he (the son) became 21 years of age, the son is naturalized thereby, and must present the father's naturalization papers.

The names of all persons not assessed in 1892 are taken from the voting list, but such persons can be re-registered by applying in person to the Registrars at any session held for registering voters, and presenting satisfactory evidence to the Registrars of Voters.

Every male citizen of 21 years of age and upwards, who has resided in the State one year, and in the city of Newton since May 1st, 1892, and who shall be able to read and write, shall have the right to vote at the State election to be held November eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety two.

GEORGE E. BRIDGES,
GEORGE H. BOURNE,
AMOS L. HALE,
ISAAC F. KINGSBURY,
City Hall, Newton, September 13, 1892. 51 6t

HIGHLAND VILLAS.
TO LET
Nos. 25, 27 & 29 Highland Ave.
Every modern convenience, speaking tubes, etc., finished in first-class manner, hot and cold water, gas-lighted by electricity, 12 rooms and bath in each house, cellars completed.
APPLY TO
JOSEPH SWALLOW,
416 Newtonville Avenue, Newtonville.

REPUBLICAN RALLY

CITY HALL, West Newton, Saturday Eve., Oct. 29, '92

ADDRESSES WILL BE MADE BY

GEN. WILLIAM F. DRAPER,
HON. ROGER WOLCOTT,
EDWARD FITZWILLIAM.

LADIES ARE CORDIALLY INVITED.

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton.
Private Residences fitted for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Electric Light and Power Installations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates Furnished.

Boston 3311 TELEPHONE, West Newton, 334-2

BARGAINS.

BASS AND IRON BEDSTEADS
H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
70 WASHINGTON ST.
BOSTON.
H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

NEWTONVILLE

Hack Boarding & Livery Stables.
Contain every style of vehicle, single or double.
BERLINS, LANDAUS, COUPES, WITH CAREFUL DRIVERS.
We have constantly on hand Fine Family Horses For Sale.
SPECIAL CARE TO BOARDERS.
Your business is solicited.
LUNT & COLBURN, Proprietors.
ROBERT HILL, Foreman. Office Telephone, 201-2. Stable Telephone 201-3

J. W. MACURDY,
133 Moody Street,
SOUTH SIDE,
WALTHAM,
Dealer in
Fine Millinery Goods.

We are daily receiving New Goods in every department, direct from New York and Boston Importers. Our assortment of

Millinery Novelties
were never better than at present. We keep constantly a large assortment of

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets
which we sell at very low prices, quality considered. We employ none but experienced saleslady makers and trimmers and we guarantee our work to give satisfaction. We especially invite the ladies of the Newtons to visit our store and select their millinery.

133 MOODY STREET,
SOUTH SIDE,
WALTHAM.

HANDSOME HOUSES
Wall Paper
Upholstery
Draperies
Window Shades

We are retail line of Wall Papers and carry an immense variety of Patterns at all prices.

Select them
All in one Store—we Have them all—

And a full line of Draperies, Upholstery, Grill Work, and other Tasteful Furnishings of the home.

And see them
Combined as they
Would appear in
Your own home.

The furnishing of the house is an art, and can be satisfactorily accomplished only when the Wall Paper, the Drapery, the Upholstery, the Ornamental Furnishings can be seen in connection. We carry all of these, and combine them to meet your wishes. You save time, annoyance, uncertainty—see them as they will appear in your home.

107 & 109 Moody St.,
WALTHAM.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

DENTISTRY.
H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
OVER INGRAM'S DRUG STORE.
Refers to many patients of this city.
OFFICE HOURS: 8:30 to 11:45 a.m., 3:30 to 5 p.m.
WEST NEWTON.

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING UNDERTAKER,
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 5119.

House Lots For Sale

On Linwood Avenue, Newtonville,
Desirable in every way.
Purchasers can secure any number of feet desired. Inquire of

HIGGINS & NICKERSON
NEWTONVILLE.

An invitation
To the Ladies
To examine the Newest Styles
Of Garments and Furs
Is extended by the

CENTRAL DRY GOODS

107 & 109 Moody St.,
WALTHAM.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

DENTISTRY.
H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
OVER INGRAM'S DRUG STORE.
Refers to many patients of this city.
OFFICE HOURS: 8:30 to 11:45 a.m., 3:30 to 5 p.m.
WEST NEWTON.

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING UNDERTAKER,
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 5119.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

DENTISTRY.
H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
OVER INGRAM'S DRUG STORE.
Refers to many patients of this city.
OFFICE HOURS: 8:30 to 11:45 a.m., 3:30 to 5 p.m.
WEST NEWTON.

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING UNDERTAKER,
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 5119.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

DENTISTRY.
H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
OVER INGRAM'S DRUG STORE.
Refers to many patients of this city.
OFFICE HOURS: 8:30 to 11:45 a.m., 3:30 to 5 p.m.
WEST NEWTON.

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING UNDERTAKER,
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 5119.

THE SCHOOLS CELEBRATE.

From page 2.

with our noblest purposes and ideals, or shall we leave them to those who would sacrifice public good to private gain? What solution shall we make of the problem of labor and capital? What can we do to make our nation representative of the worthiest ends of human existence and an instrument for fulfilling the purpose of God in the life of man?

These are some of the questions that rise for answer as we stand at the beginning of a new era. I gather hope from our past history that we shall answer them well. I cannot believe that we have been led to this new land, and guided through the troubled periods of our nation's history for nothing. Great as the nation is to-day, I believe that greatness is only the beginning of a career whose faint beginnings only we can now discern. Upon our grand material prosperity we may rear a grander intellectual, moral and spiritual prosperity. The growing ethical spirit of our people, together with the powerful religious forces at our command, furnish ample means to mould our national life into accordance with the highest ideals of righteousness and truth. There is much to fear, but more to hope. And that hope grows stronger, as I look into the faces of the young men and women who are to do the work of the twentieth century, as we who are older have had to do the work of the nineteenth. These reserves of the future are coming, I trust, with the light of grander knowledge shining in their eyes, and a nobler purpose burning in their hearts. Surrounded as they have ever been by the loving care of a nation which has done so much for them, they must be animated with the strong desire to do something for it in return. It is told of St. Thomas Aquinas, that as he knelt before the crucifix he cried, "Lord thou hast done all things for me, what can I do for thee." With something of the same spirit of grateful response to the beneficence of their country, kindled in the breasts of the youth of to-day, I am sure, that whatever perils threaten, and whatever dark days lie before us, it will be well with the republic, which our fathers founded and our brothers maintained.

COLUMBUS DAY PARADE.

NEWTON MAKES A FINE EXHIBITION ON THE STREETS.

The unique feature of the Columbus Day celebration in this city was the parade in the afternoon, much of the success of which is due to the personal efforts of Aldermen Hyde and Sprague. Its best features were the trade pageant, the braves of Norumbega tribe, L. O. R. M., with the famous riding dog, "Tot," on a coal black steed, and the unique advertising caravans of Hyde's Insurance Agency, the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York and the Hickory Bicycle Manufacturing Company. The fire department made a fine showing and the various pieces of apparatus were decked and burnished in the gala dress of holiday attire. Newton steamer (No. 1) the new Amoskeag, was greatly admired. The stores and homes were quite generally decorated along the route of the procession. In Newtonville square, Bradshaw, Willis, the tonsorial artist, the Cleveland & Russell Club, J. F. Payne, F. L. Tainter and the lessees of Tremont block displays of flags and bunting.

The procession formed on Walnut street and moved over the following route, the start being made shortly before 2 o'clock: Walnut to Washington street, Washington street to Centre, Centre to Beacon, Beacon via Lake avenue to Walnut street, Walnut via Erie avenue to the common at Newton Highlands, where the parade was dismissed after being reviewed by Acting Mayor Harbach. The make up of the procession is given below:

FIRST DIVISION.
Platoon of Police, 12 men; City Marshal Richardson commanding.
Quincy Band, 25 pieces.
Chief Marshall Austin F. Sylvester, Chief of Staff C. H. Sprague and 30 men; and Indian Braves, Norumbega tribe, L. O. R. M., with the famous riding dog, "Tot," wearing Colours of Norumbega tribe.
J. Wiley Edwards camp 100, S. V., 25 men.
Newton High School Band, 20 men, Maj. H. F. Page commanding.
Members of the City Government, City Officials and guests in carriages.

SECOND DIVISION.
Alpha Fife, Drum & Bugle Corps.
Assistant Chief of Staff Elliott J. Hyde and Aide.
Norumbega tribe, L. O. R. M., with the famous riding dog, "Tot," wearing Colours of Norumbega tribe.

THIRD DIVISION.
Chief Bixby and Assistant Chief Ralston.
Steamers One, Two and Three, Chemical A & B.
Aerial Ladder, Truck One and Truck Two.
Hyde's Insurance Caravan, Horse Mounted on Wheels, with illustration of burning buildings.
Mutual Life Insurance Co's Caravan, two hand-carried.
H. F. Ross, lumber, sashes, doors, etc., four drays, ten horses.
McAdams Express.
C. O. Tucker, groceries, three wagons.
E. Mouton, groceries, two wagons.
A. H. Roffe, grain and lumber, two drays, two wagons.
C. N. Allen, Mace Furnace and stove display on foot.

FOURTH DIVISION.
Cadet Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps.
George F. Richardson, provisions, one four-horse wagon, five single wagons.
W. O. Knapp, grocer, two horse wagon.
A. W. Mitchell, coal dealer, two horse screw cart, Newton City Market.
Newton City Market, five wagons and five single wagons.
Howard Ice Company, four horse wagon.
Adams Express, three wagons.
Holmes' Chamberlain's and Newcomb & Snyder's Expresses, the latter comprising one four-horse, one two-horse and two single wagons.
Berry's Express, one four-horse wagon.
Mallard's Floral Float.
G. H. Dupre, provisions, four wagons.
O. E. Bowen, groceries, two wagons.
C. A. Harrington, lumber, two two-horse drays, three single wagons.
Johnson's Electric Wagon with full electrical equipment.
Elliott Hickory Cycle Co's advertisement float, a canvas horse mounted on a quadricycle.
Bicycle Squad, 20 men.

The various trade floats and wagons were laden with goods representing the numerous branches of local business. Some of the displays attracted a great deal of attention along the route of the procession, and the people of the city for the first time, perhaps, got some idea of the volume of business carried on in Newton. The manufacturing industries were not so well represented as the committee of arrangements had desired, and in this connection, it may not be generally known that Newton stands fifteenth in the classified list of manufactures in the state. With a scattered territory and widely separated central villages the increase in the growth of the manufacturing business has apparently escaped the notice of the community as a whole, in part due to the location of the plants around the borders of the city, and thus removed from the more populous districts.

The parade was, however, a success, and shows what can be done when energetic hands take hold and set the ball rolling. The time for the country village procession is not to-day in the budding period of the greater Newton, destined to be in the near future not only a largely populated municipality, especially fortunate in a representative citizenship, but also an important business centre, keeping pace with the rapidly developing suburbs of Boston.

WILLIAMS VS. DRAPER.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAMS MAKES A BRILLIANT SPEECH AT NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

Hon. George Fred Williams addressed the Democrats at Newton Highlands in Stevens Hall Saturday evening, making one of the most vigorous speeches delivered by him in this campaign.

The speech was quite a surprise to the audience, as he dealt, with a bravery and courage seldom witnessed on the political platform, with subjects that most politicians are afraid to openly handle. He said:

"Two or three weeks ago I received a pleasant letter referring to my public work from one of the foremost citizens of this commonwealth. I answered him and suggested to him, as he had praised my willingness to do public service, that he was under no less obligation to me, and I would respectfully remind him that he ought to be in readiness to do the public will if it called him to office."

"He answered me thusly: 'That if the people should drag him from his retirement, place him in nomination and elect him without the expenditure of a cent of money on his part or the opening of his mouth in his own behalf, then he should regard public office as an honor.' But he regarded the present duties of a candidate for office as degrading to a man."

"I don't quite agree with him in the severity of his judgment, but this is a task that is not an easy or agreeable one for a man who has done public service, and done it to the best of his ability, to be called upon to advocate his own reelection. It is a task which to me is one of the most disagreeable I have ever undertaken, and it seems almost superfluous that the people of this district should have to record—by their vote—I have accomplished, be it great or small, they have seen me and heard me—it seems, I say, almost superfluous that I should be required to advocate my own reelection."

"It seems as if in this campaign I might have the right to retire from active service in my own behalf and await the verdict of the people on what I have done. And yet, to a member of Congress this might even be an unfair test, for you must remember that Congress is one of the most complicated legislative machines that exists in the world. It is governed by complicated rules, and only very few men at best can get a hearing."

"The service which a man is enabled to do in the first session of Congress, which lasts but a few months, before he is obliged to go to the people again for reelection, is not great. The time is hardly sufficient for a man to gain even a fair equipment in the work of legislation."

"I would not, if I could, be re-elected to Congress, because of the weakness of my opponent. If I am elected at all I wish it to be upon a fair estimate of my ability to do the people's work, to serve my party, and in serving my party to serve the people. That is the only goal upon which I wish to be elected. I have no personal favors to ask of any citizen; I ask no votes upon personal grounds; I ask merely that upon my record I be judged as to my capacity and ability to do the will of the people. (Applause.)"

"If what appears upon the surface of things is all that there is in this campaign I should be satisfied to say nothing as to my opponent, but the campaign which is being conducted upon the stump is one campaign, and that which is being conducted by private hirelings throughout this district is another campaign."

"I am proud to say that I have never permitted any man who is doing my work in a political campaign to go through the district to say in the ears of the citizens privately what I was not declaring openly upon the stump. (Applause.)"

"That is not my style of fighting. It never has been, and God, willing, it never will be. (Cheers) But I have reports every day in this district that I am not only fighting the man who talks to the newspapers, as the candidate of the Republican party, but I am fighting a hidden enemy, who is appealing to prejudice."

"What kind of prejudice? It is being whispered in the ear of the veteran that I am hostile to his interests."

"It is being whispered to the laboring man that I am opposed to him. I have not seen it declared openly yet, but I am informed that the argument is used in conversation everywhere that I am opposed to the laboring man. And, worse than all, and more unjust than all, are the appeals which are being made to the prejudice. I am going to refer to that, I doubt if there is a town in this district where it is not being whispered that I am hostile to what they call the Irishman. Now, if there is any man in politics today who is devoid of the sense of race distinction or race prejudice I can say that from my heart I am that man. (Cheers.)"

"I am not conscious that such a criticism is justified in any respect, but how can I fight such an insidious argument as that appeal to race?"

"Race! There is but one race in this district, and that is the American race. (Applause.) I know no other race. I will recognize no other. I have refused to speak to my constituents in the German language because I will not recognize any language in our politics but the American language. And yet it is being whispered into the ears of all those men who may be bearers of Irish names that I am opposed to the Irish. And why? Why, because in Washington, not upon the floor of the House, but in conversation with a reporter, I denounced the appointment of Mr. Egan as minister to Chili. I denounce it now. (Applause.)"

"A candidate who permits such an argument to be used insults every man who bears an Irish name in this district. 'Why shouldn't I criticize Mr. Egan?' He is a Republican in the first place. Am I not at liberty, as a Democrat, to criticize the appointments of a Republican administration that I believe unfit? Surely, that is my business in politics."

"It is my duty to expose the shortcomings in the administration of the opposing party. Why should I not criticize the appointment of the minister to Chili? Think of it! Because he bears a foreign name I am to shut my mouth? Is no public officer to be criticized who does not bear a name that is distinctly Yankee? When I become such a political coward as that may I not only retire from politics, but may I be kicked out by an indignant constituency. (Great applause.)"

"I propose to criticize everybody that deserves it, not only on the Republican side, but upon my own, if I choose. (Renewed applause.) But I find that I am not alone in this inflection. I find that no less a person than Wayne MacVeagh has been attacked in the same manner. Mr. Williams here read from a speech made by Mr. MacVeagh at Cooper Union, New York, in which he replied to an attack made upon him by the New York Tribune because of a criticism of Mr. Egan in a former speech. Mr. MacVeagh brought out the fact in his reply that his opinion of Mr. Egan was formed by reading the opinions of the New York Tribune expressed before Mr. Egan had become a public office-holder."

Mr. Williams said that he was satisfied that all the Tribune had formerly said of Mr. Egan was true. In addition to that he said that the proof was abundant that Mr. Egan was at the head of a gigantic swindling enterprise down in Chili, the president of which was Mr. Egan's own son, Mr. Williams went on to say:

"I know not only that a man was under suspicion when appointed, but also in the conduct of affairs in Chili. His actions are open to the gravest suspicion. 'I play you, Democrats of Newton, or Republicans, even, would you respect me as your representative if any race prejudice stopped me in denouncing any such debauchery of our administration abroad? And yet, notwithstanding the easy justification I have for that criticism, appeals are being made throughout this district upon race grounds not to vote for the Democratic candidate for Congress.'"

Mr. Williams said there were also appeals being made to the laboring men of the district, but his own labor record was made up, and the people could judge of it.

"But by what right does my opponent attack me on this score? I am informed that he will not recognize in his own factory a labor organization; that he is the hardest enemy of organized labor there is in the commonwealth of Massachusetts. He was the first to break the power of organized labor in the elastic fabric industry. The organization got along well until he entered the field and drove the union men from his shop. More than that. When he cut the union men down to wages for which they would not work, he filled their places with foreigners, and he was so eager to get work and under his hand that he cut them down, and they are to-day working at not living wages, but at what may be well described as starvation wages. That is the kind of labor friendship possessed by my opponent, who criticises one who has some record on the labor question."

"If he wants to know what my labor record is, let him ask the labor leaders who were in the Legislature with me—Senator Howard, Mr. McEtrick, Mr. Moriarty or Mr. Quinn. They could tell him how many labor bills I drew for them, how many I advocated, and the passage of how many they ascribed to my work."

STRUCK WITH A PICK HANDLE.

FOREMAN OF PAVING DEPARTMENT SERIOUSLY ASSAULTED.

John Foster, foreman in the paving department, was seriously assaulted Monday afternoon by John Halloran.

The trouble leading up to the assault dates back several days, when Foster discharged several men who had been working under him on a highway job on Watertown street, in the Nonantum district. On Monday he discharged several more men, Halloran among the number. The men who had been thrown out of employment got together and talked over the situation, and some pretty emphatic talk was indulged in. Halloran taking an active part in the discussion. He finally became so exasperated that he seized a pick handle and stepping up to Foster dealt him a terrible blow over the head, felling him to the ground. Halloran then walked down toward the village, and meeting Officer C. O. Davis gave himself up.

Foster was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to his home. Medical aid was summoned, and it was found that his skull had been fractured. His condition is critical, but is thought that he will recover.

Halloran was very penitent after the affair, and told the officers at the central police station, where he was locked up, that the assault was committed in passion, and that he was very sorry that he had given way to his temper.

He said that Foster had always treated him well, and that he had no excuse to offer for his attack upon him. Halloran is 74 years of age, and has been employed as a laborer in the city service for nearly 15 years. He has borne a good reputation, and has always been sober and industrious. He was arraigned in the Newton police court Tuesday morning. Foster's injuries are so serious that he continued to appear, and the case was continued to Nov. 2 Judge Kennedy, under the circumstances, fixed Halloran's bail at $12,000. He was unable to furnish sureties, and was committed to the house of correction in East Cambridge.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

UNLIKE ANY OTHER.

For INTERNAL or EXTERNAL USE.

Originated by an Old Family Physician.

Think of It. Years, and still leads. Generation after generation have used and blessed it. Every Traveler should have a bottle in his pocket. Every Sufferer From Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Catarrh, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Colic, Cuts, Bruises, Cramps and Pains liable to occur in any family without fail. Delays may cost a life. Believes all sufferers will find in this Old Anodyne Liniment relief and speedy cure. Every Mother Should have Johnson's Anodyne Liniment in the house for Croup, Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Colic, Cuts, Bruises, Cramps and Pains liable to occur in any family without fail. Delays may cost a life. Believes all sufferers will find in this Old Anodyne Liniment relief and speedy cure. Price, 25 cts. per bottle; 6 bottles, $2. Express paid. I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor

326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Mr. Joseph Hemmerlich

An old soldier, came out of the War greatly enfeebled by Typhoid Fever, and after being in various hospitals the doctors discharged him as incurable with Consumption. He has been in poor health since, until he began to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Immediately his cough grew looser, night sweats ceased, and he regained good general health. He cordially recommends Hood's Sarsaparilla, especially to comrades in the G. A. R.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Habitual Constipation by restoring peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

Newton City Market.

ALL KINDS OF

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME.

Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,
Canned Goods, Fruit,
and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

Ripans Tabules prolong life.

G. W. RIGBY,
Carpenter and Builder.

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN
NEWTON MASS.

Ripans Tabules relieve nausea.

GEO. W. BUSH,
Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes,

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the duties constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.
WM. H. PHILLIPS

Newton National Bank,
NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:
From 9 A. M., to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.
On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 2 P. M.
JOSEPH N. BACON, President
B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.
INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.
JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.
JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.
Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Murdoch, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William D. Clark, Charles E. Hings, William C. Strong, Charles A. Minor, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward and Chas. T. Pulsifer.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT:
James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdoch.
CHAS. A. MINER, Clerk and Auditor.
H. W. MASON, Attorney
Interest begins on deposits on the 10th day of January, April, July and October.

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1887.

West Newton, Mass.
AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.
JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Ben. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Fred C. Crockett, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Gate, Adams R. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter. Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.
Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.
Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Don't Drink Impure water longer by a good filter. They will fit a faucet which er it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

"Improvement the Order of the Age."
THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER
LEADS THEM ALL
In Improvements of the Highest Order.

Send for Catalogue.
SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER CO.,
25 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON, MASS.

never wants to learn, but the

WISER MAN reads that

OLD HONESTY
CHEWING TOBACCO

is the best that is made, and at ONCE tries it, and saves money and secures more satisfaction than ever before. AVOID imitations. Insist on having the genuine. If your dealer hasn't it ask him to get it for you.

JHO. FINZER &amp; BROS., Louisville, Ky.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES THIS YEAR.

The Only Perfect Lawn Mower.

Lightest Draft. Most Durable.

OVER 500,000 SOLD.

The genuine have the maker's name cast on one wheel, and the words "Philadelphia Lawn Mower" on the other.
All that have not are inferior imitations that won't last; don't buy them; you can get the genuine for the same money.
On large lawns the Philadelphia Horse Lawn Mower is economical, and gives splendid satisfaction.

FOR SALE BY

BARBER BROS.
415 Center Street.

(Opposite Public Library.)

Manufacturers Agents for Newton.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

BOSTON OFFICES: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 83 Court St., Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market.
NEWTON OFFICE: At H. B. Coffin's. Order Boxes at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'.
Leave Newton at 9.30 a. m.
Leave Boston at 3 p. m.

NEWCOMB &amp; SNYDER, NEWTON &amp; BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 a. m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p. m.
NEWTON OFFICE: 334 Centre Street. Order Box: Newton City Market. BOSTON OFFICES: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Haverhill Ave. Extension. Post Office address Box 420, Newton.

Personal Attention Given all Orders.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Frocker's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

J. H. LOOKER,

French Cleansing and Dyeing

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine

Linen and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carlton Street,

NEWTON, MASS.

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library

Residence, Boyd street, near sweet.

P. O. Box, 656, NEWTON, MASS.

J. HENRY BACON.

Successor to Francis Murdoch &amp; Co.

Dry Goods &amp; Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &amp;c.

BACON'S BLOCK.

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St., NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American

Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty.

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass

A Warranted

Tooth

For 25c.

ARTHUR HUDSON.

ANALYTICAL - - - CHEMIST,

OPPOSITE DEPOT, NEWTON.

Telephone 253-2.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses.

Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages let for business or pleasure

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

M. C. HIGGINS

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

-AND-

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Summer's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

ESTABLISHED IN 1896

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent of the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, and at all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Come and hear Gen. Draper, candidate for Congress, Saturday evening in Associates Hall.

—Hon. George Fred Williams, Hon. Sherman Hoar and ex-Secretary Chas. F. Fairchild speak at City Hall, West Newton, this evening, Oct. 28.

—Pianos, Farley, 334 Wash. St., Newton.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Ruhe have returned home.

—Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bright. A daughter.

—The torchlight parade is postponed to Monday evening, Nov. 7.

—Miss Agnes Collier has removed from Ripley to Knowles street.

—Associates Hall is undergoing needed improvements externally.

—Hear the Brookline Glee Club Saturday evening in Associates Hall.

—Miss Ellen Blake of Worcester is at the Hotel Pelham for a few weeks.

—Mrs. Elisha Bassett and daughters will remove to Boston to-morrow Monday.

—Miss Clara Armstrong has returned from Nova Scotia with improved health.

—Oliver J. Hall from Nantucket has secured a position at W. O. Knapp's store.

—The residence of Mr. W. E. Webster, Beacon street, is being repaired and improved.

—The voters of this ward are privileged to hear Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge Saturday evening.

—Mr. Andrew F. Leatherbee and family have taken a house in Boston for the winter season.

—Mr. Holden, station agent, is rapidly recovering from his injury, caused by the runaway horse.

—Call at W. A. Parks & Co. and see the celebrated Hygienic health shoe for ladies and gentlemen.

—Rev. L. C. Barnes has been chosen president of the Massachusetts Baptist Charitable Society.

—A Republican flag will be raised over Station street from Cousins' to White's block, in a few days.

—Mr. Joseph R. Leeson was made a visiting member at the meeting of the Boston Press Club last week.

—An inside porch is being built about the door of the Baptist church for better protection during the winter season.

—Mr. Ward M. Tenney of Newbury street, Boston, has recently purchased a fine estate on Chestnut Hill road.

—Mr. Frank Clarke has sold his house on Ridge avenue and purchased one of Mr. H. H. Read's on Greenwood avenue.

—Special attention is paid to repairing shoes and rubbers by W. A. Parks & Co. Best workmanship and the best of stock.

—Rev. J. J. Peck of Dunbarton, N. H., was here on Columbus day and called on quite a number of his Newton Centre friends.

—The friends of Mr. C. A. Clark of Cypress street will be pained to learn of his dangerous illness from malarial fever and gastritis.

—Rev. Geo. S. Ballou of this village has been chosen secretary of the Northern Baptist Educational Society and Dr. Hovey is one of the directors.

—Mrs. R. R. Bishop has been chosen one of the vice-presidents of the Women's Home Missionary Association and Mrs. Geo. M. Boynton a director.

—The prohibitionists had a large attendance at their rally last evening. The following addresses were made by Rev. W. H. Cobb, Hon. Wolcott Hamlin and Rev. John L. Malle.

—Rev. A. L. Wadsworth and family remove to Rockland, Mass., next week. Mr. Wadsworth accepted a call there by the Baptist society last spring and has preached there during the summer.

—Rev. George Bullen, D. D., of the Newton Baptist Theological Institution, preached Sunday morning at the Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Barnes, preaching at Wesleyley College.

—Mrs. Porter's house, corner of Gibbs and Centre street, which has been moved around to face on Gibbs street, is being entirely remodelled and when finished will be one of the most attractive houses on the street.

—Mr. Wm. F. Woodman's little boy was stricken down with a severe attack of diphtheria last week and it became necessary to take him to the Newton Cottage Hospital, where it is understood he is beginning to improve.

—Mr. Geo. H. Loomer has sold his shoe business to Mr. W. A. Parks of Newton. Mr. Loomer has gone to Nova Scotia for a short time, leaving his accounts with Walter Thorpe for collection. Those indebted will please pay at once.

—Mr. Wallace M. Leonard, son of Mr. Alonzo H. Leonard, and Miss M. C. Emery of Orange, Mass., were married in Boston on Tuesday. Their home will be in Philadelphia, where Mr. Leonard is connected with a large book publishing house.

—Until the completion of its new building the services of the Unitarian society are held in Associates Small Hall, on Sunday afternoons at 3.45. The subject of Rev. Mr. Bowser's sermon next Sunday is "How we may come to know God." All are invited.

—The first social of the Baptist society, after the summer vacation, was held last evening in the chapel, and took the form of a reception to the students of the Newton Baptist Theological Institution. The usual social features were enjoyed and a collation served.

—There is some talk of running a special wire to Associates Hall to bulletin the returns on election day. The ground has been looked over by the western wire, and if enough public interest is manifested, the idea will be carried through and the returns received at the hall by telegraph.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mason, who will entertain at dinner the speakers for the Republican rally to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at Associates Hall, have issued invitations to a large number of prominent ladies of Newton, to meet the gentlemen between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

—Last Sunday at the sewer pumping engine the sound of hammers and saws making alterations about the shanty, mingled with the noise of the pumping engine, disturbed the Sabbath stillness as people were going to church. Many are asking who is responsible for this disturbance and why, if the pumping is necessary, alterations about the buildings must be tolerated in addition.

—The Oak Hill school was raised Friday morning, Oct. 21. The raising session of school was observed as Columbus Day. A letter of thanks was sent by the pupils to Mr. Charles Dickens, who has so kindly and generously aided in securing their flag. The citizens met at the school hall in the evening for short but interesting exercises. Reading of Proclamation, Rev. Mr. Mick, Prayer, Rev. Lyman King. Pupils express gratitude to citizens for money which purchased the flag. Patriotic songs by audience and school.

—The Newton Christian Endeavor Union held its first regular meeting of the season Monday evening at the First Congregational church. The church was well filled with Y. P. S. C. E. workers from all parts of the city and President A. L. Harwood of the Newton Centre society presided. The address of the evening was given by Mr. George W. Coleman, president in Christian Endeavor work who took for his subject, "Christian Endeavor in the Nineteenth Century." The address was very interesting and with social, literary and musical features and a collation served during the evening, the whole was one of great enjoyment.

—An entertainment, complimentary to Miss Alice Thaxter Reed, will be given in Associates Small Hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, at 8 o'clock. Miss Reed will be assisted by Mr. Mart Dow. Boston's noted humorist, Miss Bowker, the well known contralto, and Miss C. Blanche Rice, accompanist and pianist, who is so favorably known to Newton audiences. A scene from the play of "Mary Stuart" in which Miss Reed will be assisted by Miss Pauline A. Russell, a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory. Tickets may be obtained at the drug store of Mr. J. J. Noble.

—Mr. A. Henry Eames, the expressman, injured his left foot severely on Monday while unloading a heavy machine at Newton Highlands. His team was backed up near the new clubhouse of the Highland Club the horse obstructing the electric track. He was ordered to move his team by the conductor or motorman of a car which came up when the machine was half unloaded and falling to this one of the car men took hold of the horse and started him up, dropping the heavy machine to the ground and badly crushing Mr. Eames left foot which was caught under it. He is about some but has to use crutches.

—The Saturday Evening Gazette says of our honored citizen, the venerable Dr. S. F. Smith, the retired clergyman of Newton Centre, who wrote the words of "America," was 84 years old on Friday; by a curious coincidence, upon the very day when the country over, thousands upon thousands of children were singing his world famous hymn. Dr. Smith was a classmate at Harvard, of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, a member of the class of '29, that contained so many brilliant minds. The Rev. James Freeman Clarke, Judge Curtis, Prof. Benjamin Pierce, Judge Bigelow and many others, have passed away. Of the sixty men who graduated, there are living but five: Dr. Holmes, Dr. Smith, the Rev. Samuel May, Mr. Charles S. Storow and Dr. Cummings of Newport.

—The Columbus Day exercises at the Hyde school were carried out according to the program and were of much interest. A large number of our residents were in attendance to witness the ceremonies. A detail from the G. A. R., Comrades Gott O'Connor and Ogden were present. Reading of the proclamation by Comrade Gott the hoisting of the flag by Comrade O'Connor, the address by Miss Bragdon and the ode by Miss Brackett, and the singing of America closed the exercises, every portion of which was most successfully performed.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic, it was a noble contribution to the literature of the Columbian anniversary. The Methodist church in this village has secured Mr. Shatto for the ensuing year, and the public generally enjoyed this opportunity of hearing him.

—The Columbus day service held by the Methodist society in Lincoln hall, on Sunday evening, was up to the pitch set for these festivities all over the country. The hall was beautifully decorated. A quartet soloist and quartet consisting of Mrs. Hyde, Miss Stevens, Messrs. Brickett and Brigham, rendered excellent music, and led the congregation in the patriotic strains suitable to the day. Mrs. F. A. Johnson read the Columbus ode very effectively, with a taste and expression, leaving little to be desired. In his address, "America's Place in History," the Rev. C. A. Shatto seemed inspired by the greatness of his theme and carried his large audience with him from start to finish. It is impossible in this brief notice to sketch the line of thought of this brilliant address. Scholarly, devout, and patriotic